STEVE BISCIOTTI

OWNER

COLLEGE: SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY

BORN: 4/10/60, PHILADELPHIA, PA

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 12/12

ORGANIZATION
FRONT OFFICE

The Ravens, Colts and Eagles are the only NFL teams to earn the playoffs each of the last three seasons, and Baltimore is the only franchise with postseason victories in those three years (2008, 2009 and 2010). Under Steve Bisciotti's leadership, the Ravens, who have made the NFL's postseason four of the last five years, advanced to the playoffs for a third consecutive season in 2010 for the first time in team history.

"It's a good accomplishment," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal."

The passionate Bisciotti, who is 51 and the second-youngest owner in the NFL (to Washington's Daniel Snyder - 47), bought a minority interest in the Ravens in 2000 from Art Modell and completed the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV championship team. Today, Steve's influence in the NFL continues to rise - he currently is a member of two important ownership committees: Broadcasting and Digital Media.

When Bisciotti, now in his 12th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired John Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first three seasons with Harbaugh.

"I think leadership is difficult to define, but you can recognize leadership when you see it," Bisciotti says. "We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses - take some chances - to achieve great success. There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

In 2010, the Ravens tied Pittsburgh with a 12-4 record, the best mark in the AFC North. Baltimore then dominated the Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium with a 30-7 victory in the Wild Card round. In 2009, the Ravens completed a 9-7 regular season campaign and became the first team to win a playoff game at New England (33-14) since 1978. The 2008 Ravens earned an 11-5 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest

GAME DAY

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area that we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to, or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."

- Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

- Former Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams on Steve Bisciotti

STEVE BISCIOTTI

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED NAMED STEVE BISCIOTTI ONE OF THE FIVE BEST OWNERS IN THE NFL:

“Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of the best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field.”
– May, 2009

of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State University with a degree in liberal arts in 1982, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (he was 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees. Starting with two employees and two clients, Bisciotti and Davis produced $1.5 million in sales in the first year.

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest privately-held staffing firm in the United States. The company, which is based just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe, has over 8,000 internal employees and 90,000 high-end contract workers. Allegis Group, which, like Steve, does little self promotion or publicity, places employees in positions from engineers to cable installers, to computer programmers, to marketing specialists.

Until he bought the Ravens, Bisciotti’s business success was not well known to the general public on a national level. In fact, it wasn’t even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. “I’m okay if I’m one of the least known owners in pro sports,” Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, quietly is dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities. Most of Bisciotti’s extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing, boating and is devoted to University of Maryland athletics, especially the men’s basketball team. He and his wife, Renée (Foote), are the parents of two sons, Jason, who recently earned a master’s in business, and Jack, who graduated in August with a degree in sports and entertainment management. Renée helped design the interior and selected the furnishings at the Ravens’ training complex. The family lives in Millersville, MD.

Bisciotti is pronounced Bih-SHAH-tee.

“I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We’d go to O’s games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We’d also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas’ helmet. I would always ask the Colts’ players if I could wear their helmets.”

ART MODELL MINORITY OWNER

BORN: 6/23/25, BROOKLYN, NY

EXR (NFL/RAVENS): 46/16

Art Modell – much like Steve Bisciotti – embodies the spirit of a true American success story. Both men have been described as bold, competitive, compassionate and highly-approachable entrepreneurs – generally, a rare combination of qualities for men who have risen to their level of accomplishment.

In April of 2004, Art finalized the sale of the World Champion Baltimore Ravens to Bisciotti. Also in 2004, Art was a semifinalist for that year’s Hall of Fame class. He was one of 15 finalists for the Canton NFL Hall of Fame in 2001 and a semifinalist for the classes of 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010 and 2011.

Modell purchased the Cleveland Browns for what was an unprecedented price of $4 million in 1961, and three decades later, in February of 1996, he brought an NFL franchise back to Baltimore. For Art and his club, the move was not an easy one to make – and it was not easy for the team’s fans to see their team go. Knowing this, Modell did not hesitate to leave the fans of Cleveland a legacy. He announced that he would give the name “Browns” to Cleveland for a future team. He also left the team’s colors (orange and brown) and the rich and storied 49-year history (1946-1995).

In his 43 seasons of full ownership of the Browns and the Ravens, more than half of Art’s teams were in the playoffs. Modell won two NFL championships, 1964: 27-0 (over the Colts); and in 2000, 34-7 (vs. the NY Giants). Three other teams (1965, 1968 and 1969) played in NFL title games, and three more teams (1986, 1987 and 1989) lost memorable AFC Championship battles – all against John Elway and the Denver Broncos. Ten other teams earned playoff berths, while six more entered the season’s final week with a chance to make the postseason.

Modell was the only elected NFL president in league history, serving a term from 1967-69. He chaired the negotiations for the first collective bargaining agreement with the players in 1968, leading a committee that included Vince Lombardi and Jim Finks, both NFL Hall of Famers. Modell may be most noted for his tenure as the NFL’s broadcast chairman. The contracts he negotiated over a 31-year period (1962-93) set the standard for sports television.

Art’s key career highlights include:

- Chairman of the Owners Labor Committee (1968), which successfully negotiated the NFL’s first players’ collective bargaining agreement.
- Served on the NFL-AFL Merger Committee, breaking the impasse for realignment of the two leagues by moving the Browns to the AFC.
- Worked closely with then-Commissioner Pete Rozelle to establish NFL Films and became its first chairman.
- In 1970, Art was an important negotiator with ABC to launch Monday Night Football and volunteered to host the first game in Cleveland. (The Browns won, 31-21, over the NY Jets.)

“I believe Art belongs in the Hall of Fame. I don’t think I know a person who has done more for the league than Modell, especially through television.”

– Wellington Mara former owner, NY Giants, 2002, deceased

PERSONAL: In 1943, Modell joined the Air Force ... Attended New Utrecht (Brooklyn, NY) HS... He and his wife, Patricia, are the parents of John and David and have six grandchildren... The Modells, residents of Cockeysville, MD, are active in our Baltimore community...The couple has donated millions of dollars to a variety of charities, most notably, the SEED School, a boarding school being developed in Baltimore for disadvantaged youth, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Kennedy Krieger Institute, St. Vincent’s Center, a home for abused children, and the House Of Ruth...Modell has received numerous awards and honors, including the Generous Heart Award from the Dr. Ben Carson Scholarship Foundation, given annually for excellence in the community.

DICK CASS PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: PRINCETON / YALE LAW SCHOOL

BORN: 1/13/46, WASHINGTON, D.C.

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 8/8

Dick Cass is in his eighth year as president of the Ravens. Cass oversees every area of the organization, including player and staff personnel, the coaching team, corporate sales, communications and business ventures. In addition to his time with the Ravens, Cass has served as counsel to a number of NFL owners, including both the Washington Redskins and the Dallas Cowboys, as well as the NFL's league office.

"Dick has had involvement with every aspect of an NFL team," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said. "His legal expertise, his working knowledge of the business, his relationships at the league office, and the respect he has earned around the league are significant assets for the franchise."

2004-11: (with Baltimore) 2009: A regional business group awarded Cass its Regional Visionary Award for setting a high standard for community service in the Baltimore region. 2008: Among all NFL clubs, the Ravens ranked in the top tier in sponsorship revenue, new sponsorship deals and ticket renewal rate following the '08 season...Helped guide a committee of eight to interview and select head coach John Harbaugh. 2007: Even though Baltimore is the country's 27th-largest television market, the Ravens ranked in the NFL's top tier in total revenue...Forbes Magazine recognized the Ravens as having the NFL's second-fastest growing brand over the past three years (Aug. issue)...Cass keyed fundraising efforts for the $100,000 renovation of Collington Square School's playground. 2006: Saluted by former NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue for Dick's input to the revenue-sharing plan of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement...Initiated fundraising after Hurricane Katrina that resulted in $1.2 million donated from the Ravens...Though dismissed by Cass, was mentioned prominently by media as a possible successor to Tagliabue...Instrumental in raising $1.2 million to refurbish Baltimore Polytechnic Institute's football stadium...The new field allows all 18 Baltimore City public high schools to play at least two games per season at the venue. 2004: Cass was named president of the club in April and was Steve Bisciotti's first hire as new owner of the Ravens... Cass brought a wealth of business knowledge, plus legal and negotiating expertise to the club... Orchestrated a midseason move to the team's new facility in Owings Mills, coupling football operations and corporate into one complex.

1972-2003: (with Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering) A partner of the D.C.-based law firm of WCP for 31 years...Was chairman of the firm's Business Transactions Section and a member of its Management Committee...Had a general corporate and securities practice, representing companies and entrepreneurs in complex corporate partnership and securities transactions. 2003: Counsel to the Independent Commission of the US Olympics Committee. 2002: Was counsel to the owner of the NBA's Charlotte Hornets in the team's relocation to New Orleans. 2000: Represented Steve Bisciotti in the purchase of the Ravens from the Modelli family. 1999: Represented the estate of Jack Kent Cooke in the sale of the Redskins to Daniel Snyder. 1992-93: Retained by the NFL as an advisor pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement with players. 1980s: Represented Cowboys owner Jerry Jones in the acquisition of the team and Texas Stadium...Advised Jones on a variety of matters, including sponsorship contracts, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and salary cap, NFL broadcast arrangements, NFL Internet policies, stadium financing, estate planning, local broadcast partnerships and the NFL substance abuse programs. 1979: Promoted to partner of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering law firm. 1972: Served his first year as a member of WCP.

COLLEGE: Graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Princeton in 1968...A knee injury, coupled with surgery, kept him from athletics his first two years...Played rugby as a junior and senior...Graduated from Yale Law School in 1971.

PERSONAL: Clerked for a federal judge in Connecticut for a year before joining WCP, a firm with global offices...Father was in the Coast Guard...As a child, Dick moved around the country with his parents, making stops in Virginia, Maryland, Michigan, California, Washington, D.C., Florida and Massachusetts...Graduated from Mercersburg (PA) Academy, where he was student body president and captain of the football, basketball and baseball teams...Serves on boards for the Greater Baltimore Committee, Kennedy Krieger Institute, Maryland Science Center, Baltimore Community Foundation and Bert Bell NFL Players Pension Plan...Has served on the boards of trustees for both Princeton and Mercersburg Academy...Continues as chairman of the Ravens All Community Team Foundation...Dick's wife, Heather, owns an architecture firm, Cass and Associates...She is also a graduate of Yale (School of Architecture) and is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects...Their daughter, Courtney, is a Columbia graduate who taught in New York City public schools for three years and has since earned a law degree from the University of Virginia...She is currently the executive director of Teach for America Baltimore...Their son, Willy, is a graduate of St. Albans HS in Washington, D.C. and a 2008 Yale University graduate (biomedical engineering)...He is currently enrolled at the University of Maryland Medical School.

GAME DAY

Ozzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game has seen.

Though he has flourished at every point of his football career, it's unfair to say that Newsome has followed a successful path. That's because, in all reality, he blazed the trail – one on which success has actually followed him. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV championship team and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," Ravens head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped on the gridiron with the hope of playing for the University of Alabama. That dream turned into a reality when he went on to star for the Crimson Tide under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the history of the game. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a tight end until Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (Tony Gonzalez has since broken those records).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go,"

Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

- Don Banks, SportsIllustrated.com

"As a player, he was known as the Wizard of Oz, a Hall of Fame tight end who was hard to stop. As a drafter, he's a master of finding the right players."

- John Clayton, ESPN

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him

OZZIE NEWSOME SNAPSHOT

- NFL's First African American General Manager (promoted in 2002)
- Architect of the Ravens' 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship Team
- NFL Executive of the Year (2000)
- Pro Football Hall of Fame (class of 1999)
- State of Alabama Hall of Fame (class of 1995)
- National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and NCAA Hall of Fame (class of 1994)
- 13-Year NFL Tight End with Cleveland Browns (1978-90)
- Three-Time Pro Bowler (1981, 1984-85)
- Four-Time Cleveland Touchdown Club Offensive Player of the Year
- Current Member of 3 Major NFL Policy-Making Committees: Competition, Diversity and Player Care Foundation Committees to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome and Co. tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (the fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 23 Pro Bowls since then, each player is considered a likely Hall of Famer. Ogden, who retired in June of 2008, could become the first Raven ever elected to Canton. Fittingly, he would join Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

"Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, player personnel director Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead."

— Adam Schein, FoxSports.com

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome has consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 15 drafts (1996-2010), Baltimore selected 16 first-rounders who have earned a total of 46 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens have had a high pick, they haven't missed. Of the seven players chosen in the top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, LB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis and LB Terrell Suggs) have earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore has picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis has twice been named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap, chosen 31st, went to two Pro Bowls; S Ed Reed, the 24th pick, has been tabbed an All-Star seven times and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004.

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history, Newsome and his staff have drafted 13 players who have earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, who signed as a rookie free agent in 2002, Baltimore has produced 14 homegrown Pro Bowl players in just 15 NFL seasons.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Newsome has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with the scouts who work under him. The Ravens boast a methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. The "process" includes 17 full-time members of the personnel department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Most of Ozzie's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," which is a group that includes members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

The Ravens do not belong to the National Football Scouting group, which provides member teams a log of reports on players eligible for the draft. Instead, they make their own list, and that means looking at every player on a collegiate roster. "We do a lot of cross-checking," says Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta, a graduate of Newsome's "20/20 Club." "A number of us look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players."

Newsome encourages all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that he wants to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, Ozzie believes the biggest strength of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"What sets us apart is that we have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, learning the way we do things," Newsome affirms. "And we have had some great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's not Ozzie. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the “Raven way,” Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among the scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many of its assistants move on to become head coaches on the collegiate and NFL levels: Jack Del Rio (Jaguars), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Rex Ryan (Jets), Jim Schwartz (Lions), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals).

“[Ravens] players believe, and that’s the beauty of it,” states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. “Ozzie brings in the right kind of players, and one thing we’ve always talked about is we don’t want to coach effort. And that’s the thing – we don’t. [Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with. That’s why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore].”

Newsome’s motivation and work ethic are also reasons many people respect him. One specific way that devotion shines through is in his everyday routine. If Ozzie’s not in his office or out on the practice field, he can be found on the treadmill in the Ravens’ weight room. Exercising daily (and often putting in two-a-days), Ozzie says his workouts are just another way he tracks the pulse of the team.

“By being around the coaches and players out at practice,” Newsome states, “and being in that weight room around those players, I think I get a chance to build some things in my mind of how I’d like the makeup of our football team.”

A year-by-year look at Newsome’s career:

2010: Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2)...Baltimore, Indianapolis (an NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs in each of the last three seasons...The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row...In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons...John Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to take over a sub-.500 team and then win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons...Five Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh), and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth)...Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin, acquired by Newsome in an offseason trade with Arizona, produced team highs of 64 catches and 837 receiving yards.

