BALTIMORE RAVENS AT KANSAS CITY CHIEFS

(10-2) (7-5)

WEEK 14 – SUNDAY, DEC. 9, 2018
1 P.M. ET – ARROWHEAD STADIUM (76,416)

JUST THE FACTS

• Riding a three-game winning streak, the Baltimore Ravens (7-5) visit the Kansas City Chiefs (10-2) for a Week 14 battle at Arrowhead Stadium. Baltimore currently sits just a half-game back of the 7-4-1 Steelers in the AFC North and holds the conference's second Wild Card playoff spot. The Chiefs, who are 5-0 at home this season, own the AFC's top record and NFL's second-best overall mark (tied, NO).

• Last Sunday at Atlanta, Baltimore's defense was dominant, holding the high-powered Falcons' attack to just 131 yards (34 rushing and 97 passing) in a 26-16 victory. Behind a grind-it-out running game, the Ravens rushed for over 200 yards for the third-consecutive week, with rookies RB Gus Edwards (82 yards) and QB Lamar Jackson (75 yards and 1 TD) leading the way. Jackson, making his third-straight start in place of injured QB Joe Flacco (hip), was 12-of-21 passing for 125 yards. OLB Terrell Suggs had a stellar day, producing 3 tackles (2 for loss), 1 sack and 3 QB hits. CB Tavon Young returned a fumble 12 yards for a touchdown, sealing Baltimore's win late in the fourth quarter. The Ravens held the ball for nearly 40 minutes (39:39) and converted 7 of 15 third-down attempts, limiting Atlanta to 2-of-9.

• The Ravens are 3-0 (including playoffs) at Arrowhead Stadium, with two of those victories coming under head coach John Harbaugh. Kansas City leads the all-time regular season series, 4-3.

• In his 11th season at Baltimore's helm, Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a 111-76 overall record (10-5 postseason), posting the NFL's fourth-most total wins (tied, NO) since his 2008 arrival. The Ravens have played in three AFC title games ('08, '11 & '12) under Harbaugh, while in 2012, he guided the franchise to its second Super Bowl victory.

HARBS SAYS

JOHN HARBAUGH ON HIS PLAYERS' BELIEF IN ONE ANOTHER:

"The words I would use are 'faith' and 'guts.' [We have] faith and courage – belief in one another. It's amazing, the locker room we have. [Our players] deserve the credit. They understand what to believe, how to believe, how to believe in one another and how to believe in bigger things to make it about things that are important. We keep fighting, keep grinding and find a way. Nobody in the locker room doubted that we are doing whatever we are going to do. We're not done. We're 7-5; we're not sitting here 12-0. We're still fighting for our lives."

INJURY UPDATE

QB Joe Flacco (hip) has missed the past three games, while RT James Hurst (back, six) and OLB Tim Williams (ankle/illness, four) have also missed significant time. Starting SS Tony Jefferson did not play in last week's game at Atlanta due to an ankle injury.

NOTE THE QUOTE

THREE-TIME PRO BOWL LB C.J. MOSLEY ON BALTIMORE'S NO. 1 DEFENSE:

"[We have] scheme, talent, guys talking and communicating. One of the best things you do as a defense, if you want to be one of the top defenses, is [having great] communication. You can be any kind of defense, but if you have guys in the wrong spot, it won't work out. So, I think that's been our main focus, especially going into these last few weeks, is having 100-percent communication and full effort."

QUOTH THE RAVEN

Six-Time Pro Bowl G Marshal Yanda on the Ravens' Winning Streak:

"We've played complementary football. The defense has played well. Special teams have been getting big plays. We were getting big plays on defense with those [two fumble recovery] scores. Defensive touchdowns are huge, and [we had] a special teams touchdown [in Week 12]. We're clicking right now. We've just got to keep it going, keep our head down and keep grinding."

NBC Sports Peter King on naming Don "Wink" Martindale his Week 13 Defensive Coach of the Week:
"Stats speak volumes for what Martindale has done with a young and energetic "D." In the Ravens' three-game winning streak (all without Joe Flacco), the defense has allowed 255, 249 and 131 yards to Cincinnati, Oakland and Atlanta (and 21, 17 and 16 points). This might not quite be a Ray Lewis-led Super Bowl "D" in its brutality, but the quickness and speed of these young guys is being used wisely by Martindale."

K Justin Tucker on what is clicking with the team right now:
"I think it starts with our mentality. I think it starts with the fact that we're mostly unfazed by the adversity that we'd faced in the previous weeks, just big picture, being able to bounce back from tough losses. And then even with a more focused point of view, [it's been about] just being able to be resilient throughout the course of a single game. Every single game has its ups and its downs. It's about just being cool, calm and collected and making the most of whatever opportunities come your way."

