NFL WEEK 9: RAVENS (5-2) AT BROWNS (2-6)

Nov. 4, 2012 • 1 P.M. ET • CLEVELAND BROWNS STADIUM (73,300)

JUST THE FACTS

• The Baltimore Ravens, owners of the AFC's second-best record and winners of four of their last five games, play at the 2-6 Cleveland Browns this Sunday, Nov. 4. Game time at Cleveland Browns Stadium is 1 p.m. ET. The Ravens have won an NFL-best 10-consecutive division games and are coming off their bye weekend. (Baltimore has won all four games after a bye under head coach John Harbaugh.)

• Prior to their bye week, a beat-up Ravens team was thumped, 43-13, in Houston on Oct. 21. Houston QB Matt Schaub threw 2 touchdown passes, and RB Arian Foster ran for 2 more in a contest that saw the Texans take a 29-3 halftime lead. Houston dominated in almost every category, outgaining the Ravens 420 to 176 in total yards and owning the time of possession battle, 38:16 to 21:44. Highlights for Baltimore included 2 K Justin Tucker field goals of 51 and 54 yards. The game also featured the return of OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, who missed the first six games on the PUP list (Achilles). The Browns beat the visiting Chargers, 7-6, last Sunday, with RB Trent Richardson rushing for 122 yards.

• At 5-2, the Ravens lead the AFC North, one game better than second-place Pittsburgh (4-3). The Bengals, who also had a bye last weekend, are third at 3-4, while the Browns are in the fourth position. In Week 4 (Sept. 27), the Ravens beat the Browns, 23-16, in a Thursday night showdown at M&T Bank Stadium.

• The Ravens are in a stretch that includes four of five games on the road. Following the trip to Cleveland, the Ravens play their lone M&T Bank Stadium contest of November when the Raiders visit on Nov. 11. Baltimore is at Pittsburgh on Nov. 18 and at San Diego on Nov. 25.

HARBS SAYS

"Everything we've done since our last game is geared towards going to Cleveland and being the best team we can be. We have everything we need – players and schemes – to play well. We have to organize it in a way that gives our players the opportunity to play their fastest and best under pressure on the road and at home. We've had the chance with the bye to go into deep study and into the laboratory to figure out what we do best, and we want to take that into this game – and the other eight after that. We think we've learned a lot, and we'll continue to push the envelope to be the best we can be. Our players are definitely good enough to get the job done."

INJURY REPORT

DT Ma'ake Kemoeatu (knee) missed the game in Houston, and there were no new injuries reported after that contest. WR/RS David Reed (knee) is on the PUP list. The following players are on Injured Reserve: LB Ray Lewis (arm, designated for return), starting CB Lardarius Webb (knee), RB Damien Berry (neck/shoulder), LB Ricky Brown (head), S Emanuel Cook (leg), OLB Michael McDoo (Achilles), DT Ryan McBean (ankle) and WR Tommy Streater (foot).

NOTE THE QUOTE

ED REED ON PLAYER LEADERSHIP

"We miss Ray [Lewis], but look around this team and you see a lot of leaders. That guy (pointing at Joe Flacco) is a heckuva leader. So is Ray Rice, 'Q' [Anquan Boldin] and Matt [Birk]. Even young Torrey [Smith] is beyond his years. On our side of the ball, there's Haloti [Ngata], Bernard [Pollard] and Jameel [McClain]. We have 'Sizzle' [Terrell Suggs] back; he takes charge. I think we're going to be OK from a leadership standpoint. But, before any of that, we have to do our jobs better, and we will. We have good coaches."

WHAT'S GOING ON?

RAVENS HAVE NFL-BEST DIVISION WIN STREAK

Since John Harbaugh started coaching the Ravens in 2008, Baltimore has produced a 19-7 record in AFC North play. That ranks as the NFL's third-best mark by a team vs. its division over the past four-plus seasons. Impressively, the Ravens have won 10-straight division games, ranking as the NFL's longest such active streak.

SPOTLIGHT: ALBERT McCLELLAN

Pos: LB   Ht: 6-2   Wt: 245   Exp. (NFL/Ravens): 2/2
College: Marshall   Hometown: Lakeland, FL

The Ravens have three starting LBs who are undrafted free agents. What does that say about you guys? "We work hard. We are always hungry, never full. That's something that those guys told me since Day One. We are still out here eating. Everybody still has hunger in their stomach. We are out here grinding each and every day to prove ourselves."

What football player did you look up to when younger? "Emmitt Smith. I could've sworn I was going to be a running back, but I was always too slow. My mother was a diehard Cowboys fan, so that's why I idolized Emmitt Smith. Ray Lewis was always our local hero, so everybody loved Ray in high school, and then when he went to 'The U' [University of Miami], everybody followed Ray in our hometown. Everybody wanted to be the next big thing to come out of our hometown, so Ray pretty much set the standard for football in our area."

What is your favorite thing to do away from football? "I like to go bass fishing in Florida fresh water. The first thing I did when I got some money was buy a boat."

If you weren't playing football, what would you like to be doing for a career? "I would like to be an athletic director at the college or high school level, helping the kids get out of our area down in [Lakeland] Florida, since the crime rate is up. A lot of recruiters come down there to get those kids out of the area, but they get trapped down there. That would be my goal – to better the kids' lives."

What does it mean to you to be a Raven? "To be a part of the Ravens, you have to be something special. There is something unique or something special about you for them to keep you here. Looking at it as, 'I am a Raven,' I am special – there is a reason why they are keeping me here, and I want to keep showing why."

What was your favorite show as a kid? "Family Matters."

Favorite TV show now? "Family Guy."

If you were going to eat one unhealthy meal, what would it be? "A big slab of ribs and an apple pie."

If you could be any superhero, who would you be? "The Hulk. The way he explodes and gets mad resembles me on the football field."

NUMBERS TO RAVE ABOUT

9-0

The Ravens' record vs. Cleveland during the John Harbaugh and QB Joe Flacco Era (since 2008).

131

Receiving yards on 9 catches by WR Anquan Boldin in the Ravens' Week 4 win over Cleveland. In four games vs. the Browns as a Raven, Boldin has 21 receptions for 320 yards and 2 TDs.

226-107

How the Ravens have outscored the Browns during Baltimore's current nine-game winning streak over Cleveland.

QUOTH THE RAVENS

BALTIMORE

FOOTBALL

“The key is reacting, but not overreacting – understanding that there is opportunity in this whole thing, that it’s a 16-game season, that it’s a tough league, and if you get so enamored, self-centered around your own situation, then you kind of miss the forest for the trees. This is just part of the process of building a football team. As we’re building a football team that we hope becomes a great football team by the end of the season, these are the kinds of things that you’ve got to work through. And there [are] not too many teams, at some point in time, that don’t have these types of things to work through.”

- John Harbaugh on the Ravens bouncing back after their defeat at Houston

The Baltimore Sun’s Matt Vensel on OLB Terrell Suggs’ return from a torn Achilles suffered this past April:

“It wasn’t just that he played so soon; it was that he played so well. It seemed like the best-case scenario for the Ravens would be that Suggs would be a shadow of himself by the time the playoffs rolled around. But based on how Suggs played against a good Texans offensive line, and on how hard the 30-year-old linebacker is now willing to work to become a truly great player, the NFL better make sure his name is printed on the Pro Bowl ballots. That may sound like crazy talk, too, but Suggs, barring a setback, will get nine more games to build his resume.”

LB Jameel McClain on if the defense’s frustration is growing and the unit’s mindset entering Week 9:

“I feel that the defense is disappointed in their performance. I feel like we all are disappointed in what we’ve done at this point. But now, at this point, at the bye [week], we have the chance to look back and see how we can correct what we’ve done, and how we really can get better and how to work on our strengths and [minimize] our weaknesses to get them out of there as much as we can. It’s definitely frustrating, because we know it’s a higher standard in this organization, and we are here to uphold it. It’s something that we’ve done before, and we still can continue to do it. We just have to get it done.”

Wide Receivers Coach Jim Hostler on WR Torrey Smith:

“He’s the ultimate player for a coach to have. He’s enthusiastic, light-hearted. He works so hard, and he’s so conscious of everything he sees himself do, and he learns from others. Those are all the qualities you want out of a player and very rarely do you get them.”

The Sporting News’ Vinnie Iyer on what makes the AFC North one of the NFL’s best divisions:

“There are style points handed to this division. There’s no doubt this is the most physical, most defensive-minded quartet. Every team is built to beat each other up in the most brutal part of the schedule, and nothing is more beautiful.”

CBS analyst Ian Eagle on TEs Dennis Pitta and Ed Dickson:

“From what I’ve seen of Dennis Pitta, he has a chance to be a star. And with the way the NFL is headed, the combination of Pitta and Dickson could be lethal.”

Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti on GM Ozzie Newsome:

“In a highly-charged, competitive business, I tend to want answers right away, and Ozzie has to sleep on it. I have learned that Ozzie’s insistence that we talk about it tomorrow has been beneficial to both John [Harbaugh] and myself. I like his skill set, and I think it works in our favor that he does tend to like to think things over, and we usually come up with better decisions because of it.”

Pat Shurmur on the challenges S Ed Reed imposes, especially against a young quarterback:

“Well regardless of who’s quarterback, you’ve got to know where No. 20 is. And he’s a very instinctive guy. When you watch the way he plays, it’s obvious that he studies the game. You can see he’ll lean on a tendency you might have, and I don’t want to say cheat, but anticipate what you’re going to do. And I think that helps him, and he’s just got great instincts. ... He’s got probably some of the best ball skills in the league, regardless of position. So, all that makes for what you’re looking for in a safety, and he’s played safety in this league at a high level for a very long time. And I think his talent and his experience and his instincts are all right there.”

LB Ray Lewis on focus and the journey of an NFL season:

“I take it all the same way. Whether it’s a win, don’t get too high, and when it’s a loss, don’t get too low. I’ve been saying this for a long time, that the season is a long journey. If you start reading press clippings where they say, ‘They’re the greatest team ever,’ then you’re going to get complacent. You’re not going to come back and work as hard. If you lose a game, they say, ‘They aren’t as good as they say they are,’ and then you’re going to start questioning yourself. You don’t have to go through that. All we have to do, like Coach [Harbaugh] says, is keep stacking wins on top of wins.”

RB Ray Rice on having a balanced offensive attack:

“It’s great to see this offense evolving with the changes that are happening in the NFL. This is a pass-friendly league now, but we still do have some running backs in the league, including myself. We can evolve with the change, which means that’s catching the ball, running the ball and pass protection. That’s what the running back position is now. The faster you can evolve with the change, the longer you’re going to last in the NFL.”

BROWNS SNAPSHOT

Overview: At 2-6, the Browns are in fourth place in the AFC North. Last week, Cleveland won its second-consecutive home game in a 7-6 victory over the visiting Chargers. The Browns are winners in two of their last three games overall.

Pat Shurmur: Shurmur is in his 14th season as an NFL coach, including his second at the helm in Cleveland, where he has posted a 6-18 mark. Prior to joining the Browns, Shurmur spent two seasons (2009-10) as the offensive coordinator in St. Louis and 10 seasons as an assistant with Philadelphia (1999-2008). During his NFL tenure, he has made seven playoff appearances, won five division titles and recorded one Super Bowl appearance.

Offense: The Browns' 19.3 points per game rank 25th in the NFL. Rookie QB Brandon Weeden has completed 165 of 299 passes for 1,912 yards, 9 TDs and 10 INTs (tied for NFL's second most). RB Trent Richardson has 127 carries for 470 yards and 5 TDs and also leads the team with 25 receptions for 209 yards and 1 score.

Defense: The Browns' defense is ranked 26th overall (392.4 ypg), including 25th in pass defense (260.8 ypg) and 24th vs. the run (131.6 ypg). The unit has forced 16 turnovers (10 INTs, 6 FRs), tied for the league's fifth most. Four different players have posted multiple interceptions, while LB D'Qwell Jackson owns a team-high 3 sacks.

RAVENS LAST GAME: HOU. 43, BAL. 13

A banged up Ravens' team, playing its first game without recently-injured LB Ray Lewis and CB Lardarius Webb, lost at Houston, 43-13, in a battle that featured the AFC teams with the best records (5-1). Houston QB Matt Schaub threw 2 TD passes, and RB Arian Foster ran for 2 more, while the Texans' defense added a safety and a TD with 1 of 2 INTs against QB Joe Flacco. Baltimore started well, taking a 3-0 lead on K Justin Tucker's 51-yard FG. After forcing back-to-back "three-and-outs" on the Texans' first two possessions, Houston's defense scored when Flacco was tackled for a safety by LB Connor Barwin. Houston took advantage of the next possession, completing a TD drive when Schaub hit WR Kevin Walter with a 25-yard TD strike for a 9-3 lead. CB Johnathan Joseph then stole a Flacco pass and raced 52 yards for another TD to give the Texans a 16-3, second-quarter lead. The rout was on. By halftime, Houston led 29-3 after a Schaub-to-TE Owen Daniels TD and 2 K Shayne Graham FGs (33 and 29 yards). Showing the fight they kept all game, the Ravens came back with a TD in the third quarter when Flacco hit WR Tandon Doss on a 15-yard pass. Foster then added his 2 TD runs (1 and 2 yards) around another impressive Tucker FG (54 yards) to complete the scoring. Houston dominated in almost every category, outgaining the Ravens 420 to 176 yards and owning time of possession (38:16 to 21:44). Flacco completed 21 of 43 for 147 yards, and Schaub was 23-of-37 for 256 yards and a 100.7 rating. Houston rushed for 181 yards, with Foster gaining 98 on 19 carries. RB Ray Rice ran 9 times for 42 and was limited to 12 yards receiving on 5 catches. The game featured the first appearance of the season for OLB Terrell Suggs, who was the NFL's 2011 Defensive Player of the Year and had torn his Achilles in April. Suggs notched 4 tackles, 1 sack and 1 PD against the Texans.

STANDOUTS VS. BROWNS

WR ANQUAN BOLDIN

G	Rec.	Yds	Avg.	LG	TDs	1st	25+
6	27	431	16.0	51	3	20	5

- Boldin had 9 catches for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) in the Ravens' 23-16 Week 4 (9/27) win.

QB JOE FLACCO

Record	Att.	Cmp.	Pct.	Yds	TDs	INT	Rate
9-0	244	151	61.9	1,884	11	5	92.3

- In the Ravens' 23-16 Week 4 (9/27) win, Flacco passed for 356 yards, 1 TD and 1 INT, connecting on 3 passes of 25+ yards.
- Flacco passed for 262 yards and 3 TDs and a 128.7 rating – third highest of his career – during the win vs. Cleveland on 9/26/10.

S ED REED

G	TT	Solo	AS	INT	TDs	FF	FR	Sk-Yds	PD
20	73	64	9	10-356	3	1	0	0-0	21

- Reed has more INTs (10, tied vs. Cin.), INT return yards (356), and INT-TDs (3, tied vs. Cin.) vs. the Browns than any other opponent.
- On 11/7/04, he set a then-NFL record with a 106-yard INT-TD vs. the Browns, a mark he has since broken (107 vs. Phi. in 2008).
- No active player has produced as many INTs vs. his division foes than Reed, who has 25 picks (784 yards) against AFC North teams.

RB RAY RICE

G	Att.	Yds	Avg.	LG	TDs	1st	10+
9	167	824	4.9	67	3	33	19

- Rice averages 91.6 rushing yards per game vs. the Browns, with his 824 total ranking as the most against any NFL opponent.
- In Week 13 of 2011 (12/4), he totaled a career-high 204 rushing yards in the Ravens' 24-10 win. He posted a 67-yard run, which marked a career long in regular season play.
- Rice has tallied 1,009 yards from scrimmage vs. the Browns (824 rushing and 185 receiving), averaging 112.1 total yards per game.

LB TERRELL SUGGS

G	TT	Solo	AS	INT	TDs	FF	FR	Sk-Yds	PD
18	92	60	32	1-42t	1	7	1	13-88.5	8

- Suggs' 13 sacks vs. the Browns are the second most he has against any opponent (Pit. - 13.5). He has three career multi-sack performances against the Browns.
- His 7 FFs vs. Cleveland are also his most against any team.

WEEK 4 NOTES: BAL. 23, CLE. 16

- Baltimore's offense registered 438 total yards of offense (101 rushing and 337 passing), the Ravens' second-highest output this season.
- The Ravens' defense allowed a season-low 43 rushing yards, which is the 18th-lowest output by a Baltimore opponent in franchise history.
- QB Joe Flacco passed for 356 yards (completing 28 of 46 attempts), marking his second-straight 300-yard passing output of the season. It also marked the 10th 300-yard passing game of Flacco's career, extending his franchise record.
- With a season- and game-high 131 yards on 9 catches, WR Anquan Boldin averaged 14.6 yards-per-catch and was targeted a game-high 12 times.
- CB Cary Williams intercepted the first pass of his career, returning the pick 63 yards for a touchdown.

KEY CONNECTIONS

Pro Connections

- Ravens general manager/executive vice president and Hall of Fame TE Ozzie Newsome played 13 seasons in Cleveland, recording 662 catches and 7,980 yards – the most in Browns history. He then held positions as a scout, assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel, and director of pro personnel before moving to Baltimore with the franchise as VP of player personnel in 1996.

- The Ravens staff is comprised of many people who were invited to join the franchise when it moved from Cleveland: senior VP of public and community relations Kevin Byrne, director of football video operations Jon Dube, VP of operations Bob Eller, VP of IT Bill Jankowski, team historian Francine Lubera, VP of football administration Pat Moriarty and head certified athletic trainer Mark Smith.

