The Ravens are 1-0 at home this season, capturing a 47-3 victory over Buffalo in Week 1. This marks Denver's first road game of 2018 after opening with home victories against Seattle (27-24) and Oakland (20-19).

• Playing on a short week, the Ravens lost last Thursday (Sept. 13) at Cincinnati, 34-23. QB Joe Flacco was 32-of-55 for 376 yards, 2 TDs and 2 INTs, while being sacked 4 times. WR Michael Crabtree (56 yards), WR Willie Snead IV (54) and RB Javorius Allen (36) each caught 5 passes, while WR John Brown posted a game-high 92 receiving yards on 4 catches, including a 21-yard TD.

• In the all-time regular season Denver-Baltimore series, the Broncos hold a 6-5 advantage. In postseason play, the Ravens are 2-0. Baltimore is 5-1 when playing Denver in Charm City. However, the Broncos have won three-straight regular season matchups against the Ravens, the most recent being a 19-13 victory in the Mile High City on Sept. 13, 2015.

• In his 11th season at the Baltimore helm, Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth six (2008-12 & 2014) times. With "Harbs," Baltimore has played in three AFC title games, while in 2012, he guided the franchise to its second Super Bowl victory. Including playoffs (10-5), the Ravens are 105-72 since his 2008 arrival, posting the NFL's fourth-most total wins.

HARBS SAYS

John Harbaugh on Striving to Become a Good Football Team:
"What it's going to boil down to in the end is who is mentally tougher over the long haul. You have to keep grinding. You start with a lead? Keep grinding. You start out down in a hole? Keep grinding. If it's tight? Keep grinding. Someone has to pull ahead. It's true for a game; it's true for a season. That's where we're at right now. It's early, and we just have to grind and become better and become mentally tough and fight and become a good football team. It remains to be seen who the good football teams are, and that's what we have to try to become."

INJURY UPDATE

DT Willie Henry (umbilical hernia) and first-round pick TE Hayden Hurst (foot), both underwent surgery in late August and missed games in Weeks 1 and 2. CB Maurice Canady (thigh) and RB Kenneth Dixon (knee) were placed on IR following injuries sustained in Week 1 vs. Buffalo. Three-time Pro Bowl LB C.J. Mosley (knee bone bruise) left the Week 2 Cincinnati game in the first quarter and did not return.

NOTE THE QUOTE

OLB Terrell Suggs on the Ravens Starting 1-1:
"We're 1-1. There are some teams in the league that are 0-2, and that's never a good way to start. We just need to get back to work. The journey that we're on is not a straight path. It's a forest, and we've always got to get better every week. Unfortunately, we lost [last Thursday in Cincinnati], but fortunately, [it was just] Week 2. Everything we want to do this season is still possible."

What song or lyric would be the theme for your life? "'So I had to grind like that to shine like this,' from 'Dreams and Nightmares,' by Meek Mill."

What is your favorite sport to watch besides football? "Basketball. I was a basketball player first growing up – AAU, traveling, doing all of that. I actually only played one or two years of little league football, and then I played basketball all the way until my 10th-grade year in high school, when I began playing football. In basketball, I played point guard."

Do you have any memorable jersey swap stories? "My very first NFL game, I swapped with my high school teammate, [current Eagles CB] Ronald Darby, when he was with the Buffalo Bills during my rookie year. That was cool."

What's the best sports moment that you remember? "I had a couple buzzer beaters in basketball growing up! I remember it was a fast break, an open layup, and I was just going into the basket like, 'I can't miss this.' I made it, then everybody charged the court. It was fun. This was little league, like 10 or 11 years old."

If you could trade places with anyone for a day, who would it be? "Nobody, for real."

What's your guilty pleasure food? "Ribs. Beef ribs."

What is your favorite movie? "I like 'All About the Benjamins.' You have to see that. Mike Epps and Ice Cube."

Who would play you in a movie about your life? Or, would you play yourself in a movie about your life? "I'd have to play me. I don't know, because these 'look-alikes,' sometimes they are way off."

Would you rather be able to fly or breathe under water? "Breathe under water, just because they said we've only discovered a little bit of the ocean, so I would like to swim all the way around and see what's down there."

Ozzie Newsome on what he has learned about Baltimore during his time as GM:

"I don't know if any city has more of a solid fan base than we do. Those fans were there with us when we were basically nothing [in 1996]. When we became something, [teams] were intimidated in coming here to play at M&T Bank Stadium. This city has issues like most big cities, and you realize that just listening to the news every day. But I've come to understand that even with those issues there is a common bond here, and the Ravens help bring people together. Regardless if you live in the city or in one of the surrounding counties, or if you attend public or private school, they rally around this football team. This is truly a special place, a special city with a passion for football."

