BALTIMORE RAVENS AT PITTSBURGH STEELERS

(2-1)    Week 4 – Sunday, Sept. 30, 2018    (1-1-1)
8:20 p.m. ET – Heinz Field (68,400)

JUST THE FACTS

• The NFL's best rivalry renews when the Baltimore Ravens (2-1) battle the Pittsburgh Steelers (1-1-1) at Heinz Field in front of a nationally-televised audience. This marks the 12th-consecutive season Pittsburgh and Baltimore will play in primetime. In the past 11 seasons, eight of these primetime tilts have taken place at Heinz Field.

• Last Sunday (9/23), the Ravens upended the visiting Broncos, 27-14. Baltimore scored 20 unanswered points, twice overcoming 7-point Denver leads (7-0 and 14-7). The Ravens' defense registered 3 sacks and 9 QB hits, with OLB Terrell Suggs (1.5 sacks) leading the way. QB Joe Flacco was 25-of-40 for 277 yards, 1 TD and 0 INTs (91.4 rating), connecting 5 times with WR John Brown, who tallied a game-high 86 receiving yards. RB Javorius Allen registered a rushing and receiving TD, becoming the sixth player in team history to accomplish the feat.

• The last six Ravens-Steelers games have been split, 3-3. However, Pittsburgh has won three-consecutive contests, including a 39-38 thriller in Week 14 last season. Overall, the Steelers own the regular season series lead, 24-20. Under John Harbaugh, the Ravens are 10-10 vs. Pittsburgh in the regular season and 1-2 in the postseason.

• This week's Pittsburgh game begins a stretch when Baltimore will play four of five games on the road. (This includes three-consecutive away games from Weeks 4-6: at Pittsburgh, at Cleveland and at Tennessee.) Also starting this week, Baltimore embarks on a six-game stretch when the Ravens will face five 2017 postseason participants.

• In his 11th season at the Baltimore helm, Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a 106-72 overall record (10-5 postseason), posting the NFL's fourth-most total victories since his 2008 arrival. In 2012, he guided the franchise to its second Super Bowl victory.

HARBS SAYS

John Harbaugh on the Ravens' 12-for-12 Red Zone TDs Streak:
"You have to give the players credit. Joe [Flacco] has done a great job; he has extended some plays. We've run the ball down there very well. It doesn't always show up on the stats, but you have to be able to run the ball in the red zone. Guys have also made some really great catches. Without short-changing the players in any way, some of the plays have been really brilliant. We've had some play-action plays, where some guys have been wide open, with some easy throws."

INJURY UPDATE

DT Willie Henry (umbilical hernia) and first-round pick TE Hayden Hurst (foot) underwent surgery in late August and missed Weeks 1-3. Three-time Pro Bowl LB C.J. Mosley (knee bone bruise) missed last week's game vs. Denver, as did starting DT Michael Pierce (foot) and rookie CB Anthony Averett (hamstring). Six players are on IR, including CB Maurice Canady (knee) and RB Kenneth Dixon (knee).

NOTE THE QUOTE

NFL Network's Nate Burleson on the Ravens:
"When it comes to the Ravens, the options that Joe Flacco has – throwing to three different tight ends, the wide receivers, the running backs – he is dropping back more than ever and saying, 'I can go here, here, here, here.' They're walking into the stadium saying, 'I can throw it to anybody, and we're going to win.' That's what's sexy about this team. I haven't said that about the Ravens in a long time."

WHAT'S GOING ON?

RED ZONE

• Baltimore is the first team in league history to score a TD on all 12 of its RZ possessions to begin a season.

RAVENS-STEELERS: WHAT'S THE WORD?

How has the rivalry been described to you?
"Growing up in Baltimore and having a dad who played for Cleveland and Baltimore, Pittsburgh has been one of my least-favorite teams for a long time. The rivalry is very important to both cities. The AFC North is competitive." – T Orlando Brown Jr.

"It's a man's game. It gets pretty physical and brutal. It's pretty much [comparable] to the Saints/Falcons rivalry. I've noticed through watching film that it's always a close game. It's always going down to the wire." – WR Willie Snead IV

"Tough. You're battling for four quarters, probably more. It always comes down to the wire. Guys have to be locked in; there's a lot of energy, a lot of preparation." – LB Kenny Young

What was your "welcome to the rivalry" moment?
"It was our first win my rookie year [2015]. We went to overtime with them, and I think that was the first time I really realized what that game was all about. We ended up winning it, and it was my first game ever in the pros. It was in Pittsburgh, on the road, night game, Thursday Night Football." – TE Maxx Williams

"My rookie year [2007] in Pittsburgh, they got after us pretty good. The atmosphere at Heinz Field and the iconic players of Hines Ward, Ed Reed, Ray Lewis, Casey Hampton and all those guys. It was the traditional leaders of the teams who were getting after it. The intensity set the stage for me as a young player." – G Marshal Yanda

Which Steelers player do you respect the most?
"Ben Roethlisberger. He's a tough quarterback." – OLB Terrell Suggs

"'Big Ben,' just with how good he is, how tough, how he wins, the championships, how hard he is to bring down. He's one of the few guys that when he gets in the zone, it doesn't really matter what you play on defense, it's tough to be out there." – S Eric Weddle

"I respect 'Big Ben.' Obviously, he's been there forever, and the things he's done there with everyone around him, you have to respect him. You have to respect their offense, too." – DT Brandon Williams

"Cameron Heyward. We went to the same high school. But I think all of them are respectable." – T Orlando Brown Jr.