- Ravens senior personnel assistant George Kokinis was the Browns' general manager for part of 2008. Kokinis originally began his career as a personnel assistant with the Browns in 1991 before moving to Baltimore with the franchise in 1996.

- Baltimore director of pro personnel Vincent Newsome played the final two seasons (1991-92) of his career for the Browns. He then spent three seasons as a special assignment scout in Cleveland before becoming the Ravens' West area scout in 1996.

- Baltimore assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg was the special teams coordinator for the Browns from 2001-06, while Ravens defensive line coach Clarence Brooks served in the same role with the Browns in 1999.

- Ravens head coach John Harbaugh (1998-2007) and Browns head coach Pat Shurmur (1999-2008) and offensive coordinator Brad Childress coached together with the Philadelphia Eagles. With Philadelphia, Harbaugh was the special teams coordinator (1998-2006) and secondary coach (2007), Shurmur coached the QBs (1999-2001) and TEs/O-line (2002-08), and Childress was the QBs coach (1999-2001) and offensive coordinator (2002-05).

- Browns defensive senior assistant Ray Rhodes hired Ravens head coach John Harbaugh when he was the head coach of the Eagles from 1995-98, giving Harbaugh his first NFL job.

- Browns T Oniel Cousins played three seasons as a member of the Ravens (2008-10), after being selected by Baltimore in the third round (99th overall) of the 2008 draft.

- Ravens Midwest area scout Milt Hendrickson is the brother of Browns college area scout Marcus Hendrickson, while Browns college area scout Chisom Opara spent the 2004 season as a player personnel assistant with the Ravens and originally signed with the team as an undrafted free agent in 2003.

- Browns assistant strength and conditioning coach Rick Lyle played DE for the Ravens in 1996, while Browns DL Ishma'ily Kitchen spent training camp with the Ravens in 2012.

College Connections

- From 1998-2003, Ravens defensive coordinator Dean Pees was the head coach at Kent State, guiding Browns WR/RS Joshua Cribbs (2001-03) while he was a standout QB for the Golden Flashes.

- Browns LB D'Qwell Jackson attended the University of Maryland from 2002-05. In 2005, Jackson also became the second player in Terrapins history to win ACC Defensive Player of the Year.

Hometown Connections

- Four Browns have Maryland roots: CB Johnson Bademosi (Silver Spring), CB Joe Haden (Fort Washington), DT Phil Taylor (Clinton), and S Usama Young (Largo).

2012 HONOR ROLL

QB JOE FLACCO

AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 1)

• Flacco completed 21 of 29 passes (72.4 percent) for 299 yards, 2 touchdowns and 0 interceptions posting a 128.4 rating in Week 1's 44-13 win over the Cincinnati Bengals on Monday Night Football.

• Flacco led a Ravens' offense that posted an AFC-best in total yards (430) and average yards per play (7.4) in Week 1. Flacco's 299 passing yards ranked second in the AFC in Week 1.

• This marked Flacco's second-career Offensive Player of the Week Award. He previously won the award in 2008 (Week 9).

FedEx Air NFL Player of the Week (Week 3)

• Flacco completed 28 of 39 passes for 382 yards and 3 touchdowns in the Ravens' 31-30 victory over New England. The 382 yards marked the third-highest output of his career and the fourth-best mark in team history.

• Flacco marched the Ravens on a 7-play, 70-yard drive to set up K Justin Tucker's 27-yard game-winning FG as time expired. It marked Flacco's 11th-career game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or overtime (12th including postseason).

WR/RS JACOBY JONES

AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 6)

• In Week 6's victory vs. Dallas, Jones posted an NFL-record 108-yard KOR-TD, tying Ellis Hobbs and Randall Cobb for the longest in NFL history. Jones' score marks his 5th-career return TD (3 PR and 2 KOR).

• Jones had 3 KORs for 159 yards (53.0 avg.), earning his fourth-career Special Teams Player of the Week honor.

WR TORREY SMITH

GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week (Week 3)

• Smith played through the pain of losing his younger brother, Tevin Jones, less than 24 hours before game time, catching 6 passes for 127 yards and 2 TDs in the Ravens' 31-30 come-from-behind win over New England.

• Sunday morning started with the devastating news that his brother had died in a motorcycle accident. But Smith, despite permission to sit out Sunday night's game, wanted to play.

HEATING UP IN THE COLD

Since the John Harbaugh Era began in 2008, Baltimore has compiled a stellar record in the combined months of November, December and January, going 27-10 overall (.730). Here are the top records down the stretch over the past few seasons:

2012 ESPN FRANCHISE RANKINGS

ESPN The Magazine's Ultimate Standings ranked the Baltimore Ravens as America's 11th-best U.S. professional sports franchise (and third-best NFL franchise). Using a four-part process to rank MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL franchises, ESPN conducted a fan survey that covered 25 topics, from "has players who act professionally on and off the field" to "makes it easy to buy tickets through the team website." Through ESPN.com and NetReflector (a Seattle opinion research company), fans of the four major leagues were then asked to rate their favorite clubs in each of these 25 areas. Receiving more than 56,000 responses, every franchise was rated on seven categories: title track, ownership, coaching, players, fan relations, affordability and stadium experience. Lastly, ESPN determined how efficiently teams convert dollars from fans into on-field performance, including postseason victories. These calculations were the basis for an eighth category: bang for the buck.

RAVENS RANK IN TOP 4

The Ravens own a .553 all-time regular season winning percentage, posting a 145-117-1 record since their 1996 inception. That mark stands fourth among pro football franchises since 1950, with the Cowboys' .573 (451-336-6), Dolphins' .571 (404-303-4) and Steelers' .555 (500-401-12) ranking better.

COACH HARBAUGH NOTES

COACH HARBS

In his fifth year as head coach, John Harbaugh has led Baltimore to a playoff berth in each of his first four seasons (marking a franchise first with four-consecutive postseason berths). "Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four seasons. He has led the Ravens to 49 regular season wins during this span, tying for third in the NFL, and he has guided the Ravens to two AFC Championship games (2008 & 2011). Harbs owns a 5-4 playoff record.

HEAD COACH SNAPSHOT (Baltimore Ravens: 2008-12)

- Reg. Season Record . . . . .49-22
- at Home . . . . .31-5
- on Road . . . . .18-17
- vs. AFC . . . . .37-16
- vs. AFC North . . . . .19-7

- vs. NFC . . . . .12-6
- Playoffs Record . . . . .5-4
- Home Playoff Games . . . . .1-0
- Road Playoff Games . . . . .4-4

In his 2008 rookie campaign, the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game after winning at Miami (27-9) and at top-seeded Tennessee, 13-10. Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens, 23-14, in the AFC title matchup. In 2009, Baltimore dominated at New England, 33-14, in the Wild Card game before dropping a 20-3 contest at Super Bowl-bound Indianapolis in the Divisional Round. After earning a 12-4 mark in 2010, the Ravens topped Kansas City (30-7) in the Wild Card playoff, becoming the only team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons. The Ravens then dropped a 31-24 Divisional Round contest at Pittsburgh, which advanced to the Super Bowl.

During the Harbaugh Era (since 2008)...

- Baltimore is the only NFL team to advance to the playoffs each of the last four years and the only team to have won at least one playoff game in each of those postseasons.
- The Ravens own a 49-22 regular season record. Including playoffs (5-4), they are 54-26 in the Harbaugh Era, tying for the NFL's second-most total wins since his Baltimore arrival.

NFL WINS / INCLUDING PLAYOFFS (Since Coach Harbaugh's Arrival in 2008)

Rk.	Team	Total Wins
1.	New England Patriots	55
2.	Baltimore Ravens	54
	Pittsburgh Steelers	54
4.	Green Bay/New Orleans	51

NABBING FOUR STRAIGHT

In 2011, the Ravens clinched their fourth-consecutive postseason berth. In doing so, head coach John Harbaugh became just the fourth coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first four seasons.

COACHES TO MAKE PLAYOFFS IN EACH OF FIRST FOUR SEASONS (Since 1970 Merger)

COORDINATORS NOTES

CAM'S ATTACK

Now in his fifth season as the Ravens' offensive coordinator, Cam Cameron's impact has been significant. In 2011, QB Joe Flacco produced his third-straight 3,500-yard/20-touchdown passing season, while RB Ray Rice led the NFL with 2,068 yards from scrimmage. In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's ninth best in scoring (24.4 ppg), up from 24th in 2007, while setting team records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22). In his first season in Baltimore (2008), Cameron built a creative offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (148.5 ypg), first in time of possession (33:10) and 11th in points per game (24.1 ppg).

Cameron brought his unique offensive mind to Baltimore after one year as the Miami Dolphins' head coach. His successful stints with the NFL's Chargers and Redskins and the NCAA's Indiana Hoosiers and Michigan Wolverines have been celebrated.