QB Joe Flacco on if he gains any motivation from the Ravens drafting QB Lamar Jackson in the first round:
"I was working hard long before that. It's really just my general mindset. I always tell people, 'If you're not motivated to play in this league from within, then you're not going to make it very long.' Obviously, there are little things along the way that serve as motivation, maybe on one given day or the other, but even if I was motivated by that, it's not something that would last. That's not the kind of motivation that gets you through anything significant. I am who I am every single day."

WR Willie Snead IV on WR John Brown:
"'J.B.' [John Brown] is electric, man. He's done a lot of things great since we stepped on the field here. I'm just really, really happy for him that he's actually healthy and making plays like that. It's really good for the whole offense. Just to be able to stretch the field like that, it opens up so much for not only the running backs and the receivers like me underneath, but for 'Crab' [Michael Crabtree] and everybody else."

S Eric Weddle on how opposing teams need to prepare for rookie QB Lamar Jackson:
"You can't not work on when Lamar is in the game. If not, [our offense will] gash the defense. You have to take time. You have to watch the film. Then, coaches have to come up with a plan and go out and practice and rep it. So it's more reps on something you may see, or you may not see. And that benefits us."

CB Brandon Carr on growth he's seen in CB Marlon Humphrey:
"I can tell he's more comfortable on the field. He's confident. He's come into his own – his personality, both on and off the field. He's a special guy. I'm looking forward to seeing him making plays. He has a ton of confidence in his ability and what he can do out there on the field. I see a big attitude change for him this year, because he knows that he can go out there and play with the best of them. We already knew that, but now he can [show everyone]. He had some success last year. We look for him to build on it this year."

G Marshal Yanda on the Ravens' 34-23 loss to Cincinnati after a Week 1, 47-3 win over Buffalo:
"This is the NFL. It's a week-to-week business, and everyone understands that. It's one game at a time. You can win by 40 one week and lose by 40 the next week."

S Eric Weddle on bouncing back after Week 2's loss at Cincy:
"We're fine. It's a 16-game season. You're not going to play great every week, but you have to find ways to win, and we didn't do that [at Cincy]. The sky's not falling, but we have to correct some things. That's why we have practice and coaching. Everyone in this room is accountable. We will take a look at ourselves first and see what we can do better and get back to work."

K Justin Tucker on his mindset when lining up to kick, particularly in high-pressure situations:
"It's OK to be scared, nervous. It's OK to have fear. Courage isn't a lack of fear. It's embracing your fear and not suppressing it and embracing all those emotions and harnessing that in making the ball go straight. We've done everything we can to embrace our emotions and to embrace our situation whenever we've been in those potential game-winning moments. We've come through. Doing that over and over again, that's just part of the job description. When you come through, it's fun, man."

NFL Network's Peter Schrager on OLB Matthew Judon:
"Their defense is going to be great. They're outstanding at all three levels. And we know about 'T-Sizzle,' Terrell Suggs, but everyone in Baltimore tells me there is a young apprentice to Terrell Suggs, that this guy has been taken under his wing, and his name is Matthew Judon. You will see him. He's got the long hair, and he is an absolute beast out there! He had a big season last year. Everyone says he's loud, he's brash, he's fun-loving, trash-talking. He's got a big personality. He is a character, and Matthew Judon is the guy we're going to love."

ESPN.com*'s Field Yates on why S Eric Weddle should have been included in ESPN's Top 100 projection player rankings:
"What more does Weddle have to do to prove his place among the game's best safeties? Since signing with the Ravens in 2016, Weddle has 10 interceptions to go along with [over] 180 tackles. He's the quarterback of the Ravens' secondary, a reliable teammate and durable, too."

DT Brandon Williams on if he's OK with a "thankless" job that sets others up for success:
"I'm totally fine with what I do. I know it's a dirty job. Somebody's got to do it, and I'm happy to raise my hand and volunteer to do it. As long as my guys have my back, and as long as my guys are making plays around me, that's all I care about."