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg on K Justin Tucker earning his record sixth AFC Special Team Player of the Month award in November:
"We're really proud of Justin. I think that speaks to the consistency that Justin has had during the course of his career. One of the things he will tell you is he owes a lot of his success to those teammates that he has that help him, specifically the battery of Morgan [Cox]'s snaps and Sam [Koch]'s hold, but also the protection, which we're continually working on. But, we're really proud of him, and we're really proud of the whole operation that is performing and scoring points for us, and that's the biggest thing. As Justin will tell you, the next kick – it's all about the next kick. We're working today to try to make sure we make that next kick."

"O" coordinator Marty Mornhinweg on QB Lamar Jackson:
"He's a unique young man. He's very, very, very confident, yet very humble at the same time. I will tell you that Joe [Flacco] and Robert [Griffin III] have done a great job helping with some of the things. I suppose it might be difficult to understand what a rookie quarterback goes through – any quarterback. I think it's one of the toughest positions to play and one of the most important positions to play in sports – what a quarterback goes through throughout the week and then leading up to the game, and then, certainly, in the game – so he's done a great job of that. Joe and Robert have done a great job of prepping him for some of the things. He's seeing a lot for the first time. A lot of things are happening for the first time, and so, they've done a great job of preparing him that way, along with James Urban [quarterbacks coach]."

ESPN.com's Jamison Hensley on CB Brandon Carr's streak of 172-consecutive starts, the longest of any active defender:
"In a city that knows something about ironmen (think Cal Ripken Jr.), Carr is the epitome of toughness, hard work and class. One team official said no one is more respected in and outside the building than Carr. His dependability is unmatched."

RB Gus Edwards on his chemistry with QB Lamar Jackson on and off the field, and what a mobile QB does for him:
"He definitely takes pressure off of me. All defenses have to respect the read option. He's not just pulling it in there for nothing. He could pull it out, and everything used he's put on tape. He can make plays with his feet, so the defense has to respect it. Our relationship is great. On the field, he's a motivator; he's the leader in the huddle; he talks a lot; he's telling us, 'Guys, we need to score on this drive.' He keeps us going out there. He's a very smart football player, very talented. Off the field, he's humble, and he's fun to be around."

John Harbaugh on rookie RB Gus Edwards:
"He's a really good young man, and he's a really hard worker – very, very serious-minded. And, he wants to be successful, and he's kind of all-business. That's how he approaches it. You get him to smile, you kind of feel good about that sometimes. It takes a really funny thing to get him to smile a little bit. I really appreciate his approach to the job."

OLB Matthew Judon on having DT Michael Pierce and DT Brandon Williams clogging up the middle to make room for the outside linebackers to record sacks:
"They're definitely unsung heroes, because they're demanding two [blockers], and when they get two – they're keeping two. If you watch the film, Pierce and [Williams] have some good rushes. They've been having some really good rushes, and the ball just kind of gets out on them, and they're right there, a step away. But those guys are good. Don't discredit 'Z' [Za'Darius Smith]. I think all of his sacks came from the inside. So, we have some really good inside rushers."

OLB Terrell Suggs on if it is imortant to him to leave a legacy where he helps young players develop and become leaders:
"Every young man, every player, that walks through this building is going to be held to a certain standard. We require men to be Ravens around here, so most definitely – yes."

DT Brandon Williams on LB C.J. Mosley:
"I feel like C.J. can go as high as he wants to go and be whoever he wants to be. He's got that much talent. He's got that much leadership ability, and I'll follow him anywhere."

The Ravens' defense held the Falcons to just 131 yards, while the offense held the ball for nearly 40 minutes (39:39), helping Baltimore to a 26-16 victory over host Atlanta at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. It was the third-consecutive win for the Ravens, keeping them in the playoff hunt. K Justin Tucker made 4 FGs, while CB Tavon Young scored after scooping up a QB Matt Ryan fumble and racing 12 yards for the clinching touchdown with 7:16 left in the game. Jackson rushed for a TD (13 yards), part of his 17 rushes for 75 yards, and he was 12-of-21 for 125 passing yards. The Ravens' defense, ranked No. 1 in the NFL in fewest yards and points allowed, dominated, limiting the Falcons' explosive offense to 2-of-9 on third down. Ryan was held to 16-of-26 for 131 yards and was sacked 3 times. The Falcons opened the game with a 12-play drive that ended with K Matt Bryant's 44-yard FG. The Ravens bounced back with Jackson's TD to make the score 7-3 at the end of the first quarter. Atlanta DE Vic Beasley Jr. then recovered a Jackson fumble and rumbled 74 yards to the end zone to give the hosts a 10-7 advantage. A 41-yard Tucker FG tied the game at 10 at the half. Two more Tucker FGs (21 and 45 yards) put the Ravens ahead, 16-10, entering the fourth quarter. Another Tucker FG (47 yards) gave Baltimore a 19-10 advantage that was increased to 26-10 after Young's TD. The Falcons added a late TD on a drive that was aided by 4 Raven penalties when Ryan found TE Austin Hooper for a 1-yard score. SPOTLIGHT: BRANDON CARR