Under Cameron's guidance in four-plus seasons (2008-12)...

- The Ravens have rushed for 128.6 yards per game, fifth most in the NFL. Baltimore also has 75 rushing TDs, ranking fifth most.
- Baltimore has committed only 95 turnovers during this span, the NFL's fourth fewest. (Ravens set a team record with just 20 giveaways in 2010 and are +5 in 2012.)
- The Ravens' 23.7 points per game during this span rank ninth.

PRODUCTION UNDER CAM

The Ravens' "O" has been consistently effective since Cam Cameron took the reins in 2008. Over the past four full seasons, Baltimore has ranked in the top half of the NFL in scoring each year, while in 2009, the Ravens posted the second-most yards in team history.

RAVENS OFFENSIVE RANKINGS UNDER CAMERON

Year	YPG	Rk.	PPG	Rk.
2012	355.1	16	24.9	11
2011	338.7	15	23.6	12
2010	322.9	22	22.3	16
2009	351.2	13	24.4	9
2008	324.0	18	24.1	11

CAM QUICK HITS

- In each of the past three full seasons (2009-11), QB Joe Flacco and GB's Aaron Rodgers are the only NFL QBs to throw for at least 3,600 yards and 20 TDs while posting 12 INTs or less.
- Baltimore's "O" posted a franchise-record 553 yards in 2011's Week 3 win at STL (9/25). The Ravens' Top 5 all-time single-game outputs have come during the John Harbaugh/Cam Cameron Era.
- During his time as coordinator, Baltimore has posted at least 30 points on 25 different occasions (including 44 in 2012's Week 1 win over Cincy) and owns a 24-1 record in those games.
- Under Cameron, the Ravens have totaled at least 400 yards in a game 16 times, producing a 15-1 mark in those contests.
- The Ravens have piled up at least 375 total net yards 20 times since 2008, producing a 19-1 record in those games.
- The Ravens have rushed for at least 190 yards 11 times under Cameron, earning an 11-0 record. Baltimore is also 29-2 when rushing for at least 125 yards in a game.

PEES PROMOTED

Dean Pees, a nine-year NFL-coaching veteran, was promoted to defensive coordinator on Jan. 27 after guiding the Ravens' LBs for two seasons. He is the sixth "D" coordinator in franchise history. Pees, who was New England's "D" coordinator from 2006-09, now leads the Baltimore unit, which has finished as the NFL's third-best scoring defense four-consecutive years (16.6 ppg in 2011). The four-straight years tie an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed.

Pees leads a unit that during the John Harbaugh Era (2008-12)...

- Has allowed the NFL's second-fewest points (16.9) and the third-fewest net yards (302.9) per game during this span.

"D" COORD. BREAKDOWN

Four "D" coordinators in Ravens history have gone on to become NFL head coaches: Marvin Lewis (1996-2001), Mike Nolan (2002-04), Rex Ryan (2005-08) and Chuck Pagano (2011). Former Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio was the Ravens' LBs coach from 1999-2001, while Atlanta's Mike Smith also coached on the "D" from 1999-2002.

OZZIE NEWSOME / PERSONNEL NOTES

WIZARD OF OZ

Ozzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game has seen. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV championship team and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

OZZIE NEWSOME CAREER SNAPSHOT

- NFL's first African American General Manager (promoted in 2002)
- Architect of Ravens 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship Team
- NFL Executive of the Year (2000)
- Pro Football Hall of Fame (class of 1999)
- State of Alabama Hall of Fame (class of 1995)
- National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and NCAA Hall of Fame (class of 1994)
- 13-Year NFL Tight End with Cleveland Browns (1978-90)
- Three-Time Pro Bowler (1981, 1984-85)
- Four-Time Cleveland Touchdown Club Offensive Player of the Year
- Current Member of Three Major NFL Policy-Making Committees: Competition, Diversity and Player Care Foundation Committees

FIRST-ROUND FINDS

Since moving to Baltimore in 1996, the Ravens, led by GM Ozzie Newsome, have had 17 drafts and selected 17 players in the first round. These picks have earned an amazing 51 combined Pro Bowls and several All-Rookie honors:

Top 10 Quick Hit:

- Of the seven players chosen in the Top 10 by Baltimore, five have earned Pro Bowl status. Two of those players – Peter Boulware and Terrell Suggs – also earned Defensive Rookie of the Year honors.

Late-Round Success Quick Hit:

- The Ravens have found gems late in the first round, including LB Ray Lewis (26th), TE Todd Heap (31st), S Ed Reed (24th), G Ben Grubbs (29th) and T Michael Oher (23rd).

NEWSOME'S NFL TREE

GM Ozzie Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven way," Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many assistants move on to become head coaches on the collegiate and NFL levels.

CURRENT HEAD COACHES ROOTED IN RAVENS ORGANIZATION

NFL'S TOP 100

It can be argued that the 100 best NFL players, as voted by the players in 2011, doesn't really represent the best. Maybe coaches or scouts have a different list. Certainly, there are reporters who compiled rankings of their own. Still, it's special for the Ravens to post seven players overall (tied with Phi. and SF for the NFL's most) – including five standouts in the Top 25.

THE NFL'S TOP 100 PLAYERS OF 2012 (NFL Players' Poll / NFL Network)

NFL Rank	Player	Position Ranking
9	DT Haloti Ngata	No. 1 defensive tackle
11	OLB Terrell Suggs	No. 2 linebacker
16	S Ed Reed	No. 1 safety
20	LB Ray Lewis	No. 3 linebacker
22	RB Ray Rice	No. 4 running back
45	FB Vonta Leach	No. 1 fullback
74	QB Joe Flacco	No. 11 quarterback

NOTE THE NEWSOME QUOTE

"Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, [assistant general manager] Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead."

- FoxSports.com's Adam Schein, 2010

WINNING WAYS

The Ravens are the only NFL team to win a playoff game in each of the past four full seasons – and the only NFL club to earn a postseason berth in each of those years (2008-11).

MOST NFL PLAYOFF BERTHS / PAST FOUR SEASONS

Berths	Team
4	Baltimore Ravens
3	Atlanta, Green Bay, Indianapolis, New England, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh

• The Ravens' five playoff wins over the past four seasons tie Pittsburgh for most in the NFL. Four of the Ravens' victories have come on the road, tying the Jets for the NFL's most.

• All four of the Ravens' playoff losses over the past four seasons have come at the hands of the team that represented the AFC in the Super Bowl. One of those teams (2010 Steelers) captured the Super Bowl Championship.

• The Ravens have played an NFL-high 12 road playoff games since 2000. Baltimore's seven postseason road wins during this span are the most in the league.

20/20 CLUB

The Ravens' "20/20 Club" includes members of the team's personnel staff who started with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. The term "20/20" refers to hiring 20-year-olds for $20,000. According to Ozzie Newsome: "The guys actually started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them."

RAVENS "20/20 CLUB" GRADUATES (Current Personnel Staff)

Name	Joined Ravens	Current Title
George Kokinis (Cle.)	1991	Senior Personnel Asst.
Eric DeCosta	1996	Assistant General Manager
Joe Hortiz	1998	Director of College Scouting
Chad Alexander	1999	Asst. Dir. of Pro Personnel
Joe Douglas	2000	National Scout
Mark Azevedo	2005	Area Scout Southeast
David Blackburn	2007	Area Scout

ROOKIE FREE AGENT GEMS

The Ravens have a history of unearthing rookie free agent gems. On the current 53-man roster, Baltimore has 14 players who entered the NFL as rookie free agents. Of those 14, 11 were originally signed by the Ravens (listed below):

ORIGINAL RAVENS ROOKIE FREE AGENT SIGNINGS (On 2012 Active Roster)

5.	Sam Koch	103	2006-present

BIRK HITS 200

In Week 6's victory over Dallas (10/14), C Matt Birk played in his 200th-career game (now at 201). Birk has started 180 games in his career, including 103 consecutive. His 103-straight starts are the NFL's longest such active streak among centers.

MILESTONES IN REACH

WR ANQUAN BOLDIN

• Boldin (738) is 12 catches shy of reaching 750 for his career. He also needs 303 receiving yards to reach the 10,000 milestone.

QB JOE FLACCO

• Flacco (89) is 1 TD pass shy of 90 in his career. Flacco (15,653 passing yards), needs 347 to reach the 16,000 miletone.

LB RAY LEWIS

• Lewis, currently on IR - Designated to Return (arm) needs 28 INT return yards to pass Derrick Brooks (530) for the most all-time INT return yards by a LB. Lewis has 503 return yards on 31 INTs.

DT HALOTI NGATA

• Ngata is one start away from making the 100th of his career.

S ED REED

• Reed (59) needs 4 INTs to move past Dave Brown and Dick LeBeau for eighth most all time. Reed's 1,506 INT return yards already stand as an NFL record, which he set in Week 1 vs. Cincy. (Reed has 2 thefts for 43 return yards this season.)

