NFL WEEK 5: RAVENS (2-2) AT DOLPHINS (3-1)

SUNDAY, OCT. 6, 2013 • 1 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM (75,540)

JUST THE FACTS

- The Baltimore Ravens will play a second-consecutive road game when they travel to Miami this weekend to face the Dolphins. Game time this Sunday, Oct. 6, at Sun Life Stadium is 1 p.m. The Ravens, tied for first in the AFC North with Cincinnati and Cleveland, are 2-2. The Dolphins (3-1) took an unblemished mark into their Monday Night Football game at New Orleans, where they dropped a 38-17 decision.
- With QB Joe Flacco throwing a franchise-record 5 INTs, the Ravens came up short in Buffalo last Sunday, losing 23-20 to the Bills. Twice in the fourth quarter Baltimore penetrated the Buffalo 20-yard line, but had to settle for 2 K Justin Tucker field goals. The game essentially ended when Bills ILB Kiko Alonso intercepted his second pass of the day at Buffalo's 36-yard line with 1:04 remaining in the contest.
- Miami opened the 2013 season with back-to-back road victories over the Browns (23-10) and Colts (24-20) before winning at home, 27-23, over the visiting Atlanta Falcons.
- The Ravens are the NFL's only team to earn the playoffs each of the past five seasons – and they have won at least one postseason contest every one of those years. All of this has come under the direction of head coach John Harbaugh, who has led the team to three AFC Championship games and a victory in Super Bowl XLVII last February.
- The Ravens are in the midst of a five-game run with four road contests. The Packers come to Baltimore on Oct. 13, and then the Ravens travel to Pittsburgh for an Oct. 20 matchup.

HARBS SAYS

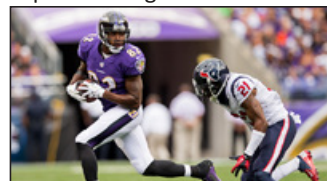

"One of the things we like about this team is our willingness to work to get better. We want to be the best we can be at this time with the intention of always improving. It's hard to ever have a finished product, but we're on our way. Collectively, our attitude is as good as I've seen around a football team. And, individually, we have a bunch of players dedicated to improve. As a whole, it's the best work ethic I've seen from a team. We're proud of these guys, the way they work and the way they approach their jobs. We think all of this will show up as we get better through the season."

INJURY REPORT

Five Ravens, including Pro Bowl WR/RS Jacoby Jones (knee) and WR Brandon Stokley (groin) did not play in Buffalo. Also missing were: DT Terrence Cody (knee), C Ryan Jensen (foot) and ILB Arthur Brown (chest). CB Lardarius Webb (thigh), WR/RS Deonte Thompson (concussion testing) and ILB Albert McClellan (shoulder) left the game and did not return. TE Dennis Pitta (hip), OLB D.J. Bryant (knee), OLB Adrian Hamilton (wrist) and WR Aaron Mellette (knee) are on Injured Reserve. (Pitta is designated for return.) Former starting ILB Jameel McClain (spine) is on the Physically Unable to Perform list, and rookie DE Kapron Lewis-Moore (knee) is on the Non-Football Injury list.

WHAT'S GOING ON?

Third-year WR Torrey Smith has been spectacular, totaling 21 catches for 435 receiving yards (20.7 avg.) and 1 TD. Smith's receiving yards, yards-per-catch average and receptions of 25-plus yards all rank in the NFL's Top 3 entering Week 5.

NOTE THE QUOTE

JIM CALDWELL ON JOE FLACCO

"Among Joe's strengths is his patience. He's not trying to put up any giant numbers and is just doing what it takes to win right now. It's reassuring to not have to worry about a guy who's going to be selfish in that regard. Yes, I think that's the unique thing about him. And there's one thing that he knows how to do: He knows how to win, which he's demonstrated since he has been here. Not only that, he's a guy that's more concerned about the team; he isn't concerned about any individual accolades. A lot of guys will say that, but in actuality, they really don't believe it. He certainly lives it, breathes it, and he is what he is. It's what makes him a tremendous leader."

NOTE OF THE WEEK I

The Ravens' defense has been strong in the red zone this season, limiting foes to a 33.3% TD success rate once inside the 20-yard line. Baltimore's mark ties (Chi. & NE) for fourth in the NFL.

RED ZONE DEFENSE / TD PERCENTAGE (2013 Season)

Rk.	Team	RZ Drives	RZ TDs	RZ TD Pct.
1	Kansas City Chiefs	4	1	25.0
2.	Carolina Panthers	7	2	28.6
	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	14	4	28.6
4.	Baltimore Ravens	9	3	33.3
	Chicago Bears	12	4	33.3
	New England Patriots	12	4	33.3

NOTE OF THE WEEK II

QB Joe Flacco has consistently shown resiliency during his career and typically rebounded strongly after the Ravens have sustained a loss. In 27 regular season games following a defeat, Flacco has completed 554 of 863 passes (64.2%) for 6,508 yards, 40 TDs and 15 INTs, yielding a 95.2 rating. The Ravens are 20-7 in these contests.

SPOTLIGHT: MATT ELAM

Pos: S Ht: 5-10 Wt: 210 Exp.: Rookie
College: Florida Hometown: West Palm Beach, FL

What was your initial reaction to being drafted by Baltimore? "It was very exciting – a dream come true. It was the biggest day of my life. When I saw it was the Ravens, I was thinking about a possible Super Bowl, possible chance of starting, and playing for an already-great defense."

What is the hardest adjustment you've had to make transitioning to the NFL? "The work you put in, the film study, and doing the extra things to improve your craft and get better. The biggest thing is just the film study – studying more and breaking down your opponent. I probably watch about 5-10 more hours a week than what I watched in college, and I watched a lot of film in college."

Who has been your biggest mentor in the locker room? "Lardarius Webb and Michael Huff are the two biggest. They've helped me in film study, as well as off the field – taking care of my body, getting in the cold tub, getting massages, getting stretched, and just continuing to watch film and take notes."

What expectations or goals have you set for yourself this year? "My first goal was to start. My second goal was to help the team win the Super Bowl. I also want to win Defensive Rookie of the Year. I have the highest goals, the most improbable goals."

What are your thoughts on going down to Miami? "Growing up, Miami was my favorite team, so it's very exciting being just 45 minutes from home. My whole family is going to be there, so it's going to be a very emotional, exciting moment for me."

What would you do if you weren't a football player? "I'd try to be an actor – definitely in a comic role, because I can't be serious for a long time. I'd be in movies, though, because I can't stand TV shows. I'm a sports guy, so my favorite movies are sports movies, like 'Friday Night Lights,' 'Little Giants,' 'Little Rascals,' and 'Hardball.'"