2009: After posting a 9-7 record, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indy (nine) and New England (seven)...Behind an offense that ranked ninth in NFL scoring (24.4 ppg) and a defense that finished third in total yards and points allowed (300.5 ypg/16.3 ppg), the Ravens upended the Patriots (33-14) in the Wild Card round, becoming the first road team to win a playoff game at New England since 1978...For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season...Five Ravens were voted into the Pro Bowl, including LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le’Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and Rice (first)...Rookie T Michael Oher, who started all 16 games, finished second for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote) and earned All-Rookie team honors.

2008: Along with owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and several other front office executives, Newsome headed the search committee that hired first-year head coach John Harbaugh...Ravens posted an 11-5 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they fell to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers... Led by Newsome and Harbaugh, Baltimore produced 13 total victories, which set an NFL record for most wins by a first-year head coach (Harbaugh) and rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco)... Baltimore's stifling defense – ranked No. 2 in the NFL – set several franchise records, while the Ravens also had five players earn Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, ST Brendon Ayanbadejo, LB Terrell Suggs and FB Le'Ron McClain... Flacco, who became the first rookie QB ever to win two playoff games, was named the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote).

2007: Despite finishing 5-11 in an injury-marred season (Baltimore lost 77 games to starters), the Ravens sent four players to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed and RB Willis McGahee... Former free agent acquisition WR Derrick Mason (2005) set a Ravens' single-season record with 103 receptions... Ravens had six different rookies start a game, tying for the second most in the NFL.

2006: Baltimore produced the best record in franchise history with a 13-3 mark before falling to Indianapolis in the Divisional Playoff, 15-6... Thanks to key offseason free agent additions like 2003 NFL co-MVP QB Steve McNair, four-time Pro Bowl DT Trevor Pryce and Pro Bowl special teamer Gary Stills, the Ravens improved in all three phases of the game... Additionally, the Ravens had five rookie draft picks start at least one contest, including first-rounder DT Haloti Ngata (16 games) and fifth-round pick S Dawan Landry (14 games)... Both Ngata and Landry earned PFV/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors and were integral pieces of Baltimore's No. 1-ranked defense... Ravens produced eight Pro Bowl players, including McNair... After the Ravens' 27-26 win at Tennessee, keyed by McNair's 376-yard, three-TD effort and Pryce's game-clinching FG block, Newsome was awarded the game ball for his efforts in building the 2006 team.

2005: A difficult season ended with a 6-10 record... The Ravens lost 67 games to starting players with injuries, which were third most in the NFL... Pro Bowlers WR Derrick Mason and CB Samari Rolle were added for the campaign... T Jonathan Ogden made his ninth-straight Pro Bowl... First-round draft choice WR Mark Clayton set rookie records with single-season franchise highs in catches (44) and yards (471).

2004: Baltimore, with key starters missing a total of 53 games, fell one game short of the playoffs, finishing with a 9-7 mark... S Ed Reed, the Ravens' first pick in 2002, was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year... Reed, LB Ray Lewis, CB Chris McAlister, T Jonathan Ogden and LB Terrell Suggs all made the Pro Bowl... In June 2004, the Pro Football Writers Association honored Newsome with the Jack Horrigan Award for his cooperation and understanding of the media.

2003: The Ravens won their first division title with a 10-6 record... Baltimore hosted the Titans in the Wild Card game, but fell 20-17... Ravens sent an NFL-best (tied with Kansas City) eight players to the Pro Bowl, all of whom were originally drafted by Baltimore... In the '03 draft, Newsome and his staff picked LB Terrell Suggs (first round, 10th overall), who posted a Ravens' rookie-record 12 sacks and earned the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year... RB Jamal Lewis was named the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year for posting the second-most rushing yards in league history (2,066)... LB Ray Lewis earned his second (2000) NFL Defensive Player of the Year honor.

2002: Newsome and his staff assembled the youngest team in NFL history... Most observers predicted the Ravens would win very few games, but Baltimore entered Week 15 with a 7-7 mark and a chance to be the AFC's top Wild Card playoff team... Two last-minute losses to Cleveland (14-13) and at Pittsburgh (34-31) gave Baltimore a 7-9 mark... That year's draft produced two immediate starters (S Ed Reed and DE Anthony Weaver) and standout returner Lamont Brightful... Reed led the Ravens with five INTs and made every NFL All-Rookie team.

2001: Picking late in each round after winning Super Bowl XXXV, Newsome and his staff continued to draft well by selecting TE Todd Heap (first round, 31st overall), who entering 2010 is the team's all-time leading receiver in receptions (427) and TDs (36)... Ravens finished the season with a 10-6 record and won at Miami (21-3) in the Wild Card game before falling in the Divisional Playoff at Pittsburgh (27-10)... Six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors.

2000: Newsome was voted the NFL's Executive of the Year... Finishing 12-4, the Ravens earned a Wild Card berth and won Super Bowl XXXV, 34-7, over the New York Giants... Baltimore's bruising defense, considered one of the best in league history, permitted just 970 rushing yards and 165 points – both NFL records in a 16-game season... The architects of the Ravens' Super Bowl championship team, Newsome and his staff hit gold with the selection of RB Jamal Lewis (the

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)

BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 14/4

John Harbaugh is historically good.

He's the only coach in NFL history to take over a team with a losing record (5-11) the previous season and then go to and win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons as head coach. (Barry Switzer did the same with the Cowboys, but he took over a defending Super Bowl champion.)

With Harbaugh at the Ravens' helm, Baltimore is the only team to have won at least one playoff game in each of the past three postseasons – all coming on the road. Including playoffs, the Ravens are 36-19 in the Harbaugh Era (2008-10), producing the NFL's third-most total victories since his Baltimore arrival. (Pittsburgh and Indianapolis each have 38 victories.)

"Harbs" has guided the Ravens to the playoffs for three consecutive seasons for the first time in Ravens history. Baltimore produced 32 regular season wins during this span, tied (New Orleans) for fifth most in the NFL. Harbaugh has also compiled a 4-3 playoff record.

In Harbaugh's initial season, the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship game after winning at Miami (27-9) and at the AFC's top-seeded Tennessee, 13-10. Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens, 23-14, in the AFC title matchup. In 2009, Baltimore dominated at New England, 33-14, in the Wild Card game before dropping a 20-3 contest at Super Bowl-bound Indianapolis in the Divisional Round. (The victory at New England was the Patriots' first playoff loss at home since 1978.)

"I'm a football coach. That's what I wanted to be, and that's what I am. I'm excited to be the head coach of the Ravens. It's a big job that provides the opportunity to work with some outstanding people. I grew up as a coach's son, and I understand the core and fundamental principles that define a great football team. At the heart of football are three foundations: first is the team, second is the team and third is the team. We'll stick with that from beginning to end. We will take care of one another. We will stand shoulder to shoulder. We will push each other to the highest levels. We will lift each other up. Our style of play will be tough, fast, physical and smart."

– John Harbaugh

After earning a 12-4 mark in 2010, the Ravens won at Kansas City (30-7) in the Wild Card playoff. Baltimore then dropped a 31-24 Divisional Round contest at Pittsburgh, which advanced to the Super Bowl.

That first Harbaugh/Ravens team tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds by a head coach taking over a sub-.500 team. The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record following that campaign established a new league standard in this same category. With the 13 total victories in '08, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach starting a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco). In 2010, Harbaugh and Flacco once again set an NFL record when they became the first quarterback-head coach duo to start their NFL careers at the same time and lead a team to the postseason in each of their first three seasons.

JOHN HARBAUGH

Steve Bisciotti and John Harbaugh have helped lead the Ravens to three consecutive playoff seasons for the first time in franchise history.

Maintaining their strong defensive tradition, the Ravens have finished the past three seasons as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed). Those three years rank as the best scoring "D" span in team history. (Baltimore has also ranked in the top 10 in total defense eight straight seasons, producing second-, third- and 10th-overall rankings, respectively, from 2008-10.)

The Ravens' offense has also experienced successes during the Harbaugh Era. In 2010, Flacco became the franchise's all-time leading passer, finishing with career highs in passing yards (3,622) and TDs (25). Baltimore also ranked 16th in NFL scoring, averaging 22.3 points per game. In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's ninth best in scoring (24.4 ppg), up from 24th in 2007, while setting team records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22). In Harbaugh's first season in Baltimore (2008), the Ravens built a creative offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (148.5 ypg), first in time of possession (33:10) and 11th in points per game (24.1 ppg).

Impressively, the Ravens' top three records for fewest turnovers in a season have all occurred during Harbaugh's tenure. In 2010, the Ravens set a franchise single-season record for fewest turnovers (20), breaking the previous mark of 21 from John's first season in 2008. Baltimore also threw a franchise-low 10 INTs in 2010.

Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he states. "We want to become something. We seek the highest levels, and we want to stay there." His teams are balanced, disciplined and hard-nosed. "We want to be the most physical team, but we also want to be the cleanest. Hard-hitting and playing with physicality does not mean dirty," he adds.

Despite his early head-coaching success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome] and the scouts. It's about the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best," Harbaugh says.

Harbaugh, who established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches, is the third head coach in team history, following Ted Marchibroda (1996-98) and Brian Billick (1999-2007). Coach Harbaugh arrived in Baltimore with 24 years of pro and college coaching experience, including the previous 10 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He was the Eagles' special teams coach from 1998 through 2006 and headed Philly's secondary in 2007.

He was originally hired by then-head coach Ray Rhodes and, subsequently, was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999. Prior to hiring him, the Ravens talked with over 30 people about the energetic Harbaugh, who had never been a head coach nor an NFL offensive or defensive coordinator.

JOHN HARBAUGH

"Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. "We're totally confident we picked the right person."

Harbaugh's Philadelphia special teams were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, Philly's units finished in the top 10 in five of those seasons in The Dallas Morning News' comprehensive special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, the Eagles ranked No. 1 according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four years (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams units from 29th to first in the league. In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington.

With Harbaugh's help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the top two net punting averages (38.4 in '05 and 37.4 in '04) in Eagles history. Under coach Harbaugh, 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8 punt return average in 2005.

JOHN HARBAUGH

family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His brother Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was named the San Francisco 49ers' head coach in January 2011. (Their sister Joani is married to Indiana basketball coach Tom Crean.)

Among John's 27 years of coaching is a two-year stint as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati (1995-96). (The Bearcats finished 6-5 both seasons.) John coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the college level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the TEs at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried.

While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, TEs, OLBs, RBs and was also the recruiting coordinator. Over eight years, he recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR avg. in '95) and the second-ranked returner (Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR avg. in '93). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the DBs coach/special teams coordinator under Cam Cameron, the Ravens' current offensive coordinator, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the DBs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

Devoted to his family and his Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He's a board member for the Port Discovery Children's Museum and a significant contributor to All Pro Dads, along with numerous Baltimore-area events and charities.

Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award. He then earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan. John, who attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, his wife, Ingrid, and their daughter, Alison, live in Reisterstown, MD. Also a willing volunteer, Ingrid contributes to both the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House.

John Harbaugh delivers a game ball to General Raymond Odierno, whom Harbaugh met while on the USO Tour in 2009. General Odierno, who is the new Army Chief of Staff, has given motivational speeches to both Ravens players and staff members.

JERRY ROSBURG

ASST. HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORD.

COLLEGE: NORTH DAKOTA STATE

BORN: 11/24/55, FAIRMONT, MN

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 11/4

Jerry Rosburg, who joined the Ravens in 2008 as their special teams coordinator, added the assistant head coach role in Jan. 2009. The 33-year coaching veteran has guided a strong special teams group since arriving in Baltimore. The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular in 2010: K Billy Cundiff, who earned his first Pro Bowl, tied an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line), and P Sam Koch, a Pro Bowl first alternate, was second in the NFL with 39 punts inside the 20, just three short of the all-time NFL record. Rookie KOR David Reed led the NFL in KOR average (29.3 ypr), and the team ranked third in the league in opponent average starting field position (27.2-yard line). In the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, the 2010 Ravens were ranked eighth in the NFL, up from 18th the year before. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as the special teams measuring stick.) In 2009, Rosburg's unit ranked second in the league in kickoff return average (26.2), also setting a franchise record. In 2008, special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl, and Koch had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007) after a strong collegiate coaching career. In his year in Atlanta, the Rosburg-led Falcons' special teams units held a number of top 10 rankings. Also, under his leadership, the Browns' special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. Over a five-year span (2002-06), the Browns' special teams were ranked as the top NFL team in Gosselin's report. In their first year with Rosburg as their mentor, Koch (2008) and Atlanta's Michael Koenen (2007) each tallied their career-best gross and net punting averages.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) Ravens special teams units have been impressive under Rosburg's direction...K Billy Cundiff earned his first Pro Bowl in 2010, and special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl in 2008. 2010: Cundiff tied an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line)...P Sam Koch was the Pro Bowl first alternate, ranking second in the AFC with a 39.2 net punting average...Koch also tied a team mark with 39 punts inside the 20...Rookie KOR David Reed led the NFL in KOR average (29.3 ypr). 2009: Set a franchise record, ranking second in the NFL, by posting a 26.2-yard average on KORs...Also ranked fifth in the league in average starting field position (31.8)...Coverage units ranked fourth in opponent kickoff return average (20.3) and limited foes to an average starting line of 26.9 (second best in NFL). 2008: Koch set a Ravens' single-season record with the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9)...Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second with 34 punts inside the 20...He was ninth in gross punting average (45.0), which is also a franchise-season record.

2007: (with Atlanta) Under Rosburg, the kickoff team finished second in the NFL in opponents average starting field position (25.5)...Falcons KOR team was sixth in the league in KOR average

A REMARKABLE SEASON

In 2010, K. Billy Cundiff compiled one of the best seasons by a kicker in NFL history. Not only did his 40 touchbacks lead the league and tie for second most all time (from the 35- and 30-yard line starting points), but he also connected on 89.7% of his field goals and totaled a career-high 117 points.

Cundiff Quick Hits:

- Cundiff produced a touchback in 15 of 16 games in 2010.
- Cundiff owns the NFL record for single-season outdoor TBs (34).
- Cundiff tied Mitch Berger's NFL single-season record (1998) for TBs kicked from the 30-yard line (since 1994).