WEEK 2 RECAP

CINCINNATI 34, BALTIMORE 23
WEEK 2 ▪ SEPT. 13, 2018 ▪ PAUL BROWN STADIUM

After trailing 21-0 and 28-7 in the first half, the Ravens battled back within 5 points (28-23) in the fourth quarter, but could not complete the comeback, dropping a 34-23 decision at Cincinnati last Thursday night. QB Joe Flacco turned the ball over 3 times, with his first interception leading to a 7-0 Bengals' lead. Rookie S Jessie Bates stole a Flacco pass and returned it to the Ravens' 16-yard line. Four plays later, QB Andy Dalton found WR A.J. Green for a 4-yard touchdown. That same Dalton-to-Green scoring combination gave the Bengals a 21-0, second-quarter advantage. The second score was a Dalton 32-yard strike to the exceptional receiver, while the third came on a 7-yard Green catch. The Ravens battled back to make it 21-7 with a RB Javorius Allen 1-yard TD run before Dalton completed his fourth TD pass of the first half, hitting WR Tyler Boyd with a 14-yard TD toss. Baltimore rebounded with a 1-yard Flacco-to-TE Mark Andrews TD, bringing the score to 28-14 at the half. Baltimore K Justin Tucker's 55-yard field goal got the Ravens within 11 (28-17) after three quarters. When Flacco hit WR John Brown for a 32-yard TD with 9:35 left in the game – making the score 28-23 – the Ravens were back in the contest. However, 2 K Randy Bullock FGs (28 and 40 yards), one following a Flacco fumble at the Ravens' 29, secured the victory for the Bengals. Dalton was 24-of-42 for 265 yards with 4 TDs, and he was not sacked. Boyd caught 6 passes for 91 yards, and Green grabbed 5 Dalton missives for 69 and 3 TDs. RB Joe Mixon rushed 21 times for 84 yards. Flacco was 32-of-55 for 376 yards, with 2 TDs and 2 INTs, while being sacked 4 times. WR Michael Crabtree (56 yards), WR Willie Snead IV (54) and Allen (36) each caught 5 passes, while Brown posted a game-high 92 receiving yards on 4 catches.

FLACCO HEATED UP

QB Joe Flacco missed all of training camp with a back injury, but returned to start Week 1. As he eased back into football shape, his first several weeks of the season weren't up to his standards. Additionally, Flacco was adjusting to the Ravens' reshuffled offensive line, which experienced many early-season injuries, but eventually gelled to become a team strength. Below are Flacco's statistics in the final seven games, when he and Baltimore's offense began to hit its stride, and the team went 5-2.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XXXV MVP

In a magnificent effort showcasing thrilling performances by their defense, offense and special teams units, the Baltimore Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV with a 34-7 victory over the New York Giants. Allowing the Giants a meager 152 total net yards, New York's attack crossed midfield just twice, while Baltimore's "D" posted 4 INTs. LB Ray Lewis was named the game's MVP, capping an accolade-filled season in which he was also tabbed the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

QB Joe Flacco - 2012
Super Bowl XLVII MVP

Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second World Championship. After an amazing first-half performance, the Ravens took a commanding 28-6 lead. But following a bizarre, 34-minute power outage that halted play, the 49ers stormed back into contention. Clinging to a 34-29 edge late in the game, the Ravens stood firm on a pivotal goal-line stand, jamming SF on four-straight plays inside the 7-yard line. QB Joe Flacco was named the game's MVP.

THE HARBAUGH FILE

John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in six (2008-12 & 2014) of his 10 full seasons in Baltimore, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl title. Under "Harbs," the Ravens have secured an appearance in three AFC Championships (2008, 2011 & 2012).

Here are several Harbaugh quick hits:

• The Ravens are one of only eight teams (NE – 9; GB – 8; Pit. – 7; Atl., Bal., Cin., Ind. & Sea. – 6) to earn at least six postseason berths in the last 10 years. (Baltimore has won at least one game in each of those playoff campaigns.)

• The Ravens' 10 playoff wins since 2008 rank second only to New England's 13.

• "Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.

• John and his brother, Jim (formerly of the 49ers), are the only head coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years as NFL bosses.

• Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.

• In 2012, Harbaugh became the third coach (with Bill Cowher & Chuck Knox) since the 1970 merger to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons.

• Harbaugh owns the third-most playoff wins (10, tied) by a coach in his first 10 seasons (since the 1970 merger).

• With the Ravens' 2014 playoff berth, Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching.

• For coaches to make the playoffs in at least six of their first 10 years, "Harbs" is one of five active coaches to do so (Pete Carroll, Mike McCarthy, Andy Reid & Mike Tomlin).

• Harbaugh, Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) own the most road playoff wins (7) by a HC in NFL history.

ROSBURG LEADS RAVENS SPECIALISTS

SEASONS
RAVENS: 11TH
NFL: 18TH

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg has guided a stellar special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Below are several standout notes about the coach and his successful group of specialists.