Which teammate is the... Best student of the game: "Lardarius Webb. He's always studying and trying to learn new things." Most athletic: "Brandon Williams. As big as he is, he can do handstands. But there are a lot of athletic guys on this team." Best tackler: "Myself." Most likely to be a coach: "Lardarius Webb or Corey Graham."

NOTE OF THE WEEK III

OLB Terrell Suggs has been on a tear to begin the 2013 campaign, racking up a team-high 4 sacks, 10 QB hits and 31 tackles (second most on the team). Suggs has produced a full sack in all four games, which is a feat he hasn't accomplished since the first four contests of his rookie season in 2003.

SUGGS' CONSECUTIVE GAMES W/ AT LEAST A HALF-SACK (Career Stretches)

Season	Stretch	Sacks	Yards
2013	Games 1-4	4.0	18.0
2003	Games 1-4	4.0	39.0
2006	Games 13-16	3.5	23.5
2008	Games 12-15	3.0	25.5

Suggs Quick Hits:

- Suggs' 4 sacks tie (Cameron Jordan & DeMarcus Ware) for the NFL's 7th most.
- With a sack against Miami, Suggs would tie Paul Kruger (2012) and Adalius Thomas (2005 & 2006) for a Ravens' franchise record of five-consecutive games posting at least a half-sack.

NUMBERS TO RAVE ABOUT

18

Points on 3 receiving TDs by WR Marlon Brown, tying RB Giovanni Bernard (Cin.) & WR DeAndre Hopkins (Hou.) for the most by a rookie in the NFL this season.

18.6

Punt return average by WR/RS Tandon Doss this season, ranking as the NFL's best mark.

QUOTH THE RAVENS

FOOTBALL

“The thing about Joe that is great is that he doesn’t get flustered. He may have a bad quarter, he may have a bad half, he may have a bad game. But, he’s going to come back and play better every single time. You have a bad first half, he comes out and has a great second half. It’s happened repeatedly. His personality lends itself to tough situations, critical situations. Players respond to that, and those are the things about Joe that make him special and unique.”

- Ravens Assistant General Manager Eric DeCosta on QB Joe Flacco

RB Ray Rice on teammate WR Torrey Smith’s work ethic:

“His work ethic is amazing. I’m telling you, I’ve never seen anything like it. I’ve never seen a guy consistently run routes at the speed he runs routes play after play after play.”

WR Torrey Smith on Baltimore’s young receiving corps:

“I look at it as a challenge for us. We all understand the offense. We’ve all watched Anquan [Boldin the past few seasons]. We’ve all played ourselves, and it’s on us to go out there and make it happen. They drafted us and developed us for a reason, for this time now, to go out there and get it done. So we take it as a challenge to keep this group together and make it so coach [John] Harbaugh and Mr. [Ozzie] Newsome and everyone feels comfortable with us as the guys.”

Newsday’s Bob Glauber on OLB Terrell Suggs:

“Now that [Ray] Lewis is no longer the emotional fireplug of the defense, it is Suggs with the cache and the swagger, even if he has toned down some of the more inflammatory remarks that have occasionally drawn the ire of opponents. A kinder, gentler Suggs at age 30? Well, let’s not go that far. After all, he is still a fiercely-aggressive pass rusher who is the one player on this defense that must be accounted for at all times.”

CB Lardarius Webb on S James Ihedigbo:

“He’s showing it on the field, and he’s that guy who is going to keep us lifted, keep us talking, keep us in the right spot, keep us in the right defense and keep us in the right checks. He’s the captain back there, and he’s doing a great job.”

S Matt Elam on the mindset of defensive coordinator Dean Pees:

“He likes to get after guys and put pressure on the quarterback. He likes to make the guys on the back end earn their money. He puts them in man-to-man and lets the defensive line do their work. I love it. It gives us a lot of opportunity [to make plays].”

NBC analyst Scott Pioli on Ravens GM Ozzie Newsome’s career accomplishments and work ethic:

“How many guys have you seen that rest on their laurels as players and don’t reinvent themselves in their next chapter of life? Ozzie keeps doing that.”

Head coach John Harbaugh on the Ravens’ defeat at Buffalo:

“The thing that I’m proud about is that our guys kept playing. We have a quarterback that can keep you in any game at any time. We all felt that way at the end, and that’s the most important thing going forward. ... We’re two months into this thing, and the team we’re going to be two months from now is not the team we are right now. We’ll continue to work the way we’ve been working and make the changes we need to make.”

DE Chris Canty on the Ravens’ 2013 makeup:

“Every year, you have to build your team anew, and we have a lot of new faces around here, a lot of young guys, a lot of young talent, but we’ve also got some veteran guys who have been around the block. Everybody recognizes that this is a tremendous opportunity, and we want to take advantage of it. That’s why this football team has committed itself to working hard for one another and working toward the ultimate goal.”

OLB Terrell Suggs on the Ravens’ new-look defense:

“I love this new group. There is more opportunity to do amazing things. We’ve changed personnel, but we haven’t changed the personality. There is a certain standard here in this city, and we have to honor that. It’s about us getting back to business again. Sure, we’ve lost some guys who were here from Day One, but we have some other guys like myself, Haloti Ngata and Lardarius Webb who have been here from Day One and are grown up.”

OLB Elvis Dumervil on choosing to sign with Baltimore:

“I think what I could bring is a hunger, still, and I’m sure Coach ‘Harbs’ [John Harbaugh] isn’t going to let [complacency] happen. And that’s one of the reasons I chose to come here. I felt the leadership here was outstanding. And for me, I want a ring, and I think as a team [that has] already done it, I think it favors you way more than people may think.”

Bills head coach Doug Marrone on LB Daryl Smith:

“I really see someone that’s playing well, and I’ve always had a lot of respect for him, as he plays at a very high level. I think he’s an outstanding person and a very, very good football player. He can run, he can hit, and he can cover. He’s a three-down type of a guy in a league that now specializes in that position. I have a lot of respect for him both on and off the field.”