"Antonio Brown, because you see the numbers he puts up each week, what he's done over the course of his career. I had a humbling opportunity to train with him in L.A. for a week and understand behind the scenes why he's a great player." – LB Kenny Young

What movie bests describes the Ravens/Steelers rivalry?
"'Troy.'" – OLB Terrell Suggs

"'Gladiator.'" – S Eric Weddle

"'300.'" – LB Kenny Young

What makes this matchup so highly anticipated?
"It's a special game – not only is it a divisional opponent, but it's one of our biggest rivals. The games are so physical, and it's always been a close game." – DT Brandon Williams

"It's a rivalry! It's like every big rivalry – everything is on the line, not just for the division, but for bragging rights and for momentum for the rest of the season." – LB Kenny Young

OLB TERRELL SUGGS ON HOW HE WANTS TO BE REMEMBERED AFTER HIS PLAYING CAREER:

"I would love to be considered on the Mount Rushmore of Ravens – just knowing I gave everything I have to this organization, to this city, to my fans, and that I was one of their own."

The Baltimore Sun's Childs Walker on WR John Brown:
"John Brown looks like the most dynamic receiving threat the Ravens have had since Steve Smith Sr.'s first season in town."

WR John Brown on building chemistry with QB Joe Flacco:
"I'm just blessed to be here, to get another opportunity and to be with another great quarterback. I know how to work with quarterbacks, and it's not just me. All the receivers have a good chemistry with him [Joe Flacco]. It's all about trust. Starting with practice and talking with him to see if we're seeing the same thing – that plays a big part of it."

John Harbaugh on rookie TE Mark Andrews:
"Mark had the slow start in training camp because of the physical issues, but man, he's a gamer. He steps up and makes plays, and that's what we thought we had when we drafted him. He's worked very hard in practice, and to see that show up in the games is good. He's a pass catcher, but a better runner or a better blocker than probably anybody thought. In the games, he steps it up, so that's a very big plus for us."

OLB Terrell Suggs on rookie LB Kenny Young:
"I just like that he's a young dog. When you have a young dog that can run like he can run and just go, everything else can be corrected. We like you if you can just go and run and go make plays and go wreak havoc. Everything else can be coached. We like that kind of dog in him."

NBC Sports' Peter King, naming K Justin Tucker his Week 3 Special Teams Player of the Week:
"In the rain in Baltimore, Tucker, the NFL's state-of-the-art kicker, booted 52-yard field goals in the first and second quarters in the Ravens' 27-14 win over previously unbeaten Denver. You want the amazing stat about Tucker? Since opening day 2016, he's made 18 of 20 field goals from 50 yards or more."

QB Joe Flacco on the Ravens winning twice this season in hard rain while playing on a grass field:
"I think that's always one of the things that when you take into account guys that are going to be on this team is the fact that you have to play in Cincinnati, you have to play in Cleveland, you have to play in Pittsburgh, and you have to play in Baltimore. Grass fields, for the most part, and you can always be [dealing] with some weather, so you've got to be able to step up to the plate and do it, and it's just part of playing football."

RB Javorius Allen, who leads the Ravens with 4 TDs, on the excitement he has for the offense:
"This offense always excites me. Marty [Mornhinweg], when he took over, he did a great job of putting the right guys in the right places to make plays, and I happen to be one of those guys he put into place to make a play. I love this offense."

Denver WR Emmanuel Sanders on the Ravens' defense:
"They run a lot of different coverages and mix it up really well. Ever since I've played Baltimore, even when I started with the Steelers, they've always had a good defense. They've got [Terrell] Suggs on that side of the ball, and he wreaks havoc. They're a good football team."

CB Marlon Humphrey on being aggressive in one-on-one situations under defensive coordinator Don Martindale:
"That's one of the things you know is going to happen as a corner. You're definitely going to be out there alone a lot of times, with no safety help, so it's one of the things the corner is going to have to step up to the challenge. I like the aggressiveness Coach 'Wink' has been [bringing] with the defense and how he really trusts us, so not only can he make the calls on the sidelines, but we can also adjust some things on the field. I really like the trust and the bend he's been giving us within the defense."

Longtime NFL reporter John Clayton on the Ravens:
"The Ravens [have] showed off an offense that should be enough to earn them a playoff spot. Last year, despite issues at wide receiver, Baltimore was plus-92 in point differential, which should have translated to a 10- or 11-win season as opposed to its actual 9-7 record. General manager Ozzie Newsome has given [Joe] Flacco a nice three-receiver set this year in Willie Snead, John Brown and Michael Crabtree. The Ravens' defense is great at stopping the run, and this team should be good enough to challenge the Pittsburgh Steelers for the AFC North title."