Pos. CB Ht. 6-0 Wt. 210 Exp. (NFL/Ravens): 11/2
College: Grand Valley State Hometown: Flint, MI

Brandon Carr cites teammates, coaches and personal relationships for his longevity, success and focus on life balance. He specified a few special "teachers" from whom he's learned over the years.

Kansas City DBs coach Emmitt Thomas: "Emmitt is a stellar DBs coach. I give him a big 'thank you,' because he was a guy in my career that gave me that extra assurance to 'go be who you are.' That's coming from a Hall of Famer. First time I met him, he broke down my game to me and told me, 'It's OK to be who you are and not have to be this 'Rambo,' want-to-tackle-everybody corner or like running through walls. You are a big, long corner, so use your length, your speed, your physicality.' I settled down with him and played some of my better ball under his coaching."

Former Chiefs/Cowboys G Brian Waters: "Brian was a guy that even to this day, I have feelings of appreciation. I text him and say 'thank you' for whatever out of the blue. He was able to come to Dallas for a year or two with me, so I learned more from him there. That's a guy that has taught me how to raise a family, how to be a professional, how to manage money, contract situations, just be a pro."

Former Kansas City head coach Herm Edwards: "Herm Edwards was full of advice. He was a real players' coach, and he played the game, so he understood what we're going through in our life. He was the one who just said, 'You just need one. One of everything, and you'll be fine. You don't need to get two. Go buy one chain. Go buy one car.' And, he taught the importance of taking care of your body, because it's a business. You are your own business, so you need to take care of yourself. Nobody is going to do it for you."

Former Chiefs CB Travis Daniels: "Travis Daniels was a veteran defensive back who came over [to Kansas City], had a lot of information, a lot of wisdom. And, he helped me make the decision to come to Baltimore. He just kind of had a reality check with me, like, 'Hey, you're OK. You're blessed. Things change, and you just have to go with the flow and still produce.' So, he helped get me here."

Former Dallas S Gerald Sensabaugh: "He was a guy that I learned a lot from both on and off the field. In Dallas, it's like the real NFL off-the-field type stuff, where people know who you are, and you have [outgoing] fans around. Fans will come up to you and engage all the time, so that's a different feel, and he helped me with that."

Former Cowboys TE Jason Witten: "Each year, I've learned how to become more in-tune with my body and just listen to it, because it talks all the time. So, the yoga, I've always seen Jason Witten do it. This offseason, I started working with a trainer that's pretty much like a DB guru, produces a lot of talent, elite talent in the Dallas area, and I started going to yoga with him and the crew. We were locked in."

Baltimore head coach John Harbaugh: "He is unscripted to me. He wears his emotions on his sleeve. He does a great job of finding the balance of just keeping it real but also being that coach and delivering that message sometimes. But sometimes, he's like, 'Let's just go. Let's just go play.' He keeps it where I'm like, 'OK, I know you're not just home writing stuff down.' Everything serves its purpose, so he has a good balance. I like him. It's a good place to play football."

His family: "My mom drilled me about the grades, and my dad drilled me about just staying on top of [myself] as a person, as a man and an athlete. It was a good balance. Parenting, it's a learning experience. I've learned something new every day. Learning how to raise my daughter ... I'm trying to raise a pre-teen. My son acts like he's a teenager already. He's five. So, it's a learning experience every day."

Denise Pittman, fourth- & fifth-grade teacher: "She started reading Harry Potter, and that's when I could really close my eyes and see the book come to life. She was my best teacher ever. She's a catalyst to my education. She was the one who made school fun for me."

