BALTIMORE RAVENS AT PITTSBURGH STEELERS

(7-5)

WEEK 14 – SUNDAY, DEC. 10, 2017
8:30 P.M. ET – HEINZ FIELD (68,400)

(10-2)

JUST THE FACTS

- Ravens-Steelers – it’s still the NFL’s best rivalry, and it heats back up again when Baltimore (7-5) visits Pittsburgh (10-2) for a Sunday Night Football showdown. Kickoff for this primetime battle from Heinz Field is set for 8:30 p.m. Winners of three straight (and four of their past five), the Ravens aim to avenge a 26-9, Week 4 loss to the Steelers, who have won seven-consecutive games.
- Pittsburgh owns the regular season series lead, 23-20. However, Baltimore has won five of the past eight (and six of the past nine when including playoffs). In that Week 4 tilt earlier this season, after facing a 19-0 deficit, QB Joe Flacco led the Ravens on two scoring drives. However, he then threw 2 fourth-quarter INTs that helped solidify Pittsburgh’s win, finishing 31-of-49 for 235 yards and 1 TD.
- Last Sunday, Baltimore produced a season high in points when it upended the Detroit Lions, 44-20, at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens’ offense was stellar, with Flacco completing 23 of 36 passes for 269 yards, 2 TDs and 0 INTs. WR Mike Wallace caught 5 passes for 116 yards, while RB Alex Collins rushed for 75 yards and 2 TDs. Baltimore’s defense was also stout, registering 3 sacks and forcing 3 turnovers, including a 45-yard “pick-6” from S Eric Weddle.
- The Ravens have earned a playoff berth in six of the past nine full seasons. Since John Harbaugh’s arrival in 2008, Baltimore has posted the NFL’s fourth-most total victories (102), won the league’s second-most playoff games (10), advanced to three AFC Championship contests, and in 2012, captured the World Championship in SB XLVII.

COACH HARBAUGH SAYS

JOHN HARBAUGH ON WEEKLY IMPROVEMENT PAYING OFF LATE IN THE SEASON:

“It’s a team game, and every game is going to play out differently. Next week is going to be a different game than this week. We have to find a way to win the next game, using all three phases. Pulling together and doing your best, really, that’s what it’s all about. Getting a little bit better [each week] at this time of year goes a long way. If you continue to improve in every area, just a little bit, it will pay off for us.”

INJURY UPDATE

Starters on Injured Reserve include Pro Bowl RG Marshal Yanda (ankle), LG Alex Lewis (shoulder), DE Brent Urban (foot) and CB Tavon Young (knee). The Ravens have used both of their Injured Reserve - Designated for Return allowances, activating RB Danny Woodhead and CB Maurice Canady. In the victory over Detroit, standout CB Jimmy Smith tore an Achilles and will miss the remainder of the season.

NOTE THE QUOTE

JOE FLACCO ON BUILDING CONFIDENCE BY PLAYING MEANINGFUL DECEMBER GAMES:

“It’s late in the season; it’s December. We pride ourselves on playing good football in December. [The season] hasn’t been ideal to this point, but we have set ourselves up to the point where we are playing meaningful December football, and that’s one of the goals at the end of the day. We’re going to continue to do that, and yes, [the Detroit win], late in the year versus a team that’s also trying to make a push for the playoffs, can definitely do a lot for our confidence.”

Your season-long beard has become a trademark. How did that become a thing? "It started five years ago. I saw a picture of my dad – he was 20 or 21 – in Mexico fishing. He had 20 Dorado at his feet, and he had this big ol' beard. I'd never really grown a beard before. So, I wondered, 1) Could I grow a beard? And 2) If I can, I have to beat my dad. That's how that started, and everyone thought it was the next craze; people loved it."

You speak highly of Ravens director of performance Steve Saunders. Explain why. "Once the season came around, we started our own program. It really helped me. I work out five days a week. Monday is a full-body right after the game, with a run and a lift. Tuesday I do legs. Wednesday I do upper body. Thursday is for explosive movement with core. Friday I do arms – that's our ritual; it's called 'Armageddon.' Saturday is for stretch and warmup for the game. I've never felt this healthy, because he is taking me to a new level."