WR Michael Crabtree on his leadership as a veteran:
"In football, I feel like age doesn't really determine the drive that you have. When I came in the league early, I felt like I was the leader in the room at 21. But it was more off example, leading by example. The older I've gotten, it seems like it's more verbal. So, it's more speaking, showing these guys and telling these guys, instead of just showing them by example. It's a little different when you get older. I'm comfortable with it. Being the veteran guy, I'll take that and do what I need to do to better the team."

WEEK 3 RECAP: BAL. 27, DEN. 14

The Ravens scored 20 unanswered points, beating the previously unbeaten Broncos, 27-14, at M&T Bank Stadium last Sunday. Baltimore twice overcame 7-point Denver leads (7-0 and 14-7) to improve to 2-1 and a share of first place in the AFC North. Broncos RB Royce Freeman opened the scoring with a 6-yard touchdown run after LB Joseph Jones blocked P Sam Koch's punt at the 6 on the game's opening series. The Ravens responded immediately with a 5-play, 48-yard TD drive that ended with RB Alex Collins rumbling 6 yards for a TD. The Broncos took the lead again on the next series, ending with a 35-yard end-around TD scamper by WR Emmanuel Sanders. That gave Denver a 14-7 lead after the first quarter. The Ravens' defense then shut out the Broncos the remainder of the game, including two fourth-quarter stops inside Baltimore's 15-yard line. K Justin Tucker clobbered two 52-yard fields goals in the first half, setting an NFL record for multiple 50-yard-plus FGs in the same game (6) and continuing his streak of FGs made over 50 yards to eight straight. Tucker's kicks bracketed a spectacular 12-yard TD catch and run by RB Javorius Allen, helping the Ravens to a 20-14 halftime lead. Allen's 1-yard TD run in the third quarter completed the game's scoring. QB Joe Flacco was outstanding, completing 25 of 40 passes for 277 yards, 1 TD and 0 INTs. Flacco found eight different teammates for catches, with WR Michael Crabtree leading the way with 7 for 61. WR John Brown grabbed 5 for 86, while WR Willie Snead IV had 3 for 39. Collins added 68 rushing yards on 18 carries. Through the season's first three games, the Ravens have scored touchdowns on all 12 of their red zone penetrations. Broncos QB Case Keenum was 22-of-34 for only 192 yards, and he was sacked 3 times, 1.5 by OLB Terrell Suggs. The victory added more joy to John Harbaugh's 56th birthday.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

LB Ray Lewis - 2000
Super Bowl XXXV MVP

In a magnificent effort showcasing thrilling performances by their defense, offense and special teams units, the Baltimore Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV with a 34-7 victory over the New York Giants. Allowing the Giants a meager 152 total net yards, New York's attack crossed midfield just twice, while Baltimore's "D" posted 4 INTs. LB Ray Lewis was named the game's MVP, capping an accolade-filled season in which he was also tabbed the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

QB Joe Flacco - 2012
Super Bowl XLVII MVP

Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second World Championship. After an amazing first-half performance, the Ravens took a commanding 28-6 lead. But following a bizarre, 34-minute power outage that halted play, the 49ers stormed back into contention. Clinging to a 34-29 edge late in the game, the Ravens stood firm on a pivotal goal-line stand, jamming SF on four-straight plays inside the 7-yard line. QB Joe Flacco was named the game's MVP.

THE HARBAUGH FILE

John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in six (2008-12 & 2014) of his 10 full seasons in Baltimore, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl title. Under "Harbs," the Ravens have secured an appearance in three AFC Championships (2008, 2011 & 2012).

Here are several Harbaugh quick hits:

• The Ravens are one of only eight teams (NE – 9; GB – 8; Pit. – 7; Atl., Bal., Cin., Ind. & Sea. – 6) to earn at least six postseason berths in the last 10 years. (Baltimore has won at least one game in each of those playoff campaigns.)

• The Ravens' 10 playoff wins since 2008 rank second only to New England's 13.

• "Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.

• John and his brother, Jim (formerly of the 49ers), are the only head coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years as NFL bosses.

• Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.

• In 2012, Harbaugh became the third coach (with Bill Cowher & Chuck Knox) since the 1970 merger to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons.

• Harbaugh owns the third-most playoff wins (10, tied) by a coach in his first 10 seasons (since the 1970 merger).

• With the Ravens' 2014 playoff berth, Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching.

• For coaches to make the playoffs in at least six of their first 10 years, "Harbs" is one of five active coaches to do so (Pete Carroll, Mike McCarthy, Andy Reid & Mike Tomlin).

• Harbaugh, Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) own the most road playoff wins (7) by a HC in NFL history.

ROSBURG LEADS RAVENS SPECIALISTS

SEASONS
RAVENS: 11TH
NFL: 18TH

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg has guided a stellar special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Below are several standout notes about the coach and his successful group of specialists.

