OAKLAND RAIDERS VS. BALTIMORE RAVENS

(2-8)

Week 12 – Sunday, Nov. 25, 2018
1 p.m. ET – M&T Bank Stadium (71,008)

(5-5)

JUST THE FACTS

• Looking for their second-straight win at home, the Baltimore Ravens (5-5) host the Oakland Raiders (2-8) in a Thanksgiving Weekend battle at M&T Bank Stadium. Sitting second in the AFC North standings, Baltimore remains in the thick of the AFC playoff race and currently holds the conference's second Wild Card position.

• In last Sunday's 24-21 home win over Cincinnati, Baltimore produced the fifth-most rushing yards (265, tied) in franchise history. Rookies QB Lamar Jackson (117) and RB Gus Edwards (115) each rushed for over 100 yards, marking the first time in NFL history that a team had a rookie QB & RB each surpass 100 rushing yards in a game. (Jackson's 117 also stand as the most in league history by a QB in his starting debut.) Filling in for injured QB Joe Flacco (hip), Jackson completed 13 of 19 passes for 150 yards, 0 TDs and 1 INT, finding WR Willie Snead IV 5 times for a team-high 51 receiving yards. Baltimore outgained Cincinnati in total yards, 403 to 255, marking the third-fewest yards permitted by the Ravens this season.

• Under John Harbaugh, the Ravens are 4-2 against Oakland, including a 2-1 mark at home. Baltimore is 7-3 against the Raiders in all-time regular season play, posting a 5-1 record in Charm City. These two teams last met during the 2017 campaign, when the Ravens won, 30-17, at Oakland.

• In his 11th season at Baltimore's helm, Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a 109-76 overall record (10-5 postseason), posting the NFL's fifth-most total victories since his 2008 arrival. The Ravens have played in three AFC title games (2008, 2011 & 2012) under Harbaugh, while in 2012, he guided the franchise to its second Super Bowl victory.

HARBS SAYS

John Harbaugh on the Ravens' Mindset in the Season's Second Half:
"We have a bunch of guys that believe in one another and have a lot of faith in one another. Like I've said before, man, bring it on – whatever it is! That's how we look at it, and that's the way they fight. We're going to come out, and we're going to fight for each other and have each other's backs. We talked about that with Lamar [Jackson last week]. 'Go out there and be you! Go out there and be you, and we've got your back.' And not just Lamar, but that's for every single guy in that [locker] room. That's the mindset our team has right now, and we're rolling."

INJURY UPDATE

Last week vs. Cincy, QB Joe Flacco (hip) missed just the seventh start of his 11-year career and first since 2015. Starting RT James Hurst (back) has missed the past four games, while OLB Tim Williams (ankle) has missed the last two. CB Maurice Canady (knee) and RB Kenneth Dixon (knee) began practicing last week after being designated for return.

NOTE THE QUOTE

S Eric Weddle on How Baltimore Approaches the Raiders Game:
"We can't [have a letdown]. We know if we lose, it's basically done – the way the conference is and our division. So, we won't have a letdown. This team is too close-knit, too bound together. We have great leadership from our head coach. Next game up is the game of our lives, and we'll treat it like that."

NOTE OF THE WEEK

Baltimore's offense has posted an NFL-high 25 10-play drives this season, 14 of which have produced touchdowns (also an NFL high). On their two TDs last week vs. Cincinnati, the Ravens produced drives of 11 plays (all rushing) and 10 plays (7 rushing).

10-PLAY TOUCHDOWN DRIVES / 2018 SEASON

Rk.	Team	Off. Poss.	10-Play Drives	10-Play TD Drives
1.	Baltimore	115	25	14
2.	New Orleans	104	19	13
	Pittsburgh	119	20	13
4.	New England	114	21	11

S Eric Weddle on QB Lamar Jackson after the rookie threw his first-career INT in the Week 11 win vs. Cincy:

"What did he do on the next drive? He went down and scored. It was like nothing happened. And you can't teach that. … His physical ability, we see it every day. So I expected that. But to overcome adversity early on in his first start [is impressive]. I just think with his composure, we're all excited about him."

TE Mark Andrews on how important it is for the rookie class to continue stepping up this season:
"It's big. They brought us in here to do just that. They were one game shy of the playoffs last year, so just having us rookies here being able to contribute – especially this latter half of the season – is going to be big. That's what we came in here to do – to come in right away and play and make an impact."

Associate head coach/special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg on John Harbaugh's ability to ignore "outside noise":
"John is a rock. That's the kind of human being he is, that's the kind of man he is, and that's the family he grew up in. He and the rest of his family are all strong people. They're grounded in the right way. His preparedness and his message to our team has not changed one bit [this season]."

LB C.J. Mosley on QB Lamar Jackson in the win over Cincy:
"It's crazy; he looked even faster in the game than he does when we practice against him every day. He's just got a giddy-up that no one sees every day. It was amazing seeing him out there playing and getting his first win. Hopefully we can start a good run now."

CBS analyst and former NFL QB Trent Green on the Ravens' defense in an offense-centered league:
"I think any time you can have a great defense like the Ravens have put together, that's good football. You can win a lot of football games that way."

CB Jimmy Smith on what makes him confident the Ravens can go on a playoff run:
"We believe in each other. We're walking on faith right now, because we believe in each other in the locker room and the coaching staff, that we can get it done – whether the outside world believes it or not."

John Harbaugh on CB Marlon Humphrey:
"Marlon is becoming one of the top corners in the league. I don't want to put that on him and put any pressure on him, but gosh, I think he'd appreciate it. I think he understands that. That's his goal, and when he's in there, we're complete in the secondary. He makes us really strong back there, and the expectations are high. Our secondary has high, high standards and expectations for how we play. We expect to play at the highest level back there, and having that piece is a big part of that."

WR Willie Snead IV on the edge he brings football games:
"It just comes down to this being a playoff-game mentality. I want every inch, I want to keep these drives going, and I want to win. That's what third down, those extra inches, that's what those resemble. I just keep fighting and not giving up and not letting someone push me around. I definitely have that passion in me, and I just want to keep it going and bring everybody with me."

