- Jacksonville owns the all-time series lead, 11-9, while in the last six meetings, each team has won three games. (This includes Baltimore's 19-17 victory at Jacksonville during the 2016 campaign.)
- Forcing 5 turnovers for the second-consecutive week, the Ravens bested the Browns, 24-10, last Sunday at M&T Bank Stadium. Baltimore's defense recorded 4 INTs (also for the second-straight week) and 1 FR, adding 3 sacks, 10 QB hits and 9 PD. On offense, QB Joe Flacco was an efficient 25-of-34 for 217 yards and 2 TDs, while Baltimore also racked up 136 rushing yards (4.3 avg. on 32 carries).

- In their 22nd year of existence, the Ravens have earned a playoff berth in six of the past nine full seasons. Since coach Harbaugh's arrival in 2008, Baltimore has posted the NFL's fourth-most total victories (97), won the league's second-most playoff games (10), advanced to an impressive three AFC Championship contests, and in 2012, captured the World Championship in SB XLVII.

HARBS SAYS

JOHN HARBAUGH ON THE RAVENS PLAYING IN LONDON:

"We have one goal this week, and that's to go 1-0. We're playing the Jaguars, and that game is in London. We'll have our regular routine through Thursday's practice. We'll fly to England on Thursday night, sleep on the plane, and we'll have our regular schedule for Friday and Saturday in London. The game is at 9:30 a.m. our time, which is different. But, we practiced throughout training camp at 8:45 a.m. We'll be ready."

INJURY UPDATE

Six-time Pro Bowler and team leader RG Marshal Yanda fractured his ankle last week vs. Cleveland and will miss the remainder of the season, as will rookie LB Bam Bradley (knee), who was also injured against the Browns. Standout DT Brandon Williams (foot) was injured vs. Cleveland and did not return to the game. Rookie CB Jaylen Hill (thigh) did not play in Week 2, nor did OLB Za'Darius Smith (knee/ankle).

NOTE THE QUOTE

THE BALTIMORE SUN'S CHILDS WALKER ON THE RAVENS' SECONDARY:

"[Eric] Weddle, [Jimmy] Smith and [Tony] Jefferson are all capable of making the Pro Bowl. [Brandon] Carr is the picture of dependability. [Marlon] Humphrey, with his undeniable physical skills and Alabama pedigree, is the future. [Lardarius] Webb, who has voluntarily accepted a backup role as a jack-of-all trades, is the graying voice of Ravens wisdom. Add in versatile special teams star Anthony Levine Sr. and surprise training camp standout Jaylen Hill, the group has an answer for every situation."

SPOTLIGHT: BRANDON WILLIAMS

Pos: DT Ht: 6-1 Wt: 340 Exp. (NFL/Ravens): 5/5
College: Missouri So. St. Hometown: St. Louis, MO

What makes playing in the U.K. different than playing a game in the U.S.? “The experience of playing overseas – being in London and a different atmosphere, the different types of fans. You always hear about the crazy hooligan soccer fans. You wonder if you’re going to get those kinds of fans at the football game. That’s one of the things I’m excited about, to see the fans there and how the atmosphere is.”

Are you excited to play a game in Wembley Stadium? “It’s an amazing place. When we went there [for the NFL’s offseason promotional trip], it was awesome. I think [the fans] are going to be going crazy. The stadium is kind of a dome, but at the same time, it’s open. It’s going to be crazy with the acoustics. People are going to be yelling, and hopefully, they tip the Richter scale a little bit.”

Who is going to be the first person on the team to speak in a British accent? “Me, for sure, right off the bat. I’m pretty sure it’s going to be me or [kicker Justin] Tucker. We’re so goofy.”

Who has the better British accent, you or Justin Tucker? “I’ve always had a good ear for listening to stuff and then mimicking afterwards. I think he might [be better] in the approach and display of it. But, I think in really getting it, I have him on that one.”