CAM CAMERON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: INDIANA

BORN: 2/6/61, CHAPEL HILL, NC

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 13/4

Cam Cameron, among the most respected and highly-regarded coordinators in the NFL, is in his fourth season leading the Ravens' offense. He has guided a unit that has made significant improvements during the John Harbaugh Era (2008-10). Over that span, the Ravens have rushed for 133.5 yards per game and scored 53 rushing TDs, both fifth most in the NFL. In addition, Baltimore, which set a team record with only 22 turnovers in 2010, has committed only 63 turnovers, tied for the NFL's third-fewest, since 2008. The team's 2008 first-round draft pick, QB Joe Flacco, became Baltimore's all-time leading passer in 2010 (878 of 1,416 for 10,206 yards, 60 TDs and an 87.9 rating). Among starting NFL QBs, Flacco is second (Peyton Manning, 38) with 36 wins (including playoffs) since 2008. In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's ninth best in scoring (24.4 ppg), up from 24th in 2007, also setting franchise records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22). Among other notable stats in 2009, Baltimore produced the top three offensive total yards games in team history. In his first season in Baltimore (2008), Cameron built a creative offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (148.5 ypg), first in time of possession (33:10) and 11th in points per game (24.1 ppg). Cameron brought his unique offensive mind to Baltimore after one year as the Miami Dolphins' head coach. His successful stints with the NFL's Chargers and Redskins and the NCAA's Indiana Hoosiers and Michigan Wolverines have been celebrated. While in San Diego, Cam was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowl QBs Drew Brees and Philip Rivers, RB LaDainian Tomlinson and TE Antonio Gates. During Cam's tenure (1984-93) as an assistant under Michigan's legendary head coach Bo Schembechler, the Wolverines won six Big Ten titles and played in 10 bowl games.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: QB Joe Flacco became the team's all-time passing leader (878 of 1,416 for 10,206 yards, 60 TDs and an 87.9 rating)... He set career season highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs, while only tossing 10 INTs...Ravens set a team record with only 22 turnovers...After finishing 2nd in '09, RB Ray Rice produced the NFL's third-most yards from scrimmage (1,776), averaging 111.0 per game. 2009: Ravens produced the top three offensive games in team history: 548 yards vs. Det., 501 vs. KC and 479 vs. Cle.... For the first time in history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Flacco, 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice, 1,339) and 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason 1,028) in the same season...The 391 points scored tied 2003 as the most in franchise history... Led by Flacco, Baltimore QBs set the team record for completion percentage (62.9)...Rice and FB Le'Ron McClain represented the Ravens' offense at the Pro Bowl. 2008: Chosen by head coach John Harbaugh to lead the offense...His unit was a significant contributor to the team being first in time of possession (33:10 avg.)...Helped guide rookie Flacco to a highly-acclaimed inaugural season...Flacco won the Diet Pepsi (fan vote) Rookie of the Year award...Ravens' 18.1 average margin of victory ranked second in the NFL... Baltimore's 24.1 points per game were second most in team history...Created an inventive offense that included WRs throwing TD passes, QBs catching passes and NTs lining up on offense

2.	New Orleans Tampa Bay	6
4.	Baltimore Indianapolis	5 5

Cameron Quick Hits:

- Over the final 12 games of the 2010 season (since Oct. 10), the Ravens averaged 24.7 points per game, the NFL's 10th most. During his time as coordinator (2008-10), Baltimore has posted at least 30 points on 17 different occasions and owns a 16-1 record in those games.
- In the 2010 Week 5 31-17 victory over Denver, the Ravens registered a season-high 415 total yards of offense (182 passing and 233 rushing). In Week 9 vs. Miami, Baltimore posted 402 total yards, marking the ninth time a Cam Cameron-led Ravens offense totaled at least 400 net yards in a game (8-1 in those contests).
- The Ravens have piled up at least 375 total net yards 12 times since 2008, producing an 11-1 record in those games.
- The Ravens have rushed for at least 190 yards nine times under Cameron, earning a 9-0 record. Baltimore is also 23-2 when rushing for at least 125 yards in a game (including 5-0 in 2010).

CHUCK PAGANO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: WYOMING
 BORN: 10/2/60, BOULDER, CO
 EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 10/4

Chuck Pagano, who spent three seasons as the Ravens' secondary coach, was named defensive coordinator in January, 2011. Pagano, Baltimore's fifth defensive coordinator in team history, leads a veteran group that finished 2010 as the NFL's 10th-ranked unit. The vaunted defense has finished as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) each of the past three seasons (2008-10). Baltimore has given up a league-low total of 16.1 points per game and permitted only 80 TDs (tied with Pit. for NFL best) in the last three years. As the team's secondary coach, Pagano led a defensive backfield that had to adjust to a number of injuries over the past three years, including a significant loss of seven-time Pro Bowl S Ed Reed, who started 2010 on the PUP list. Even after missing the first six games, Reed still led the league with 8 INTs in only 10 games. In Pagano's first season with the Ravens (2008), the team led the NFL with 26 INTs, including Reed's NFL-high 9 picks. Reed, the league's only unanimous (50 votes) All-Pro in 2008, was also coached by Pagano at the University of Miami. Reed grabbed a Miami career-record 21 INTs and blocked four punts in his four-year career under Pagano. Chuck coached the NFL's No. 1 pass defense at Oakland in 2006 and mentored outstanding secondaries in Cleveland and Miami, prior to joining the Ravens.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: Even though he missed his first six games on PUP list, S Ed Reed still led the NFL with 8 INTs, earning his seventh Pro Bowl invite...Baltimore's defense, which was tied for eighth with 19 INTs, finished No. 10 overall (318.9 ypg). 2009: Guided an injury-depleted secondary to a No. 8-overall ranking (tied) against the pass (207.3 ypg)...Defense ranked No. 3 overall (300.5 ypg), the seventh-straight top six finish...Reed earned his sixth Pro Bowl and added to his 13 career TDs by scoring on a 52-yard INT return vs. Cin. (10/11)...Defensive backs tallied 16 of the team's 22 INTs and Baltimore's turnover ratio (+10) was fourth best in the NFL. 2008: Secondary ranked No. 2 against the pass (175.5 ypg), improving dramatically from a No. 20 finish in 2007...Unit allowed only 179.7 yards per game... Reed was the NFL's only unanimous All-Pro selection...He led the NFL with 9 INTs and scored three defensive TDs, plus another (64-yard INT-TD) in the Wild Card victory at Miami (11/4/09)... Defense finished No. 2 overall (261.1 ypg).

2007: (with North Carolina) Posted a one-year stint as the defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach, where Pagano rejoined Butch Davis (Browns and Hurricanes)...Under Pagano, the defense improved from 92nd in 2006 to 35th in 2007.

2005-06: (with Oakland) Spent two seasons as the Raiders' defensive backs coach. 2006: Raiders led the NFL in pass defense, allowing just 150.8 yards per game, and ranked third in total defense, surrendering only 284.8 yards per contest...CB Nnamdi Asomugha was third in the NFL with 8 INTs.

TERYL AUSTIN

SECONDARY

COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH

BORN: 3/3/65, SHARON, PA

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 8/1

Teryl Austin was hired as the Ravens' secondary coach in January, 2011. A 20-year coaching veteran, including seven seasons as a defensive backs coach in the NFL with Arizona and Seattle, Austin had a one-year stint as the University of Florida's defensive coordinator/cornerbacks coach in 2010. Austin, who has mentored some of the NFL's top defensive backs with the Cardinals and Seahawks, helped guide both teams to recent Super Bowl appearances (Seattle in 2005 and Arizona in 2008). He has been successful coaching the secondary both at top collegiate programs and at the NFL level. While Austin was a senior (1987) safety at the University of Pittsburgh, Ravens head coach John Harbaugh was early in his coaching career, tutoring the Panthers' TEs.

2010: (with Florida) With Austin at the helm of Florida's defense, the Gators recorded 22 INTs, fourth most in the nation. Returning four of those thefts for TDs, Florida also produced the most INT return yards (538), while Ahmad Black ranked No. 1 individually with 171 yards...In conference games, the Gators led the SEC in total defense, yielding just 310.8 yards per game, including 175.5 through the air.

2007-09: (with Arizona) 2009: Three DBs earned the Pro Bowl: CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, S Antrel Rolle and S Adrian Wilson. 2008: Mentored 2008 first-round pick Rodgers-Cromartie, who led the Cardinals with 4 INTs in the regular season and added 2 more in the playoffs during Arizona's run to Super Bowl XLIII. 2007: Austin's secondary helped the Cardinals lead the NFL in INT-TDs (6) and in return yardage (551).

2003-06: (with Seattle) Played a key role in the development of the Seahawks' young secondary, which was comprised mostly of draft choices...Mentoring CB Marcus Trufant (first round, 2003), S Ken Hamlin (second round, 2003), S Michael Boulware (second round, 2004) and CB Kelly Jennings (first round, 2006), Seattle produced 67 INTs during Austin's four seasons, tying for the NFL's 10th most in that span.

1999-2002: (with Michigan) Defensive backs coach for the Wolverines...Mentored NFL talents Marlin Jackson and Cato June.

1996-98: (with Syracuse) Coached defensive backs...Guided a number of future NFL defenders including Will Allen, Keith Bulluck, Donovan Darius and Tebucky Jones.

1993-95: (with Wake Forest) Tutored defensive backs for the Demon Deacons.

1991-92: (with Penn State) Entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter and four-year letterman at Pittsburgh (1984-87), Austin earned his bachelor's degree in communications ('88).

PERSONAL: Austin attended training camps of the Washington Redskins and Hamilton Tiger-Cats (CFL) before playing for the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football in 1991...Attended Sharon (PA) high school...Austin and his wife, April, have five children: sons Tyler, Trey and Torin, and daughters Alexa and Alivia.

Clarence Brooks was one of six assistant coaches retained by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008. "C.B." is in his seventh year with the team guiding the Ravens' tough defensive line. The Brooks-led defensive front produced a second-straight Pro Bowl for standout DT Haloti Ngata in 2010. Led by Ngata and the D-line, the 2010 season marked the fifth consecutive campaign that the Ravens have ranked in the top five in rushing defense (2006-10). The unit's five rushing TDs allowed tied (Pittsburgh) for fewest in NFL. The Baltimore "D" also allowed the league's third-fewest points per game (16.9). In 2009, the Ravens were the NFL's stingiest defense against the run, allowing 3.4 yards per rush. The defense also finished as the NFL's fifth-best against the run (93.3) and allowed the league's third-fewest points per game (16.3) for the third straight season. The defense has been ranked in the top 10 in total yards allowed in each of Brooks' six full seasons in Baltimore (2005-10). In his second year (2006), the defense ranked No. 1 (264.1 ypg), while finishing second overall in 2008 (261.1 ypg). Prior to his 2005 arrival in Baltimore, Brooks coached successful NFL D-line units in Miami, Cleveland and Chicago. He was also instrumental in the notable "Desert Swarm" defense at the University of Arizona, which led the nation in scoring defense in 1992.

2005-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: Led by DT Haloti Ngata, who earned his second-straight Pro Bowl, D-line helped the team allow only 16.9 points per game, the NFL's third-best mark...Five rushing TDs permitted tied (Pittsburgh) for NFL's fewest...2010 season marked the fifth consecutive campaign that the Ravens have ranked in the top five in rushing defense. 2009: Defense ranked No. 3 overall (300.5 ypg) and fifth against the run (93.3 ypg)...Ravens allowed an NFL-best 3.4 yards per rush and the third-fewest points per game (16.3). 2008: Defense ranked second overall and third against the run, all without the team's second all-time tackler and starting NT Kelly Gregg, who missed the entire season due to a knee injury... Ngata was a second-team Associated Press All-Pro and Pro Bowl first alternate...Top reserve DE Dwan Edwards also spent the year on IR (back)...DT Justin Bannan filled in admirably for Gregg, posting a career-high 56 tackles and his first-career INT...Team did not allow a 100-yard rusher, extending the streak to 35 straight games. 2007: Defense ranked second against the rush and sixth overall in total defense...The dynamic duo of Gregg (111) and Ngata (94) notched 205 tackles, surpassing DEs Michael McCrary (103) and Rob Burnett's (97) team-record 200 by a D-line tandem in 2000...Gregg made a career-high 111 tackles, adding three sacks, while earning his second-straight USA Today All-Joe honor...Ngata, in his second year, produced another stellar season with career highs in tackles (94) and sacks (3), also making the All-Joe Team. 2006: Defense ranked first in points allowed per game (12.6)...Baltimore was also first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first inside the 20 (33.3% TDs allowed); allowed the fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs (236); first in take-away/giveaway ratio (+17); and second in sacks (60 to SD's 61)...DE Trevor Pryce registered 13 sacks to lead the

COLLEGE: PENN STATE

BORN: 7/22/56, GREAT BARRINGTON, MA

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 28/4

John "Mother" Dunn was named assistant strength and conditioning coach by head coach John Harbaugh in February of 2008. Having built a reputation for producing some of the strongest and best-conditioned players in the NFL, John was voted by his peers as the NFL's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 1994, while with San Diego. Dunn has 24 years of professional coaching experience and an uncanny knack for getting players to buy in to his programs. Dunn's energetic, open-minded approach to conditioning keeps him receptive to and researching for new training protocols.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) Assisted Bob Rogucki in instituting the Baltimore Ravens Competition Day, an offseason event where players participate in different strength-related competitions...Over 50 players take part each year in the Ravens' voluntary offseason training program.

2007: (with Army) Served a brief stint with the Black Knights, after being recruited in December, but signed with Harbaugh and the Ravens (2/12/08).

2004-05: (with Washington) Tabbed by head coach Joe Gibbs for a second time (1984-86) as head strength and conditioning coach.

1997-2003: (with NY Giants) Spent seven years as the Giants' head strength and conditioning coach... Players experienced minimal injuries under Dunn's guidance and were well prepared to stay healthy throughout the season. 2001: Introduced mandatory yoga classes to the team to provide flexibility, breathing, concentration exercises and diversity. 2000: Highlights included winning the NFC Championship and advancing to Super Bowl XXXV against the Ravens. 1999: Offered martial arts as part of the players' training regimen.

1990-96: (with San Diego) Three of Dunn's assistants from the Chargers went on to become head strength coaches in the NFL: Chris Clawson (L.A. Rams), former Raven Chip Morton (Bengals) and John Hastings (Redskins).

1994: Was part of their championship run, as the Chargers advanced to play San Francisco in Super Bowl XXIX...Voted by his peers as the NFL's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year.

1987-89: (with L.A. Raiders) 1987: Hired and posted a three-year stint to lead the Raiders' strength and conditioning program.

1984-86: (with Washington) 1984: Hired and served as assistant strength and conditioning coach under Joe Gibbs in Dunn's first NFL position.