G Marshal Yanda on rookie T Orlando Brown Jr.'s play:
"He's a physical dude. He brings a lot of energy and excitement to the game. You can tell he loves the game. He loves to play on Sunday. He's a young player and just needs to continue to keep getting better. When you're a really young player, especially a rookie, you have a lot of room to improve. Every single game, you should be getting better and better, and I think he's definitely taking that approach to do that. He's had some good plays and some not-so-good plays, but I like his attitude. I like his approach, and he just needs to continue to [improve]. Just like me, the same thing, we keep our heads down. We keep fighting, and I think the kid is going to get better each week."

Undrafted rookie RB Gus Edwards on getting his big chance and playing well last week vs. Cincinnati:
"I've got a great coaching staff. I've got a great group of veteran running backs who told me to always be prepared. From Day One when I came in here, they told me what it was going to be like. This game, a lot of things played into it, and you've always just got to be ready."

Ravens LBs coach Mike Macdonald on ILB C.J. Mosley:
"What we're asking linebackers to do these days is everything. It's hard to find. When you look at the landscape of the league, you see this guy is great at stopping the run, this guy is great at blitzing, this guy is great in coverage."

John Harbaugh on strengths of Don "Wink" Martindale as defensive coordinator:
"One of Wink's many strengths is that he's great with people. He's very inclusive. It's a good dynamic. I think you have more accountability. Guys are into it, and you have more ideas. We have some great ideas. You use everybody's talents and everybody's work. He does a great job of doing that, so that's a big plus for us, and he's good at it."

KEY NUMBERS VS. RAIDERS

5
Career sacks by OLB Terrell Suggs in seven games vs. the Raiders, including 1 in 2017's 30-17 win at Oakland.

5-1
The Ravens' record vs. Oakland in all-time home games. Baltimore's lone defeat occurred in 2016, when the Raiders emerged, 28-27.

+10 / +83
The Ravens' turnover and scoring differentials in six all-time home games vs. Oakland. Baltimore has forced 16 turnovers (and had just 6 giveaways) and outscored the Raiders, 171-88.

47
Career points for K Justin Tucker vs. Oakland, going 11-of-11 on FGAs and 14-of-14 on PATs in four games.

55
Points the Ravens scored on 11/11/12 vs. Oakland in a 55-20 win, marking the most points by Baltimore in team history.

93.9
Career passer rating for QB Joe Flacco in six games vs. the Raiders, producing 1,487 yards, 7 TDs and just 2 INTs. Flacco has also rushed for 3 TDs against Oakland and caught a 43-yard pass from QB Troy Smith during his rookie season.

WEEK 11 GAME RECAP

RAVENS 24, BENGALS 21
M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore, MD • Sunday, Nov. 18

QB Lamar Jackson, a 2018 first-round selection, started his first NFL game and helped the Ravens come from behind in a dramatic 24-21 victory over the Bengals at M&T Bank Stadium last Sunday. Jackson, who completed 13 of 19 for 150 yards, rushed 27 times for 117 yards. Those are the most carries by an NFL QB since Joe Geri ran 29 times for the Steelers in 1950. Baltimore produced the second-most rushing attempts (54) and fifth-most rushing yards (265, tied) in franchise history. Rookie RB Gus Edwards added 115 yards on the ground on 17 attempts. In the end, the Ravens' defense made a stop when the Bengals had the ball at their own 10-yard line with 2:45 left. Cincinnati's final effort came on a fourth-and-3 from their 37 that failed when Ravens CB Marlon Humphrey knocked away the intended pass for WR Cody Core. On the Ravens' first possession of the game, Jackson directed an 11-play (all runs), 75-yard drive that ended with RB Alex Collins running 7 yards for a touchdown and 7-0 lead. The Bengals tied the contest at 7-7 in the second quarter on a RB Joe Mixon 1-yard TD. A 28-yard K Justin Tucker FG gave the lead back to Baltimore at 10-7, and then Tucker ended the first half with a 56-yard boot. The Bengals' 2 third-quarter TD drives both started on the Ravens' side of the 50. The first followed a S Shawn Williams INT of Jackson at the Ravens' 32-yard line that led to a 4-yard QB Andy Dalton-to-TE Matt Lengel TD. The second came when the Bengals stopped Baltimore on a fourth-and-1 at the Baltimore 45. Dalton soon hit WR John Ross with a spectacular 22-yard TD for an 8-point lead, 21-13. The Ravens ended the third quarter with another impressive scoring series (10 plays, 80 yards) that tied the game at 21 with an 11-yard Edwards TD that was followed by his 2-point conversion run. Tucker's 24-yard FG with 8:12 left in the game provided the winning margin. The Ravens' defense limited the Bengals to 255 yards, the second fewest the Bengals have produced this season.

TOP RAVENS-RAIDERS CONNECTIONS

PRO CONNECTIONS

• Ravens defensive coordinator Don "Wink" Martindale served as the Raiders' inside linebackers (2004-05) and linebackers (2006-08) coach.

• Baltimore WR Michael Crabtree spent the 2015-17 seasons on Oakland's roster, recording 232 receptions for 2,543 yards and 25 TDs during that span.

• Oakland G/T Kelechi Osemele was Baltimore's second-round pick of the 2012 NFL Draft. He started all 16 games as a rookie and helped the Super Bowl XLVII-winning Ravens score the second-most points (398) in franchise history.

• Raiders CB Rashaan Melvin spent part of the 2014-15 seasons on the Ravens' roster.

• Oakland LS Trent Sieg signed with Baltimore as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2018 and spent training camp learning under Ravens LS Morgan Cox.

LOCAL CONNECTIONS

• Ravens assistant head coach/tight ends coach Greg Roman served in a variety of roles at Stanford (2009-10), including tight ends/offensive tackles coach and running game coordinator, as well as assistant head coach. Baltimore football strategy coordinator/WRs coach Matt Weiss spent 2005-08 at Stanford, moving from a GA role to defensive & special teams assistant.