LAST WEEK AT BUFFALO

Buffalo Bills 23, Baltimore Ravens 20
Ralph Wilson Stadium • Buffalo, NY • Week 4: Sept. 29

QB Joe Flacco threw a career-high and Ravens-record 5 INTs, 2 off of Baltimore receivers' hands, when the Ravens lost to the Bills, 23-20. The Ravens' defense allowed 203 rushing yards, the most since giving up a franchise-high 227 against Dallas on Oct. 14, 2012. Despite this, Baltimore had the ball at the 50-yard line on third-and-8 with 1:04 left in the game, trailing by 3 points. Flacco then threw his 5th pick of the day when the ball bounced off TE Dallas Clark's hands and was snagged by rookie ILB Kiko Alonso. It was Alonso's second pass theft of the day. CB Aaron Williams also had 2 INTs, both setting up K Dan Carpenter field goals (27 and 22 yards) – one in the first quarter and the second coming in the third. Twice in the fourth quarter the Ravens penetrated Buffalo's 20, the first of these to the 17 and the second time to the 6-yard line. Both times Baltimore had to settle for K Justin Tucker FGs (35 and 24 yards). The Bills led 6-0 after the first quarter on 2 Carpenter FGs. Baltimore then took a 7-6 advantage when Flacco hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 10-yard scoring strike. Buffalo quickly bounced back, scoring 2 TDs before halftime. Rookie QB EJ Manuel threw a 42-yard TD bullet to fellow first-year man WR Robert Woods for 1 tally. RB Fred Jackson then raced 16 yards for another TD after S Jim Leonhard stole a Flacco pass on the Ravens' 28-yard line. The Ravens closed the gap to 20-14 in the third quarter when Flacco hit WR Torrey Smith with a 26-yard TD toss. Smith finished with 5 catches for 166 yards. Flacco, who was sacked 4 times, was 25-of-50 for 347 yards. In the second half, the Ravens threw 28 passes and ran just twice. The Ravens were 3-of-16 on third-down conversions. LB Daryl Smith and CB Corey Graham each had INTs for Baltimore. Buffalo RBs Jackson and C.J. Spiller ran for 87 and 77 yards, respectively.

LAST GAME VS. MIAMI: RAVENS 26, DOLPHINS 10

Nov. 7, 2010 • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore, MD

Totaling 402 yards on offense while owning the ball 38:22 of the game, the Ravens gave the Dolphins their first road loss of the season, 26-10. Baltimore opened the game with a 7-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a QB Joe Flacco-to-RB Willis McGahee 32-yard touchdown pass. The Dolphins followed that with a RB Ronnie Brown 12-yard TD run. Two K Billy Cundiff field goals (26 and 39 yards) gave the Ravens a 13-10 halftime lead. The Ravens dominated the second half and cruised to the victory on a Flacco to-WR Derrick Mason 12-yard TD toss and 2 more Cundiff FGs (20 and 24 yards). Baltimore did not punt in the game, but P Sam Koch did complete a first-down pass to CB Cary Williams on fourth-and-10 in the third quarter. RB Ray Rice produced 180 yards (83 rushing and 97 receiving on 7 catches.) Flacco was nearly flawless, completing 20 of 27 for 266 yards with the 2 TD passes (129.6 QB rating). The Ravens' defense limited Miami to 289 yards, which included QB Chad Henne's 22-of-34, 231-yard, 3-interception performance. S Ed Reed corralled his third INT in just his second game of the season, and McGahee passed the 1,000 receiving yards mark for his career. The Ravens won their seventh straight at home and improved to 3-0 under John Harbaugh coming off the bye (also winning their eighth of nine games after the bye).

DOLPHINS SNAPSHOT

Overview: With a 3-1 mark, Miami is second in the AFC East and off to its best start since 2003 (4-1 that season). On Monday at New Orleans, the Dolphins dropped their first contest of the year, 38-17. This season, Miami is in search of its first division title and postseason berth since 2008. Following this Sunday's game, the Dolphins will have a bye before hosting division rival Buffalo (10/20) in Week 7.

Joe Philbin: Philbin is in his second season with the Dolphins – his first NFL head-coaching post – having produced a 10-10 regular season record. Prior to joining Miami, Philbin spent nine seasons as an assistant with the Green Bay Packers, serving most recently as the team's offensive coordinator (2007-11). In each of his five seasons directing the Packers' offense, the unit finished in the Top 10 in scoring and total yards. Philbin enjoyed four postseason trips as a coordinator and guided an offense that helped Green Bay win Super Bowl XLV. Before joining the NFL, Philbin accrued 19 years of coaching experience at the collegiate ranks.

Offense: The Dolphins have been the league's most successful team at converting red zone opportunities into TDs, with an 81.8 percent success rate. QB Ryan Tannehill has completed 93 of 142 passes for 1,076 yards, with 5 TDs and 5 INTs. He has been sacked a league-high 18 times and also lost 6 fumbles. WR Brian Hartline has led the receiving corps by hauling in a team-high 21 receptions for 272 yards and 2 TDs. Second-year RB Lamar Miller has 43 carries for 196 yards (4.6 avg.) and 2 TDs.

Defense: Former Ravens LB Dannell Ellerbe has made an immediate impact in South Florida, leading the Dolphins' defensive unit with 38 tackles (24 solo), which is 10 more stops than S Reshad Jones, who is second (28). DE Cameron Wake, who did not play on Monday night with a knee injury, leads the team with 2.5 sacks, while CB Dimitri Patterson owns a team-best 2 INTs.

KEY CONNECTIONS

Pro Connections

• Dolphins LB Dannell Ellerbe (2009-12) was originally signed as an undrafted college free agent by the Ravens. Ellerbe totaled 190 tackles, 5.5 sacks, 1 INT and 7 PD in his Baltimore career and helped the team win Super Bowl XLVII last February.

• Several Ravens have previously coached or played for the Miami Dolphins, including D-line coach Clarence Brooks (D-line, 2000-04), director of player development Harry Swayne (tackle, 2001) and senior advisor to player development O.J. Brigance (LB, 1996-99).

• Dolphins assistant special teams coach Marwan Maalouf served in the same capacity for the Ravens from 2008-11.

College Connections

• Ravens WR/RS Deonte Thompson (2008-11) and S Matt Elam (2010-12) attended the University of Florida and were teammates of Dolphins RB Mike Gillislee (2009-12), LB Jelani Jenkins (2009-12), C Mike Pouncey (2007-10) and K Caleb Sturgis (2008-12).

• Ravens WR Torrey Smith (2007-10) and Dolphins LT Will Yeatman (2009-10), CB Nolan Carroll (2006-2009), and DT Randy Starks (2001-03) all attended the University of Maryland.

• Ravens LT Bryant McKinnie (2000-01) and LB Arthur Brown (2008-09) attended Miami (FL). Brown later transferred to Kansas State.

• Ravens G/T Jah Reid (2006-10) attended Central Florida.

Hometown Connections

• Dolphins DT Randy Starks attended Westlake (Waldorf, MD) HS.

• Dolphins DE Cameron Wake was born in Beltsville, MD, and attended DeMatha (Hyattsville, MD) HS.

• Dolphins LB Jelani Jenkins attended Our Lady of Good Counsel (Olney, MD) HS, where he was named the Maryland Gatorade Player of the Year in 2007 and 2008.