• Reed is tied with Everson Walls (3) for the most seasons leading the league in INTs and can become the first player in NFL history to lead the league in INTs four times.

RB RAY RICE

• Rice is 1 catch shy of 280 for his career and 20 receiving yards short of the 2,500 mark. Also, with 99 rushing yards, he'll eclipse the 5,000-yard rushing milestone.

• With 2 more total TDs, Rice (34) will move past Willis McGahee (35) into third on the Ravens' all-time TDs list.

• Rice (29) needs 2 rushing TDs to tie Willis McGahee (31) for second on the franchise's all-time list (Jamal Lewis - 45).

LITTLE GIVE, PLENTY TAKE

Since head coach John Harbaugh took over the Ravens in 2008, Baltimore has compiled a +37 turnover margin, ranking as the NFL's third-best mark. (The Ravens are +5 in 2012.)

NFL'S TOP TURNOVER MARGIN (Since 2008)

THAT M&T MAGIC

THE M&T ADVANTAGE

For the first time in team history, the Ravens went undefeated at home (8-0) in 2011, becoming just one of three NFL teams (GB and NO) to accomplish the feat last year. Under John Harbaugh (since 2008), the Ravens have won 22 of their last 23 regular season home games and are 31-5 in games played in Baltimore, including 4-0 this season.

NFL'S BEST REGULAR SEASON HOME RECORDS (John Harbaugh Era / Since 2008)

Rk.	Team	Record	Pct.
1.	Baltimore Ravens	31-5	.861
2.	New England Patriots	30-5	.857
3.	Atlanta Falcons	29-6	.829

HOME STREAKIN'

Baltimore's current 14-game regular season home winning streak is the longest in team history. When including postseason games, the Ravens have won 15-straight contests at M&T Bank Stadium.

MOST CONSECUTIVE REGULAR SEASON HOME GAMES WON (Ravens History)

Games	Date/Games
14	2010-12 (last 2 through first 4)
8	2006-07 (last 5 through first 3)
7	2009-10 (last 2 through first 5)
7	2000-01 (last 4 through first 3)

CHARM CITY RUSH

Since 2008, Baltimore has rushed for 136.4 yards per game at home (fifth most in NFL among home teams) and an NFL-high 48 TDs.

RUSHING YARDS PER GAME AT HOME (Since 2008)

Rk.	Team	Att.	Yds.	TD	YPG

5.	Baltimore Ravens	1,187	4,910	48	136.4

M&T POINTS PRODUCTION

Since 2009, the Ravens have averaged 27.4 points per game at M&T Bank Stadium, ranking as the NFL's fifth-best mark among home teams. In their current 14-game home winning streak, the Ravens have produced 27.9 points per game in those victories.

POINTS PER GAME AT HOME (Since 2009)

Rk.	Team	Points	Points/Game
1.	Green Bay Packers	881	31.5
2.	New England Patriots	846	31.3
3.	New Orleans Saints	839	31.1
4.	San Diego Chargers	739	27.4
5.	Baltimore Ravens	766	27.4

Ravens Post 44 in Week 1:

• The Ravens scored 44 points in Week 1's win over Cincinnati at M&T Bank Stadium, marking their second-highest output at home during the John Harbaugh Era (48 vs. Det. in 2009).

HOT AT HOME

The Ravens have been dominant at home during the John Harbaugh Era (2008-12), winning 14-straight contests and 22 of their last 23 at M&T Bank Stadium. Baltimore's 14-game winning streak at home currently ranks as the NFL's longest. Additionally, it's the longest home mark in Ravens history.

NFL'S LONGEST HOME WINNING STREAKS (Active Streaks)

NFL-RECORD RUN "D"

The Ravens have held opponents to under 4.0 yards per rush in each year of their existence (an amazing 16-straight seasons), ranking as the longest streak in NFL history.

MOST CONSECUTIVE SEASONS ALLOWING LESS THAN 4 YARDS PER RUSH

Team	Seasons	Years
Baltimore Ravens	16	1996-2011
Buffalo Bills	15	1986-2000
Dallas Cowboys	15	1964-78

Longest Active in Top 5:

• The Ravens own the NFL's longest active streak of ranking in the Top 5 in run defense (yards allowed per game), doing so for six-straight seasons. This season, the Ravens have allowed 4.0 yards per carry.

LIMITING THE 100s

Dating back to the 1999 season, the Ravens have allowed the second-fewest 100-yard rushers (28) in the NFL. (Pittsburgh ranks first with 25.) The top teams stack up as follows:

100-YARD RUSHERS ALLOWED (Since 1999)

Rk.	Team	100-Yard Rushers
1.	Pittsburgh Steelers	25
2.	Baltimore Ravens	28
3.	San Diego Chargers	39

Rush "D" Quick Hits:

- Baltimore has allowed only 10 100-yard RBs in its last 90 games & 12 in the past 107 games (last was the Chiefs' Jamaal Charles, 140, on 10/7/12).
- From 12/17/06 to 10/4/09, the Ravens produced a 39-game streak without permitting a 100-yard rusher.

RECORD OF TOP THREE "3s"

The Ravens' defense has allowed the third-fewest points in the NFL each of the last four full seasons – the best stretch in team history – also tying an NFL record. Since the 1970 merger, only four other teams have achieved an impressive streak such as this.

CONSECUTIVE SEASONS W/ TOP THREE SCORING DEFENSE (Since 1970 Merger)

Team	Consec. Seasons	Years
Baltimore Ravens	4	2008-11
Dallas Cowboys	4	1993-96
Los Angeles Rams	4	1974-77
Minnesota Vikings	4	1973-76
San Francisco 49ers	4	1984-87

TOP 10 STREAK

Baltimore has finished in the Top 10 in total defense (yards allowed) nine-straight seasons. Since the 1970 merger, only six teams have produced at least eight-consecutive seasons with a Top 10 defense. Baltimore (9) and Pittsburgh (12) boast the NFL's longest active streaks of ranking in the Top 10.

CONSECUTIVE SEASONS W/ A TOP 10 DEFENSE (Since 1970 Merger)

Team	Consec. Seasons	Years
Pittsburgh Steelers	12	2000-11
Dallas Cowboys	10	1970-79
Baltimore Ravens	9	2003-11
Los Angeles Rams	9	1973-81
Tampa Bay Buccaneers	9	1997-2005
Pittsburgh Steelers	8	1972-79

AN OFFENSIVE DEFENSE

Since 1996, the Ravens have posted 52 defensive TDs, scoring at least one in each year of their existence (including 2 pick-6's this season). Baltimore is 41-7 all time when tallying a D-TD. Since 2003, the Ravens own the NFL's most D-TDs (39), earning a 30-5 mark.

12/04/11	W, 24-10	55-290	R. Rice 29-204

FOR THE LONG HAUL

7

Touchdowns the Ravens have scored on 20 drives that began inside their own 20-yard line, ranking as the NFL's second most. Only New England (8) has posted more TDs on drives that began inside its own 20.

13

Touchdown drives of 60-or-more yards by the Ravens this season, tying for the NFL's 10th most.

TOP 5 "O" OUTPUTS

In Week 3's win over New England, Baltimore's offense registered 503 yards of total offense (121 rushing and 382 passing), marking the third-highest output in team history. Impressively, the Ravens' Top 5 all-time single-game outputs have come during the John Harbaugh/Cam Cameron Era (since 2008).

RAVENS TOP TOTAL NET YARDS (Single-Game History)

Yards	Game/Date	Results
553	9/25/11 at STL	W, 37-7
548	12/13/09 vs. Det.	W, 48-3
503	9/23/12 vs. NE	W, 31-30
501	9/13/09 vs. KC	W, 38-24
479	9/27/09 vs. Cle.	W, 34-3

OFFENSE EXPLODES

From Weeks 3-4, the Ravens produced 941 total yards of offense (503 vs. NE and 438 vs. Cle.). The 941 mark the most total yards Baltimore has registered in consecutive games in franchise history. Against the Browns (9/27), it also marked just the second time in team history that the Ravens tallied 400-or-more yards in consecutive games:

BACK-TO-BACK GAMES W/ 400-PLUS YARDS OF OFFENSE (Ravens History)

Year	First Game (Yards)	Second Game (Yards)
2012	Sept. 23 vs. NE (503)	Sept. 27 vs. Cle. (438)
2000	Nov. 19 vs. Dal. (479)	Nov. 26 vs. Cle. (461)

400 Quick Hit:

• Baltimore's offense registered 438 total yards of offense in Week 4 vs. Cleveland. During the John Harbaugh/Cam Cameron Era, the Ravens have totaled at least 400 yards in a game 16 times, producing a 15-1 mark in those contests.

300, 100 & 100

In Week 3's 31-30 victory vs. New England, the Ravens' offense produced a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver for just the fifth time in franchise history.