• The Ravens have several coaches and players who hail from California: director of pro personnel Vincent Newsome (Vacaville), assistant offensive line coach Richard Angulo (Santa Ana), secondary coach Chris Horton (Los Angeles), S Tony Jefferson (Chula Vista), WR Jordan Lasley (Compton), ILB Patrick Onwuasor (Inglewood), CB Jimmy Smith (Fontana) and S Eric Weddle (Alta Loma).

• Several Raiders players are native to the Maryland area: LB Marquel Lee (Waldorf), Injured Reserve LS Andrew DePaola (Parkton) and CB Nick Nelson (Glenarden).

• Raiders defensive coordinator Paul Guenther served as an assistant coach at Western Maryland College from 1994-95. Oakland senior defensive assistant Jim O'Neil was the defensive coordinator/DBs coach at Towson University in 2005.

RAVENS RADIO BROADCASTS

• The Ravens' 2018 radio team features Gerry Sandusky, with former Ravens standouts OLB Jarret Johnson and TE Dennis Pitta splitting half the games as analysts. 98 Rock's Kirk McEwen serves as the sideline reporter for home games, while former Ravens RB Justin Forsett is the away game sideline reporter.

• All games can be heard on 98Rock (97.9 FM), WBAL 1090 AM, baltimoreravens.com, the Ravens mobile app (when in Baltimore) and on 21 regional affiliates. These broadcasts spans three states – Maryland, Pennsylvania and Delaware – and Washington, D.C.

• Additionally, Tico Sports produces a Spanish radio broadcast. With a crew consisting of David Andrade (play-by-play), Allen Gutierrez (analyst) and Juliana Lopez (producer), Tico Sports broadcasts games on Radio La Jefa WDMV 700 AM, the Ravens' flagship Spanish radio partner. The broadcast also digitally streams games on the Ravens Mobile App.

You're not huge into Thanksgiving. Why is that?
"I like Thanksgiving. I just believe that, personally, I'm thankful every day just for life. Instead of saying, 'I don't like Thanksgiving,' I just think every day is Thanksgiving for me. It's another day to eat some good food, but I'm thankful for every day I have."

What's your favorite Thanksgiving food?
"Yams, turkey, mac and cheese and some stuffing."

What's your favorite holiday?
"Christmas. Actually, my birthday. My birthday is a holiday."

What's the best birthday you've ever had?
"My best birthday was when I was 16, when I got my first car. It was a 1997 brown Toyota Camry, and my dad bought me some rims. I got some money and put a surround sound in the back. I think I drove that whole day."

What is something people would be surprised to know about you?
"They'd be surprised to know that I know how to salsa dance. I went to a bunch of quinceañeras when I was in high school, so I got really good at Mexican dances."

How long have you been able to speak Spanish?
"Ever since my parents moved to Chula Vista, which was a more predominantly-Mexican city, I started being around [the language] more, taking class. We were required to take a language, and I obviously took Spanish, because everybody else was speaking it."

What benefits do you think knowing Spanish has now?
"Being bilingual helps you with job opportunities, so maybe after football that will help. And, just going places. In San Diego, Mexican shops are huge, so sometimes you want to be able to know what they're saying, and you get a lot more 'kudos' points in San Diego when you know Spanish."

You're a big Phoenix Suns fan. How did that originate?
"I was eight years old, and my basketball team was the Suns, and we were purple. I guess just being young and being on the Suns, I just liked them. I started buying posters and Suns stuff, and I just stuck with them ever since."

Who is your favorite Suns player of all time?
"Steve Nash."

What's the best meal that you've ever had?
"My Nana's mac and cheese and yams and fried chicken that she would cook for me. R.I.P., she died, but every time she would come visit, or I would go see her, she would know to cook fried chicken and yams and mac and cheese, and nobody competed with that."

You take a Twitter break during the season. What are your reasons?
"In the offseason, I find myself, sometimes, always on my phone and always on social media, and personally, I don't like that. I don't like being on my phone a lot. Also in the offseason, I work out, and I play with my son, but there's not really that much else to do. Sometimes, I just find myself on social media too much. I think it can be a distraction, so I stop during the season. Sometimes people talk a lot of crap, and I don't like to see it, because not that I can't control that myself, I just don't want to see it. I don't like negative energy, and there are a lot of negative people in the world. Twitter, as well as Instagram, gives them a voice to kind of say what they want in a negative nature, and I'm just not about that. I'm about spreading positive energy, so I don't like seeing that, and I don't want to give them the opportunity to think they are affecting me with their fingers."

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

LB Ray Lewis - 2000
Super Bowl XXXV MVP

In a magnificent effort showcasing thrilling performances by their defense, offense and special teams units, the Baltimore Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV with a 34-7 victory over the New York Giants. Allowing the Giants a meager 152 total net yards, New York's attack crossed midfield just twice, while Baltimore's "D" posted 4 INTs. LB Ray Lewis was named the game's MVP, capping an accolade-filled season in which he was also tabbed the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

QB Joe Flacco - 2012
Super Bowl XLVII MVP

Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second World Championship. After an amazing first-half performance, the Ravens took a commanding 28-6 lead. But following a bizarre, 34-minute power outage that halted play, the 49ers stormed back into contention. Clinging to a 34-29 edge late in the game, the Ravens stood firm on a pivotal goal-line stand, jamming SF on four-straight plays inside the 7-yard line. QB Joe Flacco was named the game's MVP.

THE HARBAUGH FILE

John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in six (2008-12 & 2014) of his 10 full seasons in Baltimore, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl title. Under "Harbs," the Ravens have secured an appearance in three AFC Championships (2008, 2011 & 2012).

Here are several Harbaugh quick hits:

• The Ravens are one of only eight teams (NE – 9; GB – 8; Pit. – 7; Atl., Bal., Cin., Ind. & Sea. – 6) to earn at least six postseason berths in the last 10 years. (Baltimore has won at least one game in each of those playoff campaigns.)

• The Ravens' 10 playoff wins since 2008 rank second only to New England's 13.

• "Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.

• John and his brother, Jim (formerly of the 49ers), are the only head coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years as NFL bosses.

• Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.