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XXXV MVP

In a magnificent effort showcasing thrilling performances by their defense, offense and special teams units, the Baltimore Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV with a 34-7 victory over the New York Giants. Allowing the Giants a meager 152 total net yards, New York's attack crossed midfield just twice, while Baltimore's "D" posted 4 INTs. LB Ray Lewis was named the game's MVP, capping an accolade-filled season in which he was also tabbed the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

QB Joe Flacco - 2012
Super Bowl XLVII MVP

Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second World Championship. After an amazing first-half performance, the Ravens took a commanding 28-6 lead. But following a bizarre, 34-minute power outage that halted play, the 49ers stormed back into contention. Clinging to a 34-29 edge late in the game, the Ravens stood firm on a pivotal goal-line stand, jamming SF on four-straight plays inside the 7-yard line. QB Joe Flacco was named the game's MVP.

THE HARBAUGH FILE

John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in six (2008-12 & 2014) of his 10 full seasons in Baltimore, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl title. Under "Harbs," the Ravens have secured an appearance in three AFC Championships (2008, 2011 & 2012).

Here are several Harbaugh quick hits:

- The Ravens are one of only eight teams (NE – 9; GB – 8; Pit. – 7; Atl., Bal., Cin., Ind. & Sea. – 6) to earn at least six postseason berths in the last 10 years. (Baltimore has won at least one game in each of those playoff campaigns.)
- The Ravens' 10 playoff wins since 2008 rank second only to New England's 13.
- "Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.
- John and his brother, Jim (formerly of the 49ers), are the only head coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years as NFL bosses.
- Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.
- In 2012, Harbaugh became the third coach (with Bill Cowher & Chuck Knox) since the 1970 merger to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons.
- Harbaugh owns the third-most playoff wins (10, tied) by a coach in his first 10 seasons (since the 1970 merger).
- With the Ravens' 2014 playoff berth, Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching.
- For coaches to make the playoffs in at least six of their first 10 years, "Harbs" is one of four active coaches to do so (Pete Carroll, Andy Reid & Mike Tomlin).
- Harbaugh, Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) own the most road playoff wins (7) by a HC in NFL history.

JERRY ROSBURG & SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

ROSBURG LEADS RAVENS SPECIALISTS

SEASONS
RAVENS: 11TH
NFL: 18TH

Special teams coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg has guided a stellar special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Below are several standout notes about the coach and his successful group of specialists.

SIX PRO BOWLERS

• Six Ravens have earned eight combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Rosburg: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016) and P Sam Koch (2015).

PRIME KICKER & PUNTER

• Two-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the NFL's most FGs (227) since entering the NFL in 2012. With a 90.4% career success mark, "Tuck" is the most accurate kicker in league history (227-of-251 on FGAs). Earning his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015, P Sam Koch's 46.7 gross average ranked No. 9 in the NFL that season, while his 42.9 net average was No. 2. In 2017, Koch led the NFL in both punts inside the 10 (16) and the 20 (a franchise-record 40).

2018: ANOTHER RAVENS RETURN MAN SCORES BIG

• In Week 12's win over Oakland, Baltimore native CB/RS Cyrus Jones posted a 70-yard punt return TD in the second quarter, marking the Ravens' first PR-TD since 10/15/17, when Michael Campanaro had a 77-yarder vs. Chicago. Dating back to 2011, six different Ravens have returned punts for touchdowns: Campanaro, Kaelin Clay, Tandon Doss, C. Jones, Jacoby Jones and Lardarius Webb.

RAVENS' BIG RETURNS IN JONES' MAGICAL SEASON

• Led by Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones in the 2012 Super Bowl season, Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in KOR average (27.3). Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR). He also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in a Super Bowl with his 108-yard KOR-TD. (In 2014's game at Pit., he added another 108-yarder to his resume, marking 4 total KOR-TDs over 100 yards in his career.)

BALTIMORE BLOCK PARTY

DON "WINK" MARTINDALE & DEFENSIVE NOTES

"WINK" LEADS THE DEFENSE

On Jan. 9, 2018, the Ravens promoted Don "Wink" Martindale to defensive coordinator following the retirement of Dean Pees. Martindale, 54, is in his seventh year with the Ravens after serving as LBs coach from 2016-17 and ILBs coach from 2012-15. Under his guidance, LB C.J. Mosley has become one of the league's top defenders, earning three Pro Bowls.

The 2018 campaign marks Martindale's 14th season coaching in the NFL, where he has also spent time with Oakland (2004-08) and Denver (2009-10). In 2010, he served as the Broncos' defensive coordinator.

"'Wink' has earned the promotion to defensive coordinator," John Harbaugh stated. "His aggressive mentality will serve to take our defense to new levels. He is obviously respected by players, many of whom have already benefited from his direct coaching at the linebacker position. He knows the ins and outs of what we have been about on defense and has been an important contributor to our success on that side of the ball."