SIX PRO BOWLERS
• Six Ravens have earned eight combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Rosburg: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016) and P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER
• Two-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (205) since entering the NFL in 2012. With a 90.3% career success mark, "Tuck" is the most accurate kicker in league history (205-of-227 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2017, Koch led the NFL in both punts inside the 10 (16) and inside the 20 (a franchise-record 40).

RAVENS' BIG RETURNS
• Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

2017: RAVENS RETURN GAMES SOARS IN WEEK 6 VS. CHICAGO
• In Week 6 vs. Chicago, for the first time in franchise history, the Ravens returned a kickoff and punt return for a TD in the same game. RB Bobby Rainey Jr. posted a 96-yard KOR-TD, while WR Michael Campanaro registered a 77-yard PR-TD. The Ravens became the first NFL team to have KOR and PR touchdowns in the same game since 2013, when Detroit and Kansas City each accomplished the feat on 12/8/13.

BALTIMORE BLOCK PARTY

DON "WINK" MARTINDALE & DEFENSIVE NOTES

"WINK" TO LEAD THE DEFENSE

On Jan. 9, 2018, the Ravens promoted Don "Wink" Martindale to defensive coordinator following the retirement of Dean Pees. Martindale, 54, is in his seventh year with the Ravens after serving as LBs coach from 2016-17 and ILBs coach from 2012-15. Under his guidance, LB C.J. Mosley has become one of the league's top defenders, earning three Pro Bowls.

The 2018 campaign marks Martindale's 14th season coaching in the NFL, where he has also spent time with Oakland (2004-08) and Denver (2009-10). In 2010, he served as the Broncos' defensive coordinator.

"'Wink' has earned the promotion to defensive coordinator," John Harbaugh stated. "His aggressive mentality will serve to take our defense to new levels. He is obviously respected by players, many of whom have already benefited from his direct coaching at the linebacker position. He knows the ins and outs of what we have been about on defense and has been an important contributor to our success on that side of the ball. This is an exciting day for Wink and his family, and also one for the Ravens."

"No disrespect to any of the guys I've played with, but it's nice not to have to explain why I do certain things or why I'm doing this in this coverage. From Day One, [Jefferson] already had a feel for how I play and how to work off me. … It frees me up a lot more mentally. I don't have to tell him after each play why I did this or, before the snap, say, 'Let's do this.' He already knows. That is just light years ahead of most guys I've played with. I've loved every guy I've played with, but he's just on another level."

PRO BOWL PUNTER

In his 10th season (2015), P Sam Koch was finally named to his first Pro Bowl, as the standout punter's net average (42.9) ranked No. 2 in the NFL, while his gross average (46.7) was ninth. Koch also dominated the league in 2014, pro4ducing the No. 1 net (43.3) and No. 3 gross (47.4) averages.

NOTE THE QUOTE

ESPN.com's Kevin Seifert on Sam Koch's arsenal of punts:

"Some are designed to hook toward the sideline with maximum hang time. Others use an intentionally low trajectory to aid coverage teams. He has a knuckler and one kick that drops, from the returner's perspective, roughly in the shape of the letter "S." He's debuted a "boomerang" punt that does just what you would imagine it might. Most, but not all, of these punts are intended to discourage a clean catch and minimize the return.

"It's not unusual for NFL punters to develop a "changeup" of sorts, but no one has ever had multiple options at the ready. ... The NFL changes every day, but there are only a few moments in each generation when it transforms. This is one of them. In plain sight, Sam Koch and the Ravens have introduced a new way to punt."

2016: PERHAPS THE BEST YEAR EVER

In 2016, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the fifth-best pct. in NFL single-season history. In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for fifth-best streak ever), here are facts about his remarkable season, arguably the best ever by a kicker:

✔ Tucker's 38 FGs made ranked No. 1 in the NFL. He was also 27-of-27 on PATs. An NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made in 2016 came from 40 yards or beyond.

✔ Tucker's 10 FGs of 50-plus yards are a Ravens' single-season record. They tie (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most in NFL history. (Tucker was a perfect 10-for-10 from 50 yards and out during the 2016 season.)

✔ Tucker's 141 points ranked second in the league only behind Atlanta's Matt Bryant (158).

✔ In Week 12 vs. Cincy, Tucker became just the ninth kicker in league history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in a single game (52, 57 & 54). He is also the first kicker in NFL history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in the first half of a game. (These feats earned him AFC ST POW honors.)