• In 2012, Harbaugh became the third coach (with Bill Cowher & Chuck Knox) since the 1970 merger to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons.

• Harbaugh owns the third-most playoff wins (10, tied) by a coach in his first 10 seasons (since the 1970 merger).

• With the Ravens' 2014 playoff berth, Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching.

• For coaches to make the playoffs in at least six of their first 10 years, "Harbs" is one of five active coaches to do so (Pete Carroll, Mike McCarthy, Andy Reid & Mike Tomlin).

• Harbaugh, Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) own the most road playoff wins (7) by a HC in NFL history.

ROSBURG LEADS RAVENS SPECIALISTS

SEASONS
RAVENS: 11TH
NFL: 18TH

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg has guided a stellar special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Below are several standout notes about the coach and his successful group of specialists.

SIX PRO BOWLERS
• Six Ravens have earned eight combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Rosburg: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016) and P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER
• Two-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (221) since entering the NFL in 2012. With a 90.2% career success mark, "Tuck" is the most accurate kicker in league history (221-of-245 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2017, Koch led the NFL in both punts inside the 10 (16) and the 20 (a franchise-record 40).

RAVENS' BIG RETURNS
• Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

2017: RAVENS RETURN GAMES SOARS IN WEEK 6 VS. CHICAGO
• In Week 6 vs. Chicago, for the first time in franchise history, the Ravens returned a kickoff and punt return for a TD in the same game. RB Bobby Rainey Jr. posted a 96-yard KOR-TD, while WR Michael Campanaro registered a 77-yard PR-TD. The Ravens became the first NFL team to have KOR and PR touchdowns in the same game since 2013, when Detroit and Kansas City each accomplished the feat on 12/8/13.

BALTIMORE BLOCK PARTY

Since 2014, the Ravens have produced the NFL's third-most blocked kicks (13, tied, NE), including an NFL-high (tied) 4 in 2016.

SIX STRAIGHT IN THE TOP 5

In the past six full seasons (2012-17), the Ravens' special teams units have consistently been acknowledged as one of the league's best. In the annual special teams report from senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin, Baltimore has ranked in the NFL's Top 5 for six-straight seasons. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as a special teams measuring stick.)

"WINK" LEADS THE DEFENSE

On Jan. 9, 2018, the Ravens promoted Don "Wink" Martindale to defensive coordinator following the retirement of Dean Pees. Martindale, 54, is in his seventh year with the Ravens after serving as LBs coach from 2016-17 and ILBs coach from 2012-15. Under his guidance, LB C.J. Mosley has become one of the league's top defenders, earning three Pro Bowls.

The 2018 campaign marks Martindale's 14th season coaching in the NFL, where he has also spent time with Oakland (2004-08) and Denver (2009-10). In 2010, he served as the Broncos' defensive coordinator.

"'Wink' has earned the promotion to defensive coordinator," John Harbaugh stated. "His aggressive mentality will serve to take our defense to new levels. He is obviously respected by players, many of whom have already benefited from his direct coaching at the linebacker position. He knows the ins and outs of what we have been about on defense and has been an important contributor to our success on that side of the ball. This is an exciting day for Wink and his family, and also one for the Ravens."

MARTY MANS THE OFFENSE

Marty Mornhinweg was elevated to offensive coordinator on Oct. 10, 2016. A 24-year NFL coaching veteran, Mornhinweg, who joined Baltimore as QBs coach in 2015, is a former head coach of the Lions (2001-02). He has also served as offensive coordinator for the New York Jets (2013-14), Philadelphia Eagles (2004-12) and San Francisco 49ers (1997-2000).

JERRY ROSBURG
SPECIAL TEAMS COORD. / ASSOC. HEAD COACH

In his 40th season coaching, Rosburg has guided an exceptional special teams group over his 10 years (2008-17) with the Ravens. Specifically in the past six full seasons (2012-17), the Ravens' ST units have consistently been acknowledged as one of the league's best. In the annual special teams report from senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin, Baltimore has ranked in the NFL's Top 5 for six-straight seasons (and is the only team to do so).

DON MARTINDALE
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

"Wink" was promoted to "D" coordinator on Jan. 9, 2018 after six years working with Baltimore's LBs. Originally joining the Ravens in 2012, during the past six seasons, Martindale has guided and helped grow a number of standout linebackers, most notably ILB C.J. Mosley. Martindale was the Broncos' "D" coordinator in 2010, and in 2009, coached all four LBs in the 3-4 scheme.

MARTY MORNHINWEG
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mornhinweg is in his third year as offensive coordinator, originally assuming the role in Week 6 of 2016. A 34-year coaching veteran and former NFL head coach (Lions), he has an extensive background coordinating offenses and tutoring QBs. Throughout his NFL career, five QBs have earned Pro Bowl honors under his direction: Michael Vick, Donovan McNabb, Jeff Garcia, Steve Young and Brett Favre.

GREG ROMAN
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / TIGHT ENDS COACH

Roman is in his second stint with the Ravens, re-joining the team in 2017. In the latter part of '17, Baltimore's offense made big strides, and following the season, he was promoted to assistant head coach/TEs coach. Since his first term in Baltimore (2006-07), he has been a successful NFL offensive coordinator both in San Francisco and Buffalo.

RICHARD ANGULO
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Angulo is in his fifth year with the Ravens and his second as the team's assistant offensive line coach. In 2017, he helped coach an offensive line that allowed the league's seventh-fewest sacks (27, tied with Minnesota). From 2015-16, he served as Baltimore's tight ends coach after being promoted from his original position of offensive coaching intern (2014).

ANDY BISCHOFF
OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT / TIGHT ENDS

Bischoff is in his fourth year with the Ravens and continues his work with the TEs, while aiding "O" coordinator Marty Mornhinweg and assistant head coach Greg Roman, who also coaches the TEs.

RANDY BROWN
SPECIALISTS COACH

Brown works directly with the kicking group – K Justin Tucker, P Sam Koch (holder) and LS Morgan Cox – and has coached five Pro Bowlers in Baltimore: Koch (2015), Cox (2015 & 2016), Tucker (2013 & 2016), K Billy Cundiff (2010) and K Matt Stover (last kicked for Ravens in 2008).