COLLEGE: Played defensive line at Penn State for two seasons before switching to the O-line for his junior and senior years...Named one of the Nittany Lions' co-captains as a senior...Graduated with a degree in health and physical education... Now in his 13th season as the Ravens' tight ends coach, Wade Harman is the only remaining coach from Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV-winning team. He was one of six assistants retained by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008. Under Harman's guidance, Pro Bowl TE Todd Heap became the team's all-time leader in receptions, yards and receiving TDs in 2005 (Derrick Mason is current leader in receptions and yards). From 2002-10, Heap caught the fifth-most receptions (451) and receiving yards (5,286) and the fourth-most TDs (40) among NFL tight ends. Historically, Heap is 12th on the NFL's all-time receptions list for TEs. Soon after joining the Ravens in 1999, Harman coached Hall of Fame TE Shannon Sharpe (2000-01), who signed with Baltimore as a free agent and helped the team win the Super Bowl. The Ravens' longest-tenured coach has also tutored a number of young players, including Baltimore's '10 draft picks Ed Dickson and Dennis Pitta. Harman entered the NFL ranks in 1997 as a coaching assistant for the Minnesota Vikings.

1999-2010: (with Baltimore) 2010: Veteran TE Todd Heap (No. 12 overall) has been steadily climbing the NFL's all-time receptions (467) chart among TEs. 2009: Heap turned in another solid season, finishing as the team's third-leading receiver (53-593) and second in receiving TDs (6)...Against Denver (11/1), Heap became the 23rd TE in NFL history to record 400 catches in a career (he's one of six active TEs with at least 400)...Ravens were NFL's ninth-best scoring team (24.4 ppg). 2008: Heap started all 16 games and finished third on team in receiving (35-403)...Ravens led NFL in time of possession (33:10) and were second in average margin of victory (18.1). 2007: The injury-depleted offense ranked 22nd overall in the league and started three different QBs – also because of injuries...Heap (thigh) missed six games...By Week 17, there were five TEs listed on the roster...Quinn Sypniewski, who started nine of 15 games subbing for Heap and Dan Wilcox, ranked fourth on the team in receptions (34-246). 2006: Heap completed a Pro Bowl-deserving season, ranking first on the team (73-765) and posting a team-best 6 TDs...Wilcox started six of 14 games (20-166) and caught a career-high three TDs...Sypniewski was instrumental in pass protection, with the Ravens allowing just 17 sacks all season (second-lowest total in the NFL). 2005: Heap became the Ravens' all-time receiving leader in receptions, yards and receiving TDs...Voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, Heap was third among active NFL TEs in catches and yards from 2002-05 (behind Tony Gonzalez and Jeremy Shockey)...He ranked second in the AFC in third-down receptions, behind WR Derrick Mason's 30...The tandem of Mason and Heap formed the hottest WR/TE combination in the NFL with 161 receptions, leading all duos in that category...Finished third in the NFL among TEs (75-855), posting 7 TDs (behind Antonio Gates and Gonzalez). 2004: The Ravens struggled all season with injuries to key Pro Bowl-type players, especially on offense...Heap missed 10 games and most of two others, but still managed to lead Ravens TEs (27-303 and 3 TDs)...LT Jonathan Ogden missed four games...C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games of the season, but returned to start four games at RG and one at center. 2003: Heap led the team in receptions for the second

WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: INDIANA UNIV. OF PENNSYLVANIA

BORN: 11/7/66, PITTSBURGH, PA

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 12/4

Jim Hostler is in his fourth year as the team's wide receivers coach. Hostler, a former NFL offensive coordinator, guides a unit that includes veterans Anquan Boldin and Derrick Mason. Added to the mix after a trade with the Arizona Cardinals in '10, Boldin made an immediate impact on the team. In Week 3, he became the fastest player in NFL history to record 600 career receptions (98 games). In 2010, Mason, who ranks 12th on the NFL's all-time receptions list (924), became the third player in NFL history to record at least 60 catches in 11 consecutive seasons, joining Hall of Famer Jerry Rice and Falcons TE Tony Gonzalez. The previous year (2009), Mason, the Ravens' all-time receptions (471) and receiving yards leader (5,777), became the 16th player in NFL history to post 850 receptions. He also became the 23rd NFL player to reach 11,000 receiving yards. Hostler arrived in Baltimore in 2008 after a three-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers, serving as offensive coordinator in his final year (2007). As WRs coach for the New York Jets (2004) and assistant WRs coach for the Saints (2001-02), the gifted former college cornerback helped develop players like Santana Moss, Wayne Chrebet, Justin McCareins and Donte' Stallworth.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: WR Anquan Boldin became the fastest player in NFL history to record 600 career receptions (98 games) in the Week 3 game against Cleveland...After his performance, Boldin won the AFC Player of the Week award, the first Ravens WR to earn the honor since 1999...WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL history to record at least 60 catches in 11 consecutive seasons, joining Hall of Famer Jerry Rice and Falcons TE Tony Gonzalez. 2009: In his 200th career game, Mason became the 16th player in NFL history to post 850 receptions...He led the team with 7 receiving TDs, while recording his eighth 1,000-yard receiving season...The go-to wideout also tallied the fourth-most yards on third down (347) in the NFL. 2008: Mason turned in another stellar season, leading the team with 80 catches for 1,037 yards and 5 TDs...He also surpassed 10,000 career receiving yards and extended his consecutive games played mark to 106 (which stands at 138 entering 2011)...Versatile WR Mark Clayton caught 3 TDs, including a 70-yarder, and threw a 32-yard pass to Mason.

2005-07: (with San Francisco) 2007: Hostler was promoted to offensive coordinator after extensive work on offense and strong tutoring of 2005 No. 1 overall pick QB Alex Smith...Smith battled through injuries and started seven games before being placed on IR (shoulder). 2006: Smith became the franchise's first QB to take every snap in the regular season...Engineered a fourth-quarter comeback with 2 TD passes and an 18-yard TD run at Seattle (12/14) in a nationally-televised 24-14 win...Finished with single-season career highs in three categories: attempts (442), completions (257) and yards (2,890). 2005: Hostler was hired as QBs coach by Mike Nolan, then-49ers head coach and former Ravens defensive coordinator...Smith amassed 875 yards (84-of-165 passing) in his seven starts (nine games played) as a rookie.

Marwan Maalouf is in his fourth season as the Ravens' assistant special teams coach. In 2008, Maalouf rejoined special teams coordinator/assistant head coach Jerry Rosburg, for whom he worked in Cleveland for three years. The Ravens' special teams units have been impressive under their guidance: In the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, the 2010 Ravens were ranked eighth in the NFL, up from 18th the year before. (Gosselin's comprehensive report is recognized by NFL teams as the special teams measuring stick.) In 2009, Baltimore was second in the NFL both in kickoff return average (26.3) and in opponents' average starting position (26.9). Maalouf is also an experienced personnel evaluator and teacher whose expertise assists Rosburg in creating special teams schemes.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: Special teams units were ranked eighth in Rick Gosselin's (The Dallas Morning News) reputable annual special teams report...K Billy Cundiff earned his first Pro Bowl after tying an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line)...P Sam Koch, a Pro Bowl first alternate, was second in the NFL with 39 punts inside the 20, just three short of the all-time NFL record...Rookie KOR David Reed led the NFL in KOR average (29.3 ypr), and the team ranked third in the league in opponent average starting field position (27.2-yard line). 2009: Ravens were second in the NFL in kickoff return average (26.2), while holding opponents to a 20.3 avg....Coverage units also limited foes to an average starting yard line of 26.9 (second best in NFL). 2008: Special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo earned his third Pro Bowl, and Koch had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9), setting a Ravens' record... Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second with 34 inside the 20.

2007: Worked for Scouts Inc., writing weekly scouting reports and game previews for ESPN.com... Also served as a volunteer coach for Baldwin-Wallace, working primarily with O-line.

2004-06: (with Cleveland) 2006: Special teams finished with a No. 5-overall rating in The Dallas Morning News' annual special teams poll... Spent his third season with the Browns, including his third as quality control coach with an emphasis on special teams...RS Joshua Cribbs finished third in NFL with 1,545 total return yards... Browns boasted a 10.3-yard punt return average, seventh in the NFL. 2005: Cleveland's punt return unit ranked fourth in the league with a 10.1 average... Team earned a No. 6-overall ranking in Gosselin's report. 2004: Joined the Browns as a scouting administrator and was responsible for film breakdown and game-planning, as well as college and pro scouting.

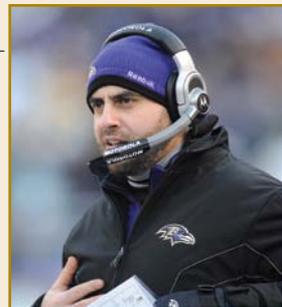

2002-03: (with Rutgers) Spent two seasons at Rutgers as an assistant offensive line coach and assisted in all phases of special teams... Under the Scarlet Knights' offensive coordinator and current Ravens offensive assistant/quarterbacks, Craig Ver Steeg, Maalouf coached the unit with current Florida International head coach Mario Cristobal.

2002: (with Eastern Michigan University) Held a graduate assistant post, but left after the spring to join the Rutgers' coaching staff.

2001: (with Fordham University) Assistant O-line coach for the Rams.

2010 SPECIAL TEAMS

These groups were spectacular. Pro Bowl K Billy Cundiff tied an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to 30-yard line). He also converted 26 of 29 FGs. P Sam Koch, a first-alternate to the Pro Bowl, was second in the NFL with 39 punts inside the 20, just 3 short of the all-time NFL record. KOR David Reed, who missed the last two games of the season, led the league with a 29.3 KOR average. The Ravens' kick coverage unit was second in the NFL (23.7-yard line). Baltimore finished among the top six in three other important special teams categories: net punting (fourth), FG percentage (sixth) and KOR average (sixth).

PINNING 'EM DEEP

In 2010's Week 7 game vs. Buffalo, P Sam Koch became the Ravens' all-time leader in punts inside the 20 (has 149 entering 2011). In 2010, the five-year veteran posted 39 boots inside the 20, second most in the NFL and tied for sixth best all time.

Andy Moeller was promoted to offensive line coach in January, 2011. He spent his first three seasons as the team's assistant offensive line coach. Injuries in 2010 reshuffled the O-line, but it still protected QB Joe Flacco, who set career highs, including a single-season team record for passer rating (93.6). In 2009, the Ravens set a team record with 22 rushing TDs and also tallied Baltimore's three best offensive total yards games. In 2008, Baltimore was the NFL's fourth-ranked rushing team (148.5). Moeller entered the NFL ranks in 2008 after coaching Michigan's offensive line the previous six years, where he tutored two All-Americans: C David Baas (2004) and T Jake Long (2006-07), the first-overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft by Miami. Under Moeller, Michigan dominated the All-Big Ten selections list for O-linemen, and many of his pupils moved on to successful NFL careers. In four out of five seasons, Moeller's offensive line helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher, twice by 2003 Doak Walker Award winner Chris Perry (2002-03) and a pair of Michigan's top-10 season rushing performances from Mike Hart (2004, 2006). In 2004, the Wolverines' line was anchored by Baas, the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy (the nation's outstanding center). Baas was joined by teammates RG Matt Lantz and LT Adam Stenavich on the first-team All-Big Ten squad.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: Hampered by injuries, the re-shuffled O-line protected QB Joe Flacco, who set career highs in passing yards (3,622) and TDs (25) and a single-season team record for passer rating (93.6). 2009: Baltimore was the NFL's ninth-best scoring team (24.4

ppg)...Standout T Michael Oher was named to the All-Rookie Team. 2008: Ravens were the only NFL team to have a player with over 450 (Ray Rice), 650 (Willis McGahee) and 900 (Le'Ron McClain) rushing yards...Team permitted only 33 sacks, second fewest in team history...Helped guide the NFL's youngest starting O-line and dealt with injuries that eventually broke up the opening day lineup.

2000-07: (with Michigan) 2007: From 2004-07, 11 of 25 All-Big Ten first-team selections along the O-line were Wolverines...Michigan was the only team to have multiple first-team All-Conference selections during that five-year stretch. 2004: O-line was anchored by C David Baas, the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy as the nation's outstanding center...Baas earned consensus All-America honors and was named the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year after switching from guard to center...RG Matt Lantz and LT Adam Stenavich received All-Big Ten first-team honors, with RT Jake Long collecting second-team accolades. 2003: O-line was among the nation's best, balancing a strong running game led by All-America tailback Chris Perry and the passing arm of All-Big Ten first-team QB John Navarre...Offense set school records for total offensive plays (1,014) and yards (5,807)... Moeller's O-line helped pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in five out of six years: twice by 2003 Doak Walker Award winner Perry (2002-03) and three times by Michigan's all-time leading rusher Mike Hart (2004, 2006-07). 2002: Named offensive line coach. 2001: As Wolverines OTs/TEs coach, Moeller led another strong group...TEs unit

GAME DAY

Wilbert Montgomery is in his fourth year as the Ravens' running backs coach. Montgomery has 24 years of NFL experience (nine as a player) and has built an impressive track record in his 15 years of coaching. Led by Pro Bowler Ray Rice, Baltimore's backs have been stellar over the last few years under Montgomery's guidance. In 2010, Rice posted the NFL's third most yards from scrimmage (1,776), also third most in Ravens history. In 2009, the Ravens' run game set a team record with 22 rushing TDs, while earning a No. 5 NFL ranking (137.5 ypg). In his first two years, Montgomery guided a superb group of rushers, including Ray Rice ('09) and Le'Ron McClain ('08-09) to Pro Bowl seasons. Rice was one of two NFL players to record 2,000 yards from scrimmage (2,041), ranking second in the NFL with 127.6 net yards per game. His scrimmage yards also ranked second in Ravens single-season history. Another Ravens Pro Bowler, Willis McGahee, scored a team-high 12 rushing TDs (14 overall) in 2009. Montgomery's rushing unit ranked No. 4 in the NFL in 2008, producing 148.5 rushing yards per game. The former Eagles' star rusher joined the Ravens in 2008 after two seasons with the Detroit Lions (preceded by nine stellar seasons with the St. Louis Rams). Montgomery helped construct one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, when the Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense on the road to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV (1999). From 1999-2001, St. Louis became the only NFL team to amass at least 500 points in three-consecutive seasons (526 in '99, 540 in '00 and 503 in '01).

2008-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: RB Ray Rice compiled the NFL's third-most scrimmage yards (1,776)...Total was also third most in Ravens history...Rice (63) was one of three Ravens to catch over 60 passes. 2009: Ravens were NFL's fifth-ranked run team (137.5 ypg), and the 22 rushing TDs bested 2008's 20 as the most in team history...Rice earned his first Pro Bowl after tallying 2,041 yards from scrimmage (second in NFL and second in Ravens single-season history)...Rice became one of only eight players in NFL history to produce 1,000 rushing yards and 700 receiving yards in a season... FB Le'Ron McClain's steady season secured a second-straight Pro Bowl berth...RB Willis McGahee scored a team-high 12 rushing TDs (14 overall, tying a franchise record). 2008: Guided a Ravens' run game that improved from a No. 16 NFL ranking in 2007 to a No. 4 ranking in 2008... McClain earned his first Pro Bowl after a 902-yard, 10-TD season...McClain also was honored as an Associated Press All-Pro...He teamed with McGahee (671 rush yards) and the rookie Rice (454 yards) to become the only NFL team with a trio of RBs with over 450, 600 and 900 yards... Run game was a key factor in the team leading the NFL in time of possession (33:10)...Team's 592 rushing attempts were an NFL season high, while Baltimore's 132 rushing first downs were also the league's second most.