TUCKER TIDBITS

✔ Since PATs were moved back in 2015, Tucker (102-of-102) is the only NFL kicker yet to miss.

✔ Tucker is a four-time AFC Special Teams Player of the Month, which ranks one more than legends S Ed Reed & K Matt Stover for the most POM awards in Ravens history. (Tucker has also earned seven AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors.) "Tuck" earned his fourth POM award in Nov. 2017, going 8-for-8 on FGAs and 6-for-6 on PATs.

✔ Tucker's 6 FGs on 12/16/13 at Det. set a team record and a single-game NFL high in 2013. Against the Lions, he became the first NFL kicker ever to connect from the 20-, 30-, 40-, 50- & 60-yard range in a game.

✔ Tucker's 93.8 career FG% when kicking on grass (106-of-113) ranks as the NFL's best of all time.

✔ Tucker's 92.5 career FG% (99-of-107) in the second half/overtime ranks as the NFL's best second half/OT mark of all time.

PASS IT FORWARD

This year marked the 17th anniversary of the attacks on 9/11. Partnering with Verizon for the third-consecutive year, the Ravens continued to honor first responders and military families with the "Pass It Forward" campaign. This community-wide campaign is a season-long initiative where current and alumni players, along with Ravens cheerleaders and mascot Poe, surprise fans through random acts of kindness at various Baltimore-area locations. The initiative's mission is to create a positive social movement that begins with these events and encourages recipients and the community to "pass it forward." Ravens fans are encouraged to carry out their own personal random acts of kindness and share them by using the hashtags #RavensFlock, #PassItForward and #VerizonBAL. Monday, Sept. 17, kicked off the 2018 "Pass It Forward' campaign. Former Ravens S Ed Reed visited the Maryland State Police Headquarters and Medstar emergency room nurses, doctors and ambulance drivers, surprising them with coffee and pizza, respectively. The day highlighted multiple events throughout the Baltimore-area to show gratitude for the services our first responders provide.

CLEAT DISTRIBUTION

On Monday, Sept. 17, the Ravens celebrated their new charitable partnership with local nonprofit Leveling the Playing Field (LPF). Teaming up with Under Armour and the UA House/Living Classrooms Foundation, the Ravens donated new cleats to over 100 local middle school students in the Baltimore community. Official Ravens mascot Poe was onsite to help with the distribution of the footwear and to get the students excited about not only the Ravens' season but their own. Leveling the Playing Field's mission is to give underprivileged children an opportunity to enjoy the mental and physical benefits of youth sports participation. Through donations of used and excess sporting equipment, LPF gives programs and schools serving low-income communities the opportunity to allocate funds saved to lower registration fees, expand their scholarship programs, enhance their existing athletic program and/or develop new ones. The six schools that received cleats included Banneker Blake School (pictured below), Hampstead Hill Academy, Thomas Jefferson School, Calvin Rodwell School, Green Street Academy and Afya Public Charter School.

HONOR ROWS

The Ravens, the Governor's Office on Service and Volunteerism and M&T Bank present the 19th annual Honor Rows program. Throughout the 2018 regular season, local youth-led service organizations will be honored for their commitments to the community. For each home contest, different groups of Maryland youth will receive up to 100 tickets to a game, Honor Rows t-shirts and pre-game sideline passes. In order to be selected for the program, youth must demonstrate their dedication to serving and meeting the needs of their community while developing leadership, personal and social skills. The 14 organizations honored this season include: Baltimore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America (pictured below), Snow Hill-NJHS, Bennett Middle School-NJHS, Big Brothers Big Sisters at the Y, Maryland National Guard Freestate ChalleNGe Academy, Historic Elkridge Young Marines, Montgomery County Recreation, Sisters Academy of Baltimore, Best Buddies, Bundles of Love Club, Key Club, CASA Club, Laurel Highland Council, Boy Scouts of America and Boys 2 Men-Harford County.

JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE: WEEK 3 VS. BRONCOS

Opening statement: "All right, good to see everybody – appreciate you guys being here. A couple roster moves: Albert McClellan was re-signed. As we said [weeks ago], that might be a possibility, so we're happy to be able to do that. Maurice Canady was put on IR, although he'll be eligible to return, potentially. He does not have a season-ending injury, as we said before, so he's a guy that could come back in due time. And, we re-signed Kai [Nacua] to the practice squad. Kai had a heck of a training camp. He dealt with some injuries but fought through it, played very well whenever he was out there, so it's good to have him back in the mix. With that, I'll take questions."