How has it been with the addition of S Tony Jefferson? "I love his personality, ambition, how sincere he is and that he's not a guy who thinks he's arrived – he's very willing to learn. He's confident and exudes that energy to everyone. When he got here, we instantly clicked. He's the little brother I never had. I see so much potential in him."

Describe the Ravens' defense: "Relentless, tenacious, physical, hardworking and tough."

What makes Ravens-Steelers special? "It's usually two great teams going at it, and usually the division is on the line. It's a playoff atmosphere. There's so much history behind it. I was on the outside looking in up until last year, but as a football fan, you always look forward to watching that game on Sunday Night Football. You always knew they were going to play on Sunday night, and it always came down to the wire. Someone was always going to make a big play, whether it was Troy [Polamalu], Ed [Reed], 'Sizz' [Terrell Suggs] or Joe [Flacco]. It's one of the few rivalries that still matter in this league."

What are the challenges with playing at Heinz Field? "Pittsburgh is one of the greatest places to play because of their fans. The biggest challenge is just weathering the storm. There are certain points in the game where you can feel it; you can feel a momentum change. You just have to weather that storm for a few plays, and then everything calms back down. They play that song, 'Renegade' by Styx, and it's like something clicks. Those are the things you have to get through. We have some veterans on this team that can calm the young guys down when things start getting crazy."

S ERIC WEDDLE ON WHAT THE LIONS WIN & OFFENSE'S PERFORMANCE DOES FOR THE TEAM'S CONFIDENCE:

"We're a confident bunch, and I think over the last three weeks, we've been building towards the team that we envisioned, and we're playing well at the right time. That's the biggest thing. The team that's playing the best in December, and is most healthy and strong going down the stretch, usually gets in [the playoffs] and makes noise. We haven't done anything yet. We're just still in the mix. We're still trying to find our way. Our offense really showed [Sunday] that they can carry us in stretches when we need it. Going forward, these last four games, we're going to need that high level of play every week."

Legendary LB Ray Lewis on the recent play of OLB Terrell Suggs and the Ravens' defense:

"A lot of the great defenses I was on, Terrell Suggs was there. When you think about it, he came in as a young kid, getting experience playing with me and Ed Reed. Now guess what? He's that guy. The same focus, the same leadership that starts with Terrell Suggs starts to trickle down. When you bring in veterans like Eric Weddle – and the knowledge of a C.J. Mosley – and combine all of those things with the athletic ability they all have, what you get is a tremendous defense."

OLB Terrell Suggs on his legacy as a Raven:

"From the moment I played my first snap in the NFL, I've only been one type of player, one brand of player. I cherish and relish every game. I love being a Raven, and it's who I am. It's in my DNA. Like I said before, I only know one way to play. And that's The Raven Way."

WR Mike Wallace on how good this team can be if the offense is clicking like in the Lions win:

"We can be Super Bowl-good. I said it last week and the week before: Our defense is championship-ready. It's about our offense being championship-ready. If we do our part, we'll get there. If we don't, we won't get there. But I have all the confidence in the world in my guys. I love these guys, and I know we'll go in the right direction when we need to, which is right now. Stay tuned."

DT Willie Henry on playing with OLB Terrell Suggs:

"What is it like playing with a first-ballot Hall of Famer? It is like something you dreamt about. It makes you realize with a lot of hard work and dedication, one day you'll be lining up next to one of the best to ever do it that you can call your teammate and get after the quarterback. That is something I love to do as much as him. So, it is good when you can play next to a guy that has been playing for 15 years and does the same thing you do – get after the quarterback."

Special teams captain DB/LB Anthony Levine Sr. on the importance Baltimore stresses on special teams:

"We win games on special teams, and to be a Raven, you've got to be great on special teams. If you want to be here, you've got to make an impact, and that's what we're doing. On special teams, we're trying to take over a game."