NOTE THE QUOTE

ESPN.com's Kevin Seifert on Sam Koch's arsenal of punts:

"Some are designed to hook toward the sideline with maximum hang time. Others use an intentionally low trajectory to aid coverage teams. He has a knuckler and one kick that drops, from the returner's perspective, roughly in the shape of the letter "S." He's debuted a "boomerang" punt that does just what you would imagine it might. Most, but not all, of these punts are intended to discourage a clean catch and minimize the return.

"It's not unusual for NFL punters to develop a "changeup" of sorts, but no one has ever had multiple options at the ready. ... The NFL changes every day, but there are only a few moments in each generation when it transforms. This is one of them. In plain sight, Sam Koch and the Ravens have introduced a new way to punt."

2016: PERHAPS THE BEST YEAR EVER

In 2016, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the fifth-best pct. in NFL single-season history. In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for fifth-best streak ever), here are facts about his remarkable season, arguably the best ever by a kicker:

- ✔ Tucker's 38 FGs made ranked No. 1 in the NFL. He was also 27-of-27 on PATs. An NFL single-season record 24 of Tucker's 38 FGs made in 2016 came from 40 yards or beyond.
- ✔ Tucker's 10 FGs of 50-plus yards are a Ravens' single-season record. They tie (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most in NFL history. (Tucker was a perfect 10-for-10 from 50 yards and out during the 2016 season.)
- ✔ Tucker's 141 points ranked second in the league only behind Atlanta's Matt Bryant (158).
- ✔ In Week 12 of 2016 vs. Cincy, Tucker became just the ninth kicker in league history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in a single game (52, 57 & 54). He is also the first kicker in NFL history to make 3 FGs of 50-plus yards in the first half of a game. (These feats earned him AFC ST POW honors.)

LAMAR JACKSON & GUS EDWARDS NOTES

ACTION JACKSON

QB Lamar Jackson made his first-career start in Week 11 vs. Cincy, boosting the Ravens to a 24-21 victory. Here are several notable feats by the first-round draft pick (32nd overall) from the game:

- Jackson completed 13 of 19 passes for 150 yards and 1 INT, adding 119 rushing yards on 26 carries.
- It marked the first time in NFL history that a team had a rookie QB and RB (Gus Edwards, 115) each surpass 100 rushing yards.
- Jackson's 119 rushing yards are the second most by a rookie QB since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, with only QB Robert Griffin III having more (138 on 10/14/12 with Washington).
- The 119 stand as the most rushing yards by a QB in a starting debut, while his 26 attempts are the most by a QB in the modern NFL era.

- Edwards became the sixth undrafted rookie in the NFL's common draft era to produce 100-plus rushing yards in consecutive games. He joined Branden Oliver (2014), LeGarrette Blount (2010), Dominic Rhodes (2001), Fred Lane (1997) and Clark Gaines (1976) in accomplishing the feat.
- Edwards also became the first Raven to rush for back-to-back "100s" since RB Justin Forsett, who had three such games in November of 2014.

MAKE-A-WISH: FRANKIE COLLURAFICI

On Friday, Nov. 23, the Baltimore Ravens drafted a very special player. Vincent "Frankie" Collurafici, a 16-year-old from Dundalk, Md., was diagnosed with brain cancer. As a participant with Make-A-Wish Mid-Atlantic, he wished to be a Baltimore Ravens player. Signing a one-day contract with assistant general manager Eric DeCosta, Frankie's wish to become a player came true. That Friday Collurafici had the opportunity to spend the day at the Under Armour Performance Center practicing with the team. As part of the team, Collurafici received his own locker, jersey and pads, as well as some one-on-one coaching from head coach John Harbaugh. Suiting up, Collurafici participated in special teams, offensive and defensive drills. On Sunday, Nov. 25, the Ravens hosted Collurafici and his family at the game against Oakland. Collurafici enjoyed time down on the field before he had the opportunity to lead the team out of the tunnel.

JOHN HARBAUGH MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE: WEEK 14 AT CHIEFS

Reviewing the tape, you look at the defensive effort, and there have been a lot of great ones over the year, but what the secondary did to one of those prolific offenses, that was Atlanta's worst showing this century, offensively. When you looked at the tape today, or looked at it last night with the defensive coaches, I assume there were a lot of smiles in the room, but what was the general feeling? Was that the highest level you've seen that secondary play at in some time? (Jerry Coleman) "We gave them the game ball after the game. Jimmy [Smith] accepted it for the secondary. I thought Jimmy played at a really high level. The secondary played at a high level. Coverage was excellent – tight coverage. We have a lot of good players who play tight coverage. The communication was very good. [We] had a couple miscues. Even at that, we want to chase perfection. There are two or three plays in there that we know we'd like to have back. I thought the linebackers tied in the with secondary very well in coverage. Even our defensive ends, like Terrell [Suggs] and Matt Judon, who often drop into coverage – not often, but every now and then drop into coverage – were very good. So yes, all that was excellent."