While you mentioned CB Maurice Canady, RB Kenneth Dixon was placed on IR last week. Is he someone that could potentially return later in the season? (Luke Jones) "He is. He is, same category – correct. He's another guy that could come back, so that would be – if both those guys came back – those would be our two guys for the year. I think it's a wise choice by Ozzie [Newsome] and Eric [DeCosta] to make the move the way they did and just see how it plays out."

Is it reassuring to be able to turn to a guy like LB Albert McClellan? You're dealing with a little bit of uncertainty with ILB C.J. Mosley. (Childs Walker) "Albert is a veteran player. He's a very good football player. He knows everything we do. He gives us a lot on special teams, as well. He can play middle linebacker, to your point. It's a very good point. I would say [he] kind of solidifies us in there a little bit, having so many young players in the group."

Can we go back to Thursday night, now that you've has a chance, of course, to look at the film? When ILB C.J. Mosley left, was there a temporary … Was there some sort of communication breakdown in terms of the mic helmet and ILB Patrick Onwuasor taking over and then eventually sliding to S Eric Weddle? (Jerry Coleman) "We got it to Eric. We wanted to get it to Eric. What the situation was with the phones, or how they were working or stuff like that, I really don't know. We have the best phone guys in the world; love those guys. They do a great job, and they work all that stuff out. Patrick had it, I think, for a short period of time, and then it went to Eric, which is who we want to have it in those situations."

Is that a contingency? In other words, if the main guy – and you've identified these guys in the past – if they go down, does it just fall on to the next guy who's in line? (Jerry Coleman) "Yes. There's an order, a pecking order. In my mind, it's Eric [Weddle]. That's the No. 2 guy, and that's what we got to. We didn't have too many communication problems, as far as getting calls in. We didn't play things the way we wanted to play them all the time, but we had the calls in, for the most part. We had a few strength calls that weren't right, but those aren't … It's not too much of an issue, because the defense is still sound, as long as we're all on the same page. On-the-field communication, getting everybody on the same page, talking things through, that's what we emphasize. We have smart players, and it's early in the season. I watch games all around the league. There are a lot of communication issues early in the year, and we're no different. So, we've been pretty good with that stuff, and we continue to get better and improve, and before it's all said and done, you want to be humming in the area of communication. When you lose a player like C.J. [Mosley], it's a factor with that, certainly."

Do you have an update on ILB C.J. Mosley? (Jerry Coleman) "No. It's just what was reported. It's a bone bruise, and that's good news. It wasn't a structural issue, so we'll just see how that thing comes along and keep our fingers crossed."

It's been about four weeks since both TE Hayden Hurst and DT Willie Henry had their surgeries. Any chance they practice this week? (Aaron Kasinitz) "No. No, they won't practice this week."

One other question regarding Thursday: Going back looking at the film, the decision with Bengals WR A.J. Green, single coverage versus double coverage, was he alone in single coverage perhaps too much? (Jerry Coleman) "No. You can't double him all the time. It's impossible. So, we played our defense. We mixed our defenses, and he caught three touchdown passes. We didn't play him as well as we need to. We didn't cover him as tight as we need to, the way we wanted to cover him, obviously, so he made some plays."

You're on the other end of what was a short week. Now, a little longer. Good timing to get a few extra days of rest for the next one? You've been off since Thursday, I guess, Thursday night. (David Ginsburg) "Yes, that's valuable to have that. As far as recovery and things like that, and studying. This will be our opportunity. Everybody will get that at some point in time during the season, so it has value. That's right"

The rushing game averaging 3.3 yards, I know that's probably not what you want it to be. What, do you feel, is the biggest problem to get that running game back on track? (Jamison Hensley) "We just have to get the running game going. We need to pop some runs. That's the biggest issue. When you hit some long runs, that average goes to where you want it to be. We've had some steadiness with it. I don't think we've been hit in the backfield too many times, but we've had a few pretty solid runs. We didn't have nearly as many runs as we wanted on Thursday night. It's only the second game. People are playing us a certain way. The Bills made it a point to stop the run. That was kind of where they went with their defense, and then Bengals didn't have to, because they jumped out to a big lead. That's a big priority. We're not, in any way, pleased with the numbers. And, we are very determined to run the ball well, because we think it fits our offense, and it's something that opens everything else up. So, we have to get that going."