2006-07: (with Detroit) Injuries to running backs forced Montgomery to work with a total of five different starters, including three in 2007. 2006: Helped RB Kevin Jones evolve into one of the 1997-2005: (with St. Louis) During his tenure, Wilbert helped cultivate two of the league's elite RBs: Marshall Faulk and Steven Jackson. 2005: Coached Jackson to his first 1,000-yard season...Jackson finished with 1,046 yards and 8 TDs on 254 attempts (4.1 avg.) while emerging as one of the bright young stars in the NFL under Montgomery's tutelage. 2004: Wilbert teamed Jackson, in his rookie year, with Faulk, to form a dynamic RB tandem, combining for nearly 1,500 rushing yards...Jackson finished third among NFL rookies with 673 rushing yards and 4 TDs on 134 attempts (5.0 avg.). 2003: Switched back to coaching RBs. 2000-02: Coached the Rams' TEs. 1999: Rams acquired a Pro Bowler in Faulk, who posted his first 1,000-yard receiving season... Also compiled an NFL-record 2,429 yards from scrimmage and was named NFL Offensive Player of the Year...Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense (fifth in rushing) on the way to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV. 1997: Hired as RBs coach.

NFL PLAYER (1977-85): Montgomery was one of the NFL's premier running backs in his nine-year professional career...In eight seasons with Philadelphia, he virtually rewrote the Eagles' record books...Montgomery was an inaugural inductee of the Eagles' Honor Roll in 1987. 1985: (with Det.) Played his final season with the Detroit Lions. 1977-1984: (with Phi.) Holds the Eagles' franchise record in six rushing categories: career rushing yards (6,538), career rushing attempts (1,465), yards in a season (1,512 in 1979), career 100-yard rushing games (26), 100-yard rushing games in a season (8 in 1981) and rushing TDs in a game (3, tied with many players). 1981: Recorded 1,402 yards on the season (nearly five yards per carry). 1980: Earned All-Pro honors, but was hampered by injuries and was questionable for the NFC Championship game, but did play...On the Eagles' second offensive play – a hand-off by QB Ron Jaworski – Wilbert sped 42 yards to the end zone for a TD...Gained a total of 194 yards in that game, leading the Eagles to their first Super Bowl (XV). 1979: Led the NFL in combined yards from scrimmage with 2,012, garnering his second-consecutive Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. 1978: Gained 1,220 yards on 259 attempts, scoring 9 TDs...Earned first Pro Bowl. 1977: Spent rookie season returning kickoffs, leading the NFC (26.9-yard avg.)...Notched a 99-yard TD...Selected by the Eagles in the sixth round (154th overall).

COLLEGE: A four-year starting RB who set the NAIA record for career TDs with 76...Set the record for TDs by a freshman (37, 1973), leading the Wildcats to the NAIA Division I National Championship...Lettered in track as sprinter... Inducted into College Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

PERSONAL: Attended Greenville (MS) HS...One of four brothers with NFL experience: Cleotha (Cin., Cle. and Oak./LA), Tyrone (Oak.) and Fred (KC and Phi.)...Wilbert and his wife, Patti, have three children: twins, Brendan and Briana, and a son, Tavian...Montgomery also has a daughter, Sherrita, and a son, Derron.

ALL-PURPOSE BACK

In 2010, RB Ray Rice led the team with 1,220 rushing yards and was second with 63 receptions (for 556 yards). He produced the NFL's third-most yards from scrimmage (1,776), while his 370 total touches ranked third. Rice was the only NFL player with at least 250 total touches who did not fumble in 2010.

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: BOWLING GREEN

BORN: 9/4/49, DUNKIRK, OH

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 8/2

Dean Pees is in his second season as the Ravens' linebackers coach. Pees guides one of the NFL's premier linebacking units, led by Pro Bowlers Ray Lewis and Terrell Suggs. In his 15th season (2010), Lewis further solidified his place in NFL history, earning his 12th Pro Bowl invite, while leading the team with 145 tackles. Ray's the only NFL player ever to record at least 35 career sacks and 30 INTs. Suggs also made another trip to the Pro Bowl, earning his fourth-career nod. Ravens allowed the league's third fewest points (16.9 ppg) for the third straight season (2008-10). Pees arrived in Baltimore after a six-year stint with the New England Patriots, serving as defensive coordinator the final four seasons (2006-09). During his tenure guiding the defense, the Patriots were the only NFL team to finish in the top 10 in scoring defense (points allowed) in four consecutive seasons. New England's unit also allowed less than 20 points per game in every season under Pees' guidance. His coaching credentials include six years (1998-2003) as head coach at Kent State and 15 seasons as a defensive coordinator on the collegiate level, including the 1983 season when he coached Ravens head coach John Harbaugh at Miami (OH).

2010: (with Baltimore) Ravens allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (16.9 ppg) for the third consecutive season...LBs Ray Lewis (12th) and Terrell Suggs (fourth) earned a trip to the Pro Bowl...Lewis led the team with 145 tackles, and Suggs posted a team-leading 11 sacks.

2004-09: (with New England) 2009: Pees led the Patriots' defense that ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense (320.2 ypg) and fifth in scoring defense (17.8 points per game). 2008: New England's defensive unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing just 309.9 yards per contest... Patriots surrendered 19.3 points per game and earned an 11-5 record despite using 22 different starters on defense. 2007: NE's defense contributed to the first 16-0 regular season in NFL history...Defense allowed 274 points (17.4 ppg) and ranked fourth in the NFL in yards per game (288.3), which were the fewest permitted by a Patriots' defense in 28 years...NE finished second in the league with 47 sacks and sent three starters to the Pro Bowl (LB Mike Vrabel, NT Vince Wilfork and CB Asante Samuel). 2006: In his first season as defensive coordinator, Pees' defense set a franchise record for points allowed per game (14.8), which was second in the NFL...Defense also tied for fourth in the NFL in takeaways (+8). 2005: Tutored a linebackers' unit that featured three of the defense's top five tacklers and accounted for 22 of the team's 33 sacks. 2004: In his first NFL season, Pees mentored a linebacker group that produced three of the team's top four tacklers...Defense ranked sixth in the NFL against the run, while the linebackers recorded 27.5 sacks...Tedy Bruschi finished second on the team with 128 tackles and earned his first Pro Bowl selection, while Willie McGinest paced the defense with 9.5 sacks.

1998-2003: (with Kent State) Named head coach in 1998. 2002: QB Joshua Cribbs – current standout for the Cleveland Browns – became only the second player in NCAA history with two "double" (passing/rushing) 1,000-yard seasons

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: GLENVILLE STATE
 BORN: 9/27/53, CLARKSBURG, WV
 EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 21/4

Bob Rogucki (pronounced row-GUS-key) is in his fourth year as the Ravens' head strength and conditioning coach. Rogucki is a 37-year coaching veteran, who has 21 years experience as a strength and conditioning coach in the NFL. His philosophy is to direct a training regimen specific to the game of football involving protocols that build both muscular strength and endurance. Rogucki works with every player and believes strength and conditioning is the basis of success for a team. Time-honored strengthening philosophies and hard work prevail in the weight room, but Rogucki makes the program competitive, challenging and fun for the players. His track record shows that he has a reputation for getting players to buy in to his programs.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) Joined the Ravens coaching staff as the team's head strength and conditioning coach in 2008...Instituted the Baltimore Ravens Competition Day, an off-season event where players participate in different strength-related competitions...Over 50 players annually take part in the team's voluntary off-season strength and conditioning program.

2006-07: (with Philadelphia) Spent two seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with Ravens head coach John Harbaugh, who coached the special teams and secondary.

2005: Was the director of fitness at Sports & Field, one of the premier athletic performance training facilities, based in Wesley Chapel, FL.

2004: (with Jacksonville) Posted a one-year stint as the assistant strength coach for the Jaguars.

1990-2003: (with Arizona) Spent 12 years as strength and conditioning coach...Enhanced the team's weight room to include a wide variety of equipment and implemented a strength and conditioning program that trains the entire body. 1990: Launched his NFL coaching career with the Cardinals.

1983-1989: (with Army) Managed the strength and conditioning and the speed development programs for all varsity sports, under stringent guidelines mandated by service academy regulations.

1982: (with Weber State) Strength coach.

CRAIG VER STEEG

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/QUARTERBACKS

COLLEGE: USC

BORN: 9/11/60, REDONDO BEACH, CA

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 6/4

Craig Ver Steeg (pronounced ver-STEGG) is in his fourth year with the Ravens, after joining the team as offensive assistant, adding quarterbacks to his role in 2011. Ver Steeg, who has 28 years of coaching experience, has established himself as an elite coach of quarterbacks, receivers and running backs. He works closely with offensive coordinator Cam Cameron in guiding the team's quarterbacks. He also assists the offensive coaching staff to help make sure players are fully prepped both for fast-paced practices and on game days. Baltimore's offense has made significant strides since the Cameron-led offensive coaching staff joined the team. A longtime collegiate coach, Ver Steeg guided two current NFL players who benefited under his tutelage on the college level: RB Ray Rice (Ravens) and QB Alex Smith (49ers). Ver Steeg's knowledge and experience are invaluable assets to the continued development of the Ravens' offense.

2008-10: (with Baltimore) 2010: Worked closely with Cam Cameron in helping progress a balanced offense...QB Joe Flacco set career highs with 3,622 yards, 25 TDs and a 93.6 passer rating. 2009: Assisted the offense with game preparation for a unit that was the NFL's ninth-best in scoring (24.4 ppg), also setting team records for most total TDs (47) and most rushing TDs (22)...Baltimore also produced the top three offensive games in team history: 548 yards vs. Det., 501 vs. KC and 479 vs. Cle. and ranked fifth overall in rushing yardage (137.5 ypg). 2008: Baltimore finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards (148.5 ypg) and 11th in points per game (24.1)...Ravens led the NFL in time of possession (33:10 avg.) and their 18.1 margin of victory ranked second.

2003-07: (with Rutgers) Ver Steeg tutored some of the most productive players in school history. 2007: Served as RBs coach and guided Ravens 2008 second-round draft pick, All-American RB Ray Rice, who rushed for a school-record 2,012 yards and 24 TDs on 380 carries (154.8 ypg)... Part of an offensive unit that produced 456.3 net yards per game...Scarlet Knights averaged 198.0 rushing yards per game...Rice finished his career holding several Rutgers records, including career yards rushing (4,926), career rushing TDs (49) and single-game rushing yards (280); became the 13th player in NCAA history to gain more than 2,000 rushing yards in a season...Was also a Doak Walker Award finalist (nation's top running back) and earned team MVP honors for the second straight year. 2006: Rutgers rushing attack ranked 15th in the country, averaging 180.2 yards per game...Scarlet Knights also produced 29.8 points per game, ranking 22nd among Division I teams. 2005: Rutgers was second in the Big East in both total offense (406.3 ypg) and passing (234.6 ypg). 2004: Scarlet Knights boasted the nation's No. 6 overall and Big East's top-ranked passing attack (310.5 ypg)...Rutgers also finished third in the Big East in total offense (407.7 ypg). 2003: As offensive coordinator (2003-06), oversaw a unit that scored 329 points, the fifth-highest point total in school history...Scarlet Knights produced 4,423 total yards of offense, fifth-most in Rutgers annals... Also coached Rutgers QBs (2003-06)...In dual roles, he tutored QB Ryan Hart, who established nearly every school passing mark in three starting seasons...Hart's career records include: passing yards (8,482), attempts (1,217), completions (735) and TDs (52).

Pat Moriarty, the team's vice president of football administration, has been a key part of the franchise since 1994. A longtime member of the Ravens' personnel staff, Moriarty was one of the NFL's original capologists. He is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Ravens' salary cap. Moriarty's NFL career began as a rookie free agent RB for the Browns in 1979. The Cleveland native negotiates all of the Ravens' player contracts, oversees salary cap administration, roster management and the day-to-day operations of the player personnel department. Moriarty is the key liaison with the NFL Management Council and Players Association. Over the course of 18 years, Moriarty has negotiated player contracts totaling over $1 billion. He has negotiated contracts for 18 Ravens first-round draft choices, as well as numerous free agents. He also analyzes draft-day trades during the NFL selection process each spring. Moriarty works closely with GM Ozzie Newsome in many areas, including helping to coordinate the budgets of the scouting, coaching, equipment, football video, training, and strength and conditioning departments. In 2008, Moriarty was part of an eight-member committee to select head coach John Harbaugh.

Joe Hortiz is in his third year as the Ravens' director of college scouting, after being promoted in January 2009. Hortiz spent eight years as a scout for Baltimore, covering the Northeast and Southeast regions before becoming a national scout for three seasons (2006-08). He directs the Ravens' college scouting process, coordinating the schedules and cross-checking duties of the area scouts. Hortiz also manages the team's draft preparation and the evaluation and ranking process of hundreds of NFL draft-eligible prospects. In 2007, Baltimore selected Auburn G Ben Grubbs (29th overall), who was scouted by the fellow Auburn alum Hortiz, a national scout at the time. A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club," (see below), Hortiz originally joined Baltimore as a personnel assistant in 1998.

1998-2011: (with Baltimore) 2011: Selected CB Jimmy Smith (Colorado) and WR Torrey Smith (Maryland) in the first two rounds. 2010: Ravens drafted contributors DT Terrence Cody, TE Ed Dickson and WR/RS David Reed, who had the NFL's longest KOR (103 yards) and set a franchise record in 2010. 2009: Promoted to director of college scouting after eight years as a college scout...In Hortiz's first draft as head of college scouting, Baltimore selected All-Rookie team performer T Michael Oher (Mississippi) with the 23rd-overall selection and key contributor CB/RS Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State). 2008: Scouted players across the country, with a primary focus on the eastern half, where seven of 10 Ravens draft picks were selected in the '08 NFL Draft... Was invited to introduce Grubbs at the Ravens Roost No. 7's annual Extra Effort Award banquet in April. 2007: Team's first-round draft pick Grubbs was selected from Joe's focus area and attended his alma mater. 2006: Promoted to national scout...Was tasked with covering the eastern half of the country, including the Big East, Big Ten, MAC, ACC, SEC and Conference USA. 2003-05: Served as Ravens Southeast area scout and covered the SEC, ACC and C-USA. 2001-02: Scouted the Northeast. 1998-2000: Worked both with the pro and college scouting staffs as a football personnel assistant...Responsibilities included assisting GM Ozzie Newsome and vice president of football administration Pat Moriarty, who manages the salary cap, and performing "the box" workout at schools across the country for three spring seasons.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: While earning his B.S. in accounting from Auburn, Joe was an undergraduate assistant coach for Terry Bowden and the Tigers' football team from 1995-97...Worked with both the QBs and WRs and also coached the scout team LBs and secondary... Also coordinated Auburn's summer football camps...Son of Joe and Marlene Hortiz, Joe attended Salesianum (Wilmington, DE) HS...He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Joey (4) and Jack (3).