• Ravens OLB Terrell Suggs (Hamilton HS) and Dolphins DE Dion Jordan (Chandler HS), both pass-rush specialists, attended high school in Chandler, AZ, although not at the same time.

FIRST PLAYOFF VICTORY

On Jan. 4, 2009, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff, the Ravens captured a 27-9 win at Miami, earning head coach John Harbaugh his first postseason victory (Harbaugh now has 9 total in five seasons).

• "Harbs" and then-rookie QB Joe Flacco became the first "rookie combo" to win a playoff game since Adam Walsh and QB Bob Waterfield led the 1945 Cleveland Rams to an NFL Championship win (15-14) vs. Washington.

• In the 2008 regular season, the Dolphins owned a +17 turnover ratio, tying an NFL record with just 13 give-aways on the season. However, the Ravens, who totaled an NFL-best 34 take-aways in '08, forced 5 turnovers in the Wild Card showdown (Baltimore finished +4 on the day).

• The Ravens' 4 INTs off QB Chad Pennington, who threw just 7 during the regular season, included 2 by S Ed Reed. Reed returned his first pick 64 yards for a touchdown.

2013 ESPN FRANCHISE RANKINGS

Every year, ESPN The Magazine compiles the results of fan surveys and financial analysis to determine which teams in the NFL, NBA, MLB and NHL offer the greatest rewards for all the emotion, money and time that fans invest in them. The rankings are determined by a multi-tiered analysis that examines a team's efficiency in spending fan money as compared to its on-field performance. It also factors in feedback in 25 sub-categories from more than 60,000 fans nationwide, both online at ESPN.com and in polling conducted by both independent third parties. In 2013, the Baltimore Ravens ranked as the 10th-best overall sports franchise and the second-best NFL franchise.

COACH HARBAUGH / ROSBURG NOTES

OVERHEARD ABOUT HARBS

ESPN.com's Herm Edwards on John Harbaugh:

"Going into his sixth season in Baltimore, all John Harbaugh has done is win. He's made the playoffs every year, won at least one playoff game every year, and of course, won a Super Bowl. He's instilled toughness in his team, which will carry over after the losses of [Ed] Reed and [Ray] Lewis. This team is a perennial playoff contender with a great coach at the helm."

ProFootballTalk's Mike Florio on John Harbaugh and the Ravens:

"The Ravens consistently have been underrated and overlooked in recent years. Even after winning the Super Bowl, many think that the Ravens are destined to collapse. Sorry, but it's impossible to ignore five-straight postseason appearances, a great head coach, a great quarterback and a front office that knows when to hold 'em and when to fold 'em. The Ravens won't be folding 'em anytime soon. Though a repeat could be too much to expect, it's not nearly as out of the question as many presume."

CBSSports.com's Pete Prisco on John Harbaugh:

"John has that Super Bowl victory now, and his team has been a Super Bowl contender for much of his stay with Baltimore. I continue to say that his coaching job in 2012 exceeded the talent level on the field. It was a heck of a job. He's been to the postseason all five of his years with the Ravens, and he's 9-4 in 13 postseason games."

SPECIAL FORCES

Assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg, a 35-year coaching veteran, has guided a strong special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. In 2012, the Ravens' special teams units excelled. Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in kickoff return average (27.3), also setting a team record. Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR) and averaged an NFL-best 30.7 yards per kickoff return. Jones also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in Super Bowl history with his 108-yard KOR-TD in Super Bowl XLVII.

Rosburg's kickers were special in 2012, too: P Sam Koch set Ravens single-season punting records with a 47.1 gross average and a 40.8 net average, shattering career bests. K Justin Tucker made 30 of 33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and also the second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history.

Prior to Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007). Under his leadership, Cleveland's special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. Over a five-year span (2002-06), the Browns' special teams were ranked as the top NFL unit in Rick Gosselin's annual comprehensive special teams report.

SPECIAL TEAMS STANDOUTS

In 2012, senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News ranked the Ravens' special teams unit No. 2 in the league in his annual comprehensive ratings system that's based on 22 categories, assigning points according to each standing — 1 for best, 32 for worst. The Vikings finished first in Gosselin's special teams rankings, followed by the Ravens and the Bengals.

A STRONG RETURN

Dating back to the 2008 season when Jerry Rosburg became the Ravens' special teams coordinator, Baltimore has produced the NFL's second-best kickoff return average (24.80).

NFL KICKOFF RETURN AVERAGE (Since 2008 / Rosburg's Baltimore Tenure)

Rk.	Team	KOR	Yards	Avg.	Long	TD
1.	New York Jets	287	7,128	24.84	107t	6
2.	Baltimore Ravens	271	6,720	24.80	108t	4
3.	Atlanta Falcons	213	5,214	24.49	102t	1

NFL KICKOFF RETURN TDs (Since 2011)

1. Minnesota Vikings	3
2. Baltimore Ravens	2
Denver Broncos	2
New York Jets	2
San Diego Chargers	2
Tennessee Titans	2

• The Ravens' 5 total return TDs (KOR and PR) over the past three seasons rank as the NFL's third most. Only Tennessee & Denver (6 each) have more.

• With WR/RS Tandon Doss' PR-TD in Week 3, the Ravens have scored a PR-TD in three-straight seasons, with WR/RS Jacoby Jones' 63-yarder at Pittsburgh on 11/18/12 serving as the most recent before Doss.

COORDINATORS NOTES

CALDWELL'S ATTACK

Jim Caldwell, a 36-year coaching veteran, joined the Ravens as the team's QBs coach in February 2012 and was elevated to offensive coordinator on Dec. 10, replacing Cam Cameron. Caldwell arrived in Baltimore after coaching 10 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts, including the three (2009-11) as head coach. In his first year at the helm, he led the Colts to the AFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XLIV. Caldwell, who earned a Super Bowl ring (2006) with Indy, spent six seasons tutoring one of the NFL's all-time greats in QB Peyton Manning. During the course of Caldwell's time in Indianapolis, the Colts achieved much success, tying an NFL record with nine-straight playoff appearances and winning six AFC South division titles.

CALDWELL FIRES UP "O"

Under Jim Caldwell, who was elevated to offensive coordinator prior to the Ravens' Dec. 16, 2012 game vs. Denver, Baltimore averaged 400.6 yards of offense per contest (146.4 rushing & 254.1 passing) and 27.3 points per game to close out last season.

OFFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- Since John Harbaugh's arrival (2008), two of the Ravens' Top 3 single-game scoring outputs have occurred: 55 vs. Oak. (11/11/12) and 48 vs. Det. (12/13/09). (Baltimore also scored 48 on 12/19/05 vs. GB.)
- Under Harbaugh, the Ravens have totaled at least 400 yards 19 times, producing an 18-1 mark in those games. Baltimore has piled up at least 375 net yards 26 times since '08, producing a 23-3 record in those contests.

PEES LEADS THE "D"

Dean Pees, a 10-year NFL-coaching veteran, was promoted to defensive coordinator on Jan. 27, 2012, after guiding the Ravens' LBs for two seasons. He is the sixth "D" coordinator in franchise history. Pees, who was New England's "D" coordinator from 2006-09, leads a Baltimore unit that finished as the NFL's third-best scoring defense four-consecutive years (2008-11) and tied (NYG) for 12th in 2012, allowing 21.5 points per game.

Pees leads a unit that during the John Harbaugh Era (2008-12)...

- Has allowed the NFL's second-fewest points (17.5) and the third-fewest net yards (306.0) per game during this span.

2. Pittsburgh 74.9
Green Bay 74.9

TURNING AWAY THE TDs

After allowing 7 touchdowns to Denver in Week 1, the Ravens did not permit a TD in their next two games, holding the Browns to 6 points on 9/15 and the Texans to 9 on 9/22. Dating back to the 2008 season, the Ravens have allowed the NFL's fewest TDs (148, tied with Pit.) and also produced the NFL's second-most games (12, tied, Pit.) of not allowing a TD to be scored (SF - 16).

2013 NUMBERS TO RAVE ABOUT

3.5

Yards per rush opponents have gained vs. the Ravens this season, ranking as the NFL's sixth-best defensive mark.

13

OZZIE NEWSOME / PERSONNEL NOTES

WIZARD OF OZ

Ozzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game has seen. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's 2000 and 2012 Super Bowl championship teams and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American GM.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

OZZIE NEWSOME CAREER SNAPSHOT

- NFL's first African American General Manager (promoted in 2002)
- Architect of Ravens 2000 & 2012 Super Bowl Championship Teams
- NFL Executive of the Year (2000)
- Pro Football Hall of Fame (class of 1999)
- State of Alabama Hall of Fame (class of 1995)
- National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and NCAA Hall of Fame (class of 1994)
- 13-Year NFL Tight End with Cleveland Browns (1978-90)
- Three-Time Pro Bowler (1981, 1984-85)
- Four-Time Cleveland Touchdown Club Offensive Player of the Year
- Current Member of Three Major NFL Policy-Making Committees: Competition, Diversity and Player Care Foundation Committees

FIRST-ROUND FINDS

Since moving to Baltimore in 1996, the Ravens, led by Ozzie Newsome, have had 18 drafts and selected 18 players in the first round. These picks have earned an amazing 53 combined Pro Bowls, several All-Rookie honors, multiple Defensive Player of the Year Awards and two Super Bowl MVP honors.

NEWSOME'S NFL TREE

GM Ozzie Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven way," Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many assistants move on to become head coaches on the collegiate and NFL levels.

2013 MILESTONES / TEAM NOTES

MILESTONES IN REACH

TE DALLAS CLARK

- Clark (490 receptions) needs 10 more catches to reach 500, which would make him the ninth TE in NFL history to accomplish the feat.
- With 3 receiving yards, Clark can hit the 5,500-yard milestone, becoming the 17th TE in history to achieve the feat. Clark (50) also needs just 1 receiving TD to own the seventh most all time by a TE (currently tied with Ben Coates).

QB JOE FLACCO

- With 276 more passing yards, Flacco will hit 19,000 for his career.

OLB ELVIS DUMERVIL

- Dumervil (65.5) needs 4.5 sacks to reach 70 for his career.

RB RAY RICE

- Rice (40 career TDs) needs 1 more to tie Todd Heap (41) for the second most in team history. (Jamal Lewis is first with 47.)
- Rice needs 243 receiving yards to hit the 3,000 milestone. He also needs 63 receiving yards to move into fourth on the Ravens' all-time list, passing Qadry Ismail (2,819). Rice needs 2 receiving yards to pass Travis Taylor (2,758) for fifth on Baltimore's career chart.

- With 134 total yards from scrimmage, Rice can hit the 8,500 milestone for his career. If Rice gains 801 yards from scrimmage, he'll pass Jamal Lewis (9,166) for the most yards from scrimmage in Ravens history.

WR MARLON BROWN

- With 1 more TD, he'll tie Clarence Moore (2004) for the third-most TDs by a Ravens rookie. Jamal Lewis (6 in 2000) and WR Torrey Smith (7 in 2011) rank second and first, respectively.

LB DARYL SMITH

- Smith (23 sacks) needs 2 more to reach 25 for his career.

WR BRANDON STOKLEY

- Stokley (393) needs 7 more catches to reach the 400-career milestone. With 1 more receiving TD, he'll have 40 for his career.

OLB TERRELL SUGGS

- Suggs (88.5) needs 1.5 more sacks to reach 90 for his career. Suggs (29) is also just 1 FF shy of 30.
- Suggs (713) needs 9 more tackles to move past DT Kelly Gregg (721) into second place on the Ravens' all-time tackles chart. LB Ray Lewis is first with 2,643 tackles.

IMPRESSIVE STREAKS FROM '12

• In 2012's Week 13 division battle against the Steelers, Baltimore's home winning streak was snapped. The Ravens entered the game having won 15-consecutive games at M&T Bank Stadium (16 including playoffs), the NFL's longest active home streak at the time.

• The defeat marked the Ravens' first loss at home since 12/5/10, which also came against the Steelers (13-10).

• Pittsburgh's win in Week 13 (2012) snapped another streak: The Ravens had won 12-straight AFC North games, tying Indianapolis for the longest division winning streak since 2002 division realignment.

• With 2012's Week 15 loss to Denver, the Ravens dropped back-to-back home games for the first time under John Harbaugh. The last time Baltimore lost consecutive home games was in 2007 (12/3 and 12/9), a stretch that spanned 39 home games leading into Week 15's defeat.

NOTE THE SMITH QUOTE

S Michael Huff on WR Torrey Smith:
"He does it all. He catches, he runs, he blocks, and he runs reverses. He's a No. 1 receiver that you can put out there and not have to worry about. I didn't know he could catch the little hitches and run precise routes like that until I got here and saw how much work he puts in and how hard he works every day in practice, but he's incredible."

TORREY'S COURAGEOUS NIGHT

WR Torrey Smith played in the 2012 Week 3 Sunday night victory over New England after his brother, 19-year-old Tevin Jones, passed away in a motorcycle accident that morning. Smith posted 6 catches for 127 yards and 2 TDs in the come-from-behind win, producing the third 100-yard game of his young career. Additionally, he eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving milestone for his career.