If you could have dinner with anyone, dead or alive, who would it be? “Robin Williams, if I could just sit there and pick his brain, talk to him. Robin Williams wrote material for Richard Pryor. I would ask how it felt writing for guys like Pryor. I would also talk about his creative mindset on him getting into a character, like in ‘Aladdin,’ being the Genie, or Mrs. Doubtfire – how he gets in character and how he makes that switch, with his creative juices flowing. I would ask him typical, simple questions, too, about his day and regular people stuff. I think it would also be cool to do an improvisation with him.”

What is one thing most people don’t know about you? “I’ve always been a theater junkie. I love musicals, plays, anything that has to do with dancing, jazz hands, all that stuff. I’ve always wanted to do it, but I would always get stage fright, like cold feet. I think after football, I would really like to get into acting. I never got to do it as a kid, because I was always in sports and always doing something every season of high school – football, basketball or track.”

Favorite musical? “‘Hairspray’ is one I like. I like ‘Rent,’ that was awesome. I saw ‘The Lion King’ on Broadway; I felt like a kid again.”

QUOTH THE RAVENS

LONDON SPOTLIGHT: JERMAINE ELUEMUNOR

Pos: G/T Ht: 6-4 Wt: 338 Exp. (NFL/Ravens): R
College: Texas A&M Hometown: London, England

What excites you most about playing in your hometown of London? “The thing that really excites me is just going back there and seeing how everything has changed. I haven’t been there since 2011. Seeing if the buildings close to where I grew up have changed and seeing how my friends are. A lot of them have kids now. I’m excited.”

What do you miss most about London? “The food. It’s more natural over there than it is over here.”

What is your favorite memory from London? “My favorite memory would be the first time I put pads on when I was 11. I didn’t hit, but I put pads on. We were playing flag football in full pads. (laughter) That is what got me here – that was the start of my journey, so that would have to be my favorite memory. I was a tight end and played on the D-line.”

What is the biggest advantage to being your size? “I can carry a lot of groceries in the house, and no one wants to sit next to me on the team bus, so I get my own seat. Whenever I get on a flight, they see how big I am and give me good seats.” (laughter)

Who was your childhood sports idol? “David Beckham.”

At what moment did you realize you could play in the NFL? “Honestly, I never knew until it happened. I always wanted it to happen, and I knew I was going to work my butt off to make it happen. But with dreams, you don’t actually know if they are going to come true until they actually do. Dreams are something you have to work toward, and they can come to everybody, but you have to put in the work. I had no idea I could play in the NFL, until I was playing here.”

How does the Ravens’ commitment to the run excite you as an offensive lineman? “I love it, because there is nothing like coming off the ball and just hitting someone. When you block the run, you get to hit people going downhill and tire the entire defense out. That is the way to beat a team down, because if you run it on them, once you start throwing it against them, they are still tired trying to pass rush.”

What is the biggest thing you have taken from Marshal Yanda? “Everything. I have idolized him for a while, so when I got drafted, I was like, ‘Wow, I get to play with Marshal Yanda.’ I think he is a future Hall of Famer. Just being in the position I was and having to learn a lot about the sport and coming here and getting to learn from the best to ever do it, I couldn’t be in a better position.”

What is the biggest misconception your teammates have about people from England? “That we have teatime. The Queen might have teatime, but I’ve never had teatime.” (laughter)

What is your biggest pet peeve? “When I hear people say they can’t do something. My thing is that if you want something in life, go out and get it. We all have 10 fingers and 10 toes and all these muscles. God gave us all that, and all you have to do is go out and do it. You just have to work for it.”

What is it like blocking Terrell Suggs or Brandon Williams? “Brandon is humongous and is probably the strongest player I have ever gone against. If I whiff against him, I am going to get embarrassed. He makes me bring my ‘A’ game every day. ‘Sizzle’ gets me better, because I’m having to play tackle and guard. He is one of the best to ever play his position. That is why it is the perfect opportunity. I have one of the best to ever play O-line teaching me [in Marshal Yanda] and one of the best to ever play the sport going against me [in Terrell Suggs].”

CB BRANDON CARR ON THE RAVENS’ DEFENSE:

“From the outside looking in [while playing for Dallas and Kansas City earlier in his career], I would hear about the defense’s dominance and Raven pride. But [you don’t understand it fully] until you actually step foot in here. From Day One, I’ve gotten that feeling of guys who take pride in playing their positions and what defense means for this club. That feeling is very contagious around the locker room. We just need to keep our heads down, stay humble and stay hungry.”