SIX PRO BOWLERS
• Six Ravens have earned eight combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Rosburg: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016) and P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER
• Two-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (207) since entering the NFL in 2012. With a 90.0% career success mark, "Tuck" is the most accurate kicker in league history (207-of-230 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2017, Koch led the NFL in both punts inside the 10 (16) and inside the 20 (a franchise-record 40).

RAVENS' BIG RETURNS
• Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

2017: RAVENS RETURN GAMES SOARS IN WEEK 6 VS. CHICAGO
• In Week 6 vs. Chicago, for the first time in franchise history, the Ravens returned a kickoff and punt return for a TD in the same game. RB Bobby Rainey Jr. posted a 96-yard KOR-TD, while WR Michael Campanaro registered a 77-yard PR-TD. The Ravens became the first NFL team to have KOR and PR touchdowns in the same game since 2013, when Detroit and Kansas City each accomplished the feat on 12/8/13.

BALTIMORE BLOCK PARTY

DON "WINK" MARTINDALE & DEFENSIVE NOTES

"WINK" TO LEAD THE DEFENSE

On Jan. 9, 2018, the Ravens promoted Don "Wink" Martindale to defensive coordinator following the retirement of Dean Pees. Martindale, 54, is in his seventh year with the Ravens after serving as LBs coach from 2016-17 and ILBs coach from 2012-15. Under his guidance, LB C.J. Mosley has become one of the league's top defenders, earning three Pro Bowls.

The 2018 campaign marks Martindale's 14th season coaching in the NFL, where he has also spent time with Oakland (2004-08) and Denver (2009-10). In 2010, he served as the Broncos' defensive coordinator.

"'Wink' has earned the promotion to defensive coordinator," John Harbaugh stated. "His aggressive mentality will serve to take our defense to new levels. He is obviously respected by players, many of whom have already benefited from his direct coaching at the linebacker position. He knows the ins and outs of what we have been about on defense and has been an important contributor to our success on that side of the ball. This is an exciting day for Wink and his family, and also one for the Ravens."

I don't have to tell him after each play why I did this or, before the snap, say, 'Let's do this.' He already knows. That is just light years ahead of most guys I've played with. ## NOTE THE QUOTE

ESPN.com's Kevin Seifert on Sam Koch's arsenal of punts:

"Some are designed to hook toward the sideline with maximum hang time. Others use an intentionally low trajectory to aid coverage teams. He has a knuckler and one kick that drops, from the returner's perspective, roughly in the shape of the letter "S." He's debuted a "boomerang" punt that does just what you would imagine it might. Most, but not all, of these punts are intended to discourage a clean catch and minimize the return.

"It's not unusual for NFL punters to develop a "changeup" of sorts, but no one has ever had multiple options at the ready. ... The NFL changes every day, but there are only a few moments in each generation when it transforms. This is one of them. In plain sight, Sam Koch and the Ravens have introduced a new way to punt."

2016: PERHAPS THE BEST YEAR EVER

In 2016, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the fifth-best pct. in NFL single-season history. In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for fifth-best streak ever), here are facts about his remarkable season, arguably the best ever by a kicker:

✔ Tucker's 38 FGs made ranked No. 1 in the NFL. He was also 27-of-27 on PATs. An NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made in 2016 came from 40 yards or beyond.

✔ Tucker's 10 FGs of 50-plus yards are a Ravens' single-season record. They tie (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most in NFL history. (Tucker was a perfect 10-for-10 from 50 yards and out during the 2016 season.)

✔ Tucker's 141 points ranked second in the league only behind Atlanta's Matt Bryant (158).

✔ In Week 12 vs. Cincy, Tucker became just the ninth kicker in league history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in a single game (52, 57 & 54). He is also the first kicker in NFL history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in the first half of a game. (These feats earned him AFC ST POW honors.)

TUCKER TIDBITS

✔ Since PATs were moved back in 2015, Tucker (105-of-105) is the only NFL kicker yet to miss.

✔ Tucker is a four-time AFC Special Teams Player of the Month, which ranks one more than legends S Ed Reed & K Matt Stover for the most POM awards in Ravens history. (Tucker has also earned seven AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors.) "Tuck" earned his fourth POM award in Nov. 2017, going 8-for-8 on FGAs and 6-for-6 on PATs.

✔ Tucker's 6 FGs on 12/16/13 at Det. set a team record and a single-game NFL high in 2013. Against the Lions, he became the first NFL kicker ever to connect from the 20-, 30-, 40-, 50- & 60-yard range in a game.

✔ Tucker's 93.1 career FG% when kicking on grass (108-of-116) ranks as the NFL's best of all time.

✔ Tucker's 92.5 career FG% (99-of-107) in the second half/overtime ranks as the NFL's best second half/OT mark of all time.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

HISPANIC HERITAGE LEADERSHIP AWARD

This year, the Baltimore Ravens selected Veronica Cool, founder and managing director of Cool & Associates LLC, as the recipient of the 2018 NFL Hispanic Heritage Leadership Award. Partnering together for the eighth-consecutive year, the NFL and the Hispanic Heritage Foundation present this award to local Hispanic leaders in each NFL market. Coinciding with the celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, the award recognizes the contributions of local Hispanic leaders. Cool & Associates provides a multitude of services to the Hispanic community in Baltimore, including marketing, community outreach and financial services. Cool has been recognized by The Baltimore Sun, Daily Record and former First Lady Michelle Obama for her efforts in government, community service and business. Cool was recognized for her achievements and service to the Baltimore community at the Ravens game against the Denver Broncos on Sunday, Sept. 23.