Most defenses go with a linebacker wearing the defensive headset. Is there anything that you guys have to be wary of with S Eric Weddle being the guy, the safety who's also the one relaying the play calls? (Jonas Shaffer) "The biggest thing is that he's not in the middle of the defense. That's probably your point. I think it's valid point. It's a little harder for the safety to communicate to the whole defense, but we do a good job of echoing our calls. Don [Martindale] does a good job of getting them in quickly, although we can always do that better. You want to get them in as quick as you can, but there are a lot of factors there. You're not just going down a list. You have to determine what the personnel is and what the situation is before you can make your call, so that's probably the biggest issue with it, sure."

How have you seen LB Kenny Young come along since training camp? He's obviously gotten a lot of snaps, particularly on Thursday. (Jeff Zrebiec) "Kenny continues to get better. He's doing a great job. We're really happy with him. I wouldn't say he's a finished project – nobody is ever a finished project – but he has a lot to learn. There are a lot of plays that Kenny, I think I saw him say, he didn't play everything right, and it led to a few plays for [Cincinnati]. But, he played a lot of things really fast and really well, and it led to a few plays for us. He keeps building on the plusses and the playmaking and keeps minimizing, in terms of just understanding where he's supposed to be with all the pattern reads and things like that. He's only going to get better. Very smart, very studious, very conscientious. So, his learning curve is steep. He's going to do a good job."

Along the same lines, what have you seen from TE Mark Andrews? (Ryan Mink) "Very similar. Mark had the slow start in in training camp because of the physical issues, and man, he's kind of a gamer. He steps up and make plays, and that's what we thought we had when we drafted. He's worked very hard in practice, and to see that show up in the games is good. [He's a] pass catcher, but, I'll tell you, a better runner or a better blocker, than probably anybody thought. In the games, he kind of steps it up, so that's a very big plus for us."

You had those two fourth-down conversions [in the last game]. What's your process of figuring out the math behind it in real time? (Aaron Kasinitz) "That's a good question. The math is already done. We study all that, we have all those numbers, and that's given to me during the game. The math, in both of those, was pretty overwhelming to go for them. But I also … While I'm no Copernicus – I passed math all the times I took it (laughter) – I have a pretty good understanding that while the statistics might be overwhelming a certain direction, there are also factors that … I had stats class, so the more things are done, the more the statistics tend to balance out. Like I tell our stats guys all the time, 'We don't want to be the factor that balances the stat back out – especially on fourth down.' So we were down by a lot, and we wanted to … I think on the road, there are two ways to look at it. One way to look at it is that you get the points and you chip your way back in – which is generally what we've always done. The other way to look at it is [that] we needed touchdowns, we need to score, and we were running out of possessions. I went with the idea to go for it, figuring that we could convert it. The fact that we didn't convert them makes me feel like we shouldn't have gone for them, we should have kicked it. In the end, that's really what you judge it on – whether you make it or not. But the analytics, to your question, was pretty strongly favorable for going for it."

It seems like it comes up every year, but when you see all those missed kicks around the league, is there a nice feeling inside about having K Justin Tucker? (Childs Walker) "Yes, and you know, you never take it for granted that the kick is going to get made, because I know how hard it is. It reminds you of how hard it is to make field goals, right? In Baltimore, we don't ever take those three guys for granted. They're a team. They'll be the first to tell you that they have to make the next kick. So, they work really hard to do that. But, 'yes' is the answer to your question."

Two ties in consecutive weeks. Were you in favor of shortening the overtime? (Todd Karpovich) "I was. I think it's … Gosh – it's hard to come back. You play all that time, but I don't know if five minutes make that big of difference or not. I'm not sure. I'm sure there are some studies on that, too. Who knows? We're going to try to win them in regulation as much as we can."

When you go up against a pass rusher like Broncos OLB Von Miller, how big of a challenge is it to stop him? (Jamison Hensley) "Big challenge. He's the bell cow. They have a very good defense. I go to Darian Stewart, who was here – he's playing very well and been playing well for them there. Two really good corners, inside 'backers that fly around – very strong, solid defensive front. He's the straw that stirs the drink, no doubt – one of the very best in the league at what he does. We will have to have him accounted for at all times, on every play. If we don't do that, he'll wreck the game. That's job [No.] 1 on offense – that's where it starts."