Former Steelers CB Ike Taylor on the Ravens:

"You have a stingy defense – a young stingy defense that is led by a fountain of youth kind of guy with Terrell Suggs and with a good running game. The Baltimore Ravens are not bad. You want to talk about one of the scariest teams, I believe, in the AFC? It would be this team right here, the Baltimore Ravens, because they have a coach who knows and can adjust for playoff January football."

The MMQB's Peter King on naming S Eric Weddle one of his Defensive Players of Week 13:

"Weddle, 32, showed a little bit of everything he's brought to Baltimore in his nearly two years since leaving the Chargers in free agency in the 44-20 win over Detroit. And he showed how much he has left. On a safety blitz early in the second quarter, he sacked Matthew Stafford from the blind side, popping the ball loose. The Ravens recovered and returned it to the Detroit 36. In the second half, Weddle picked off a Lion pass and returned it 45 yards for an insurance score. Big day for a valuable player."

Lions head coach Jim Caldwell on the Ravens' defense:

"They obviously get their hands on a lot of balls, either stripping it from guys that are going to run with it or knocking it loose or interceptions. It is a very talented bunch. They put pressure on your quarterback making him throw a little bit before he wants to or a little bit higher than he wants to. They have guys back there that have really good ball skills, and they give you all kinds of problems. Obviously, with [Terrell] Suggs coming off the edge and with [Matthew] Judon coming off the edge, they can create some problems with you."

Dean Pees on second-year DT Willie Henry's emergence:

"The guy is really a smart football player – very knowledgeable. I think he is playing well, and he is playing hard – it is all of those things. But really, behind the scenes, he really has a great grasp of what we are trying to do gameplan-wise and has really excellent football knowledge. That is always a really good thing."

CB Brandon Carr on rookie CB Marlon Humphrey:

"He just has to get more experience, but all the intangibles are there. He is smart, physical and can run. He is willing to take his lumps, and he is going to be OK. Losing Jimmy [Smith] hurts, but the next guy has to be ready to play."

RAVENS 44, LIONS 20 • WEEK 13 RECAP / DEC. 3 • M&T BANK STADIUM

The Ravens took a 20-0 halftime lead and fought back with a team-record-tying 24 points in the fourth quarter on their way to a key 44-20 victory over the Lions at M&T Bank Stadium. Those are the most points scored by the Ravens in 2017. It was Baltimore's third win in a row and fourth in the last five games, keeping them in the current playoff picture. The Ravens' defense stole the ball 3 times, each leading to scores: a second-quarter strip-sack led to a QB Joe Flacco-to-DL/FB Patrick Ricard TD; a fourth-quarter INT set up a game-clinching RB Alex Collins' TD, and S Eric Weddle closed the contest with a 45-yard INT-TD. Flacco threw for 2 TDs and 269 yards. He helped the Ravens to a 20-0 intermission lead with a 1-yard TD toss to TE Benjamin Watson and the Ricard throw. Flacco completed 23 of 36, directing an offense that did not turn the ball over. The Ravens took a 3-0, first-quarter advantage on K Justin Tucker's 38-yard FG. Tucker added a 46-yarder at the end of the half. The third quarter belonged to the Lions. QB Matthew Stafford directed two 7-play TD drives, the first ending with a RB Theo Riddick 4-yard TD and second that saw rookie RB Tion Green scamper 6 yards to the end zone. With the score at 20-13, the Ravens roared back with a spectacular 9-play drive that finished with a Collins' 7-yard TD. Stafford, who was in the throes of a team-record consecutive completed pass run of 20, brought the Lions back, finishing with a 1-yard TD throw to LB Nick Bellore. A 51-yard Tucker FG gave the Ravens a 30-20 lead with 6:54 remaining. A CB Marlon Humphrey INT led to another Collins TD (6 yards) before Weddle's game-ending "pick-6" off QB Jake Rudock, who replaced an injured Stafford (hand). WR Mike Wallace caught 5 for 116 yards, all in the first half. His 66-yard catch to the Lions' 1-yard line set up Baltimore's first TD. CB Jimmy Smith, who was having a Pro Bowl-type season, left the game with a torn Achilles.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XXXV MVP