FLOCK ABOVE

This year, the Baltimore Ravens and Living Classrooms Foundation (LCF) have partnered to launch the inaugural "Flock Above" Mentorship Program. Through an application process, 10 young men (ninth-graders) from the LCF, representing varying Baltimore City High Schools, were selected to participate in this fundamental program. Starting on Tuesday, Sept. 18, participants began this annual, season-long commitment. A commitment was also made to the students by Ravens players, staff and LCF personnel. Tasked with helping these young men overcome the academic pressures of high school, navigate through the nuances of young adulthood and develop positive character through mentorship, Ravens and LCF staff will hold monthly enrichment meetings and facilitate positive interactions with the students throughout the season. The evening included a workout, leadership exercises, dinner and a special visit from Ravens CB Brandon Carr.

ACT BOOKMOBILE & CLASSROOM DISTRIBUTION

On Monday, Sept. 24, Ravens staff, members of the Ravens All-Community Team (ACT) and Poe joined forces with the Ravens Bookmobile at Glenmount Elementary School in Baltimore City to distribute classroom supplies for teachers and faculty. In addition to the distribution, all students (pre-K through third grade) received books from the Maryland Book Bank. Prior to the distribution, Ravens CB Brandon Carr was on-site reading to the students of Glenmount. The Ravens ACT focuses on increasing corporate and community awareness of the Ravens Foundation, player foundations and associated local charitable organizations. This is done through a season-long NFL football competition between area and regional Baltimore-based business leaders and companies. ACT makes a positive impact in the Maryland area by strengthening the ties that bring the Ravens organization, its players and members of the corporate community together with activities and events throughout the year.
JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE: WEEK 4 AT STEELERS

Opening statement: "Welcome. Good to see everybody here. We've had a chance to review the tape as a coaching staff and meet and go through everything and set our path going forward, in terms of what we need to do to keep building and improving and stacking and becoming a better football team. And then also, the challenge ahead, we've starting on the next game, which is Sunday night up in Pittsburgh, another primetime game in Pittsburgh. I think we're getting pretty used to that. It seems like we're there every year in primetime at night, one way or another, so we're excited about that. And, I'm just proud of our team. You don't look back too much. After tomorrow, we'll get about probably 10 minutes, we'll look at the game and then a little bit of tape, study it and try to build on it and improve, and then we'll be moving on to Pittsburgh, so that's kind of how we do it. There are a lot of twists and turns. You think you're going to take a right, you take a left. You think the road is going to go down, it goes up, and it's kind of how life is, and that's how football games and football seasons seem to go. I think it's a great metaphor for life that way, and I just appreciate the way our guys handled the twists and turns of the game and the season so far. We have a lot of character, and when you have that, you certainly have a chance, and I'm excited about that going forward."

The defensive line yesterday and linebacker, the pressure you put on the quarterback, could you talk a little bit about it? *(Stan Charles) "It's really true, and I think we had 14 times where we were hitting him in some form or fashion – all legally, the right way, which certainly, I was very happy with. Three sacks, was it? And, a number of hits in pressure, so we forced the ball out quick. We also had some batted balls. The blitz, the pressure package was good. We had a few free runners. We came clean in a couple games. That was part of the plan, because their hard-setters, their flat-setters, they get their hands on you. They're very strong when they get ahold of you, and we thought we wanted to pick them a little bit and run some games in there. That was good. But, I just thought the power of our rushes more than anything – getting off the ball, getting into their chest and pushing them back – was a big part of it."

As a follow-up to that though, without their holding penalties, you would've gotten a lot more hits and a lot more hurries. They must have had about 10 holding penalties yesterday. *(Stan Charles) (Harbaugh shrugs.)

In going back and looking at the film, there were two plays that really seemed to upset the fans and, I'm sure, upset the coaching staff, maybe. One was the blocked field goal. What had you seen from that and in talking with the league? And, the other was the OLB Matthew Judon call on the ILB Patrick Onwuasor return. *(Jerry Coleman) "The Judon call … The quarterback, Case [Keenum], was just trying to get out of bounds and get out of the way, and I think Matt was just trying to avoid him. That's what he was trying to do. And yet, his hands kind of brushed Case's back, and Case fell forward, so I understand what the officials saw there. We coach our guys very hard in all returns – special teams, or interception returns – to basically keep your hands off a player from behind no matter what, no matter what, and don't grab anybody. That's something we coach really hard. Matt does that, too. I would've liked for Matt to have been able to get his hands up, even if he would have run over Case and stepped on him, that's … Tangled up would have been one thing, but in trying to protect himself, it cost us a touchdown. Try to learn from that, although I don't blame Matt for that.