300-YARD PASSER/100-YARD RUSHER/100-YARD RECEIVER (Ravens Single-Game History)

Game	300 Passer	100 Rusher	100 Receiver
09/23/12 vs. NE	J. Flacco-382	R. Rice-101	T. Smith-127

THE ULTIMATE LB

Thirteen-time Pro Bowl LB Ray Lewis sustained a triceps injury in Week 6's win over Dallas and has been placed on Injured Reserve - Designated for Return. In six games, he totaled 57 tackles, adding 1 sack, 1 PD, 1 FR and 1 FF. Lewis, who has played in 228 career contests, is Baltimore's all-time tackle king (2,643 stops). He also has the most FRs (20), second-most INTs (31) and second-most FFs (20) in team history, leading a Ravens' "D" that has ranked in the Top 10 (yards allowed) nine-straight seasons.

TACKLE MACHINE

LB Ray Lewis (17th NFL season) is the league's active career tackles leader. Lewis, who has played in 228 games, is one of only two active players to hit the 2,000-tackle milestone. In 2011, Lewis led the Ravens in tackles (95) for the 14th time in his career. He has tallied at least 130 stops 13 times.

'BACKER THEFTS

LB Ray Lewis is the NFL's active INT leader among linebackers, posting 31 picks during his career. Lewis ranks sixth all time in INTs by a linebacker, passing Sam Huff (30) in Week 1 of the 2011 season. He is 1 INT shy of tying Nick Buoniconti, Jack Ham and Lee Roy Jordan for third all time by a linebacker.

*Has 20 career overall FRs, but 1 came after teammate Jamie Sharper fumbled an INT that Lewis would then recover; thus, Lewis has 19 FR take-aways.

TANGLED IN THE WEBB

Ravens CB/RS Lardarius Webb, currently on IR, will miss the rest of the season after tearing his ACL on 10/14 vs. Dallas. Webb produced a career year in 2011, becoming the NFL's only player last season to have an INT-TD & a PR-TD. Webb also tied to post the NFL's fourth-most pass breakups (20), finishing with a career-best 68 tackles and a team-high 5 INTs. He led a Ravens' secondary that allowed the NFL's fewest passing TDs (11) and just 196.3 aerial yards per game (league's fourth fewest).

Reed Quick Hits: Of his 59 career INTs...

- 36 have come in the second half (most in the NFL since '02) and 22 in the fourth quarter (most in the NFL since '02).
- When Reed records an INT, the Ravens own a 36-11 record. When he makes 2 INTs in a game, Baltimore is 12-0 (13-0 including playoffs).
- 24 have come on third down, the NFL's most among active players on that particular down.
- Reed's 8-career playoff INTs rank as the most among active players. He had 1 theft in the 2011 Divisional win over Houston (1/15/22).

NFL RECORD-HOLDER

In Week 1 vs. Cincinnati, S Ed Reed became the NFL's all-time leader in INT return yards, passing Hall of Famer Rod Woodson for the most ever. Reed returned the 58th pick of his career for 34 yards, upping his all-time total to 1,497 yards. In Week 2 at Philly, he added another theft (his second this season) and increased his INT return yards total to 1,506.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 AP Defensive Player of the Year, returned for his first game of the season in Week 7 vs. Houston after tearing his Achilles this past April. He posted 4 tackles, 1 sack and 1 PD in his season debut, after finishing with a career-high 14 sacks in 2011. Suggs, who also forced an NFL-high 7 fumbles last year – setting a career high and a Ravens' single-season record – ranks third in Ravens single-season sacks history. His 14 sacks in 2011 also ranked first in the AFC and tied San Francisco's Aldon Smith for fifth in the NFL.

THE DOMINANT DT

One of the NFL's most disruptive forces, DT Haloti Ngata was named to his third Pro Bowl (as a starter) in 2011. Perhaps the NFL's most athletic DT, Ngata stops the run (425 career tackles), rushes the passer (20 career sacks) and even drops into coverage (3 career INTs). In Week 1's win over Cincy, he had 4 tackles, 1.5 sacks and 1 PD, helping limit the Bengals to 13 points.

Baltimore has a history of strong run defense, and with Ngata's help the past several seasons, has upheld its stout legacy on the ground.

RAVENS RUSHING DEFENSE RANKINGS (Past Six Full Seasons/Since Ngata Entered NFL)

NGATA SCORES

In the 2011 Week 3 win at St. Louis, DT Haloti Ngata scooped up a Sam Bradford fumble and returned it 28 yards for his first-career TD. Ngata's scamper is the third-longest FR-TD in Ravens history, shy of OLB Adalius Thomas' 57- and 35-yarders.

D-TACKLE DOMINANCE

In the Ravens' season-opening win vs. Cincy, DT Haloti Ngata notched 1.5 QB drops, tying a career high. He has 8 sacks dating back to 2011, has racked up 96 tackles (second most among NFL DTs) and has 6 PD, second most among NFL DTs during this span.

MOST TACKLES BY NFL DTs (Since 2011)

- T. Kelly/K. Williams . . . . . 5

NOTE THE NGATA QUOTE

The NFL Network's Charles Davis on DT Haloti Ngata:

"You don't think about that size of a man having the feet that Haloti Ngata has. He can play outside, he can play inside. They move him outside to defensive end. You watch him drop in zone blitzes and not just rushing the passer. The big guy can do it all."

TORREY'S COURAGEOUS NIGHT

WR Torrey Smith played in Week 3's Sunday night victory over New England after his brother, 19-year-old Tevin Jones, passed away in a motorcycle accident earlier that morning. Smith posted 6 catches for 127 yards and 2 TDs in the come-from-behind win, producing the third 100-yard game of his young career. Additionally, he eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving milestone for his career.

2011 ROOKIE SENSATION

In 2011's Week 11 game vs. Cincinnati, WR Torrey Smith set a Ravens' single-season and single-game record for receiving yards by a rookie, totaling a career-high 165 yards on 6 catches (27.5 avg.). In 2011, he had 50 catches for 841 yards and a Ravens' rookie-record 7 TDs. Impressively, the '11 second-round pick owns two of the Top 5 receiving days in team history.

Smith Quick Hits:

- During the '11 campaign, Smith ranked 13th in the NFL with a stout 16.8 yards-per-catch avg.
- Smith's 26-yard TD catch with 8 seconds remaining in Week 9 at Pit. capped a 92-yard drive and sealed the Ravens' 23-20 win.

• Impressively, 5 of his 7 TD receptions in 2011 covered at least 25 yards (74, 41, 38, 36, 26, 18 and 8 yards), and he averaged a sensational 34.4 yards-per-TD catch.

• Never before has a Ravens' wideout registered dual 150-yard receiving games in a season (165 vs. Cin. and 152 at STL). Smith also posted the Top 2 receiving yards performances by a rookie in the NFL in 2011.

• In Week 11, Smith joined Ken Burrow (2 in 1971) and Randy Moss (3 in 1998) as the only rookies in NFL history to have multiple games with at least 150 receiving yards and a TD catch.

• Smith set the Ravens' rookie record for TDs in a season (7).

- With 131 yards on 9 catches in Week 4's win vs. Cleveland, Boldin now owns 33 career 100-yard receiving games.
- Boldin's six 100-yard games as a Raven rank third in team history: Mark Clayton (9), Derrick Mason and Derrick Alexander (7 each).
- In four games vs. the Browns as a Raven, Boldin has 21 receptions for 320 yards and 2 TDs.
- Boldin has produced 9 catches of 20-or-more yards this season, tying for the NFL's seventh most.

FASTEST TO 400, 500 & 600

WR Anquan Boldin is the fastest player in NFL history to reach 400, 500 and 600 catches. In 2011's Week 13 at Cleveland, he (123 games) hit the 700 milestone, becoming the third fastest (Marvin Harrison - 114 and Andre Johnson - 120) to hit the coveted mark.

FASTEST TO REACH 600 RECEPTIONS / NFL HISTORY

KICKER TUCK

Rookie free agent K Justin Tucker earned the starting kicking job after a training camp battle with veteran Billy Cundiff. A versatile performer who kicked in a variety of roles during his four seasons at Texas, he handled kickoffs in 52 games, punting duties in 41 contests and placekicking efforts in 25 games.

Tucker has connected on 14 of his 15 FGAs this season, hitting 4 50+ FGs, which ranks as a Ravens' single-season record and ties for the second-most such kicks during the 2012 NFL campaign.

Field goals K Justin Tucker has kicked and connected on through seven games this season, including Week 3's 27-yard game-winner as time expired vs. New England.

25

Kickoff touchbacks by Tucker this season, ranking as the NFL's seventh most entering Week 9. Tucker leads the NFL by averaging 69.2 yards per kickoff.

51, 51, 54, 56

FG longs by Tucker this season. He has posted two games where he's connected on dual 50+ FGs (Week 2 at Phi. & Week 7 at Hou.), making him one of eight players in NFL history (and the first rookie ever) to accomplish such a feat.