When you watched the tape of the offensive line from Thursday, did you see any systemic problems on some of the pass protection? Was it more individual matchups? What stood out to you? (Childs Walker) "Well, no systemic, in the terms of what type of protections we were running. We were mixing the protections pretty well. We had one bad matchup: We had our tight end on their best pass rusher on a play-action when he lined up on the right side – which he does occasionally but not all the time. That was a tough one, and he ended up hitting Joe [Flacco] as we were trying to get a deep throw, which would've been a big play for us potentially. It looked like it was going to be, but you have to get it off. When you run the seven-step drops, especially even off a play-action … When the defensive end doesn't bite off the play-action, he pass rushes, and you have a tight end on him – that's tough. Those kinds of things … I think they won some one-on-one battles at times – you've all seen that. We just have to work really hard to protect our quarterback. When we did, I think we had a lot of success throwing the ball. Joe made some really good plays, too, creating some things under duress. When we didn't, that makes it tougher."

You recovered WR/RS Janarion Grant's fumble. Is there concern with him and how he's doing? (Cliff Brown) "Yes, I'm concerned. It's twice in two games, and you don't want to see that. Whether he fumbles or not catching the ball the first time, you want to see the ball secured. He did secure it well a number of times – high hangers, people buzzing around him two weeks ago in the rain. But any time the ball is on the ground it is not a good situation. He knows that, and he's working hard at that. We'll kind of monitor that as we go here."

After the game, we talked to T Ronnie Stanley, and he deferred to you in terms of how he is. Is he fine going forward? (Jeff Zrebiec) "What did he tell you? You asked him." (Reporter: "He said, 'You're going to have to ask coach Harbaugh.'") "Did he? I read a different quote." (Reporter: "He said, 'I'm fine,' and somebody asked him, 'What's wrong?' Then he said, 'You'll have to ask …'") "Oh, so now we have the whole quote. It's always good to get the whole thing in context – see! (laughter) (Reporter: "He deferred to you twice.")* "He did defer to me twice. I appreciate that. OK, but he said he was 'fine?'" (Reporter: "He said he was fine – that was the first thing, yes.") "Well, we'll just go with that. He said he's fine – he's fine. We'll see. I don't know, we'll see. I think he's OK. We'll see."

What stood out about Denver's rookie RB Phillip Lindsay? He's set records, been really productive and is an undrafted guy (Luke Jones) "Amazing, because we looked at him – we liked him. He's a free agent guy, we had some pretty good free agent backs in here, too. It's incredible, these free agent running backs around the league. He's fast – that's what stands out about him. He's quick, he's kind of fearless. They put him in good situations, they get the ball to both rookie backs – [Royce] Freeman from Oregon, too. They get the ball outside quick on the edge couple different ways. They run a lot of draws really well, some screens, they get him in space. The offensive line has done a good job, but this kid is running and he's making plays with his speed and his fearlessness. He's doing it as a kick returner, [too]. He's back there as a kick returner as well – pretty impressive."

How did you think the run defense was against the Bengals? (Cliff Brown) "It was OK – not great. It needs to be better. Not to our standards. All our guys will probably echo that. We have a high, high standard. So, it might be good enough for other teams around the league, but it's not going to be good enough for us."

I believe you guys are 9-for-9 for converting inside the red zone so far this year. Have you seen anything different? (Jerry Coleman) "Man, I'll tell you – I don't know. What I'm seeing is good players. I think we have guys making plays, and we ran the ball in a few times, and that's big to our running backs and our offensive line. But man, you don't want to start patting yourself on the back. This league is too tough. The one thing you do see is – and I told the team this today – when you do have a weekend, kind of what you're talking about [to] get a step back and watch games, boy, it gives you good perspective. You see it's a crazy league. You see how tough it is. You see how tough it is to score in the red zone, how tough it is to stop somebody in the red zone. Everything is tough! Guys make plays, guys make mistakes, games go down to the wire, somebody gets blown out that you don't expect to get blown out. You just can't beat yourself up too much, because if you do, that just takes you to a downward path. You can't do it. What it's going to boil down to in the end is who is mentally tougher over the long haul. You have to keep grinding. You start with a lead? Keep grinding. You start out down in a hole? Keep grinding. It's a long game. If it's tight? Keep grinding. Someone has to pull ahead. I think it's true for a game; I think it's true for a season. That's where we're at right now. It's early and we just have to grind and become better and become mentally tough and fight and become a good football team. Nobody in the NFL is a good football team yet. So. it remains to be seen who the good football teams are, and that's what we've got to try to become."

Two games, 10 plays for QB Lamar Jackson. How do you think that's going, and do you think that could even expand? You know, he's started getting big plays. (Jamison Hensley) "It's week to week, gameplan to gameplan, game to game during the game. There are more plays than five in the gameplan for him. We'll just try to do what we can do with all the weapons we have to try to put as many points up as we can. That's really what we're trying to do with all our guys. I put him in the same category that way."