"As far as the other play, we did talk to the league, and I can't really speak for them. I'll let them speak for them on it, but I think what we all thought was confirmed. There's an element of being stationary, and they weren't stationary. But still, the way we look at it is, we have to improve there. That should be blocked. We should protect that 'A' gap better. We know that. It shouldn't even be an issue. But, [it was] as we all thought after the game last night."

How much better is the receiving corps this year? Not to insult the guys that were here last year, but all three of the guys that they've added, plus even your rookie tight end to really contribute, giving QB Joe Flacco a lot of targets. *(David Ginsburg) "I'm really pleased with all those guys. They're playing really well. They made big plays. Willie Snead had some huge, huge conversions. [Denver] is a team that is the best third-down team in football. I think they were second last year and first this year. Ever since Coach [Vance] Joseph got there, they've been great on third down. Pressure, coverage, scheme – it's all been excellent. We were 50 percent, and a number of those were the guys you were talking about making plays, whether it was Mark Andrews on the seam route on third-and-8, Willie Snead caught a couple slants over the middle, tight-window throws by Joe [Flacco]. Crabtree, Michael Crabtree came up big back-to-back in the first two, second or third drive, I think, where he kept those drives going for scores. And, John Brown made a couple big catches, especially the 40-yarder down the right sideline. So, those guys making plays for us has really just been so critical, and we want to keep building on that."

It seemed like OLB Za'Darius Smith had a really good game yesterday. Just curious, in his fourth year now, do you feel like he's at the point where he can, not play like that every week, but can build off a performance like that, and has expanded what he can do as a player? (Cliff Brown) "He has. He's taken the next step. He's certainly raised his game to another level. He's always been a good player. He's a guy that didn't play a lot of football. I think he played two years or something in college, maybe a year in high school. He went to junior college. He's a guy that just was not a football player, so I think there was a big learning curve for him coming out. He's learned it now. He knows how to play fast. He knows all the little [nuances]. He's not making mistakes like he did before that would keep him off the field, and he's cutting it loose. He's really explosive. He's done a great job with the inside pass rush. That's been something that we've been looking for. He has filled that role very well, and then even when he's inside as a pass rusher, he's held up very well against the run. For a guy that's 275 [pounds] or so, that's pretty darn good. So yes, I'm very pleased with him."

How would you assess WR/RS Tim White's performance as a returner yesterday? (Todd Karpovich) "I thought it was good. I thought it was very solid. Tough day again [due to the rain]. He caught everything, made some good decisions. Maybe could have run up and caught one or two, but those are. .. I told him, I said, 'Hey, listen, especially towards the end, we have the lead. If you can go catch it, grab it, fair catch it if you're … Let's err on the side of smart right now.' And he did a good job of that, and hit the one return, the kickoff return. Yes, I thought he did well. If we would have blocked a little better for him on two of the other kickoff returns, he might have hit those, too. So, he did a good job."

The Steelers play tonight. I'm curious, would you watch them live? Is there anything that you can glean from doing that, or do you wait for the tape? (Aaron Kasinitz) "Yes, it's going to be impossible not to watch them live. I've already seen them. I've already seen all of the two games on tape, both sides of the ball and special teams. There's really no more tape to watch. We'll do a lot of study from now until then. We'll get a lot of reports, a lot of information that comes in. You just process all that information. We all have our roles, and all of our guys will be doing that. But my guess is most of the guys will get home and watch the game, or watch it – if they're doing film work, they'll watch it on the TV. You have two screens in your office. But, I'm going to go home and watch it. You get a lot out of it by watching it on TV. You get a feel for the game and the team. What am I going to get done if I'm not watching it? I know they're playing, and we're playing them next week. If I'm not watching it, it'd be crazy! I'm looking forward to it. It's just fun. I can't wait to see it. I'm looking forward to it."

Obviously, we don't know how they're going to play tonight, but with that team in particular, have you learned not to pay it too much mind when it maybe seems on the surface that they're struggling? (Childs Walker) "We're going to play the Steelers on Sunday Night Football in Pittsburgh, and we know what that means. We're going to get their best shot. There's no team that rallies for big games more than they do. They come up big for the big games, and playing the Ravens is a big game, and I'm sure the Steelers will play their best on Sunday night, like they always do against us."

Do you prepare for RB Le'Veon Bell, or do you just wait and see if he signs? (Jerry Coleman) "Wait and see. Wait and see. We'll prepare for their offense. It's a very good question. Of course, their running backs that they're playing now, James Conner and Co., that's who we'll looking at mainly. But, we've seen Le'Veon enough to understand what he brings to the table and how he affects what they do."

Your running backs, how much more confidence do you have in RB Javorius "Buck" Allen now than you did, say, a couple years ago? (Stan Charles) "He's grown as a player, especially on the third-down stuff. Pass protection, excellent. [He's] become a real factor. In fact, we're talking about how much better he can get as a receiver, in terms of shaking loose on some routes and keep growing in that area. He's become – I think quietly, like I said last night – one of the better players in football at his position."