In a magnificent effort showcasing thrilling performances by their defense, offense and special teams units, the Baltimore Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV with a 34-7 victory over the New York Giants. Allowing the Giants a meager 152 total net yards, New York's attack crossed midfield just twice, while Baltimore's "D" posted 4 INTs. LB Ray Lewis was named the game's MVP, capping an accolade-filled season in which he was also tabbed the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

QB Joe Flacco - 2012
Super Bowl XLVII MVP

Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second World Championship. After an amazing first-half performance, the Ravens took a commanding 28-6 lead. But following a bizarre, 34-minute power outage that halted play, the 49ers stormed back into contention. Clinging to a 34-29 edge late in the game, the Ravens stood firm on a pivotal goal-line stand, jamming SF on four-straight plays inside the 7-yard line. QB Joe Flacco was named the game's MVP.

JERRY ROSBURG & SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

ROSBURG LEADS RAVENS SPECIALISTS

SEASONS
RAVENS: 10TH
NFL: 17TH

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg has guided a stellar special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Below are several standout notes about the coach and his successful group of specialists:

SIX PRO BOWLERS

• Six Ravens have earned eight combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Rosburg: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016) and P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER

• Two-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (194) since entering the NFL in 2012. With an 89.8% career success mark, "Tuck" is the second-most accurate kicker in league history (194-of-216 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2014, Koch posted the NFL's No. 3 gross (47.4) and No. 1 net (43.3) averages, both career highs and Ravens records.

RAVENS' BIG RETURNS

• Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

2017: RAVENS RETURN GAMES SOARS IN WEEK 6 vs. CHICAGO

• In Week 6 vs. Chicago, for the first time in franchise history, the Ravens returned a kickoff and punt return for a TD in the same game. RB Bobby Rainey Jr. posted a 96-yard KOR-TD, while WR Michael Campanaro registered a 77-yard PR-TD. The Ravens are the first NFL team to have KOR and PR touchdowns in the same game since 2013, when Detroit and Kansas City each accomplished the feat on 12/8/13.

BALTIMORE BLOCK PARTY

Since 2014, the Ravens have produced the NFL's second-most blocked kicks (12, tied), including an NFL-high (tied) 4 in 2016.

Former Ravens LB Ray Lewis on the Ravens' defense (Nov. 29, 2017):

"Look, let's just give credit to Dean Pees and what he's been doing with defenses for ages. When you see this defense play, they are aggressive, they are physical, and they are telling people, 'We can absolutely beat you up.' That's always been our simple motto: You want to come in and act cute? We're coming in to punch you in the mouth. And that's what the Ravens are doing."

"Of the many traits that have marked Yanda as a great player over the years, one is his ability to shift positions without losing effectiveness. That versatility is a product of his intelligence and his underappreciated athleticism. He's also a straight-up tough dude, much like Terrell Suggs on the other side of the ball. Only the elite of the elite guards earn serious Hall of Fame consideration. Yanda belongs in that realm." – Childs Walker, The Baltimore Sun

From Day One, [Jefferson] already had a feel for how I play and how to work off me. ... It frees me up a lot more mentally. I don't have to tell him after each play why I did this or, before the snap, say, 'Let's do this.' He already knows. That is just light years ahead of most guys I've played with. NOTE THE QUOTE

ESPN.com's Kevin Seifert on Sam Koch's arsenal of punts:

"Some are designed to hook toward the sideline with maximum hang time. Others use an intentionally low trajectory to aid coverage teams. He has a knuckler and one kick that drops, from the returner's perspective, roughly in the shape of the letter 'S.' He's debuted a "boomerang" punt that does just what you would imagine it might. Most, but not all, of these punts are intended to discourage a clean catch and minimize the return.

"It's not unusual for NFL punters to develop a "changeup" of sorts, but no one has ever had multiple options at the ready. ... The NFL changes every day, but there are only a few moments in each generation when it transforms. This is one of them. In plain sight, Sam Koch and the Ravens have introduced a new way to punt."