Browns T Joe Thomas on OLB Terrell Suggs:

“Suggs is always one of the greatest challenges that I face every year, and it is amazing in his 15th NFL season that he still is doing it as well as he did when he was in his sixth or seventh season. There are always good battles between myself and Suggs. I think he is one of the greats of all time, not only for the Ravens, but at his position.”

OLB Terrell Suggs on the loss of Pro Bowl G Marshal Yanda:

“It hurts. He is a leader. There is not a word in the English dictionary that can describe – well, I can’t find one right now – what Marshal is to us. That hurts to lose your bell cow. But, the Ravens, our motto is, ‘The next man up.’ We are going to miss him, but we still have to play ‘Raven Football.’ He would want us to play ‘Raven Football,’ and he would hold us to that standard.”

WR Jeremy Maclin on how he describes the Ravens’ culture:

“Respected. You can feel that all around the NFL. From a distance, you respect this organization. Even if you are on a different team, there is something about the Ravens that makes everyone respect it.”

LB C.J. Mosley on the defense creating so many turnovers:

“That is what we preached about in the offseason. We also got guys like [Brandon] Carr and Tony [Jefferson], because we knew what kind of players they were, as far as getting turnovers and being an impact player. It is with those two coming in and learning the system and all of us gelling together and believing in our defensive plan every week. I feel like we have had some great stuff every week, even in our base packages. As long as we communicate and play ‘Raven Football,’ we feel we can play along with the offense.”

Offensive coord. Marty Mornhinweg on being aggressive:

“Aggressive is a mindset. We talk about being aggressive in everything we do – when we are in the classroom, when we are out here at practice, when we were in the game. Aggressive, aggressive. We could have a deceptive run play, but within that, we want to be aggressive. That does not mean throwing the ball all over the place. We just want an aggressive mentality in everything we do.”

WEEK 2 RECAP: VS. CLEVELAND

RAVENS 24, BROWNS 10 • WEEK 2, SEPT. 17 • M&T BANK STADIUM

For the second-consecutive game, the defense produced five take-aways, helping the Ravens to a hard-fought, 24-10 victory over the visiting Browns in the regular season home opener. It's the first time in franchise history that Baltimore had 5 take-aways in back-to-back games and the first time to post 4 interceptions in consecutive contests. The balanced offense produced 337 yards, 136 rushing and 201 through the air. The Ravens' first theft came on the Browns' second possession, when OLB Terrell Suggs strip-sacked rookie QB DeShone Kizer, and OLB Matthew Judon made the recovery at Cleveland's 33-yard line. Seven plays later, RB Terrance West rumbled 2 yards into the end zone for the game's first score to give Baltimore a 7-0 lead. In the second quarter, a QB Joe Flacco dart (9 yards) to RB Javorius Allen gave the Ravens a 14-0 advantage. Kizer then left the game with a migraine. His replacement, Kevin Hogan, brought the Browns back to 14-7 with a 23-yard TD toss to TE David Njoku. With 29 seconds left in the half, Hogan was intercepted by rookie OLB Tyus Bowser, who returned the INT 27 yards to Cleveland's 40. Following a 37-yard run by Allen, Flacco closed the first half with a 2-yard TD to WR Jeremy Maclin, giving the Ravens a 21-7 boost. A third-quarter K Zane Gonzalez 38-yard FG made the score 21-10 before K Justin Tucker scored the game's final points with a 28-yard FG in the fourth period. S Eric Weddle, DB Lardarius Webb and CB Brandon Carr also each produced interceptions. Allen finished the game with 101 scrimmage yards, including 66 rushing and 35 receiving (5 catches), while RB Alex Collins, signed to the roster the previous day, produced 47 yards on 7 carries in the fourth quarter. TE Benjamin Watson caught 8 passes for 91 yards, surpassing 5,000 yards for his career. Flacco was 25-of-34 for 217 yards, while Kizer and Hogan combined to be 20-of-42 for 300 yards. The Ravens limited the Browns to 2-of-12 on third down. Baltimore lost two players for the season: six-time Pro Bowl G Marshal Yanda (ankle) and rookie LB Bam Bradley (knee).

