FAVORITE

The Ravens have embraced a new era under Head Coach, Chris Hines. The team is led by Offensive Coordinator, Nick Samac. The Ravens' Offensive Line includes returning All-Pro offensive tackles Orlando Brown Jr. and Ronnie Stanley, as well as Pro Bowl offensive guard Marshal Yanda.

1st-round pick Jaden Williams (Outside Linebacker) joins a talented group of linebackers that includes Pro Bowl selections Terrell Suggs and Matt Elam. The defense is anchored by All-Pro defensive end Yannick Ngakoue and rising star Chris Harrison, who returns from a season-ending injury in 2020.

The Ravens are counting on young players to step up in key roles, such as quarterback Lamar Jackson, who enters his fifth season as the team's starter.

OFFENSE

PASSING

Quarterback Lamar Jackson enters his fifth season as the team's starter. He is joined in the backfield by veteran running back Mark Ingram II, who led the league in rushing yards per game last season.

The Ravens have topped the league in yards per game, but they have struggled to convert those yards into touchdowns. Jackson's completion percentage is down from his career-high in 2019, and he has thrown more interceptions than he did in any previous season.

Rushing

The Ravens were the league's top rushers in yards per game and yards per carry, led by Ingram and J.K. Dobbins, who were both drafted in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Receiving

The Ravens' receiving corps is led by tight end Mark Andrews, who set a career-high in receptions and yards last season.

DEFENSE

Defensive Line

The Ravens boast a dominant pass rush, led by edge rushers Yannick Ngakoue and Matt Elam. Defensive tackle Michael Pierce has been a key contributor, setting a new career-high in sacks.

Linebackers

The Ravens' linebacking corps is anchored by standout linebacker Tyus Bowser, who is poised for a breakout season after returning from injury.

Secondary

The Ravens' secondary is led by Pro Bowl cornerback Marcus Peters. Safety DeShon Elliott has emerged as a key playmaker, setting a career-high in tackles.

Special Teams

The Ravens have a strong special teams unit, led by Pro Bowl kicker Justin Tucker. Punter Sam Koch has been a consistent presence, setting a career-high in net punting yards.

HISTORY

The Ravens were established in 1996 as an expansion team in the National Football League. The team is currently coached by John Harbaugh, who has led the Ravens to four Super Bowl appearances (2000, 2001, 2013, 2019).

The Ravens have a storied history, with notable players such as Joe Flacco, Torrey Smith, and Ray Rice. The team has also had success in the playoffs, including a Super Bowl victory in 2000 and a Super Bowl appearance in 2013.

The Ravens' current roster includes many notable players, including quarterback Lamar Jackson, running back Mark Ingram II, and tight end Mark Andrews.

The Ravens are one of the most competitive teams in the NFL, and they have earned the respect of their opponents and fans alike.

KEY PLAYERS

Lamar Jackson, QB: The Ravens' starting quarterback, Jackson is a dual-threat player who can throw and run the ball with ease. He has set numerous franchise records and led the team to its best season in years.

Mark Ingram II, RB: The Ravens' running back, Ingram is a tough runner who can break tackles and score touchdowns. He has been one of the league's top rushers in yards per game.

Mark Andrews, TE: The Ravens' tight end, Andrews is a versatile player who can catch passes and block. He has been a valuable member of the offense in recent years.