Speaking of those running backs, it looks like the defenses that you guys have faced have really committed to putting a block to stop RB Javorius "Buck" Allen and RB Alex Collins. Does that jive with what you've seen so far, and how much, I guess, does that explain the few yards per carry that you guys have put up so far? (Jonas Shaffer) "It does explain it. Safeties have made a lot of tackles against us, if you go back and look at it. One of the best tackling safeties, Darian Stewart, was on the field yesterday. He had a number of tackles, even in the backfield he had a couple. I don't think just against us, I also think the teams we've played, that's the way they play defense. They commit to stopping the run. This team [Denver] is probably more like us. They're more similar to our defense than the first two teams we played, scheme-wise, and they have some big strong guys up front, and they were not going to let us run the ball. That was their mantra. They talked about it after the game. They were proud of that, and it was something that they wanted to do, but that doesn't stop us from thinking we can run the ball. We feel like we can run the ball. We need to run the ball against anybody, I think when we're in a game, or at least we're in striking distance, and we understand how many possessions we have and how many possessions it takes to score how many points to get back in the game and how quickly we need to try to score. And when we can run the ball and pound the ball, we will do that. We're just, like I said, after the first week, it hasn't changed. We still haven't popped any big runs. A number of our runs have been in the red zone and scored, but that's five yards. It doesn't help your average too much. We need a 40-yard run. We need a 50-, 60-yard run, and all of the sudden, that stat you're talking about goes up. We haven't earned that yet. We have to earn that. We have to get our back through there, and that's what we're working on."

Is that something that you're willing to sacrifice? Small fractions of yards in yards per carry, so that it opens up the passing lanes for QB Joe Flacco? (Jonas Shaffer) "Sure, yes – that's a good point. I think that's right. You have to make them still stop the run. If you don't, then you're not going to defend it, and it's harder to throw the ball, too. So that fact that they're up there stopping the run does help the passing game."

How do you think the secondary has performed in the first three weeks, especially with everyone wondering how it would be without CB Jimmy Smith in there? (Jamison Hensley) "They've performed well – not perfect. We've talked about that in previous press conferences. We still are chasing perfection. But some of the things that came up against the Bengals were corrected in this game, and that was really good to see. There are some things that came up in this game that we need to look at and correct, too. You're always chasing that perfection, but those guys are playing very well."

I know you talked about being 12-for-12 in the red zone yesterday after the game, but it's the first time in NFL history that has occurred. What do you attribute that to? What's making that so efficient? (Shawn Stepner) "[It] probably starts with Joe [Flacco]. Joe has done a great job making plays, making throws, of trusting his guys and also extending some plays – that's been big. I've always felt that in the red zone, it's not just the play, it's the next play. So, you get two plays for one. If your quarterback can extend and get the defense chasing a little bit, a lot of times you can score down there with a quick throw. Joe has done a good job of that. Our receivers have made some really good catches, to the other point earlier, and we've run the ball well down there. All those three things come up with touchdowns. We want to keep that going – that's the goal."

Has the diversity on offense helped you in the red zone? I think you've had five different players get red zone carries and eight or nine different players get red zone catches. Is that advantageous because teams can't key-in on one guy and note the go-to guy? (Jeff Zrebiec) "That's no question – that's true. We do that with our own defense where we say, 'Hey, this is the must-stop guy in the red zone, and these are the must-stop two or three guys.' I don't know who our must-stop guy would be. It's certainly [Michael] Crabtree. I guarantee you, they're talking about 'Crab' in the red zone, and he hasn't even scored that much down there yet. The fact that he's still going to be a threat down there ... Teams know that, so they're going to have to cover him. If they don't, he's going to score. That's a big plus. Marty [Mornhinweg, offensive coordinator] and [senior offensive assistant] Craig Ver Steeg and all those coaches have done a great job of scheme in the red zone, and like you said, spreading the ball out, keeping people off-balance, running past, and there are some really good ideas down there."

What have you seen from DE Chris Wormley and his development going into Year 2? (Luke Jones) "Great point. 'Worm' has really improved; he's really gotten better. He always had it in him, and he's still just scratching the surface of his potential. He and I talk pretty much every week, and he's a smart guy, very mature, and he knows exactly what he needs to do from one week to the next to improve. That's why I think he does it. Tearing off blocks, staying square down the line and falling back on zone plays, not getting pushed around in gap schemes – those are all things that he's done a really good job of, and then vertical pressure in the pass rush. He's gotten in quarterbacks' faces quite a few times. Yet, he still knows he can get a lot better."

Did he come back as a better athlete, too? Watching him during camp, we got the sense that he's a little stronger, a little quicker. Have you seen that? (Childs Walker) "He's definitely stronger and quicker – yes, I have seen that. It's just training. He works hard; he's a young guy. For some of these guys, 23 years old is not mature, fully mature as an athlete. They hit their peak around 26, 27, 28, strength-wise – even 29, 30. You start, kind of, layering muscle and all that kind of stuff if you train. If you train, you keep going that way through your 20s. We expect him to get even stronger and faster, just like all of our young guys."