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XXXV MVP

In a magnificent effort showcasing thrilling performances by their defense, offense and special teams units, the Baltimore Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV with a 34-7 victory over the New York Giants. Allowing the Giants a meager 152 total net yards, New York's attack crossed midfield just twice, while Baltimore's "D" posted 4 INTs. LB Ray Lewis was named the game's MVP, capping an accolade-filled season in which he was also tabbed the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

QB Joe Flacco - 2012
Super Bowl XLVII MVP

Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second World Championship. After an amazing first-half performance, the Ravens took a commanding 28-6 lead. But following a bizarre, 34-minute power outage that halted play, the 49ers stormed back into contention. Clinging to a 34-29 edge late in the game, the Ravens stood firm on a pivotal goal-line stand, jamming SF on four-straight plays inside the 7-yard line. QB Joe Flacco was named the game's MVP.

THE HARBAUGH FILE

John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in six (2008-12 & 2014) of his nine full seasons in Baltimore, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl title. Under his guidance, the Ravens have secured an appearance in three AFC Championships (2008, 2011 & 2012).

Here are several Harbaugh quick hits:

- The Ravens' 10 playoff wins since 2008 rank second only to New England's 11.
- "Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.
- John and his brother, Jim (formerly of the 49ers), are the only head coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years as NFL bosses.
- Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.
- In 2012, Harbaugh became the third coach (with Bill Cowher & Chuck Knox) since the 1970 merger to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons.
- Harbaugh owns the second-most playoff wins (10, tied) by a coach in his first nine seasons (since the 1970 merger).
- With the Ravens' 2014 playoff berth, Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching.
- For coaches to make the playoffs in at least six of their first nine years, "Harbs" is one of five active coaches to do so (Pete Carroll, Mike McCarthy, Andy Reid & Mike Tomlin).
- Harbaugh, Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) own the most road playoff wins (7) by a HC in NFL history.

"John is the best coach I know, the best I've ever come across or competed against. I'm envious of the grasp he has of the entire game. JERRY ROSBURG & SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SEASONS
RAVENS: 10TH
NFL: 17TH

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg has guided a strong special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Below are several standout notes about the coach and his successful group of specialists:

SIX PRO BOWLERS

• Six Ravens have earned eight combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Rosburg: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016) and P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER

• Two-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (171) since entering the NFL in 2012. With an 89.5% career success mark, "Tuck" is the second-most accurate kicker in league history (171-of-191 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2014, Koch posted the NFL's No. 3 gross (47.4) and No. 1 net (43.3) averages, both career highs and Ravens records.

RAVENS' BIG RETURNS

• Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

ROSBURG'S PAST

• Prior to Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007). Over a five-year span (2002-06), Cleveland's special teams were ranked as the top NFL unit in The Dallas Morning News' annual comprehensive report.

(The other team is the 1971 Browns.)

"The MLB position is not about splash plays, and it's not about stats. It's about being the heartbeat of a team defense. Ever since C.J. came into the NFL three seasons ago, Baltimore's defense has been in the Top 8. You have to respect that, because when you're the MLB, you're the anchor. You're like the symphony conductor. To come in and run a defense like that at 22 years old is special. Ask any guy in the league, and they'd tell you. C.J. has the potential to make that defense click for a long time."

"Of the many traits that have marked Yanda as a great player over the years, one is his ability to shift positions without losing effectiveness. That versatility is a product of his intelligence and his underappreciated athleticism. He's also a straight-up tough dude, much like Terrell Suggs on the other side of the ball. Only the elite of the elite guards earn serious Hall of Fame consideration. Yanda belongs in that realm."

From Day One, [Jefferson] already had a feel for how I play and how to work off me. ... It frees me up a lot more mentally. I don't have to tell him after each play why I did this or, before the snap, say, 'Let's do this.' He already knows. That is just light years ahead of most guys I've played with. I've loved every guy I've played with, but he's just on another level."