A TREMENDOUS 2016

In 2016, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the fifth-best percentage in NFL single-season history. In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for fifth-best streak ever), here are several facts about his remarkable season, which is arguably the best ever by a kicker:

- ✓ Tucker's 38 FGs made ranked No. 1 in the NFL. He was also 27-of-27 on PATs. An NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made in 2016 came from 40 yards or beyond.
- ✓ Tucker's 10 FGs of 50-plus yards are a Ravens' single-season record. They tie (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most in NFL history. (Tucker was a perfect 10-for-10 from 50 yards and out during the 2016 season.)
- ✓ Tucker's 141 points ranked second in the league only behind Atlanta's Matt Bryant (158).
- ✓ In Week 12 vs. Cincy, Tucker became just the ninth kicker in league history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in a single game (52, 57 & 54). He is also the first kicker in NFL history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in the first half of a game. (These feats earned him AFC ST POW honors.)

TUCKER TIDBITS

- ✓ Since PATs were moved back in 2015, Tucker (82-of-82) and Dan Bailey (92-of-92) are the only kickers yet to miss.
- ✓ Tucker is a four-time AFC Special Teams Player of the Month, which ranks one more than legends S Ed Reed & K Matt Stover for the most POM awards in Ravens history. (Tucker has also earned seven AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors.) "Tuck" earned his fourth POM award in Nov. 2017, going 8-for-8 on FGAs and 6-for-6 on PATs.
- ✓ Tucker's 6 FGs on 12/16/13 at Det. set a team record and a single-game NFL high in 2013. Against the Lions, he became the first NFL kicker ever to connect from the 20-, 30-, 40-, 50- & 60-yard range in a game.
- ✓ Tucker's 93.2 career FG% when kicking on grass (96-of-103) ranks as the NFL's best of all time. (The next best is Dan Bailey at 87.7%.)
- ✓ Tucker's 92.2 career FG% (94-of-102) in the second half/overtime ranks as the NFL's best second half/OT mark of all time.

"He's very valuable. I'm a Justin Tucker guy, along with Morgan [Cox, snapper] and Sam [Koch, holder]. It's a team effort in there with the protection, and those guys do a good job. But when it's all said and done, the kicker is key. He's the guy that's going to knock it through the uprights, and there's nobody better than Justin Tucker."

THE SECONDARY'S SERGEANT

S Eric Weddle's 28-career INTs rank third among active safeties. In his first year (2016) as a Raven, he earned Pro Bowl honors by producing a team-high 4 picks (tied, C.J. Mosley) and 89 tackles. RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

SALUTE TO SERVICE GAME

The Baltimore Ravens honored local military service members during their Salute to Service game on Nov. 27, when the Ravens hosted the Houston Texans. Prior to the game, members of the Army Golden Knights airborne parachute team circled the skies above M&T Bank Stadium before making their grand entrance and landing on the field. During player introductions, 12 members of the United States Navy, who had previously won the Coca-Cola Military Combine, were given the chance to carry the American flag out of the home tunnel, while leading their favorite Ravens players onto the field. To conclude the pregame festivities, over 100 active service members were selected from all five military branches to present an American flag that stretched across the field during the national anthem. To thank the military members for their service, the Ravens also provided them with complimentary game tickets and special edition military coins.

MY CAUSE MY CLEATS

During week 13 of the NFL season, players throughout the league had the unique opportunity to showcase charitable organizations and initiatives that they support off the field. Several players, including QB Joe Flacco and DT Brandon Williams, participated in this year's My Cause My Cleats program by customizing their cleats for the Dec. 3 game to feature the logos of Special Olympics Maryland and the Westport Homes Boys and Girls Club, respectively. My Cause My Cleats is a league-wide initiative that encourages players to share what organizations they work with in order to better their communities. Following the game, every pair of decorated cleats will be auctioned off by the NFL with the proceeds benefitting each player's respective charity.