THE "20/20 CLUB"

The Ravens' "20/20 Club" includes members of the team's personnel staff who started with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. The term "20/20" refers to hiring 20-year-olds for $20,000. According to GM Ozzie Newsome: "The guys actually started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them."

RAVENS DRAFT WIZARDRY

"Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, player personnel director Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead." — Adam Schein, FoxSports.com

"This team wins because it drafts well. Steve Bisciotti is a great owner because he lets his guys do their job. It's a great organization." — Mel Kiper, ESPN (April, 2010)

"If I ever get a chance to come back and coach, I'm going to call Ozzie Newsome to make all of my picks." — Jon Gruden, ESPN (April, 2010)

"The Ravens are successful, because they ignore needs to take the best player available. There's a reason the Ravens are always picking in the bottom half of the draft. They win and are in the playoffs each year." — Todd McShay, ESPN (April, 2010)

"If I had to pick one guy to draft a team, I'd take Ozzie Newsome. He's the best I've seen since Ron Wolf. No matter where the Ravens draft, a good player seems to fall to them." — Rick Gosselin, The Dallas Morning News (September, 2008)

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time." — Don Banks, SI.com

"Newsome and owner Steve Bisciotti have an excellent relationship, and Newsome figures to be running the Ravens' drafts for years to come. The Ravens' track record of draft success is no secret, and it's the envy of many clubs that are low on blue-chip players." — ProFootballWeekly.com (January, 2008)

VICE PRESIDENT OF REGIONAL PARTNERSHIPS & SALES

Ed Burchell has been with the Ravens' corporate sales team since 2002. A Baltimore native, he is charged with driving the Ravens' regional partnerships and sales to build team revenue, brand awareness and brand growth.

In addition to the naming rights relationship with Smyth Jewelers (Ring of Honor) and Geppi Entertainment (Club Level), both at M&T Bank Stadium, Burchell's regional partnerships include companies such as Giant Food, Merritt Properties, McCormick & Co., Constellation/BGE, Maryland Lottery and Advance Business Systems.

He is the co-founder of the Ravens All Community Team and NFL Football Challenge, both programs that unite corporate business leaders from the community with the Ravens and individual player foundations.

Prior to the Ravens, Burchell was a vice president for Genesis Health Ventures. While there, he was responsible for building and implementing revenue-generating strategies nationally for its consulting practice and regionally for its Chesapeake network.

Burchell is a member of a number of charity boards: the Ravens All Community Team Foundation, Catholic Charities, and he is a 2011 graduate of the Greater Baltimore Committee Leadership Program. He is also a member of the Loyola-Blakefield Development Committee and chair of its Marketing Committee.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Ed and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown and have two sons, Edward (13) and Alexander (9).

GABRIELLE DOW

VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING

Gabrielle Dow joined the Ravens prior to the 2006 season. She oversees the team's marketing, promotions, advertising, branding, events, game entertainment, trademark and licensing and fan affinity areas.

The San Francisco native drives aggressive promotion and advertising for the Ravens. Under her direction in 2007, Dow launched the first-ever professional team female fan club called Purple, which has over 20,000 members and remains the only club of its kind. Also in 2007, Dow launched the Ravens' Purple Friday campaign. On several Fridays during the season, her team travels throughout Baltimore with a day-long caravan of cheerleaders, staff and band members to "paint the town purple."

During the 2008 offseason, her marketing team coordinated the Ravens' first cheerleader swimsuit calendar photo shoot in Punta Cana, Dominican Republic. The second and third calendars were produced in May of 2009 and 2010 in the Bahamas.

Dow has experience working with three major sports leagues: the NFL, the NHL and the NBA. Prior to joining the Ravens, she spent two years with the NHL's Florida Panthers, managing the marketing of hockey, concerts and family entertainment, and four years with AEG, marketing the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers, as well as the Staples Center, Kodak Theatre, and The Forum. After earning both an M.B.A. and law degree from Oregon, Dow began her sports career as a public relations intern for the Portland Trail Blazers.

Gabrielle and her husband, Jeff, have a daughter, Danielle (6), and a son, Jackson (2).

BOB ELLER

VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Bob Eller is in his 25th season with the franchise and his 28th in the NFL. Eller directs the day-to-day operations of the team, including the training facility in Owings Mills, summer training camp at McDaniel College and minicamps, team travel and catering for the players, coaches and staff. The Baltimore native has been with the franchise since 1987, serving in both the public relations and operations departments.

In 2004, Eller directed the team's move to the new facility. In his history with the team, he also wrote and edited media guides and other PR-related materials, as well as coordinating the operations of the game day stats crew.

Eller's career began as an intern for the Baltimore Colts in 1983, while a senior at Towson University (business administration). A year later, the team's first in Indianapolis, he joined the club and was quickly promoted to director of public relations. Eller then moved to Cleveland in 1987 to become the Browns' assistant director of public relations. He was promoted to director of operations and information in 1991. Bob was then invited to join the team in the move to Baltimore in 1996, helping to facilitate many of the start-up functions for the new Ravens.

Eller has worked eight Super Bowls for the NFL and served as the Browns' primary league office liaison when the NFL launched the player assistance and development programs.

An active supporter of the St. Vincent's Center for abused children, Bob and his wife, Sheila, have a daughter, Erin (18) and a son, Joey (15).

JEFF GOERING

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Jeff Goering, who joined the club in 1999, oversees all functions of the Ravens' finance department, including the organization's strategic planning, budgeting, financial reporting, tax, audit and risk management processes. He is also the chief financial liaison with various governmental agencies, stadium contractors and event promoters.

Goering was named senior director of finance in 2004 after spending his first five years with the Ravens as the team's controller.

As a senior consultant for PricewaterhouseCoopers in Dallas, Goering worked with many sports entities, preparing financial feasibility studies, market assessments and economic impact analyses for proposed new or expanded sports venues.

He received his master's of science in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1998. During that time, he also served as a consultant in the evaluation and preparation of Boston Red Sox salary arbitration cases.

Goering spent a year in the Philippines as a community development volunteer for the Presbyterian Church, USA, in 1995-96. He received a B.S. in business administration from Rockhurst (Kansas City, MO) University.

Jeff, who serves on the board of the Ravens All Community Team Foundation, earned his CPA certificate in 1992. He and his wife, Sheryl, have two daughters, Olivia (10) and Caroline (8), and a son, Daniel (4).

BILL JANKOWSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Bill Jankowski has been with the franchise in a full-time role since 1986. He was one of 28 to join Art Modell in the move to Baltimore with the team in 1996. Jankowski guides the Ravens' information technology department to support many technological functions for the organization, including business, coaching, stadium, scouting, public relations and training operations. He helped the team through the transition of moving to Baltimore and has kept the organization on par with today's ever-changing technology world.

The Cleveland native works with director of I.T., Nick Fusee, to support both the coaching and scouting staffs, assisting with their unique software programming. The software assists the coaches in game-planning and game analysis, combining with the football video department.

They also help manage the scouting player personnel database, integrating the system with the NFL Management Council.

Jankowski spent two years as the chair of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee and was a member of the committee to help design the NFL's Game Statistics & Information System (GSIS) in 1996.

Bill, who attended St. Ignatius HS and John Carroll University, (Cleveland, OH), lives in Reisterstown, MD.

BAKER KOPPELMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET SALES & OPERATIONS

Baker Koppelman has been with the Ravens since their first year in Baltimore (1996). Koppelman oversees the team's PSL, season ticket and hospitality sales, ticket operations, ticket distribution, customer service, club level service and retail sales.

Born and raised in Baltimore, Koppelman has worked in professional sports ticketing operations since 1987, selling Baltimore Orioles tickets at Memorial Stadium during the summer while earning his sports management and economics degrees at Guilford College (Greensboro, NC), graduating in 1990.

He worked his way to a full-time position with the Orioles in 1991, helping manage the stadium box office and contributing with the seating relocation from Memorial Stadium to Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992. He then spent a season with the San Diego Padres in 1995, before returning to his hometown to join the Ravens prior to their inaugural season in Baltimore.

Koppelman serves on the advisory board of the Michael A. Fiorelli Foundation for Esophageal Cancer Awareness. Fiorelli, who passed away from cancer in 2007, was Koppelman's colleague at both the Orioles and Ravens. Baker is also a member of the St. Paul's School (Baltimore) Alumni Board.

Baker's wife, Reba, is the assistant controller in the Ravens' finance department.

KEVIN ROCHLITZ

VICE PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS & SALES

Kevin Rochlitz, who joined the Ravens in 2003, oversees all national partnerships and promotions for the team. He is the primary contact for the team's MedStar Health partnership and works with national partners – such as Visa, Dietz & Watson, AirTran Airways, Coca-Cola, Ticketmaster, MillerCoors and Anheuser-Busch – on promotions and brand visibility. Rochlitz also created and sold the Bacardi Bar and Talon Pub, as well as the club level bars, at M&T Bank Stadium.

Prior to working for the Ravens, Rochlitz spent five years as senior vice president of sales for Mandalay Sports and Entertainment/Mandalay Pictures, owners of the Dayton Dragons and Frisco Rough Riders (minor league baseball). He oversaw new stadium construction, selling the naming rights for each venue (Fifth Third Field in Dayton, OH, and Dr Pepper Ballpark in Frisco, TX).

From 1996-97, Rochlitz was one of the youngest assistant athletic directors in NCAA Division I-A for the University of Miami. He crossed paths with defensive coordinator Chuck Pagano and former Ravens CB Duane Starks.

Rochlitz serves on the boards of Union Memorial Hospital Foundation and the Matt Katula Foundation. He has also served on the National Sports Forum Steering Committee since 2001.

In May of 2011, he was selected by the Department of Defense and Secretary Robert Gates to be involved in the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference to better understand U.S. military. Rochlitz attended with 39 other top business leaders from the United States.

Kevin graduated from Wyoming with a degree in marketing. He and his wife, Melissa, have a daughter, Riley (8).

LARRY ROSEN

VICE PRESIDENT OF BROADCASTING

Larry Rosen enters his 12th year with the Ravens after joining the club prior to the team's Super Bowl season in 2000. In that time, his broadcasting team has earned 19 regional Emmy Awards for its excellence in producing original television shows such as Wired, Ravens Report, Game Plan, Ravens Kickoff and preseason football coverage. Larry also produces "Game Day" for the RavensVision high definition video boards at M&T Bank Stadium during Ravens home games.

Rosen won his first Emmy while with the Ravens for his feature reporting on the team's 2001 visit to Ground Zero in New York City.

Prior to his Ravens tenure, Rosen was the play-by-play voice and executive producer of both Philadelphia Phillies baseball and Atlantic 10 basketball games for PRISM-TV. Inducted into Temple University's Hall of Fame in 2005, Rosen won multiple Emmys in his 16 years at PRISM.

Rosen began his career as a news reporter for KYW Newsradio Philadelphia. He was honored several times as National Reporter of the Year by multiple organizations, including the Associated Press and the Columbia School of Journalism, for his coverage of the Three Mile Island nuclear accident, the MOVE shootout and Pope John Paul II's visit to Philadelphia in 1979.

Larry and his wife, Yael, have three children: Sunni (18), a junior at Delaware, Inde (16), who has worked on the RavensVision control room game day staff for three seasons, and son, Yshai (10).

ROY SOMMERHOF

VICE PRESIDENT OF STADIUM OPERATIONS

Roy Sommerhof joined the Ravens during their inaugural season in Baltimore (1996). He manages all aspects of M&T Bank Stadium, including game day parking, security, custodial services, catering, medical services and stadium maintenance.

Since the stadium opened in 1998, Sommerhof has spearheaded the team's efforts to make it one of the best in the NFL, supervising improvements to both the suite and club levels, the installation of the spectacular new high definition videoboards in 2010, the addition of 15 new suites, and the design and installation of the M&T Bank Stadium signage.

Prior to joining the Ravens, the Baltimore native spent 16 years working in both ticket sales and stadium operations for the Orioles. He played a significant role in the planning, development and execution of the opening of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992.

During his career, he has been involved with numerous special events, including hosting both Pope John Paul II at Oriole Park (1995) and the Queen of England at Memorial Stadium (1991), and the MLB All-Star Game at Oriole Park (1993).

He is also the former chairman of the Gridiron Stadium Network, a consortium of 10 NFL facilities and one MLS facility that creates awareness and promotes the assets of its member stadiums. The GSN works to optimize opportunities to expand the use of the state-of-the-art facilities for new sports, entertainment, public and private events.

Through Roy's efforts and those of GSN, M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens hosted a U2 concert this past June, Monster Jam in July, a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008, and international soccer matches between Chelsea and AC Milan in 2009 and Manchester City and Inter Milan in 2010.

Sommerhof graduated from St. Thomas (Miami, FL) University in 1979 with a degree in sports administration. Roy, and his wife, Lina, have two sons, Drew (17) and Cole (9).

U2 360° TOUR ROCKS M&T BANK STADIUM

On June 22, 2011, the world-renowned group U2 played to a full-capacity crowd of 75,000 at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans throughout the Mid-Atlantic Region were treated to a show that was dubbed as the "Tour of the Year" when the legendary Irish band rocked Charm City with its 360° World Tour.

"It's very exciting for the Ravens to be part of a group that helped bring U2 to Baltimore," team president Dick Cass stated. "This was a great event for M&T Bank Stadium, Baltimore and the State of Maryland. Downtown was certainly alive on June 22 and the days surrounding the concert."

With a cylindrical video system of interlocking LED panels and a steel structure rising 150 feet from the floor over a massive stage with rotating bridges, the band truly created an intimate 360° experience for concert goers. Long-time U2 show director Willie Williams worked again with architect Mark Fisher (ZooTV, PopMart, Elevation and Vertigo) to create an innovative 360° design, which afforded an unobstructed view for the entire audience.

OWINGS MILLS TRAINING FACILITY

ORGANIZATION
FACILITY

The Ravens moved into their 200,000-square-foot training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 90,000 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres, and the entire complex was completed in December of 2004. Almost all of the physical construction on the project was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

The facility includes a full-service kitchen, cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer wireless Internet capability.

Approximately 200 Ravens are housed at the headquarters in Owings Mills. The ticket office and stadium operations remain at M&T Bank Stadium.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us," executive vice president/general manager Ozzie Newsome stated. "Steve [Bisciotti] has delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."