ESPN.com’s Kevin Seifert on Sam Koch’s arsenal of punts:

“Some are designed to hook toward the sideline with maximum hang time. Others use an intentionally low trajectory to aid coverage teams. He has a knuckler and one kick that drops, from the returner’s perspective, roughly in the shape of the letter ‘S.’ He’s debuted a ‘boomerang’ punt that does just what you would imagine it might. Most, but not all, of these punts are intended to discourage a clean catch and minimize the return.

“It’s not unusual for NFL punters to develop a ‘changeup’ of sorts, but no one has ever had multiple options at the ready. ... The NFL changes every day, but there are only a few moments in each generation when it transforms. This is one of them. In plain sight, Sam Koch and the Ravens have introduced a new way to punt.”

A TREMENDOUS 2016

In 2016, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the fifth-best percentage in NFL single-season history. In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for fifth-best streak ever), here are several facts about his remarkable season, which is arguably the best ever by a kicker:

- ✓ Tucker's 38 FGs made ranked No. 1 in the NFL. He was also 27-of-27 on PATs. An NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made in 2016 came from 40 yards or beyond.
- ✓ Tucker's 10 FGs of 50-plus yards are a Ravens' single-season record. They tie (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most in NFL history. (Tucker was a perfect 10-for-10 from 50 yards and out during the 2016 season.)
- ✓ Tucker's 141 points ranked second in the league only behind Atlanta's Matt Bryant (158).
- ✓ In Week 12 vs. Cincy, Tucker became just the ninth kicker in league history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in a single game (52, 57 & 54). He is also the first kicker in NFL history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in the first half of a game. (These feats earned him AFC ST POW honors.)

"He's very valuable. I'm a Justin Tucker guy, along with Morgan [Cox, snapper] and Sam [Koch, holder]. It's a team effort in there with the protection, and those guys do a good job. But when it's all said and done, the kicker is key. He's the guy that's going to knock it through the uprights, and there's nobody better than Justin Tucker."

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

PASS IT FORWARD

In honor of the 16th anniversary of 9/11, the Baltimore Ravens teamed up with Verizon for the “Pass It Forward” campaign to thank first responders and military members for their service. On Monday, Sept. 11, OLB Terrell Suggs and Ravens cheerleaders visited with local law enforcement officers and surprised them with fresh coffee and doughnuts to begin their morning. Throughout the afternoon, WR Chris Moore and TE Maxx Williams accompanied the Mission BBQ catering truck to Fort Meade to greet military service members and serve lunch. To conclude the day, the two Ravens players visited the Oldtown Fire Station located in Baltimore City, where they treated firefighters to ice cream and took a ride inside one of the fire engines.

RAVENS VISIT ROOTS AND BRANCHES ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

CB Brandon Carr

On Sept. 11, Ravens CB Brandon Carr and the Ravens Bookmobile visited Roots and Branches Elementary School in downtown Baltimore. The rolling library is fully funded by the Ravens Foundation, Inc. and is owned and operated by the Maryland Book Bank, a nonprofit organization that distributes free children’s books to students, teachers and schools throughout Maryland. On the Ravens Bookmobile, Carr assisted students in selecting books that corresponded with their proper reading levels. After helping the students select their books, Carr stopped at the school’s library, where he spent the morning reading to a group of students. To wrap up the morning, he then visited with students in the school’s cafeteria and shared his advice for the upcoming school year.

HONOR ROWS

The Baltimore Ravens, the Governor’s Office on Service and Volunteerism and M&T Bank present the 18th annual Honor Rows program. Throughout the 2017 regular season, local youth-led service organizations will be honored for their commitments to the community. For each home contest, different groups of Maryland youth will receive up to 100 tickets to a game, Honor Rows t-shirts and pre-game sideline passes. In order to be selected for the program, youth must demonstrate their dedication to serving and meeting the needs of their community while developing leadership, personal and social skills. This year the program honored 16 service organizations located in various regions throughout the state of Maryland.

JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE: WEEK 3

Opening statement: “Thanks for coming out; I appreciate it. In studying the game, I’m really happy with the effort. I thought it was outstanding throughout. Obviously, there are many things that we can work on and improve upon. But, it was a winning effort, and our guys care, and they want to get better. That’s why they continue to improve. The crowd was great; the place was pretty lively right out of the gates. Early on, the stands were pretty full, and they were full for warm-ups. I looked around during the introductions – which were really exciting, right, the new introductions – and the whole stadium was standing. That was exciting to see. That’s Baltimore; that’s Ravens fans. That’s really something you’re really proud of. I was proud about that when I saw that. The schedule this week – obviously, we’re going to London. But, it’s going to be the same schedule. We’re just going to sleep on the plane on Thursday night and after that, we’ll be in London. We’re not taking a ship over there. (laughter) I heard there were people over at ESPN that actually believed it. We’re excited about playing the football game. We’re really not too ... I can’t honestly say we care where we play. We just want to go play the football game. We’re playing a very good team, a team that we respect and we’ve played now three years in a row. We’re looking forward to the football game.”

As far as when you get over there, I know your focus will be on the football game. Will you have any chance to see any parts of London while you’re over there? (Jamison Hensley) “I don’t know – not really. I mean, I don’t know, probably not. How far away are we from anything? I don’t even care. I don’t even know.” (Reporter: “Long.”) “Long? So no, the answer is no.”

Have you made any special requests while you’re over there, in terms of logistics? For instance, when you were practicing at Super Bowl XLVII, you ended up practicing on a baseball field. Have you checked out the conditions of where you’re going to be practicing? (Jerry Coleman) “No, I have not checked out the conditions. I’m counting on the league to get that right. I didn’t have a lot of time to go over there and look at the fields. From what I understand, the place we’re going is the place the teams have been going. It’s the same hotel the teams have used, same practice fields. We got good reports on all that. [The NFL] has been doing this for quite a long time now, and I think all the kinks have been worked out. We’re trusting that to be right. We’re not really too worried about that; we’re just worried about trying to improve as a football team.”

Are you comfortable with the notion that your team will be in a position, mentally and physically, to give the kind of effort they could in the United States? (Stan Charles) “Yes, we’re both playing in London. We’re going against the Jaguars. They have to go over there, as well. We’re going over there to win a football game – that’s it. We’re not thinking about too much else besides that.”

The game is set for 9:30 a.m. [ET], and coaches are a creature of habit. Are you OK with this, or have you made plans way in advance to deal with all the distractions, press conferences and things that will make this week a different week? (David Ginsburg) “There are not too many press conferences now, which is kind of good. It’s a little more normalized than it used to be, from what I understand. It’s 2:30 p.m. their time, so some of us will have been up for quite a few hours before we play the game. We’ll try to get our guys on London-time as much as we can, in that sense, throughout the course of the week. We have a plan for all that. We practiced every day at training camp at 8:45 a.m., so they were rolling at 8:45 a.m. So, 9:30 a.m., that’s 45 minutes later than 8:45 a.m. That’s what we’re going with, and we think we’ll be ready to go.”

Do you have any safety concerns? (David Ginsburg) “You have to go live your life. We’re not going to be cowed or anything like that. We’re going to do our thing. That’s what liberty and freedom is all about. That’s what we believe in, and that’s what we fight for. We’re not backing down from that.”

Any word on DT Brandon Williams’ injury? (Jerry Coleman) “Don’t have any word on those guys at this time. Those were not long-term injuries, so you probably won’t be getting any updates on that.”

Did you have a chance to speak with G/T Marshal Yanda? (Jerry Coleman) “I don’t know the schedule [of his recovery]. He’ll have his surgery soon. He had a couple things in there he had to deal with. But, he was really disappointed. You’ll get a chance to speak with him. He’ll definitely speak for himself on that, but it’d be sufficed to say [that] it was tough, hard for him. As tough as it is for the team, and for all of us, the thing you have to keep in mind how tough it is for the player. The player is the one, the individual, that has to go through it. That’s the one that suffers the most adversity. A guy like Marshal Yanda pours his heart and soul into the game. He’s really going to need everyone’s support. He has a great family, and he even said in his text to me last night that he’ll be back better than ever.”