JOE CULLEN
DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Cullen enters his third year as the Ravens' defensive line coach. He originally joined the team in 2016 following two seasons with the Buccaneers in the same role. A D-line specialist, he has 29 years of experience, including 11 in the NFL with five teams (Bal., TB, Cle., Jax. and Det.).

JOE D'ALESSANDRIS
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Pronounced dell-ah-SAN-dress, he is a 40-year coaching veteran who enters his second season as Baltimore's O-line coach. "Joe D" has extensive experience guiding and developing linemen, both in the collegiate ranks and pros. Since transitioning to the NFL in 2008, he's mentored players for the Chiefs, Bills, Chargers and Ravens.

BOBBY ENGRAM
WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

Engram, who enjoyed a 14-year NFL playing career, is in his fifth season as the Ravens' WRs coach. In his third year (2016) guiding Baltimore's receivers, his group helped record the second-most net passing yards in team history (4,100), including a franchise-best 4,317 by QB Joe Flacco.

THOMAS HAMMOCK
RUNNING BACKS COACH

Hammock is in his fifth year as the Ravens' RBs coach. In 2017, he helped guide RB Alex Collins to a breakout season, when the back tallied 973 rushing yards and 1,160 yards from scrimmage. Prior to joining the Ravens, he spent 11 years on the collegiate circuit, including three (2011-13) as Wisconsin's assistant HC/RBs/recruiting coordinator.

CHRIS HEWITT
SECONDARY COACH

Hewitt enters his second season as the secondary coach after being promoted prior to the 2017 campaign. He previously served as the team's DBs coach from 2015-16 and the assistant secondary coach in 2014. In his seventh-overall year in Baltimore, he also spent two years (2012-13) helping guide the special teams unit led by Jerry Rosburg.

CHRIS HORTON
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

Horton is in his third year as the Ravens' assistant special teams coach, working directly with Jerry Rosburg. Horton has helped Baltimore's special teams units perform outstandingly in the three years he's been involved. In the annual special teams report from senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin, Baltimore has ranked in the NFL's Top 5 for six-straight seasons.

STERLING LUCAS
QUALITY CONTROL - DEFENSE

Lucas is in his third year with the Ravens after being promoted to a defensive quality control coach in January 2018, with responsibilities that include finding tips/tendencies on opponent offenses, self-scouting and working with the LBs.

MIKE MACDONALD
LINEBACKERS COACH

Macdonald is in his first season as the team's LBs coach. In his fifth year with the Ravens, he previously spent time as the defensive backs coach (2017) and as a defensive assistant (2015-16). He originally joined Baltimore in 2014 as a coaching intern.

JAMES URBAN QUARTERBACKS COACH

Urban joined the Ravens in 2018. A 15-year NFL coaching veteran, he spent the past seven seasons with AFC North rival Cincinnati, coaching the WRs. He entered the NFL with the Eagles in 2004. After five seasons in two roles under Andy Reid, he was promoted to QBs coach his final two years (2009-10), coaching Pro Bowlers Donovan McNabb (2009) and Michael Vick (2010).

CRAIG VER STEEG
SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Pronounced ver-STEGG, he is in his 11th year working with the Ravens. Ver Steeg, who owns 35 years of coaching experience, has an extensive background working with QBs, WRs and RBs. As one of John Harbaugh's original coaching hires (2008), he has assisted in game preparation, game and practice analysis and guiding players.

MATT WEISS
FOOTBALL STRATEGY COORD. / WRs

Weiss is in his 10th season with the Ravens after assisting with the QBs from 2016-17. Prior to joining the offense, he coached on defense in a variety of roles, including CBs, assistant LBs and quality control. In addition to his coaching duties, he's responsible for leading coaching staff analytics, advising John Harbaugh on game management and scripting situational practice periods.

DREW WILKINS
ASST. DEFENSIVE LINE / OLBs

Wilkins originally joined the Ravens in 2010 and was promoted to assistant D-line/OLBs coach in 2018. Wilkins, who spent three seasons (2014-16) as a defensive assistant, was responsible for weekly production of the defensive playbook, scouting reports, film breakdown and assisting with the development of the D-line in practice.

KING CRAB NOTES

WR Michael Crabtree, a 10-year NFL veteran, signed with the Ravens as a free agent this past spring. Through 10 games, he has tallied 42 catches for 479 yards and 2 TDs. Here are several fast facts about the standout wideout:

- Crabtree has produced at least 8 receiving TDs in a season four times, including in each of the past three years (9 – 2015, 8 – 2016 & 8 – 2017).

- His 27 receiving TDs since 2015 (see chart above) tie (Brandin Cooks) for the NFL's seventh most.

- Crabtree and Steelers WR Antonio Brown are the only NFL players to post at least 8 TD catches in each of the past three full seasons.

- Crabtree has totaled at least 85 catches in a season three times, with a career-high 89 during the 2016 campaign (earned Pro Bowl alternate honors).

- He has twice surpassed 1,000 receiving yards, tallying a career-high 1,105 (on 85 receptions) in 2012.

RED ZONE & TD FAST FACTS

✔ When Crabtree scores at least 1 receiving TD, his team has produced a 30-12-1 record. When he has 2 TDs, they are 6-2.

✔ Of Crabtree's 53 career receiving TDs, 27 have come in the red zone.

PRO BOWL PUNTER

In his 10th season (2015), P Sam Koch was finally named to his first Pro Bowl, as the standout punter's net average (42.9) ranked No. 2 in the NFL, while his gross average (46.7) was ninth. Koch also dominated the league in 2014, producing the No. 1 net (43.3) and No. 3 gross (47.4) averages.

NOTE THE QUOTE

ESPN.com's Kevin Seifert on Sam Koch's arsenal of punts:

"Some are designed to hook toward the sideline with maximum hang time. Others use an intentionally low trajectory to aid coverage teams. He has a knuckler and one kick that drops, from the returner's perspective, roughly in the shape of the letter "S." He's debuted a "boomerang" punt that does just what you would imagine it might. Most, but not all, of these punts are intended to discourage a clean catch and minimize the return.