60

Points by Tucker in 2012, 11th most in the NFL.

JACOBY'S JAUNTS

Since entering the NFL in 2007, WR/RS Jacoby Jones has registered the NFL's second-most PR yards (1,892 on 187 returns). Jones has returned 3 punts for TDs during this time and posted a 10.1-yard average. He also owns 7 punt returns of 50-or-more yards, including three 70-plus-yarders that produced TDs.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

BCA GAME

The Baltimore Ravens promoted Breast Cancer Awareness month through a variety of initiatives. Beginning Sunday (10/14), Ravens staff, family members and volunteers distributed over 50,000 pink ribbons to fans as they entered stadium gates for the Ravens-Cowboys game. Prior to the game's kickoff, 25 women, a combination of breast cancer survivors and those currently undergoing treatment, were honored during an on-field ceremonial tribute.

During the game, Ravens players and coaches incorporated many pink elements into their uniforms, including cleats, gloves, wristbands, jerseys, Gatorade towels and more. Ravens cheerleaders used pink pom-poms and members of Baltimore's Marching Ravens wore pink plumes.

HOSPITAL VISIT

In an effort to further support Breast Cancer Awareness, Ravens QB Joe Flacco, QB Tyrod Taylor and QB Dennis Dixon visited cancer patients at MedStar Franklin Square Medical Center on Tuesday (10/16). Dixon, who lost his mother to breast cancer, knows the importance of awareness and is a huge supporter of this initiative. The three players visited patients in the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Cancer Institute and the inpatient oncology unit. While visiting, the players took photographs with patients and distributed pink Ravens hats and footballs.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE: RAVENS TEAM CHALLENGE

The Baltimore Ravens hosted their first-ever Ravens TEAM Challenge at M&T Bank Stadium on Tuesday (10/16) as part of the 2012 NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle. Approximately 100 local youth tested their physical endurance and ability to work as a team in order to complete various activities.

Fourth grade students from Baltimore's Dogwood Elementary School participated in challenges such as kickball, handball, capture the flag and an on-field obstacle course. The Ravens TEAM Challenge integrated educational programming and PLAY 60 physical activities while focusing on three values: fitness, sportsmanship and academics.

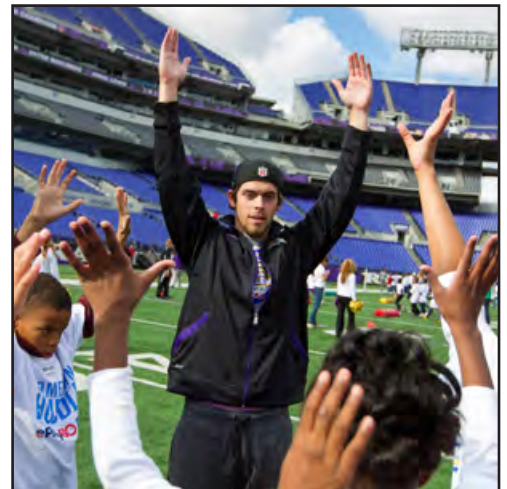

Joining the children were volunteers from the United Way, M&T Bank, Under Armour and the Baltimore Ravens. Alongside these volunteers were mascot Poe, Ravens cheerleaders and players RB Anthony Allen, CB Chykie Brown, LB Josh Bynes, WR Tandon Doss, G/C Gino Gradkowski, SS James Ihedigbo, CB/RS Asa Jackson, WR/RS Jacoby Jones, LB Albert McClellan, RB Bernard Pierce, WR Torrey Smith, S Christian Thompson and K Justin Tucker.

HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH CONFERENCE CALL

Can you just talk, in general, the effect that the weather will have on your preparation, and were all of your players able to get back in town in time for practice? (Jeff Zrebiec) “We got most of the guys back. There were a couple of guys, actually three guys, that didn’t make it back that should be back by Wednesday. We had the vast majority of the guys here. A good example is Terrell Suggs. He was in a situation where all of his flights were getting cancelled, a bunch of flights through different airports. He ended up getting into Raleigh [North Carolina], and he and his wife drove up from Raleigh, obviously, driving in a rainstorm to get here in time for practice. A lot of guys did a good job of that and thought ahead and moved flights up and stuff, and I was proud of them for that.”

In terms of getting back, one thing before the bye [week], they ended up fining you guys, and you thought you guys weren’t going to be, and that you guys were in accordance with everything, and then they end up fining you. And also, how did you guys come back from the bye? Where a lot of guys that were banged up, were they able to go today and work out with you guys in the indoor facility? (Aaron Wilson) “We pretty much had everybody with us. Off the top of my head, everybody worked out – some form or fashion. We had different guys doing different things. ‘Kemo’ [Ma’ake Kemoeatu] was out there. Haloti [Ngata] was out there. Off the top of my head, nobody was missing – there was one person missing. I’ll think of it here in a minute. Really the only guy is Haloti. Everybody went. Everybody went.”

As far as, are you probably going to list more guys, or do you think you’ll probably keep yours the same, just with the addition of Ed [Reed] on injury reports? (Aaron Wilson) “No, we won’t keep it the same, because they fined us. Like I said, we felt we were in compliance. We had a lot of conversations about that. We try and follow the rules, and obviously, the rules weren’t as clear as we thought they were. We’ll list pretty much everybody now. We’ll just do it that way, and we try to follow the rules, like I said. Obviously, they are correcting us on that, so we will do our best to do whatever they want us to do.”

Obviously, going into this bye after the last game, there is a lot of focus on the offense as far as the difference between at home and on the road. When you look at it, there’s been so much success at times, but at the same time it’s almost so drastically different when it’s not going well than when it is going well. How do you then look at it as far as trying to fix those times when it’s not going well since you are seeing success? (Brent Harris) “Obviously, it’s not a simple thing. You’re right. There is a correlation there for some reason. It’s harder for us on the road – for some reason – when things aren’t going well to pull ourselves out of it. That’s probably been going on into last year’s time. [We] had the Pittsburgh game last year where we were able to do that. [We] played well in St. Louis, but other games we weren’t able to do that. That’s something that we’ve looked at, and we’re actually doing some kind of studies on that – not that I think it’s going to be earth-shattering – it’s just going to be doing the things that we need to do to get first downs and get the ball moving and not turn the ball over – all the things that help you win football games. It’s not any big mystery. You just have to get first downs. You have to score in the red zone. You can’t turn the ball over. You have to get some time of possession. And the method for doing that is what we have to look at and find out what the best strategy is for us week-in and week-out and also big picture-wise, so we are trying to do that.”

The Browns are a team that has won two of the last three, two of those at home. Do they seem to be heating up, and do you see an improvement from the last time you played them about a month ago? (Garrett Downing) “Yes. They are definitely getting better. Obviously, they have won games. They have won games at home. They won a high-scoring shootout in Cincinnati. They won a low-scoring defensive struggle against San Diego. Obviously, they have proven that they can win the game either way. I take it back to when we got ready to play that game, and you asked me a similar question, and I told you they were a very good football team. That really hasn't changed. They've gotten better. They've figured out how to win games. That's a mark of a young team that's really emerging."

How does the hurricane affect what you do as coaches? Is it going to be a real late night and a sleepover for you guys? And secondly, when you guys are thinking about the larger picture during the bye, how do you move forward from here? How much does the weather change, in terms of the cold weather games, how much does that factor into the game plan you take going forward? (Ryan Mink) "As far as the hurricane stuff – from a coaching standpoint—we have certain things that we have to get done. Monday and Tuesday are really huge work days for the coaches as far as game planning and preparing and getting practices ready and all of that. That work has to be done, so we'll be doing that. As far as the weather, if you play in the AFC North, you play in the North, you play in outdoor stadiums – you have to be built for that. That's something that we try to take into account when we draft players, when we build our schemes in, and it's going to be important moving forward."

In terms of Dennis [Pitta], his production [has been] down during the course of the last month or so. How much of that do you view as a product of defenses adjusting towards him based on what he did that first month? (Matt Zenitz) "There's probably some of that. To me, it's a product of everything across the board. Typically, you say, 'This guy is not involved. That guy is not involved.' It's something that you can take a look at, but when you start breaking it down and you start studying it, you really find out that it's really more a product of us executing. It's more a product of all of the things – whether it's protecting the quarterback, running the ball or getting more plays, getting first downs to create more plays, guys getting open, players themselves getting open or making plays or making catches, or whatever, making throws. It all goes together, so we've talked about this before. What you really look to do, is you define specific problem areas, and try to go work hard to correct them but you also try to get better across the board with everything you do, and you find that there's really never one specific key that unlocks the whole puzzle. It's just a matter of forging ahead on all fronts and seeing if you can improve your play in each phase."