The Ravens have three grass practice fields – all Bermuda Grass – at their Owings Mills training facility.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field with the same surface (Shaw Sportex "Momentum 51" turf) used at M&T Bank Stadium.

RAVENS ACT FOUNDATION

The Baltimore Ravens All Community Team Foundation is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in the Baltimore area, as well as other parts of the state of Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth, and in some cases their families, with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring. Please visit www. BaltimoreRavens.com/community for more information.

Among our current charitable partners:

Boys Hope Girls Hope – The nonprofit helps academically capable and motivated children in need to meet their full potential and become men and women for others by providing value-centered, family-like homes, opportunities and education through college.

Paul's Place Outreach Center – A full-service facility which serves the residents of "Pig Town," in Southwest Baltimore. Programs and services include a hot lunch program, women's and men's support groups, an after school program and a clothing bank.

St. Vincent's Villa – A residential group home for children with serious behavioral, psychiatric and/or emotional problems. The majority of children referred to St. Vincent's have suffered trauma related to child abuse and neglect.

The Ravens All Community Team Foundation also works with Ravens players' nonprofits and staff members who volunteer with other community groups, working to improve the quality of life for youth in our area.

KABOOM! PLAYGROUND BUILD

On June 16, 2011, the Baltimore Ravens teamed with local organizations and community members to build a new playground at German Park. More than 300 volunteers from the Reservoir Hill Improvement Council and Baltimore Housing, organizers from KaBOOM! and Ravens personnel worked together to construct the playground in less than six hours.

The new playground, which was based on drawings created by children, included slides, swings and a serenity garden. Thanks to the efforts of all the volunteers, the community will now have a safe place for more than 1,200 children to play. The build was made possible by the Ravens All Community Team Foundation and KaBOOM!, a national nonprofit dedicated to saving play.

RAVENS ALL COMMUNITY TEAM

The Ravens All Community Team (ACT) is a partnership among the Ravens organization, the players and members of the corporate community. Title sponsor, M&T Bank, joins additional Baltimore corporations, as the All Community Team provides financial and volunteer support to many Ravens community service projects. ACT volunteers came together in 2010 to assist in several community efforts, including the Earth Day event (right), Solo Gibbs Park renovation and Ravens Family Food & Funds Drive.

RAVENS GO GREEN

The Ravens' Earth Day 2011 service project was an extension of the organization's continuing efforts to go green. Close to 75 volunteers renovated the Warner Street section of the Gwynns Falls Trail, a historic recreation corridor in Baltimore. To reduce the organization's carbon footprint, team efforts have significantly increased and adjustments have been made at both the Ravens' training facility and M&T Bank Stadium. Such initiatives include a recycling program (right), semiannual environmental clean-up projects and energy conservation practices.

GRIDIRON HALLOWEEN PARTY

Co-hosted by Todd Heap and Michael Oher, the 11th annual Gridiron Halloween Party benefited Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake, with all proceeds donated toward training and employment programs. The co-hosts were joined by additional players, including Joe Flacco (trio at right), who sported a Jersey Shore-inspired haircut complete with an outline of America's Garden State shaved into the back of his head. Over the past 11 years, the partnership between Goodwill and the Ravens has raised over $1 million.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

Annually, the Ravens host a football clinic aligned with Hispanic Heritage Month (9/15–10/15) and Nickelodeon's Worldwide Day of Play. In 2010, Ravens players demonstrated to nearly 150 predominantly-Hispanic children the fundamentals of football. There were appearances by Ravens cheerleaders and Poe, festive music, and each participant received a t-shirt, football and healthy snack pack. One lucky participant was selected to be the tee kid at the Ravens' designated Hispanic Heritage Month game.

CHEERLEADERS AND RMH CHARITIES

The Ravens Cheerleaders select a specific organization to support throughout a season-long community relationship. In 2010, the group chose the Ronald McDonald House, an organization that offers a loving home-away-from-home to families needing to be near their seriously ill or injured children while they're being treated at Baltimore's world renowned hospitals. The cheerleaders opted to host activity events twice a month for the residents, including game night, arts and crafts, dessert and holiday celebrations.

PERSONNEL YOUTH FOOTBALL CLINIC

At the first-year Ravens Personnel Youth Football Camp, director of player personnel Eric DeCosta was joined by colleagues (director of pro personnel Vincent Newsome, at right) to help equip student-athletes from area middle school flag teams with football skills and valuable life lessons. The youth were guided through a series of offensive and defensive skills stations and, as part of the training, Ravens director of player development and former tackle Harry Swayne spoke to the group on his experience in the NFL, goal setting and financial planning.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Ravens players take part in close to 25 different events during the holiday season. From the defensive line collecting funds for a special gift-giving celebration to events hosted by veterans Ray Lewis (Thanksgiving, at right), Derrick Mason and Ed Reed, virtually every player is in our community at a crucial time. Also, through a partnership with the Maryland Food Bank and Giant Food, the Ravens raise funds and collect food to support families in need.

PLAY 60

The NFL's national campaign designed to promote healthy and active lifestyles among today's youth, Play 60 is brought to life and implemented by the Ravens at the local level through in-school challenges, contests and sports clinics, in addition to special partnerships with Playworks (Baltimore City) and the Partnership for a Healthier Carroll County. At right, Todd Heap visits a local school for the ultimate gym class. Each year, the Ravens' Play 60 efforts reach more than 20,000 youth. To join the movement, visit www.fueluptoplay60.com.

JOE FLACCO

QUARTERBACK | 6-6 | 245

COLLEGE: DELAWARE

HS: AUDUBON (NJ)

BORN: 1/16/85, VOORHEES, NJ

EXP (NFL/RAVENS): 4/4

GP/GS (PLAYOFFS): 48/48 (7/7)

TRANSACTIONS

Joe Flacco was selected by the Ravens in the first round (18th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft... Flacco became just the second NCAA Division I FCS (formerly I-AA) QB ever selected in the first round and the first since QB Steve McNair (Alcorn State) was the third-overall pick by Houston in 1995.

HONORS

- Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team (players who are critical to their team, but don't receive Pro Bowl nods) in 2009
- Named the 2008 Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote)
- NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month (November, 2008)
- AFC Rookie of the Week (Week 17, 2008)

CAREER

- Is the Ravens' all-time leading passer in yards (10,206), TD passes (60), completions (878) and attempts (1,416) and is second in completion percentage (62.0)
- His 55 NFL starts (including playoffs) are the most in the first three seasons by a QB in NFL history
- Flacco is just the third starting QB since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach the playoffs in his first three NFL seasons (joined Bernie Kosar and Dan Marino)
- Became the first rookie QB in NFL history to win two playoff games in the 2008 Divisional Playoff win at Ten. (1/10/09)
- The tandem of John Harbaugh and Flacco, which in 2008 set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB, now own the league mark for earning the playoffs in their first three seasons together (2008-10)
- Set career highs in attempts (499), completions (315) and completion percentage (63.1) in 2009, and career highs in yards (3,622), TDs (25) and QB rating (93.6) in 2010, leading the Ravens to the playoffs for the third-consecutive season
- In 2010, Flacco passed for a career-high 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. In Week 14 at Houston, he eclipsed the 3,000-yard and 20-TD milestones, becoming the first Ravens QB and second ever in Baltimore football history (the Colts' Bert Jones, 1980-81) to produce back-to-back 3,000-yard campaigns
- Set the Ravens' single-season record for completion percentage (63.1) in 2009 and QB rating (93.6) in 2010, while his 25 passing TDs and 3,622 passing yards in 2010 rank as the second most in Ravens single-season history
- Ravens set a franchise record for fewest turnovers with 20 (10 INTs and 10 fumbles lost) in 2010
- Including the postseason, Joe Flacco has produced 36 career victories (32 in the regular season). Tied with Dan Marino, he shares the most total wins by a starting QB in his first three seasons in NFL history
- Threw for a career-high 4 TDs vs. Chi. (12/20/09), tied for the second-most TDs in Ravens history
- Produced a career-high 135.6 passer rating vs. Chi. (12/20/09), completing 21 of 29 passes for 234 yards and 4 TDs...Rating ranked second best in team history (Kyle Boller, 136.8 on 12/19/05 vs. GB)
- His 14 straight pass completions vs. Den. (11/1/09) set a franchise record, breaking the previous streak of 12, which he also set (at Ind. 10/5/08)
- Ravens were the NFL's ninth-best scoring team in 2009 (24.4 ppg), racking up a franchise-record 47 TDs

5 JOE FLACCO

2010: (16/16, 2/2) Completed 62.6% of his passes (306 of 489) while setting career highs with 3,622 passing yards, 25 TDs and a 93.6 QB rating... Became the Ravens' all-time leader in every major passing category in 2010: yards (10,206), TD passes (60), completions (878) and attempts (1,416)

- Led the Ravens to his sixth-career fourth-quarter or overtime comeback victory, throwing a TD pass to T.J. Houshmandzadeh with 32 seconds remaining for the 17-14 victory in game 4 at Pit. (10/3)...Completed 64.9% of his passes for 256 yards, 1 TD and 1 INT against the Steelers
- Started both postseason games and completed 64.1% of his passes (41 of 64) for 390 yards, 3 TDs and 1 INT for a 90.0 QB rating
- Set postseason franchise records in several categories, completing 73.5% of his passes (25 of 34) for 265 yards, 2 TDs and no INTs for a 115.4 QB rating in the 30-7 victory in the Wild Card Game at KC (1/9/11)...Also Led the Ravens on six scoring drives, including four in the second half

2009: (16/16, 2/2) Became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons (Ben Roethlisberger, Bernie Kosar and Dan Marino)... Named to USA Today's All-Joe Team (players who are critical to their team, but don't receive Pro Bowl nods)...Completed 315 of 499 passes

(63.1%) for 3,613 yards for an 88.9 QB rating, while leading the Ravens to the playoffs for the second consecutive season...Also tallied three 300-yard passing games (second most in Ravens single-season history)

- Posted career highs in TDs (4) and QB rating (135.6), completing 72.4% of his passes (21 of 29) for 234 yards and no INTs in the 31-7 victory in game 14 vs. Chi. (12/20)
- Posted a then-career-high 120.8 QB rating, completing 13 of 20 attempts (65%) for 230 yards, 1 TD and no INTs in the 48-3 win in game 13 vs. Det. (12/13)...Led the Ravens on seven scoring drives, including 5 for 60 yards or more against the Lions as part of a Ravens' franchise-record 548 total yards
- Completed 20 of 25 passes, including his last 14, for a career-high and franchise-record-tying 80% completion mark for 175 yards, 1 TD, no INTs and a 109.2 QB rating in the 30-7 victory in game 7 vs. Den. (11/1)...The 14 straight completions set a franchise record, breaking his own mark (12) at Ind. (10/5/08)... Led the Ravens in converting 11 of 18 third downs, including six in the second half against a Denver team that had only given up two (second half) in the previous six games
- Completed 65% of his passes, tying a career high with 28 completions (on 43 attempts) for a career-best 385 yards, 2 TDs and no INTs for a 109.2 QB rating in game 6 at Min. (10/18)
- Went 25-of-35 passing (71.4%) for a then-career-high 342 yards, including a career-long 72-yard TD strike to WR Derrick Mason, as part of 479 yards racked up by the Ravens' offense in game 3 vs. Cle. (9/27).

2008: (16/16, 3/3) Earned the 2008 Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year Award (NFL.com fan vote), connecting on 60% of his passes (257 of 428) for 2,971 yards, 14 TDs and 12 INTs for an 80.3 rating (sixth-highest single-season rating in Ravens history)...Also rushed 52 times for 180 yards and 2 TDs, including a career-long 38-yard TD scamper...Also pulled in a 43-yard reception from Troy Smith while leading the Ravens to an 11-5 record...Became the first rookie QB in NFL history to win two playoff games, leading the Ravens to their first AFC Championship game since 2000... DOMINANT DT FORCE

One of the NFL's most disruptive forces, DT Haloti Ngata was named to his second Pro Bowl (as a starter) in 2010. Perhaps the NFL's most athletic DT, Ngata stops the run (328 career tackles, including 11 in Week 4's win at Pittsburgh), rushes the passer (12 career sacks) and even drops into coverage (3 career INTs). He has also seen time as a FB in Ravens goal-line situations.

Baltimore has a history of strong run defense, and with Ngata's help the past five seasons, has upheld its stout legacy on the ground:

he returned 41 yards in 30-23 victory in the season finale vs. Mia. (1/2/05)...Gave him a then-NFL record 358 INT return yards, breaking a 43-year-old record (349 by Charlie McNeil, SD in 1961) against the Dolphins... Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month award for November

- Recorded 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 PD and posted his 4th INT of the season with 45 seconds remaining in the game, which he returned a then-NFL-record 106 yards for a TD to seal the 27-13 victory in game 8 vs. Cle. (11/7)

2003: (16/15, 1/1) Earned his first-career Pro Bowl after leading the team with 19 PD and tied a then-franchise record with 7 INTs, 1 of which he returned for a TD...Also blocked 2 punts, both of which he returned for TDs, the second and third of his career...Finished fifth on the team with a career-high 92 tackles (77 solo), 1 sack and 1 FF

- Had 10 tackles (7 solo) and produced the biggest play of the game when he blocked a Tom Rouen punt, recovered the ball and returned it 16 yards for a TD, to cut the deficit to 10 with just 6:41 remaining in game 11 vs.

Sea. (11/23)...Ravens went on to tie the game and eventually win in OT...With that blocked punt return for a TD, Reed tied DB Tom Flynn for the most blocked PRs for TDs in a career in NFL history (since the merger in 1970)

- Started and had 6 solo tackles and his 4th INT of the season in game 5 at Ari. (10/12)... Earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after he blocked a punt (third of his career) and returned it 22 yards for a TD (second time in his career) against the Cardinals...His only missed start (at Oak., 12/14) was because the defense's first play was on the goal line

2002: (16/16) Started all 16 games as a rookie and finished fourth on the team with 86 tackles (69 solo)...Also posted 1 sack (3 yards), 13 PD and a Ravens' rookie record-tying 5 INTs (Ravens best in 2002)...Also blocked the first 2 punts in franchise history, one of which he returned for a TD, and had 8 special teams tackles

- Started at SS and amassed 4 solo tackles in game 3 vs. Den. (9/30)...Intercepted Brian Griese for his first-career INT and blocked the first punt in Ravens history against the Broncos

DID YOU KNOW?