Was yesterday one of the best throwing days you've seen QB Joe Flacco? (Stan Charles) "Man, I wish I could remember. (laughter) But he's had a lot of good throwing days, right? But to your point, yes, it's in the top category. That's what you like to see Joe do. I just think that it's a combination of a lot of things, including confidence in the guys that he's throwing to, and protection did a great job. We haven't mentioned the O-line yet, and we really should. The O-line, pass protection-wise, was just outstanding. Going back and looking at the tape, there was some good scheme stuff in there – we certainly mixed protections – but it was a lot of one-on-one blocks. Our tackles had to hold up against two really good pass rushers: [No.] 58 [Von Miller] and [No.] 55

[Bradley Chubb], and then [No.] 48 [Shaquil Barrett] was out there, too, and he was also inside rushing. I'm really proud of the guys; they did a good job."

Will DT Willie Henry or TE Hayden Hurst practice this week? (Aaron Kasinitz) "We'll see. I don't know yet. There's a chance – probably a better chance for Hayden. Willie is going to see a doctor here this week and get … It's a little different with Willie, because it's not an orthopedic deal. So the doctor – internist – has to clear him on that kind of stuff."

Was ILB C.J. Mosley close to playing on Sunday? What's his prognosis? (David Ginsburg) "Sure, C.J. and Michael Pierce were really close; they just didn't make it this week. Still, you have to say it's 'day-to-day,' because you don't know. But I'm really hopeful."

T Ronnie Stanley threw off his arm brace during the game. (Stan Charles) "I heard that! I read a story on that." (Reporter: "Then he put it back on. Was he having problems?") "I don't know. I read he threw it off to the sideline and the crowd went crazy when they saw it – that's all I know."(Reporter: "Then he put it back on, too.") "Did he? OK."

The play involving QB Lamar Jackson – was he intended to be the target on that pass by QB Joe Flacco? (Jerry Coleman) "Well, he's in the progression. He's not the first guy. Probably part of that is to draw a little coverage to us and throw the seams behind it. We have a crossing route coming across it also that actually did come open that we didn't get to. I think Joe tried to pop it to Lamar really fast and get him running. But he's definitely in the progression on that. If you want to put it out there, you have to be willing to throw it to him. [He] probably wasn't as open as we'd like him to be."

When you're watching film of the Steelers and looking at WR Antonio Brown, what makes him so productive? (Jamison Hensley) "What jumps out? Man, playmaking ability is the broadest way that I can say it. But what jumps out to me is the deep over routes and the corner routes – that's what I see – and also the inside slants, when they get you matched up in there, especially when you bring pressure. Those things are things he's made simple concepts, that he and Ben [Roethlisberger] are like one mind on. He's made that throw on the sideline against us. He's made it on fade routes, too – right on the sideline where he makes a great catch and toe-taps it down. You're just kind of amazed by it. We know that's what you get when you play the Steelers, that's what you're dealing with, and that's what makes them who they are."

How tough is that to defend? (Jamison Hensley) "It's tough, but we have the guys that can do it. Plus, we'll mix coverages on them, and it won't be seven-on-seven out there. We'll be bringing some heat. That's how you do it."

With DT Michael Pierce, he said he could play yesterday but he also felt that week off could help him. How much can a week off help? (Ed Lee) "I don't know. It's healing. How much can it help him? Ask a doctor. It's [about] how much can a bruise heal – that's what it is. Sometimes it's real painful. We'll find out – you just have to wait and see. With any kind of injury, it's just wait and see. You have to see how they do."

What did you see on the blocked punt? (Cliff Brown) "We just didn't block the guy properly. We didn't use good technique. We allowed him an up-and-under move that we practice all the time. I thought he executed it very well, perfectly well. Matter of fact, they ran it later and got pressure on us. So ,we just have to do a better job of blocking that. We're not happy about that at all. The player that did it is most unhappy about it. He's going to go work hard and get that corrected, because we know we're going to see that again."

You had the two roster moves Saturday. Did WR/RS Tim White stand out, or he just needed an opportunity you thought? (Jeff Zrebiec) "Yes, just that. It wasn't anything about Janarion [Grant]. We're very hopeful that we'll get him back on the practice squad. I really think those guys were a tossup anyway. Janarion did a good job – a couple balls on the ground, and that's part of it probably, and he knows that. No way do I think he's not going to be a really good player. He's going to play, certainly, this year. But Tim was doing such a good job in practice. He's been around, he's more of a veteran guy, and we just felt that he should get a chance."

I have to ask about the sweater. Is that a statement of intent for your daughter's lacrosse career? (Jonas Shaffer) "It is! Thank you very much. She committed to Notre Dame to play lacrosse. How about that? Very proud of her!" (Reporter: "Do you know the fight song?") "No. I know the Michigan fight song?" (laughter) I can hum it, but I will know it soon though. Great place, really amazing coaching staff there and great university and great people. She's gotten really close with all the players and the recruits. As a dad, you can't be more proud. I'm happy for her." (Reporter: "Was Michigan in the hunt?") "They really weren't, to be honest with you. It was kind of ... [Notre Dame] is where she wanted to go from the beginning. She loved it there."