Along those lines, everyone talked about the time of possession in the second half and keeping the defense fresh, but the first half was much more even. The offense had sputtered for a period there. How critical was it that the defense kept the game right where it was and then kind of allowed that formula to really get going in the second half? (Luke Jones) "Yes, it's a long game; that's the thing you learn. Hey, look at the game last night [Chargers vs. Steelers], right? I went to bed at halftime. I had given up hope. (laughter) And really, we were rooting for a loss for both teams, so we couldn't get what we wanted, but that's the way football works. It's a long game. It's going to be hard-fought. You can jump to a big lead. You can fall to a deficit. You can be in a tight game. Whatever it is, you have to keep grinding, you have to keep fighting, keep trying to find a way to make plays and try to find just a way to win the game at the end, and our team did a good job of that."

How much do you attribute the crooked time of possession to the fact that the defense had defensive touchdowns in the second half in back-to-back games? (Jordan Schatz) "Yes, it's probably part of it. It's a good point. I hadn't really thought about that, but the fact that you score – and I think we scored, was it … It was first down in this one. Was it first down last week? I can't remember now, but yes, that's going to be a short possession when you score a touchdown on a turnover in the first three plays of the drive, and it's going to be huge for getting off the field. But, the thing about that is, is you go right back on the field on defense, right? So, I guess it takes away an offensive possession if you think about it. I hadn't really thought about that. I'm not sure what to think about that, now that I think about it." (laughter)

Sticking on the secondary, CB Marlon Humphrey obviously is another guy that was really active yesterday. What do you think it is that has allowed him to play as well as he has this season? (Garrett Downing) "Marlon just works hard. He's talented. He's a very serious guy, as you all know, and he takes his technique very seriously. He chases perfection in everything that he does, and he works at it, and he wants to be good. He wants to be good. He's a team player. All the things – he has great parents – and all the things, he has them."

I know you go against coaches that you've had connections with throughout your career. Is it a little different when it's going against Chiefs head coach Andy Reid? (Jamison Hensley) "He's the only former head coach I've worked for, so yes, I guess it is a little different than the guys … The other guys that we were with were either assistants here, or we were assistants together in Philly. But sure, it makes it different." (Reporter: "Overall, have you ever thought about the impact that he has made on the direction of your career? I know you've had many influences, but him in particular?") "We've had a lot of conversations about that, and they've done quite a few little pieces on that, stories on that, so I get asked that a lot – the impact Andy has had on my career, and I'm just grateful. One of the most important things in any profession – it's probably true in journalism – is where you start. Who you start with really makes a big difference. If you start with people that do it the right way – good people, teach you the right things – it just gives you a chance, gives you a leg up. And Andy, for me, was a big part of that in every way. I learned a great many things from him, and watching his tape now, I still learn a great many things from him. Yes, he's certainly at the top of the business in what he does."

When former Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes left Philadelphia, did you think that you had a chance of sticking on the coaching staff? Or, did you kind of assume that when Andy Reid took over, you might have to look elsewhere? (Jamison Hensley) "It was a long time ago. No, I thought I had a chance. We had played well on special teams, so you'd like to think that that would have had an impact, and he gave me a chance. That's the thing: He didn't have to. Andy did not have to give me a chance coming in at the time. I'm sure he had a lot of people he knew, but he decided to take a chance on me, and like I said, I'll be forever grateful for that."

I know you said that QB Joe Flacco was ultimately not cleared to play yesterday. When is the next time that that decision will come up for review? Is it every day, or is it the end of the week? (Childs Walker) "Probably by the end of the week. I don't think that they look at that every day. He's cleared to practice, so he'll practice. They'll probably look at what he does in practice. They look at tape, and they'll just let me know. They'll let us know. We expect to ramp him up in practice a lot more this week, since last week was his first week, and we'll just see how it goes."

Aside from just letting Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes kind of do his thing, what are some of the unique things that that offense is doing? (Aaron Kasinitz) "Speed, lots of speed, lots of speed. Very creative – they run all the tough plays, all the 'circus' plays, so to speak, that they execute so well, and the speed just enhances it. I also think they execute very well. They're precise in what they do. That's good coaching and good players, that combination. Andy [Reid] studies football everywhere. I know he's had coaches on his staff over the years that have specific areas of study. They look at college football and probably high school football. Probably junior high football – he's probably looking for plays – knowing Andy, and he just does a great job of that."