Is there an official term for G/T Marshal Yanda’s injury? (Jerry Coleman) “I don’t remember it. I know he’s going to have to have his surgery. He’s going to have to have some plating, and things like that, to fix it.”

With what you saw on film, did you feel RB Alex Collins might have earned some more playing time going forward? (Jamison Hensley) “I think he earned [playing time]. When you play well, you earn more playing time. He’ll have to hold on to that football. But, I feel like it was an over-exuberance trying to break that tackle, and he's going to have to understand the situation. We're a more north-south, high-and-tight-type of an operation anyway. But, he's capable of making guys miss; he showed that. Between those three guys [Collins, Javorius Allen and Terrance West], we have three guys that can carry the ball for us. We also have some other guys, too, in the wing, but we're excited about our young guys."

How did you think G Tony Bergstrom played? (Jeff Zrebiec) "He played well. He had to shake it off a little bit after the first couple of plays. After he got himself settled down there, he played well. The whole offensive line played extremely well. When you go back and watch [the film] ... It's an early season, but it was the best they've played to date."

How pleased have you been with how CB Brandon Carr has played? (Luke Jones) "Brandon Carr is a really underrated corner in this league, and has been for a long time. He's big, physical, [plays] with great technique; he has exceptional ball skills. That's the thing you find – top of the routes, comebacks, he finds the ball. That's a gift and a knack. It's very rare to be able to do it to the level that he does it. He played very well. Jimmy [Smith] played well, and Marlon [Humphrey] played very well, and 'Webby' [Lardarius Webb] played well. So, to see those guys doing that in there is just what we need."

You alluded to the fact that you were really happy with the effort yesterday. I have watched you coach for 10 years, and I am ultimately impressed with the effort your teams have put out. Do you take a lot of pride in that aspect of coaching? (Stan Charles) "I appreciate you mentioning that. To me, that's where it all begins. If you don't have passion – and especially in football – if you aren't flying around and getting after it and giving it everything you have, you might as well not be out there. I do take a lot of pride in that, but it is the guys doing it. It is the right guys. Guys have to love the game. [Senior VP of public and community relations] Kevin Byrne and I were just talking about it walking in here – the right kind of leadership. The right kind of leadership, we have always had great leadership here. This group is another evolution of that Ravens leadership. It is never quite the same. It changes a little bit with different guys, but [they are] guys that fans are starting to get to know as Ravens. You can go through the list of names there. Some guys we brought in as free agents, other guys are rookies and draft choices. It is the next generation, and they are playing like a Raven. That is not just a slogan. Thank you, I think that is exactly right. I am proud of the way they are playing hard."

After G Marshal Yanda and LB Bam Bradley went down with season-ending injuries, the biggest question I have received from fans is, "Why have there been so many injuries?" I do not know if there is one general answer, but they have asked me, and I do not know what to say. (Jamison Hensley) "Who knows what to say? There is no one general answer. There is not an answer for it. Somebody falls on somebody's leg in a game – that is how guys get injured. We have not had many soft-tissue injuries. That is a credit to our training staff and our strength and conditioning staff. That is something that we have cleaned up. If you look around the league, we do a lot better than the rest of the league with the soft-tissue stuff. The other stuff is just stuff. Guys get in awkward situations in the game of football. You just go straight ahead. Those guys, you bandage them up. They are in there – Tavon [Young]. We don't forget our guys. Tavon is in there every single day rehabbing and getting ready for next year, and I see him every day and talk to him. Those guys are still part of our team. The team is more than the original depth chart. The team is an evolving process. It is guys on the practice squad. It is young guys developing as players. It is guys you bring in when you have to – when you have some of the injuries we have at certain positions. There is no one single answer. I can't answer it any better than you can, but I am not trying to. I don't think you have to. You have to move on and you make the best of it."

Going to London will be special for G/T Jermaine Eluemunor because he is from there. I know he has been inactive the last two games, but what have you seen in his development since you drafted him? (Jamison Hensley) "He is getting better. Jermaine is getting better; he is really improving. In all honesty, he was pretty raw when he first got here. He played at Texas A&M, and I'm sure he came a long way there, coming from where he was coming over from England. He has come a million miles. The song, '500 Miles' – it is one of my favorites. He has come 500 miles. A million might be a slight exaggeration, but 500 is just about right. He has come that far. He is about ready to play football for us, so we will see what happens."