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK

On Dec. 3, the Ravens honored this year's recipients of the 2017 Community Quarterback Award. Funded by the NFL Foundation and the Ravens Foundation, Inc., the award honors individuals who exhibit leadership, dedication and commitment to bettering their local communities. Each Community Quarterback winner received complimentary tickets for themselves and a guest, a personalized Ravens jersey and a $4,000 grant to help aid their respective nonprofit organization. Charles Dawson of the North Harford County Recreation Council, Karli Crenshaw of Grass Roots Rescue and Rees Draminski of TeCanal were all honored during an on-field recognition ceremony when the Ravens hosted the Detroit Lions.

JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE: WEEK 14 AT STEELERS

Head Coach John Harbaugh

Opening statement: “OK, good to see everybody – appreciate you being here. We’re fresh off the last game and put that one away by noon this morning. We’re on to the next opponent, which is the Steelers. So, we’re hard at work preparing for them – a team we know well, and a team that we’re looking forward to playing in their place on Sunday night. So, that’s where we’re at. What do you have?”

Can you address the report that CB Jimmy Smith got a suspension for PEDs and will be serving it during IR? (David Ginsburg)

“Well, I haven’t had an update, per se, on when he’ll be serving it. But, we did get informed of that very recently, that there was a suspension. That’s really all we know. So, I assume that if that’s the report, then he’s probably going to serve it over the next four weeks.”

So, the plan going forward is he’ll just be on IR and serve the suspension? (Jerry Coleman) “I don’t really know the details of it. It is what it is. He’ll be on IR; I know that. However the rules work with that, that’s the way it’ll play out.”

Is it something you had the chance to address with him before the injury or after the injury? (Jerry Coleman) “I knew about it before the injury. Ozzie [Newsome] had told me about it a day or two ago. So, we knew about it.”

I know you can’t be with these players all the time, obviously, but CB Jimmy Smith is the third player this year to be suspended for performance enhancement or substance abuse. Is this something you address regularly, or is this something that at the beginning of the season you address and try to get the guys aware of the consequences? (Jamison Hensley) “It’s addressed by the league, mostly. I think the league, the trainers, they bring people in that talk to them about what the rules are and educate the guys. The agents are very involved in that – what supplements they can and can’t use. The guys are very vigilant, for the most part, on that, and sometimes they make mistakes. There’s a broad array of different things that guys can get involved with, different supplements and things like that. I’m really not well-versed on it. It’s not something that I spend a lot of time studying. I was not very good at chemistry in high school. I didn’t like it, and I was happy to sneak by with my ‘C.’ (laughter) To me, it’s the player’s responsibility to do it. If they want to play, they’re going to be very vigilant about that and do a good job with it. That’s the way most coaches are, and that’s really all you can do. It’s pro football.”

Going back to yesterday’s game, QB Joe Flacco was upright most of the game, didn’t get sacked. What did you see from the offensive line? What did they do well yesterday? (Todd Karpovich) “They blocked better. The offensive line blocked better. That’s the simple answer to a much more complicated proposition – which is handling all of the blitzes and pressures and the one-on-one matchups that you have. A week ago, we dealt with a great pass rusher [Jadeveon Clowney] and how to figure [him] out during the game, how they had changed up their scheme a little bit to free him up. This week, I thought right from the get-go our guys did a really good job with technique. We handled the actual rushers really well. I thought our guys just blocked really well. One of the things we did a lot better is we handled twists in games a lot better. I thought our guys did a great job of passing off some of the pressures. We stopped the penetrator, passed off the looper really well, and it really made a big difference for us. Whenever [Detroit] blitzed us, we did a really good job of getting a head on a hat. One time that comes to mind right away ... They were bringing a [defensive] end on Ronnie [Stanley], and the end tried to get Ronnie’s attention. They brought the corner off the edge, and then the end dropped. Ronnie was able to make the adjustment from the dropping in and get out on the corner and get him blocked. Those are just little things that happen and different kinds of scenarios that come up for those guys that they handled really well.”