"It's not unusual for NFL punters to develop a "changeup" of sorts, but no one has ever had multiple options at the ready. ... The NFL changes every day, but there are only a few moments in each generation when it transforms. This is one of them. In plain sight, Sam Koch and the Ravens have introduced a new way to punt."

2016: PERHAPS THE BEST YEAR EVER

In 2016, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the fifth-best pct. in NFL single-season history. In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for fifth-best streak ever), here are facts about his remarkable season, arguably the best ever by a kicker:

✔ Tucker's 38 FGs made ranked No. 1 in the NFL. He was also 27-of-27 on PATs. An NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made in 2016 came from 40 yards or beyond.

✔ Tucker's 10 FGs of 50-plus yards are a Ravens' single-season record. They tie (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most in NFL history. (Tucker was a perfect 10-for-10 from 50 yards and out during the 2016 season.)

✔ Tucker's 141 points ranked second in the league only behind Atlanta's Matt Bryant (158).

✔ In Week 12 vs. Cincy, Tucker became just the ninth kicker in league history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in a single game (52, 57 & 54). He is also the first kicker in NFL history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in the first half of a game. (These feats earned him AFC ST POW honors.)

RAVENS THANKSGIVING INITIATIVES

To kick off the holiday season, the Ravens participated in numerous Thanksgiving events during the weekend on Nov. 16 and the week of Nov. 19. Current and former players supported each other and their community through various events, including turkey distributions, coat drives and serving meals. Events included the Eighth Annual Ed Reed Turkey Day, 15th Annual Ravens Coat Drive, 13th Annual Helping Up Mission Holiday Dinner (led by former Ravens LB Bart Scott) and Ninth Annual 53 Families Foundation Thanksgiving Dinner, put on by former Ravens LB Jameel McClain and his foundation. Current players WR John Brown, DT Willie Henry, S Tony Jefferson, OLB Matthew Judon, LB Patrick Onwuasor, DT Michael Pierce and WR Willie Snead also held their own Thanksgiving food distributions throughout the week. In total, the Ravens donated over 600 turkeys, served approximately 1,600 Thanksgiving meals and had over 62 current players and alumni involved in the festivities.

2008 RAVENS VOLUNTEER AT BALTIMORE STATION

As a continuation of their Salute to Service campaign, the Ravens committed to constructing a workout room for the veterans at the Baltimore Station's West Baltimore location. Through a grant provided by the Ravens Foundation, Inc., the Baltimore Station received new flooring and various gym equipment. Members of the 2008 Ravens team, which was honored at the Week 11 Baltimore-Cincinnati game, volunteered their time on Nov. 17 as one of their 10-year reunion events. Taking part in various service activities, the alumni installed flooring, built shelves and moved furniture in preparation for the gym. The Baltimore Station is a residential program that offers support for veterans who are transitioning through the cycle of poverty, substance use disorder and homelessness to self-sufficiency.

JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE: WEEK 12 VS. RAIDERS

Opening statement: "Good to see everybody – appreciate you being here. Just a couple things: We want to put our prayers out for Dean Pees, who had a health issue yesterday during the game. We don't know the extent of it exactly just yet. We're waiting to hear, but our prayers are with Dean and 'Mel' [Melody Pees] and their family, always.

"The second thing is we wanted to talk a little bit about the game, in terms of some of the people that didn't get mentioned after the game that Kevin [Byrne, executive vice president of public and community relations] just kind of brought to my attention. Some of the areas that played exceptionally well haven't been talked about too much. I thought the offensive line played exceptionally well in the game – very, very good job with the run blocking and pass protection. Scheme was just a little bit different than we'd been working on, things that we had in the system, but the timing is a little different. The way things look to those guys can be different. I thought they did a really good job. And then, the defensive line played really well. The game was won in the trenches. It was a physical game. The most physical team was going to win. The most physical team did win, and that was the Ravens, and I thought our offensive line and defensive line set the tone on that."

With QB Lamar Jackson running 27 times, obviously it was effective, but is that something you maybe don't want to see happen on a week-to-week basis from your starting quarterback? (David Ginsburg) "Yes." (Reporter: "Is 27 too much? What do you think would be a proper number?") "I don't know. I think it's obvious. It's an obvious answer. If you want me to elaborate with some other kind of point on it … Three of those were taking a knee, so I guess it's only 23, 24. Then there were a couple … [If] we want to [talk] about numbers, yes, you don't want your quarterback getting hit that much. It's not going to last that way, so I think that's pretty self-evident. You probably took a straw-pull in here for who was going to have to ask that, and you had to ask that question. I figure, they're all sitting back here like, 'Oh, I'm glad David drew the short straw on that one.' Sorry, man!" (laughter)

As far as the quarterback situation going forward, QB Lamar Jackson is going to be the guy? Does QB Joe Flacco have a chance to reclaim his job? (Jerry Coleman) "I'm not getting into any of that, any of it. You drew the second short straw!" (laughter)

I think you alluded to it yesterday, but is QB Joe Flacco's health ... Does he have a chance to play this Sunday, or is that hip injury too serious? (David Ginsburg) "He has a chance. It's just a matter of how fast the healing takes place in there. It's not a surgical thing; it's just a calming-down type of a thing with the hip, and I'm not a doctor. They have that commercial with the TV doctors. I'm not even a TV doctor, so we'll see."

You went from a three-game losing streak to now occupying the sixth spot in the playoffs. Does that sort of change the dynamic around the team, or do you sort of forge ahead the same way regardless of having tangibles there? (Todd Karpovich) "You guys are in here every week with me, every week with me. Have I changed? Has anything changed? Has it been the exact same message from every day? So, the answer is 'no.' It's the same dynamic. Nothing changes. That doesn't mean anything. I don't care what seed you are. You have a five-way tie at 5-5 for sixth place [after] Week, what, 10? There are six more games to play. It will be determined in the next six weeks. Nothing is over, so all of you guys who counted us out, we aren't out. We're not dead. Sorry. And anybody who thinks that we have it clinched, no. No way. It's going to be the teams that play the best, the teams that play the best football the next six weeks starting this week, and that's going to be our focus. Our focus is going to be to win this game this week. That's all we can do. So, all the grand things? You're asking the wrong guy. I'm focused on the game, getting ready to play the game, just like our players are. All the critics, I'm dead to them. All of the people that all of the sudden are going to pat you on the back and say, 'You're in sixth place,' that's meaningless. Let's go win a football game. Let's prepare, starting tomorrow, to win a football game, and that's what we're going to do. And, we'll be serious about it, but we'll have fun.