After watching the tape, just how impressed were you, or what were your impressions, of the way that RB Kenneth Dixon ran the ball in his first game back since Week 1? (Ryan Mink) "Positive. I think he had eight or nine carries there, quite a few, probably, for the first time back in such a long time and did well. [He] ran hard. He'll be beating himself over dropping the ball. The good thing is, he recovered it right away. That's the biggest thing I saw from, offensively, an area of improvement, is we need to hold on to the football. The football being on the ground is on the ground way too much. Our guys know that, and that will be – continue to be – a major point of emphasis, and even more so, because that's just going to be critically important."

After QB Lamar Jackson's third-career start, how have you seen him get incrementally better each week? What has he done? How has he improved each week, and this past week, how was he much better than the first time he started? (Todd Karpovich) "He's getting better. Football is like that, especially at that position. You do it in practice, and that's one thing, but there's nothing like the game. And, the game is where you learn lessons the hard way. He made a few mistakes that are well-documented, that he'll learn from, just like the week before. But there are a lot of things that can happen in football. There are a lot of crazy scenarios that can come up, and they're pretty impossible to predict all the different scenarios that can come up. So, I just think you learn by experiencing them, whether it's situational football or understanding where you are on the field, when you're on the field, when you can take a chance, when you can't take a chance. All of the sudden, a three-technique shows up in the backfield – how do you handle that? Those are all things he continues to experience and grow from."

You said after the game that you guys are all sort of seeing where this offense is going together. It's sort of a process of discovery for everybody, but is there something to be said just for hitting teams with something so different that they're just not seeing with any other team? (Childs Walker) "Yes, definitely there is. It's tough when you see something for the first time. You can go back to the old Air Force offense, or what Navy does down there with Ken [Niumatalolo]. When a team sees that for the first time and doesn't have a chance to work on it all throughout the year, it's going to be challenging for them, of course, and all of the coaches in the last three weeks have said that. So yes, I do think that's a plus."

What's the importance for a rookie quarterback feeling comfortable in the pocket? There were a lot of times Sunday when Lamar dropped back and looked really comfortable standing there, going through his reads. Do you think we've overlooked the importance of having a good offensive line in front of a rookie quarterback, who is still learning the ropes? (Jonas Shaffer) "The offensive line has done a really good job. But you know, I talked to Joe 'D' [D'Alessandris, offensive line coach] this morning, and he's like, 'Well, we started off slow in pass protection, but we picked it up.' That's probably true. There are things that we're getting hit with that are probably a little different than before. This offense is different, in terms of the way people are approaching us, even in the pass rush. But keeping Lamar clean is critically important, absolutely."

There was a report that defensive line coach Joe Cullen interviewed for a college coaching job at UMass. You've never stood in the way of your assistants from getting jobs. Would the timing of that make it tough this time of year? (Jeff Zrebiec) "No, this happens a lot this time of year. It's a good question. Yes, Joe did interview at UMass. We have great coaches – they're going to have opportunities. But the college jobs happen now, so it's not a problem. Guys don't need to spend a lot of time preparing for those interviews. I think the [athletic directors] and hiring committees understand that they're in a season; they're trying to win games. So, they don't expect them to come in there with some kind of a PowerPoint presentation that's going to blow them away. I don't think they're looking for that. It took about two hours. So, it's something that we're proud of. We appreciate our guys. We have great coaches, and if they get opportunities like that … I like to see guys get opportunities, and I want to see them advance in the profession."

Is jumping over defenders something that you guys teach, endorse? (Jerry Coleman) "What is that?" (Reporter: "The leaping sometimes over the defender.") "We only endorse it if they get over the defender cleanly and continue to run. (laughter) Otherwise, we would like them to lower the shoulder. I don't think you need to put too many restrictions on guys. I talked to Mark [Andrews]. I know the DBs don't want to see you lower their shoulder. Being an old DB – I can promise you that. I think the good way to do it is to lower your shoulder or run through the backside shoulder, as we say. But hey, you don't want to handcuff these guys too much. They're really fabulous athletes."

Have you seen defensive coordinator Don "Wink" Martindale's fingerprints on this defense with the things that he's done? (Jamison Hensley) "Oh, of course! Of course, yes. Don has done a great job. He has certain skills and gifts as a coach that are unique to him and are really, really strong. He does a great job. It's a team effort, too. We have a great staff. All those guys have done a great job – our players are involved, as you know. We have the right kind of culture. I'm proud of all those guys. We have a bunch of young coaches in there that are really smart guys and have done a great job. Don does a great job of bringing them all in to it [and] including them. So yes, that's all part of it."