What have you seen from CB Maurice Canady? It seems like his role has increased, despite not a whole lot of experience. Do you envision him getting more practice reps on the outside as that third guy behind CB Brandon Carr and CB Marlon Humphrey? (Luke Jones) “Well, yes we could. Maurice Canady, he’ll be in the rotation. He plays inside and outside. He also plays safety. Maurice is a versatile guy. He has played really well. He is a guy that we’ve always really had a lot of hope for, because he came in and did really well. He’s been injured a little bit on and off. You see him out there healthy, playing fast. He plays with a high, high motor. He’s a very instinctive player. I see him playing a lot in the upcoming games, and it will probably be inside and outside as we go by package and by need.”

We know how you feel about OLB Terrell Suggs as a player, but can you talk about him calling the defense over in the fourth quarter? (Ed Lee) “It’s great he did that. He’s a leader, and they listen to him. At some point in time, you have to find a way to corral things up a little bit. There are going to be streaks in our league. Quarterbacks are going to get a hot hand sometimes. Defenses get a hot hand sometimes, and sometimes you have to find a way to break through and get control of the situation. There’s nobody better on our team to do it than Terrell Suggs – that’s why he’s such a good leader.”

A couple players talked about playing their best football in December and that being the goal of every team. Have you seen a steady building process to where you are now? You’re coming off a couple of your better games all season. (Jeff Zrebiec) “Sure, that’s something we talk about a lot around here. It’s the way we organize the whole program – to play our best in December and January. Our guys take that very seriously, and that’s the goal. We’re just starting in December. So, we’ve had one game out of five, and we’ll see what we’re able to do with this. But, that’s definitely our aspiration.”

Was QB Joe Flacco wearing a knee brace yesterday? Or, has he shed the brace? (Jerry Coleman) “I don’t know. I didn’t notice. Was he?” (Reporter: “Yes.”) “I only notice the knee brace when he slides. Other than that, I don’t notice it.” (Reporter: “Did you notice his post-game meal?”) “No.” (Reporter: “He was eating his hand, like Tampa Bay quarterback Jameis Winston. Have you seen the video of that yet?”) “No. He ate his hand?” (Reporter: “Well, he was sucking his fingers.”) “Oh, I’m not going to repeat that.” (Reporter: “He ate a ‘W.’”) “I have no comment on that.”

How about the celebrations? Were you amused by them? (Jerry Coleman) “I did [enjoy them]! I saw the one last night – the tug-of-war. I appreciate the tug-of-war – that was my favorite.” (Reporter: “What about the Eric Weddle salute to Kobe Bryant?”) “I didn’t see that one. They always have the NBA arguments, and I don’t pay too much attention. I don’t start watching the NBA until the playoffs. I have no idea what’s going on with that. (laughter) Is Kobe still playing?” (laughter) (Reporter: “No, he retired a few years ago. When you’re watching the game film, you’re not looking at the celebrations.”) “They don’t have them on the game film. The game film cuts off.”

Right now, you trail the Steelers by 2.5 games, and you’re 1.5 [games] ahead of the Bengals. (Jamison Hensley) “I knew this question was coming. Who are you rooting for? That’s a tough question. If they both could lose, that’s what I’d be rooting for. But, one of them has to lose, so that’s good.”

Three weeks ago, you were under .500, and now you have a little momentum. What has really been the difference? Particularly yesterday, it certainly seemed like it was the most complete game of the year. What has been the difference in these weeks? (David Ginsburg) “We have played better. We have found a way to win. It is just week-to-week. Again, those ... You ask me those questions pretty much every week – those big-picture, very thought-inspiring and provoking questions – and I rarely have an answer for you, do I? Because it is just kind of week-to-week; we are just trying to find a way to win a game. A little bit of improvement goes a long way this time of year, and that is really all we are trying to do along with figuring out how to neutralize whatever our opponent does well and maximize what we think our guys can do. And really, win the game – that is all we are doing. What goes into it or what the big-picture stuff is, it is just week-to-week. It is all different; every game is different. We didn’t play Matthew Stafford a week ago, and we won’t be playing him next week and what they do – what this team does. They [the Lions] are behind us. They are in the rearview mirror, and we have to get ready for the next one, and that is the team we know – that is Ben [Roethlisberger] and that whole company of guys. After that, it will be the Browns, and they will present very serious challenges. You guys [media] won’t take them seriously, but we will, because we know how good they are and the danger that they present. That is next week, so that is not even in our mind right now. We focus on the task at hand, and that is really all we [do]. You only have so much energy, and that is kind of what we try to focus on.”