The news came out over the weekend, so we have to ask you about RB Kenneth Dixon. What have you learned with what happened? (Jerry Coleman) "We don't get that kind of information. That is stuff that is private information, so I don't know the details on that."

But to hear something like that – the allegations ... (Jerry Coleman) "I do not even know what the allegations are. He has just been suspended for two more games. That is what it is."

But for someone to be suspended while serving a suspension. Do you have a reaction to that? (Jerry Coleman) "I don't."

It seemed OLB Tim Williams got better as the day wore on, especially in the fourth quarter. Being that it was his regular season debut, what did you think of how he played yesterday? (Jeff Zrebiec) "I thought Tim played well. He had a quarterback hit there the last play of the game against Joe Thomas. That is pretty good. Other things he will look at, he will want to improve upon. But, he is a guy that we need to improve quickly and become real viable for us quickly. He has the talent, he has the ‘want to,’ and we just have to keep coaching him up, and he has to keep working at it to get up to speed where he can play more and more for us. I expect him to do that.”

I know keeping up five turnovers a game is difficult, but when you look at it and the way the defense has gelled together and the chemistry they have formed, has it even impressed you how quickly they have come together? (Shawn Steptner) “Yes. Those are exceptional. That is two exceptional games of getting turnovers. I am not shocked, because I see how fast we play and how hard we play. Our guys are instinctive players, so I am not surprised by it. It was there in the preseason also, so we just have to keep building on it in every way. You are going to do it in different games in different ways. Different things are going to come up during the course of the season. Really, all we are focusing on is being 1-0 this week and trying to find the formula to win this game this week against this team. That is really all we are thinking about. We do not know exactly how it is going to play out, and we have to be prepared for however it does play out.”

Points off turnovers, that happened twice yesterday. It did not happen in the first game as much. Is that something that was talked about? It happened early on after the sack and the fumble. You guys put it right in the end zone. (Jerry Coleman) “Marty [Mornhinweg] did talk to them. It would a bigger question for Marty, but I think he talked to the offense about it. I didn’t make as big a point about the offensive guys in the team thing, but it is something we want to always do, obviously. Especially if we get the turnover in the red zone and we give our offense a short field. You want to turn it into not just points; you want to turn it into seven points. I thought the way the offense executed after the turnover right at end of the half was just outstanding. That is something you could not hope for. We were just trying to get into field goal range, in all honesty. What you try to do there is run the ball – we had a timeout – run the ball, pick up a few yards and give ‘Tuck’ [Justin Tucker] a better kick. Then, it is just blocked really well, and ‘Buck’ [Javorius Allen] hits it. Now, ‘Buck’ is mad he doesn’t score, but we still had five seconds left. We know the timing of that play, and we know exactly how many steps Joe [Flacco] has to take to get the ball off and use up the time. If you put a stopwatch on that play, it is three seconds. That is how long it took. They were gracious enough to give us a second back after the play. We had to kickoff, but at least I knew that we could have kicked the field goal if we had not score a touchdown. I thought the offense just ... When you make decisions like that, you have to have a lot of confidence that your guys are going to execute them. Our guys came through that and executed them well. When they do that – as a head coach – when you give your guys a chance to make plays like that and they execute those plays in a winning way, that makes you want to do it more often.”

The tight end position, since training camp started, has been a wild card position. With TE Maxx Williams contributing, are you pretty happy with the versatility and the capability of the three tight ends? (Stan Charles) “Yes. We probably were really wise. Ozzie [Newsome] was really smart to stockpile tight ends. Some of the conversation was, ‘How many tight ends can make it?’ Three or four is all. But, we were trying to get to three or four when it was all said and done. The good thing is all of those guys are good players; they all can play. It is nice to see the skill set of Maxx, who was a high pick for us. For all the fans to be able to see that, it is good for us, and it is good for him.”