"Our guys love football. They have a great spirit. I love the way they compete. To me, that's what we should be talking about here. Talk about how those guys played. Do you like football? You love it, right? Then you like the way those guys played. I know you do. And, that's what you always write about. The spirit of the way the guys, how hard they played … Take a look at how we covered. Look at how we covered. You talk about tenacious coverage, getting after it. Look at the way we ran to the ball. Look at the way our backs ran, how our quarterback … 'Oh, he had 27 carries!' You know what he did? He won the game. He played his tail, he played his butt off. I wanted to say he played his ass off. Are we allowed to say that on TV?" (Reporter: "You just did.") "Oh, I just did. That's what he did! Celebrate that, move on. We have to get better to win the next game. The way we played the last game won't be good enough to win the next game. That's just the way it works. That's how football works. I would suggest you take that home and apply it in your life out there. It works."

You said you were generally happy with the way that QB Lamar Jackson threw the ball. One thing, watching him, he uses a lot of different release points. Is that something that you guys are finding because he's sort of playing instinctively, or is that something that you try to coach out of him? What do you kind of make of that? (Childs Walker) "Yes, I think he has to. He's not 6-6. He's going to have to use different release points. He does. To me, it's accuracy. I think that would be a great question for Marty [Mornhinweg] later in the week, because he's a quarterback coach. Marty coaches the quarterbacks. I know within that, there are things he likes to see, doesn't like to see. One of the things that they do a great job of coaching Lamar and all the quarterbacks on is the platform. That's the base, and they want to have a good, wide base. They want the knees bent. They want to throw from a low posture to bring the legs into it, just like any sport. And, that's a big part of it. So, I think as long as he has that part of it, the release point is probably not quite as important, especially for a talented guy like Lamar. He's a natural thrower. He has natural accuracy. A lot of times when we evaluate quarterbacks, we refer to them as 'athletic throwers.' Does he have athleticism in the way he throws? And, Lamar certainly does, so as long as you're accurate with that, and you have a good platform, then you can be accurate and put the ball where it's supposed to be."

To that point, when you went back and watched the tape of all those throws, what stood out to you about the way he threw the ball that tells you, "Hey, he can throw more going down the road in this offense?" (Ryan Mink) "I'm not even answering a veiled question like that. Yes, he can throw the ball more down the road! What are you asking me? Are we going to throw the ball more down the road? Come on, come on. Yes, we're going to throw the ball more down the road! He's a great thrower; the guy can pass. You saw him throw. He threw some great balls out there! How many plays did the kid make running around throwing the ball, in the pocket throwing the ball. He can do it. So, all this veiled stuff, 'Is he really a thrower?' I have news for you: He's a thrower. The kid can throw. He's a quarterback. He's a quarterback. So, all these little veiled questions – and if anybody is out there [saying], 'Oh, I can't believe 'Harbs' is getting so ticked,' – I don't appreciate the insinuation of the question. We will continue to say it: Lamar Jackson is a quarterback. Did you see the game yesterday? He's a quarterback. Any more questions about that?"

I want to ask about the running back. Will RB Gus Edwards receive more carries going forward? (Jerry Coleman) "Yes." (Reporter: "And where does RB Kenneth Dixon fit into the picture?") "I don't know. We'll see. We'll see. He has to practice more than one time. I have to see the guy practice. If I see him practice, I'll know where he fits in."

I have a quarterback question. When QB Robert Griffin III came back, he said the year he was off, one of the things he learned was that he should slide with his feet forward. Has that been an emphasis that you guys talk to QB Lamar Jackson about to save his body? (Kevin Richardson) "Yes, that's all part of coaching the quarterbacks. James [Urban] does a great job with that. That's definitely part of it with Lamar, just like all the quarterbacks. They have protections in place, and the quarterback needs to take advantage of those."

There's a video with G Marshal Yanda and Bengals LB Vontaze Burfict. Have you seen the video, and do you have any comment? (Jamison Hensley) "I haven't seen the video. I heard about it." (Reporter: "So, you have no comment if you didn't see the video?") "What do you want me to comment on? My point is, you want me to comment on whether I think Marshal Yanda spit at somebody during the game? Is that what you want me to comment on? Are you really, seriously, asking that question? Here's my point on that: This guy has been playing for how many years? [Twelve] years. He played at the University of Iowa. Have you ever – for whoever wrote the article that makes the insinuation – have you ever heard of Marshal Yanda's character being attacked or him doing something along those lines ever in his whole career? But now, all of the sudden, we're going to say, 'Oh, I know Marshal Yanda spit at somebody, at a person?' Really? Come on. No way. There's no way. Now, go back and look at the whole video, OK? What happened on the play? That's a late play, right? That's a lot of activity going on way after the whistle. Marshal is on the ground; his arm gets stepped on by No. 55 [Burfict]. It's OK. I'm not going to stand up here and say '55' did it on purpose, because I'm not going to point the bony finger of blame when I don't know what somebody's intentions are. So, for all those 'journalists' out there that think they somehow inherited the position to judge another man's character when they don't know his intention, we don't give that any consideration whatsoever. None. It's not worth it. It's kind of an indication of where our society is going right now. So, I think you should rise above that at ESPN. Step above that and respect a guy like Marshal Yanda for who he is and what he's done." (Reporter: "For the record, we didn't write that.")