Just to play off of that question, the offense had to produce in the second half to fend off the Lions, and it did. Do you see that the offense is getting where it wants to be and QB Joe Flacco, if he does not have to protect the lead, he has the ability to build on it. (David Ginsburg) “That is fine. That is your article that you guys [media] write, and we do not care about that. What we care about is what we need to do to win that game and the fact that we knew we could do it. It is the fact of getting there and doing it. The good news is we did it when we had to, which was in this game. Because you are right – the Lions were making a run, and our offense needed to step up, and they did. I’m really proud of them for that. It was not like we were sitting there going, ‘Well, we hope we can do that.’ We are working every single day to do it. We try to do it every game in every area. What we are focused on is this week getting that much better in every area that we can and put the best team we can out there on Sunday to try to win a game.”

How much did you like seeing DL/FB Patrick Ricard getting an opportunity to catch a touchdown, and what have you seen from him and his development? Obviously, playing offense is still pretty new to him relative to his past. (Luke Jones) “It was great. It was a touchdown; that is what I was happy about. But Patrick has good hands. It was really no doubt in our minds that he would catch it if we threw it to him. That play has been in [the playbook] the whole season. We have other plays for him that are in, too, so stay tuned. He has good hands. He is really a pretty darn good athlete. He is a weapon – a newfound weapon.”

Do you think there has been any change? Was there a turn for this team after the bye week? (Jerry Coleman) “As I said – I’ll just keep saying it – it is week-to-week. It is week-to-week. All the big turnaround, ‘When did the turnaround happen?’ questions – I don’t know, and I don’t care. It does not matter to us. That is for you guys to look at. You look at that and see what you think. That is cool; I like that. If I have time, I’ll read it. That is it. That stuff does not matter to us. We do not think about it that way.”

Do you believe in momentum? (Jerry Coleman) “I believe in winning the next game. That is what I believe in. Is momentum a philosophy? Is it a belief system? Is it a religion? What is it? Is it ideology? What is it? Is it natural phenomena?” (laughter) (Reporter: “That is a very deep question.”) “You just posed the question! I am supposed to sit up here and figure out what momentum is now. Do I believe in it? I believe in God. I believe in America. I believe in family, and I believe in football. Momentum? OK. I believe it exists. Yes, OK, it exists.”

Does the presence of CB Jaylen Hill and CB Maurice Canady make you better equipped to overcome an injury at cornerback because you have more depth there than the past? (Jeff Zrebiec) “Yes, compared to previous years, certainly. We are much better able to handle the injury to Jimmy. We are much better able to handle that than we have been in the past. We will bring up Stanley [Jean-Baptiste], and he will be up off of the practice squad, and we will roll.”

After the game, RB Alex Collins ... We were told that he was dealing with migraines. Is that something he has been battling a lot this year, and does that affect his availability, whether that is practice or games? (Jamison Hensley) “I do not want to get into all of that. If he wants to answer that, he can. I can tell you this: Migraines are very real, and they are tough. But that would be a better question for him, probably.”

What did you see of S Chuck Clark? It was the first time we saw him play extensively on defense. What did you like out of what he did? (Jeff Zrebiec) “Yes, Chuck played well. That is a really good observation. He flies around, he is a really smart player – a real physical player. He can run. Chuck is an up-and-comer, and he has been doing it on special teams all year, and he played well on defense. I could see his role expanding.”

OLB Matthew Judon, for the first five games, didn’t have a sack. He now has four sacks in the last four games. Can you just talk about his progress? (Ed Lee) “Matt continues to improve. He has played well all year. Whenever he got the sacks, I didn’t even know when it was. He has been playing very well all year. I do think he continues to improve every single day. I have said it before: I think he is a star in the making because of how hard he works, how smart he is and how talented he is. We will just have to see how it plays out. I sure hope it works out that way for the Ravens and for Matt.”