A lot of teams spend time throughout the year managing their running backs' carries. What effect do you think it has since RB Kenneth Dixon hasn't played since Week 1 and RB Gus Edwards only took on a heavy load midway through the season? Do you think the fact that they didn't have a huge load early in the season makes a difference going down the stretch? (Aaron Kasinitz) "As far as being a positive?" (Reporter: "Yes.") "Probably. I mean, it's probably good. Gosh, it's tough being a running back. You're the target, and there are a lot of big guys [on] every play you get hit. You're the punching bag, so to speak. Those two guys deliver the blow pretty much, too. I like the way they run. Yes, I think that's a good point."

Does that work in terms of the recipe for success: a strong running game, strong defense, strong kicking, especially on the road, in the winter, in cold weather? (Jerry Coleman) "It does. It does, absolutely – all those things. You want to have a passing game, too, though. I wouldn't discount that. So, all those things [matter], yes."

We didn't have a chance to talk to you about the RB Alex Collins move. Was that just not getting better and you needed the roster spot to get RB Kenneth Dixon up? (Jeff Zrebiec) "We did need the roster spot, so that usually dictates when you have to make a move. So yes, but beyond that, I just leave that for Ozzie [Newsome] to explain – whenever you get a chance to talk to him."

In regard to what happened with the Chiefs, they had a bombshell dropped on them on Friday. Can you empathize with what Andy Reid had to go through, in real time, dealing with a situation like that, one that you had to go through a couple years ago? (Jerry Coleman) "I think that's their situation. I didn't give it too much thought, to be honest with you." (Reporter: "Only because a lot of parallels were drawn because …") "Yes, I know. I understand what you're saying. I just … I didn't give it that kind of thought. I didn't. I was trying to focus on winning the football game. I know it, I saw it, noted it and didn't really express any opinion or judgements on it. I don't know anything about it other than what was reported. I'm really not too concerned about it in the sense of our football team. I'd just rather leave it at that."

The crowd noise in Kansas City … You've played there before, you've won there before in the playoffs. How does it compare? I know you don't like comparison questions. Let's not go there. (Jerry Coleman) "Rephrase!" (laughter) (Reporter: "Is it the loudest environment or among the loudest?") "Yesterday, first of all, was great. We had a bunch of fans there [in Atlanta]. I just want to credit the fans who were there. Thank you, to all the fans who were there. There were so many fans there, and they were loud and into it and fun, in that sense. Kansas City is very loud. It's a great environment. It's one of those environments you love going into in this league. It's what you do this job for. Yes, it's an awesome place to play. It'll be loud, they'll be into it [if] their team is winning. This'll be a big game. We're looking forward to that. That's something that you really kind of relish."

Records are being set offensively around the league. Your defense is No. 1 in the league in different categories. How much is that a credit to them – for what has been "a year of the offense" largely around the league – that they've managed to consistently keep numbers low and give you a chance to win? (Jeff Zrebiec) "It's something that … Yes, it's a credit to everybody, but I think you start looking at those things at the end of the season. That's not something we … We're going to face, arguably, the best offense in the league on Sunday. We just have to go to work. That's all we have to do is go to work, learn as much as we can about them, be as good as we can be in practice on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and then do everything we can do to take those things to the game on Sunday and play. I know that's what you always hear, but that's really got to be the focus. Just keep it about that, and that's it."

You guys have done a great job with controlling time of possession, but you also want some opportunities to make some big plays. How much do you see an opportunity to make big plays along with what you've been doing with the time of possession? (Cliff Brown) "Yes, we want to make big plays. We need some big plays. I think we had one play over 20 yards yesterday. That's an area that we're working on very hard. We had some things set up. Sometimes, they just happen on normal plays, you know, a normal run will pop. I think it's a disappointment, but it's also a credit. We rushed for over 200 yards without a big run. I'll tell you what: Atlanta's defense was playing hard. They were playing hard. That was a battle in the run game trenches. Watch the tape and watch what kind of battle that was. I think our guys deserve a lot of credit – the fact that we were able to average what we did per carry and put 200 yards up on what was 49 carries. It was a fight, man. I saw their inside linebacker said, 'Hey, we fought as hard as we could,' and they did. But sometimes those will pop, and you'll hit it. I think Denver hit a 60-some-yard run yesterday; that kind of got their numbers up. That happens, too, but we also try to scheme some big pass plays that we just haven't connected on. We're going to connect on those. That has to happen and will happen. That's something that's very important."