SMITH BIG IN '12 PLAYOFFS

In the 2012 thrilling, double-overtime Divisional Playoff win at Denver (38-35 on 1/12/13), WR Torrey Smith caught 59-yard and 32-yard TD passes, helping mark the first game in NFL playoff history that a QB (Joe Flacco) threw 2 TDs of 59-plus yards (the other being to WR Jacoby Jones on a 70-yarder). In the 2012 postseason, Smith recorded a 21.2 yards-per-catch average, reeling in 11 passes for 233 yards.

LONG BALL LOVE

WR Torrey Smith ranks first in Ravens franchise history in yards-per-catch average, posting a 17.8 mark over the three seasons in which he's caught 120 passes for 2,131 yards and 16 TDs. Dating back to his rookie campaign of 2011, Smith's 17.8 average also ranks second in the NFL.

SACKS OF "DOOM"

This past spring, the Ravens signed free agent OLB Elvis Dumervil, who spent his first seven seasons with Denver. Though he missed the entire 2010 campaign with a pectoral injury, Dumervil has totaled 275 tackles (198 solo), 65.5 sacks, 17 FFs, 9 FRs, 1 INT and 12 passes defended during his career. Last season, he recorded 54 tackles (32 solo), 11 sacks, 6 forced fumbles and 1 pass defended, earning his third Pro Bowl honor.

Since entering the NFL in 2006, Dumervil's 65.5 sacks tie for eighth most among active players. His 17 quarterback drops during the 2009 campaign ranked first in the NFL that season.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER NOTES

TANGLED IN THE WEBB

Ravens CB/RS Lardarius Webb missed 10 games in 2012 after tearing his ACL on 10/14 vs. Dallas. The fifth-year pro worked hard in training camp to return for the Ravens' 2013 Week 1 opener, when he had 1 tackle and 1 PD at Denver. In 2011, Webb produced a career year, becoming the NFL's only player that season to have an INT-TD & a PR-TD. Webb also tied to post the NFL's fourth-most pass defended (20) in 2011, finishing with a career-best 68 tackles and a team-high 5 INTs on the season.

SMITH'S BIG RAVENS DEBUT

Ravens ILB Daryl Smith, who was signed as a free agent (Jax.) this offseason, has been outstanding in his first four games as a Raven. Smith, who leads the team with 37 tackles, is one of three NFL defenders to post at least 35 tackles, 1 sack and 1 INT entering Week 5 of the season.

^ Smith's 2 INTs this season already equal a career high.

SMITH'S STRONG HISTORY

During his nine-year (2004-12) career in Jacksonville, LB Daryl Smith produced a franchise-record 1,096 tackles. One of the NFL's most productive defenders over the past 10 seasons, Smith ranks in the Top 3 in several all-time Jaguars' categories:

GRAHAM STEPS UP

CB Corey Graham, who signed with the Ravens as a free agent in 2012, was a standout for Baltimore during its Super Bowl XLVII journey. Starting eight games in the regular season after CB Lardarius Webb's knee injury and every playoff contest, Graham finished the year with 54 tackles, 2 INTs and 8 PD. In the postseason, he had 32 tackles, .5 sacks, 2 INTs (1 for a TD in the 2OT Divisional win at Denver) and a team-high 7 PD.

THE DOMINANT DT

One of the NFL's most disruptive forces, DT Haloti Ngata was named to his fourth Pro Bowl in 2012. Perhaps the NFL's most athletic defensive tackle, Ngata stops the run (458 career tackles), rushes the passer (23 career sacks) and even drops into coverage (3 career INTs).

Baltimore has a history of strong run defense, and with Ngata's help since 2006, has been consistently sturdy on the ground.

2.	Leon Washington	27	784	29.0	98t	1
3.	Joe McKnight	39	1,072	27.5	100t	1

NFL Record Note:

- Jones is the only player in NFL history to record dual KOR-TDs of at least 105 yards in a career (108- & 105-yarders).

PRIME PUNT RETURNER

Since entering the NFL in 2007, WR/RS Jacoby Jones has registered the NFL's second-most PR yards (2,161 on 216 returns). Jones has returned 4 punts for TDs during this time, including a 63-yarder in 2012's Week 11 win at Pit. He also owns 8 punt returns of 50-or-more yards, including three 70-plus-yarders that produced TDs.

DOSS NEXT MAN UP

Serving as the Ravens' primary punt returner since WR/RS Jacoby Jones was injured (knee) in Week 1, WR/RS Tandon Doss has been spectacular. In the Week 3 win over Houston, Doss posted an 82-yard PR-TD, which is the fifth longest in team history. On 9 PRs this season, he's tallied an 18.6 average, which ranks first in the NFL entering Week 5.

NFL KICKOFF RETURN TDs (Since 2011)

- Minnesota Vikings 3
- Baltimore Ravens 2
Denver Broncos 2
New York Jets 2
- San Diego Chargers 2
- Tennessee Titans 2

- The Ravens' 5 total return TDs (KOR and PR) over the past three seasons rank as the NFL's third most. Only Denver & Tennessee (6 each) have more.

- With WR/RS Tandon Doss' PR-TD in Week 3, the Ravens have scored a PR-TD in three-straight seasons, with WR/RS Jacoby Jones' 63-yarder at Pittsburgh on 11/18/12 serving as the most recent before Doss.

2012 SPECIAL TEAMS UNIT RECEIVES HIGH MARK

In 2012, longtime NFL writer Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News ranked the Ravens' special teams unit No. 2 in the league in his annual comprehensive ratings system that's based on 22 categories, assigning points according to each standing — 1 for best, 32 for worst. The Vikings finished first in Gosselin's special teams rankings, followed by the Ravens and the Bengals.

KICKER TUCK

K Justin Tucker earned the Ravens' 2012 kicking job as a rookie after a training camp battle with veteran Billy Cundiff, and he excelled in his first season as a pro. Tucker connected on 30 of his 33 FGAs, hitting 4 50+ FGs, which rank as a Ravens' single-season record. Producing 132 points (third most in team history and eighth in the NFL), his 90.9% success rate stands as the second-best mark in Ravens single-season history and also second by a rookie kicker in NFL history.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

On Tuesday (9/24), the Baltimore Ravens, including players C Gino Gradkowski, S James Ihedigbo, FB Vonta Leach, WR Torrey Smith, QB Tyrod Taylor and DT Brandon Williams, joined Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake for a build day at the construction site of 18 new rowhomes, including three funded by the Ravens All Community Team Foundation. This marked the third time that the Ravens have lent a helping hand for this project, in an effort to further improve the community surrounding M&T Bank Stadium.