In terms of preparation, I might have missed the question, but does the weather, does the preparation change in terms of what's going on in your environment? (Jerry Coleman) "We were able to get practice inside today. The guys did a great job of getting in. I was really happy about that. A few guys didn't make it, but most everybody did. We did our normal plan that we had for today this morning. We'll keep our fingers crossed for Wednesday. Hopefully, we can get started on time and keep our normal schedule. It looks like [the storm] will be dying down Tuesday night, Wednesday morning. The main thing will be power. We have a big generator here. We think we can really get the football stuff in on Wednesday."

What have you learned from Andy Reid about preparation coming off of a bye week and how have you applied that in Baltimore? (Kris Jones) "I haven't really tied into Andy as much. Obviously, we were there for nine of those [13] wins that followed a bye week]. I haven't really thought about that. I'm not sure what you're asking. Are we worried about our streak coming to an end, is that what you're asking? Sure, we are."

I was more just wondering if you learned anything specifically from him that was so successful that you brought to Baltimore (Kris Jones) "Maybe the schedule and stuff like that. The thing that we tried to do, and that we tried to do in Philly, was really work hard. There are a lot of ways to do that. Obviously, rest is one of them. We had good practice work on Tuesday before we were off. We outlined some areas that we need to get better, then we went to work as coaches for three days and really studied ourselves. We think we have a good plan going forward. We presented that a little bit to the guys this morning. It's an opportunity to kind of realign, understand where you're at because you never know what is going to crop up. You never know what direction you are going to go – who is going to play, how it's going to play out exactly and what you are going to be. Now, you have a chance to take a little breath, take a look and say, 'OK, this is where we think we are headed, where we can be our best. Let's see if we can move in that direction.' That's what we did in the past. It's kind of what we've always tried to do. So, maybe that's part of it. But, it's not really just for the next week; it's for the rest of the year. It's for all of the games after the bye week."

Coach, you said last week you might make shifts personnel-wise along the offensive and defensive line. Now, you said it looks more like an execution thing. Are we more or less likely – and I know you are not going to tell exactly where or who is going to shift – but are you more inclined to personnel changes? (J. Michael) "I didn't categorize it as more or less of an execution thing, so be careful with that. I didn't say that. To me, execution is part of it, but coaching is part of it, game-planning is part of it, guys developing at their positions, whatever it might be, it's all a big part of it. I hate to pinned down like that because, it's just like I said, it's not that simple. If it were that simple, if it was one key to the whole thing, it'd be easy – anybody could pinpoint it. But, it's just not. It's across the board. So, we're not making any wholesale changes, to answer the question. It's not like we're going to switch everything around and make some huge moves. But, we're always trying to look at the best batting order. We're always trying to look at the best lineup that we can put on the field at any particular time and getting as many good players involved as we possibly can. There are young guys on the offensive line that we want to look at. There are veteran guys that can help us in doing different things. I just think that football is kind of evolving into where you have to try to get as many players involved as you can. So, without giving away too much, I can just tell you that the whole offensive line is not going to re-ordered on Wednesday. We're not doing that. The whole defensive line is not going to be restructured either. But, there are some things that we think we can do in getting some guys involved and using them as we go and kind of taking advantage of all of our guys."

Along those same lines, you said you were going to meet with the coaching staff for three days last week. How did you feel coming out of those meetings, and are you more confident now than you were last Monday? (Jason Butt) "I don't want to categorize my confidence level last Monday so let's not put a baseline on that. I felt good about our team last Monday, I just didn't feel good about the way we played the day before. I'm not trying to underplay it, but when you watch these games, you realize how tough it is week in and week out. So, that's one thing. The other thing is there were some very real concerns. There are things that we need to do a lot better, not just from the day before, but through the whole seven-game period that we felt like we needed to take a hard look at. So, that's exactly what you're talking about, and we did, and I did feel good about it. I felt like our coaches, our players, the communication, we really went to work and we really had some great conversations. We had some great discussions. We had some great study watching the tape. Guys did some great studies looking at numbers and things like that. In the end, what you try to do is make good counsel then make wise solid judgments about what makes us our best as we move forward. I am really excited about that – I really am. The proof will be in the pudding. So, if I say I am excited about it and we don't play well, then you guys can hammer me, but I don't believe that. We have gotten better every single year in the second half of the season since we've been here. That's been something that has been a strength for the Ravens. I expect it to be a strength for us going forward."

You went out of your way to say the Ravens followed the rules in terms of reporting injuries with Ed Reed and yet the NFL still fines you. Were you surprised by that reaction from them? (Jerry Coleman) "I was surprised by it. It was something that we felt like we were doing it the right way, and obviously they disagreed, so we'll adjust and try to do a better job in the future."

Will there be more names on the injury report? (Jerry Coleman) "There is not going to be anybody that is not going to be on there. It's pretty hard for us to determine who a significant player is and who is not. I don't know how to do that. That's one of the ways they write it in there. They say a significant player who has not missed any time should be on there. Well, in my mind, all 53 are significant. I think every single guy is significant. I am not about to start saying one guy is more significant than the other.”

Was the comment last week that the game at Cleveland Sunday is a must-win game, is that something that looks different or was that about improving and putting good performances together? (John Eisenberg) “I’d probably say all of the above. As far as I am concerned, it’s a must-win game. Obviously, we’ll have eight games after that game, so it won’t be the last game. In my mind, we need to win that game this week, and I know Cleveland feels the same way, and they are going to be all loaded up the same way. I am standing by my words – I want to win that game.”

Historically, when you look at time of possession, how do you value that with the kinds of numbers you have been up against the last couple of weeks? Is it always an indicator of who wins are who loses games? (Stan Charles) “It’s actually not always an indicator – it’s not one of the top indicators of who wins and loses. But we think it’s important for us, more for the way we play, if you score enough points in a short period of time, it’s not a factor. But, there are other things that go into play. Complementary football dictates that you want to do a good job with time of possession. We’ve always played that way, and we want to play that way.”

When you look at it with Vonta Leach and Ray Rice, the numbers are so positive in terms of yardage and not losing yards. When you guys self-studied, what did you guys see as far as when Leach and Rice were on the field at the same time, and will that be the identity going forward? (Aaron Wilson) “That’s a positive for us. That’s something that is important. It all goes down to what direction you go and how hard you go and how far you go in a certain direction, because if you go too heavy in a certain direction, then it gets defended, then it doesn’t look as good anymore. A lot of the running averages you are talking about are a result of what we call ‘sub runs.’ We’ve run the ball quite a bit in three-wide receiver [sets]. We’ve run the ball decently as changeups to our passing game, and those runs have been really productive too. The run game is not consistently attributable to the I-formation or the two-back stuff, although that has been good too. We have to find a good mix of that stuff, keep people off balanced, try to be as unpredictable as we can. We studied that. We’re really unpredictable in a lot of ways, but there are specific places where you look at and we tend to do one thing or the other a little more within our running game. But generally speaking, we have had success running the ball; we feel like running the ball ties in with time of possession. That is something that we want to be able to do. We have always been able to do that. It’s got to be part of our personality, and it’s important for us.”

Can you talk about the last couple of games that Trent Richardson has had for the Browns? He seems to really be improving as a rookie. (Ed Lee) “It sure looks like he’s getting healthy. Earlier he was [slowed] by a rib [injury] there for a few weeks, and there was some talk about that; it really hampered him a little bit. But from what I’ve seen so far, he looks every bit like the third pick in the draft right now. And he’s got that big, physical offensive line. Obviously, that’s something that we’ve had issues with, stopping the run. So, we’d expect them to try to take advantage of that, and they’ve got the back to do it.”

What is your impression of Joe Thomas, their left tackle? (Ed Lee) “He gets voted to the Pro Bowl every year, so that’s pretty much an indication of what the players, coaches and everybody thinks of him. He’s a premier left tackle. He’s one of the best. He’s right there with ... Hey, I don’t know that there’s a better tackle in football. Their whole offensive line [is good]. Alex Mack, this guy, we were really impressed with this guy coming out [of college]. They’ve just got a lot of good players – a lot of good players up front.”

The NFL announced that the trade deadline has been pushed back to Thursday. Does that change any plans for the organization? (Ed Lee) “As [executive assistant/football administration manager] Jess [Markison] – who does a lot of the paperwork and does a lot of the electronic work – she said to me, she won’t have to be dodging any power lines if we decide to make a move to get the move in. (laughter) So, she's happy, I know that. But as far as any move we might make, I don't know. I'm not sure."

What kind of progression have you seen from Brandon Weeden and Cleveland's passing game as a whole? (Matt Zenitz) "He can really throw the ball. I guess he had a really windy day yesterday, it looked like, and that kind of shut down the passing game for both teams. But even then, [Weeden] still threw it around pretty good. The ball was ... I mean, he can spin it, and I'm sure that's why they drafted him, because they felt like he could handle the conditions there on Lake Erie. So they're getting better, their receivers are getting better. The kid from Baylor [Josh Gordon] is really improving and is becoming a big-play threat for them. So, they're just a good, young team, and they're on the rise."