Some of the younger guys were saying that it was really natural for them to play that style of offense because they ran it in college and high school. Did you notice that, with these younger players running so many zone reads? Was it natural for them to pick it up? (Aaron Kasinitz) "I don't know. The guys have run those plays before, so it's a plus. Are you talking about Gus [Edwards]? Give me some specifics." (Reporter: "Gus, Orlando [Brown Jr.] mentioned it.") "Yes, those guys have run those plays before. That's probably a good thing. It probably is an element of that for the running back, in terms of the feel for when the quarterback is going to give it and pull it. That's valuable. I haven't seen the other guys have a problem with it. So, I don't know. I don't think it's a detriment for the guys who are a little older who haven't done it, but the fact that those guys have been in that offense probably is a good thing. Hey, that's kind of been the way football has been played in college and high school for a lot of years now. Those guys are all coming into the NFL, so there's no doubt you're going to see more and more of that in our league."

You can't always tell everything from warm-ups. It didn't look like T Ronnie Stanley was out there with the starters – at least in the full warm-up drills. Was his status touch-and-go around game time? (Jeff Zrebiec) "No, he was playing."

What does it say about him and how he fought through? He obviously wasn't 100-percent, but he fought through it? (Jeff Zrebiec) "I thought he played well. When you watch the game, Ronnie was really good. He played a really good game – very physical, finished blocks really as well as he has done, better than some of the [other] games. Yes, I was very impressed with Ronnie's game, and he has a pretty good high-ankle sprain. That's never easy; that's painful. He dealt with it. He had to come out a couple times, but he wanted to get right back in there and play. I was very proud of him."

Do you feel like T Ronnie Stanley has taken a step forward this season? (Childs Walker) "I do. Yes, he's taken a step forward. He's a young player, a very talented guy. From the physicality and a finish standpoint – those are things that he's really been focusing on this year. It seems to be paying off."

We only get to see the earlier part of practices now. With RB Gus Edwards specifically, have you seen him coming on lately? Have you seen anything in him where you were thinking that he was… (Jamison Hensley) "No, it was just out of the blue. It came out of the blue." (joking) ("Reporter: "No, what I was saying is has he progressed in a certain way?") "He has been practicing great. Yes, he's been practicing great. I think I have said that in here before. He's been practicing great. He's been playing well on special teams. It's a practice sport. It's not like, all of a sudden, guys just show up and they play well, or, 'Give this guy a chance.' Players say that sometimes, 'Just give me a chance!' You get a chance every day in practice. Go out there and dominate – and Gus has been doing that. He's been doing it in practice, he's been doing it in special teams, and he's been doing it in the few carries he's had in games. It has been a goal to get him more carries in games before this. It wasn't like this happened in the last week or two; it's been probably two months that he's been doing it. That's a great lesson for any young player. If you want to play? Play well – play well in practice every day and stack days and earn trust. He's done a good job of that. He has to build on that. I love what he said. He's not sitting there reading his press clippings. His focus is on becoming a better player tomorrow than he was today."

You mentioned with LB Chris Board the fight [of being an undrafted guy]. RB Gus Edwards is another undrafted rookie. Was he in that undrafted mix of trying to recruit him getting here? (Jamison Hensley) "Yes. Gus, and Mark Thompson was another guy like that. We had a really good free agent class. Our coaches and scouts did a great job of recruiting those guys. I like those guys a lot."

I don't believe you've ever had a chance to go up against Jon Gruden as a coach. Do you reflect back to maybe some of the things you shared with him when he was in the Monday Night Football booth in the production meetings? Does that ever come back, and you think maybe you've said something to him? (Jerry Coleman) "I don't remember. I did kind of make him mad one year. Jay [Gruden] was the offensive coordinator for the Bengals, and we were playing the Bengals in the [2012] opener. We said he couldn't come into the building to do the production meeting stuff. He thought that was over-the-top. We went out to the bus. He was great though. We won that game, as I recall. That's really all. I don't have anything – no funny anecdotes to share, no great stories. Sorry."

When you're talking to the referees before the game, is there any extra emphasis put on, "Hey, you have to protect our quarterback here. He's going to be running and diving forward for plays." Oftentimes, I see quarterbacks not allotted enough protection when they're runners. Is there any extra emphasis on that with QB Lamar Jackson? (Ryan Mink) "Are you trying to get me in trouble now? Is that your goal?" (Reporter: "I'm not getting you in trouble.") "You're going to get me in trouble. The league will tell you that they protect all the quarterbacks exactly the same. That's what they'll tell you. So, I'll take them at their word."

In a league that's so pass-heavy, were you proud of the way you ran the ball? A majority of the yardage came on the ground. (David Ginsburg) "That's just a credit to the players. I just feel like however you move the ball is good. There are different ways to do it, and you do it based on your personnel and what's available to you as a coach. You try to figure that out – who you're playing against and what your guys can do well. The coaches do the best they can to put a gameplan together, and sometimes it's run, sometimes it's pass. You want it to be a mix, you know, both. Sometimes you do well at it, and sometimes you don't. But in the end, it's a player's game. The players deserve the credit for running the ball so well. They'll look at the tape, and they'll be like, 'Man, we could do so much better.' And they're going to have to do so much better, because teams will adjust and adapt and find ways to try to stop the plays that we're running. We'll have to improve how we execute them. We always take pride in the players, and a good pride in the players and how they perform. That's what it's all about as a coach."

How does yesterday's post-game victory speech inside the locker room compare to some of the more post-game victory celebrations you've had in the past. I know you used the word "good" at least eight times. I lost track! Where did the motivation come from? (Jerry Coleman) "It was good! Good. That's a message we had the night before that we shared with the guys. We can put it out if you guys want. We should put it out on the website." (Executive vice president of public & community relations Kevin Byrne: "Jocko [Willink], a former soldier.") "Yes, and Leif Babin [from] a book they wrote about their time in Ramadi – two Navy SEALS who were leading a Navy SEAL special forces group in Ramadi during the surge. They're mindset to it – to adversity – it's awesome. It's awesome. Our guys … I don't know, man. It's just us. I told them, 'That's us. Watch this. This is us. This is us.' You're going to be a proud Raven fan? You want to be a real Raven fan? You should be proud of that. But we should put that [video] out. That would be awesome to give some background for everybody, where that's coming from. It was fun."