HISPANIC HERITAGE LEADER

To celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month, the Ravens honored Dr. Elizabeth Molina Morgan (below) as the 2013 NFL Hispanic Heritage Leader at their home game against the Houston Texans (9/22). Dr. Morgan has spent more than 30 years working in all facets of public education. She was the superintendent of Washington County (Maryland) Schools for nearly a decade and led the district to increase its graduation rate by 14 percent. She also recently received the Hispanic Heritage Foundation's "Educator of the Year" Award.

SPECIAL GUESTS

Occasionally, the Baltimore Ravens will host special groups out to the Under Armour Performance Center for practice. Last week, the team hosted a group of nuns, staff and a very special resident from the Little Sisters of the Poor - St. Martin's Home, a nursing home in Catonsville, Md. Marie Cusick, a long-time resident of the home, was approaching her 100th birthday, and to celebrate, she watched practice and met Ravens coaches and players, including WR Torrey Smith, pictured below.

HEAD COACH JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

Opening statement: “Good to see everybody. I brought some notes here on injuries. I thought that would make everybody here really happy. Going through the game and what happened during the game and stuff like that ... Albert [McClellan] had a shoulder sprain. We’ll have to see how he practices this week with it. There’s no major damage in there. Marlon Brown had a hamstring strain. He looked pretty good this morning. ‘Webby’ [Lardarius Webb] had a hamstring strain. That’s why both of those guys came out. He looked good this morning. We’ll have to carry out through the week and see how they look. Deonte Thompson had the concussion. He’ll go through the protocol, but he was good this morning – no headaches, no concussion symptoms. But, he’ll go through the NFL protocol on that. The foot came out of there very well, so that was positive. Jimmy Smith had a glute bruise that he fought through the whole game. You might have seen him limping and getting on the bike during the game. I thought he played through that and played very well with that. Bernard Pierce is doing fine. He’s been working through a calf strain, but he did fine with that. Arthur Brown looks like he will return to practice this week, and we will have to see how he gets through practice and how he does, but that’s a real positive sign. Jacoby Jones will start practicing this week. So, we’ll see how he does this week with that. Chris Canty did really well – played the whole game and didn’t seem to have any issues with it. We should pick up Jeromy Miles this week. We’re really hopeful that will happen. We signed him from Cincinnati. He had a little bit of a hamstring, and we decided to rest him last week, and this week he looks good. So, we’ll have our fingers crossed on that one. Shaun Draughn had a little bit of an ankle sprain that he did get up. We held him out of action; he was kind of in an emergency role for us. He looked good this morning. Ray [Rice] got through just fine, and Brandon Williams got through it fine. So, that’s where we are with the injuries. As far as the game, really nothing different from what we saw, what we talked about after the game yesterday, once we saw the tape. I think what you see is what you get in this one. And after watching the tape, that’s how we feel about it.”

One of the biggest position battles during training camp was for the center spot between Gino Gradkowski and A.Q. Shipley. Now that you’re one quarter through the season, what have you liked and not liked about Gino Gradkowski’s play and, for that matter, the whole offensive line? (Joe Platania) “The whole O-line is disappointing right now. No one is more disappointed than they are right now. We’ve got to run block better, and we’ve got to pass block better. We felt like we were making strides, especially in the pass-blocking area, and then we really didn’t do as good of a job in this game. We had too many mental mistakes – too many things that are basic protection rules that we understand and we should know – that we did not get on the same page with. As far as Gino [Gradkowski] and how he fits into that, [it’s] just what you’d expect from a young center. He’s done a good job physically. It hasn’t been too often where Gino has been pushed around. He’s done a good job of getting on his targets. He’s done a good job of holding the point in there. That can always be better. Some of his footwork things ... I talk to him all the time [about how] he can just come off the ball better. Sometimes he’s a little tentative with his footwork, and he wants to stay in front of people. Go ahead and come off the ball and move people a little bit. He’s capable of doing that. But, it’s the difference between Gino and Matt [Birk] with the calls. And, we’re feeling that in there right now. Gino is a really smart guy, but Matt had been at it for a lot of years. So, that’s something that we’re working through. The rest of the offensive line – we’ve just got to get better. We’ve got to run block better. We’ve got to make decisions scheme-wise about what’s best for our guys to do, exactly what schemes those are. We’ve got to come off the ball in the run game a lot better than we’re doing, and we’ve got to be more physical with the inside part of our pass protection and give Joe [Flacco] more depth to the pocket and keep Joe more clean. Joe does not need to be under the pressure he’s under. Actually, our protection index had been pretty good going into this game, but this game, it was not acceptable.”

Did you mention Brandon Stokley in your rundown of injuries? He was on the injury report on Friday. (Luke Jones) “Brandon [Stokley] had a groin strain, and we thought we’d get him to the game and work him out. We thought he’d have a chance to be OK. We thought he’d be OK, but it just tightened up on him in pregame. So, we’ll monitor that again day-to-day this week, and hopefully, we will have him next week.”

Are the injuries among the wide receivers limiting what you are able to do in games as well as practice? (Garrett Downing) “It’s hurt us, there’s no question. We’re down legs. We’re down legs on that side of the ball, and it’s hard to run the way you want and work on the things you want to work on, but you have to do it. Everybody faces that. It will be good to get those guys back. We’ll get Jacoby [Jones] back this week practicing. Deonte [Thompson] is back now. I really feel like Marlon [Brown] and Brandon [Stokley] will have a chance to practice, so that will help us.”

Last week you said running the ball was part of the DNA, yet there were only two rushes in the second half yesterday. Is that because you abandoned the run because you thought it wasn’t working and you needed to try something else? Was that your call or Jim Caldwell’s call? (Mark Zinno) “That’s my call all the way. I just felt like we weren’t running the ball well enough to win the game running the ball. Looking back on it, I feel the same way. After watching the tape, I feel we did exactly the right thing to try to win that game. So, no second-guessing myself on that. That was my decision, and that's the way we went with it. If you feel like we should have run the ball more in the second half, then I definitely respect that opinion, but it didn't look that way to me. So, that's what we did."

It looks like there are two new major changes when it comes to the offensive line: the change from Gino [Gradkowski] to Matt Birk and the addition of [run game coordinator] Juan Castillo. What do you see as being the issue? (Jerry Coleman) "The issue is what it always is: We've just got to get better. We've got to go to work and improve the things we can improve, make good decisions on what we choose to do and how we choose to scheme it. Yes, we can game-plan better; we can set formations up better to put our guys in a position. Our running backs can do a better job of running to the right spot and trusting the offensive line. It has nothing to do with style or technique or anything like that. It's finding what our guys do well with this group and doing it well. I'm very confident in every one of our coaches – we have a great staff. Everybody works together, and we'll find a way to work it out. It's a process; it's going to be a year-long process."

Was Ray [Rice's] health in any way a factor yesterday? (Jerry Coleman) "I don't think so. Ray [Rice] ran pretty well. Ray ran that trap up in there and almost made two guys miss to score that would have won us the game. He looked fine."

With that being said about the offensive line, Marshal Yanda was asked this week about what [run game coordinator] Juan [Castillo] has been doing with [offensive line coach] Andy [Moeller]. I know they're still working together. Marshal said there are a few wrinkles ... Is there anything different – a different style that you're trying to do, or is it just a couple of small things? (Jeff Zrebiec) "It's the same offense. We still run the same plays. We still have the same philosophy; there are always a few wrinkles. That's why I brought Juan [Castillo] in, because I was excited about things I knew he was going to bring to the table and bring to our program. Those things are a part of what we're doing. We're not the same team we were two months ago, and we're going to be a different team two months from now. I'm most interested what kind of team we are six days from now when we go down to Miami. Look all around the league. There are things that you expect to struggle with and things that crop up on you that you have to deal with. Like we talked about, we have to become a good run-the-ball football team. We need to be physical up front, and that needs to be evident in the way we play. Altogether, we've got to work on getting there, and that's what we'll do."

What did you see when you watched the tape in terms of run defense. They seemed to, like you said, run between the tackles quite a bit? That was the emphasis, but they also hit it outside on the edges, too. (Aaron Wilson) "The biggest thing was they hit a certain play – a lead draw, a lead scheme play – and we did not do a good job of defending it, consistently. There were times we stuffed it, but there were times they got us for chunks of yards. They were able to play the kind of game that you need to play to win those games. They got themselves to second-and-5, they got themselves into third-and-3 and even third-and-short. We did a great job on third-and-short and fourth-and-short of stuffing runs. It was just playing that scheme, getting off blocks, [and] getting cut off occasionally. They got up to our linebackers at times when we didn't need them to. We didn't play techniques as tight as we needed to on edges, inside and outside. They are things we can do better."

Penalties can hamstring a team, where you don't give yourself manageable situations offensively. (Aaron Wilson) "We had some offensive penalties that are just unnecessary. We have a facemask penalty the first play of the game. It's absolutely unnecessary. Ray [Rice] gets a little jumpy and jumps offside. Now we're backed up inside or right around our 5-yard line. We've got to start faster. How about the first play of the second half? We come out, and we jump offside. So, that's something we talked about today."

You mentioned being physical, especially in the run game. Why isn't Vonta Leach a bigger part of the run game? (Mark Zinno) "I'm not sure how much more he can be a bigger part of the run game. We run the ball most of the time when he's in there. We're in regular and I-formation football more than anybody else in the National Football League. So, what more do you want? He's in there a lot."

How frustrating is it to have a great week of practice, and then when you get to the game and the game plan, it doesn't transfer over to the game? (Bill West) "That's the thing that we have to get to. That's exactly right. We practiced exceptionally well last week, and our practices have been getting better throughout the course of last month, and it was showing up on the field. Then, all of a sudden, we go out there in this game, and it doesn't show up. We don't transfer it. Give Buffalo credit – they played a very good game. They were very physical. They were at home, we were on the road. We haven't played well on the road, twice now. We've got to figure that one out this week. But that's the thing we have to do – we have to take the practice and transfer it to the game."

You guys haven't scored in the first quarter the last three games. How much is trying to establish the running game and not being able to contributing to that? (Clifton Brown) "That's a big part of it. We aren't running the ball well anytime during the game. I guess we've run the ball well in four-minute situations at the end of the game in the two games that we won. But more than that, we have put ourselves in minus-type situations right out of the gates, mostly with penalties and the fact that we're running the ball for about a yard a carry on first down. And that's just got to change."

Is that kind of mystifying, the whole road play? Because in the playoffs, you've got a pretty darn good track record of playing well on the road. (Jerry Coleman) "We hope by the end of the year we have a good track record of playing on the road. That's going to be the goal, and we've got to get past that."

John, Ed Dickson dropped another pass yesterday that led to an interception. He caught 54 passes just a few years ago. How different does he look out there right now from your football perspective? (Brett Hollander) "That's a long time ago, so I'm hard-pressed to make that direct comparison. The stats kind of speak for themselves that you're alluding to. He's not the same player right now that he was then, obviously. Ed just needs to go catch the ball. He needs to run fast, get open and catch the football, put it away and get up field. That's all he needs to do. And if he's thinking about anything besides that, he's doing himself a disservice. If he's lacking confidence for some reason, that's on him. [If] you've got that kind of talent and those kinds of gifts – go play ball. Go show everybody what you're capable of doing. That's what I expect to see from Ed."

John, what happened on the touchdown to Robert Woods? It looked like maybe Corey Graham was expecting some help inside and it wasn't there. (Matt Vensel) "We had a coverage error on that. We busted the coverage on that."

John, with Joe Flacco's five interceptions, was part of it because there wasn't a running game and maybe Buffalo was looking for a pass? And then with the pass he was under pressure? Or all of the above? (David Ginsburg) "Probably all of the above. To me, the first thing was pressure. The first thing was when you're hurried through your progression, or you can only get through one or two aspects of your progression and you don't have a chance to let things develop, then you've got to push the ball somewhere pretty quickly before the route develops. For instance, if we're running some kind of a high-low route, if you don't have time to let the high-route develop, well, they can jump on the low routes pretty quickly, and he's got to throw it there or he's going to take a sack. That happened on a couple of them where he didn't have a chance ... One time I remember Kiko Alonso makes it on the left side, Joe is just hurried and never has a chance to see him. He had the one downfield where he was kind of on the run a little bit and threw it up, and Torrey [Smith] slipped and the corner made a great play in the end zone. Two of the plays were tipped balls, where their guys made great catches. Hey, if we catch the ball it's a completion. We don't, and they come in and make diving catches. Give them credit for making plays; shame on us for not making the plays. So, as you said, all of the above."

Is it any consolation that through a quarter of the season, you're still tied for first place in the AFC North? Obviously, it could be better, but it could be worse. (Mark Zinno) "It's a consolation, no doubt. It's week-to-week in the National Football League, just what you're saying. Here we sit; we're tied for the lead in our division, with a tiebreaker on Cleveland. And if I'm in Pittsburgh, I'm looking at it like, 'We're two games out of the lead in the division.' They're right there. Whoever wins the division games is going to win the division. But, we can do our cause a whole lot of good by going down to Miami and playing our best and winning the football game. That's going to be our objective."