On June 10, 2006, Tom Zbikowski made his professional boxing debut at Madison Square Garden, where he beat Robert Bell by TKO just 49 seconds into the first round. On March 12, 2011, Zbikowski returned to the ring during the NFL lockout to face Richard Bryant at the MGM Grand in Las Vegas. Zbikowski emerged victorious, earning a TKO just 1:45 into the first round. Following that match, he trained under Hall of Fame trainer Emanuel Steward. Zbikowski would go on to win two more bouts, the first in Atlantic City on March 26 against Caleb Grummet (unanimous decision) and then via a first-round knockout versus Blake Warner in Thackerville, OK, on April 23.

2010 PLAYER HONORS/MILESTONES

WR ANQUAN BOLDIN

AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 3)

Boldin became the fastest player in NFL history to record 600 career receptions (98 games), while leading the team with 8 catches for 142 yards and 3 TDs in the 24-17 victory over the Browns. Amazingly, it was Boldin's first-ever Offensive Player of the Week award.

K BILLY CUNDIFF

Pro Bowl (Starter - 1st selection) / All-Pro (AP)

PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team

PFW Golden Toe

Sports Illustrated Mid-Season All-Pro Team (Peter King)

Cundiff was spectacular with his kickoffs in 2010, producing an NFL-best 40 touchbacks on 79 boots. His 50.6% TBs mark also ranked as the league's best, while only 38 of his kicks were returned. He added a career-high 117 points.

G BEN GRUBBS

Pro Bowl (1st Alternate)

Grubbs, who for the second-straight year was named as a Pro Bowl first alternate, turned in another solid season, starting all 16 games at LG. Joe Flacco set career highs in passing yards (3,622), touchdowns (25) and a 93.6 QB rating.

P SAM KOCH

Pro Bowl (1st Alternate)

Koch finished second in the NFL with a career-high and franchise-record-tying 39 punts inside the 20 (Kyle Richardson in 1999). He punted 81 times for 3,530 yards (43.6 avg.), ranking second in the AFC with a 39.2 net average.

LB RAY LEWIS

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 12th Invite / 2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)

Sports Illustrated All-Pro (Peter King)

Lewis earned his 12th Pro Bowl invite after leading the team with 145 tackles, 4 PD, 3 FRs, 2 FFs and 2 INTs, including one for a TD that sealed the victory at Carolina (11/21). Baltimore's defense finished in the top 10 in the NFL for the eighth consecutive season.

DT HALOTI NGATA

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 2nd Selection / All-Pro (AP)

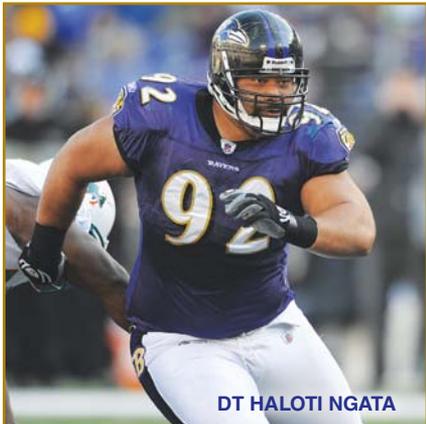

PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team / Sporting News All-Pro

Sports Illustrated All-Pro (Peter King)

SI Mid-Season Defensive Player of the Year (Peter King)

AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 9)

The Ravens' key cog on the D-line, Ngata earned his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl in 2010. Often double-teamed, he tallied 65 tackles, a career-high 5.5 sacks (tied for second in AFC among DTs), a career-high-tying 5 PD and 1 FR. Thanks in part to Ngata's efforts, the Ravens have produced a top 5 run defense in five consecutive seasons.

DT HALOTI NGATA

K BILLY CUNDIFF

DE CORY REDDING

USA Today All-Joe Team

An important offseason free agent pickup, Redding played in 15 games (11 starts) and posted 38 tackles (29 solo), 3 sacks (-21 yards), a career-high 4 PD and his first-career INT. The fourth-quarter INT clinched the 30-24 victory over New Orleans (12/19).

WR/RS DAVID REED

AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 14)

Reed earned Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a franchise-record 103-yard kickoff return for a TD in the victory at Houston (12/13). The rookie also led the NFL with a 29.3 kickoff return average.

S ED REED

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 7th Selection / All-Pro (AP)

PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team / Sporting News All-Pro

AFC Defensive Player of the Month (December)

AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 16)

Reed earned his seventh Pro Bowl nod after leading the NFL with 8 INTs, despite missing the first six games of the season on the PUP list (hip). His 183 INT return yards also led the league, and the three multi-INT games gave him 11 in his career (most among active players). In his nine-year career (2002-10), Reed has earned three Defensive Player of the Month awards and four Defensive Player of the Week awards.

RB RAY RICE

AFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 15)

FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 15)

Rice led the Ravens with a career-high 307 rushing attempts for 1,220 rushing yards, becoming Baltimore's No. 2 all-time rusher. He produced the NFL's third-most yards from scrimmage (1,776) and was the only NFL player with at least 250 touches not to fumble in 2010. Rice's 63 receptions (for 556 yards) were second on the team. He earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his monster game in the win over New Orleans (12/19): Rice tallied a career-high 233 yards from scrimmage (153 rushing and 80 receiving).

OLB TERRELL SUGGS

Pro Bowl - 4th Selection

AFC Defensive Player of the Month (November)

Suggs, the Ravens' No. 2 career sacks leader (68.5) and all-time sack yardage king (519), earned his fourth Pro Bowl in 2010. His team-leading 11 sacks tied for 10th most in the NFL, and after four sacks in November, Suggs earned his first-career Player of the Month award.

G/T MARSHAL YANDA

Sports Illustrated All-Pro (Peter King)

The versatile and reliable Yanda started all 16 games at right tackle after an injury to T Jared Gaither required him to move from his natural guard position. Along with the rest of the offensive line, Yanda protected QB Joe Flacco, who set career highs with 3,622 passing yards, 25 TDs and a 93.6 QB rating.

2010 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 • RAVENS 10, JETS 9

Baltimore (1-0) New York (0-1)

Monday, September 13, 2010 • 7:26 PM ET • New Meadowlands Stadium • New York

Weather: 67°, Cloudy, Wind NNW 11 mph • Attendance 78,127 • Time 3:08

The Ravens spoiled the grand opening of the Jets' New Meadowlands Stadium with a 10-9 victory on Monday Night Football. Baltimore took a 7-6 halftime lead on RB Willis McGahee's 1-yard touchdown plunge – his 30th career as a Raven – with six seconds left in the second quarter. K Billy Cundiff's 25-yard field goal in the third quarter provided the winning points. The Ravens' defense was stout throughout the game, limiting the Jets to 3 Nick Folk field goals (23, 28 and 48 yards). Baltimore's Ray Lewis and Co. held New York to 176 yards (80 yards passing). The Jets converted just 1 of 11 third-down attempts, while the Ravens were a respectable 11-of-19. The Ravens held the Jets to a New York franchise-tying-low 6 first downs. WR Anquan Boldin, playing his first game with the Ravens, caught 7 passes for 110 yards, producing the 28th 100-yard game of his career. TE Todd Heap, who made a spectacular diving catch for a 35-yarder in the fourth quarter, grabbed 6 for 72 more yards. QB Joe Flacco completed 20 of 38 passes for 248 yards. New York committed 14 penalties, including 10 in the first half, to the Ravens' five infractions. Baltimore held the ball 38:32 to the Jets' 21:28 and limited New York to 176 total yards, including 60 through the air, which ranks as the second lowest in Ravens franchise history (55 vs. Was. on 10/10/04).

GAME 2 • BENGALS 15, RAVENS 10

Baltimore (1-1) Cincinnati (1-1)

Sunday, September 19, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • Paul Brown Stadium • Cincinnati

Weather: 78°, Cloudy, Wind W 1 mph • Attendance 64,071 • Time 3:07

Despite holding the Bengals without a touchdown, the Ravens dropped a 15-10 decision at Paul Brown Stadium. The Ravens' offense managed just 1 TD in this hard-fought battle that was not decided until the final minutes of the fourth quarter. Baltimore QB Joe Flacco had a difficult day, throwing 4 interceptions while completing 17 of 39 passes for 154 yards. Two of Flacco's INTs led to field goals, and 2 came in the last five minutes of the game. K Mike Nugent provided all of the Bengals' points on FGs of 36, 30, 46, 38 and 25 yards. After Cincinnati took a 6-0 halftime advantage, the Ravens grabbed a 7-6 third-quarter lead on a Flacco-to-WR Derrick Mason 31-yard TD pass. Nugent put the Bengals back on top at the end of that quarter, 9-7. Baltimore K Billy Cundiff's 38-yard FG with 5:46 left in the game gave the Ravens a 10-9 lead. RB Ray Rice finished the game with 87 yards on 16 carries. Dating back to the Divisional playoff game in Indianapolis (1/16/10), Baltimore's defense has gone 10 straight quarters without giving up a touchdown, also limiting Cincinnati to 3-of-18 (17%) on third down. Lewis had a game-high 10 tackles and posted career sack number 37.5.

GAME 3 • RAVENS 24, BROWNS 17

Baltimore (2-1) Cleveland (0-3)

Sunday, September 26, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 64°, Cloudy, Wind N 6 mph • Attendance 71,119 • Time 2:53

Behind 3 QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Anquan Boldin touchdown passes, the Ravens stopped the Browns, 24-17, at M&T Bank Stadium. Flacco, who completed 22 of 31 passes for 262 yards, threw a pair of TD tosses to Boldin in the first half when Baltimore took a 14-10 lead. The final Flacco/Boldin score put the Ravens ahead (21-17) in the fourth quarter. Boldin, who, on his second catch, became the fastest player to reach 600 career receptions (98 games) in NFL history, finished the game with 8 catches for 142 yards. TE Todd Heap (46 yards), WR Derrick Mason (30) and RB Ray Rice (16) each caught 4 passes. Rice also added 80 yards on 15 carries. The Browns, behind the bruising running of RB Peyton Hillis, hung with the Ravens all game. Hillis rushed 22 times for 144 yards and scored the first touchdown of the season against the Ravens' defense with a 1-yard blast at the end of the first half. For Cleveland, QB Seneca Wallace completed 18 of 24 passes for 141 yards, including a 1-yard TD to TE Benjamin Watson. Cleveland's touchdown with 13 seconds remaining in the first half ended the Ravens' consecutive quarter streak of not allowing a TD at 11 quarters, which tied a team record from the 2000 campaign.

GAME 4 • RAVENS 17, STEELERS 14

Baltimore (3-1) Pittsburgh (3-1)

Sunday, October 3, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh

Weather: 52°, Cloudy, Wind NE 5 mph • Attendance 64,729 • Time 2:55

QB Joe Flacco's 18-yard TD pass to WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh with 32 seconds left in the game sealed a come-from-behind 17-14 victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh had taken a 14-10 lead on RB Rashard Mendenhall's 7-yard TD sprint with 6:52 left in the contest. Baltimore then drove to the Steelers' 2-yard line and failed on a fourth-down Flacco-to-WR Anquan Boldin end zone attempt. The Ravens forced a three-and-out, getting the ball back for their decisive drive with 1:08 left in the game. The Steelers' effort at a game-winning or tying charge was stopped when LB Ray Lewis, who led the team with 13 tackles, intercepted QB Charlie Batch with 18 seconds left in the fourth quarter. The Ravens took a 10-7 halftime lead on a 9-yard RB Willis McGahee TD run and a 33-yard K Billy Cundiff FG. Mendenhall's 1-yard TD in the first quarter gave Pittsburgh a 7-0 early lead. Flacco completed 24 of 37 for 256 yards, including 7 passes to Boldin and 6 to WR Derrick Mason, who led the team with 80 receiving yards. Baltimore's "D" limited the Steelers to 210 yards. DT Haloti Ngata added a career-high 11 tackles and a sack in the victory, which was the first for the Ravens in Pittsburgh since 2006.

GAME 5 • RAVENS 31, BRONCOS 17

Baltimore (4-1) Denver (2-3)

Sunday, October 10, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 67°, Sunny, Wind SSW 6 mph • Attendance 71,246 • Time 3:04

RB Ray Rice ran for 2 TDs and 133 yards in the Ravens' convincing 31-17 victory over the Broncos at M&T Bank Stadium. Despite being stopped on fourth-and-goal from the Denver 1 on the opening drive of the game, the Ravens jumped to a 17-0 second-quarter lead on a 1-yard QB Joe Flacco dive, a 1-yard Rice TD and a 37-yard Billy Cundiff field goal. QB Kyle Orton's 42-yard bomb to WR Brandon Lloyd with 48 seconds left in the second quarter made the score 17-7 at the half. Two six-minute-plus drives leading to another Rice 1-yard TD and a 30-yard RB Willis McGahee TD sprint gave Baltimore a 31-10 fourth-quarter advantage. The Ravens rushed for 233 yards, compared to Denver's 39, while Baltimore's offense kept the ball 36:17 to the Broncos' 23:43. McGahee added 67 rush yards, and Flacco completed 14 of 25 passes for 196 yards. Orton was 23-of-38 for 314 with 2 TD throws to Lloyd – the second for 44 yards with 35 seconds left in the game. With the 4 rushing TDs, Baltimore improved to 10-0 when rushing for at least 3 TDs in team history, and the 233 rushing yards ranked 10th most in franchise history. The Ravens also had a franchise-record 17 rushing first downs and improved to 5-0 all time against Denver in Baltimore.

GAME 6 • PATRIOTS 23, RAVENS 20 (OT)

Baltimore (4-2) New England (4-1)

Sunday, October 17, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • Gillette Stadium • Foxborough

Weather: 57°, Sunny, Wind WNW 14 mph • Attendance 68,756 • Time 3:41

A fourth-quarter 20-10 lead was not enough for the Ravens when they dropped a 23-20 overtime decision at New England. K Stephen Gostkowski's 35-yard FG with 1:56 left in OT gave the Ravens the loss. Gostkowski's 24-yarder with 1:51 left in regulation had tied the game at 20. Baltimore led 10-7 at the half after a 26-yard K Billy Cundiff FG and a QB Joe Flacco-to-TE Todd Heap 16-yard TD pass. RB BenJarvus Green-Ellis' 2-yard run produced NE's first-half TD. A 25-yard Flacco TD toss to WR Anquan Boldin gave the Ravens a 17-7 third-quarter lead. After exchanging FGs, Baltimore owned the 20-10 fourth-quarter advantage. A 5-yard QB Tom Brady throw to WR Deion Branch brought the Pats within 3 points with 11:02 left in regulation. Flacco completed 27 of 35 passes for 285 yards (119.3 rating), while Brady, who was intercepted twice, was 27-of-44 for 292. WR Derrick Mason caught 8 passes for 100 yards, and RB Ray Rice rushed 28 times for 88 more. Rice tallied his 17th-career 100-yard scrimmage day, his third in 2010, while Mason's output was the 20th 100-yard day of his career and seventh as a Raven. S Dawan Landry led the team with a career-high 12 tackles.

2010 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 7 • RAVENS 37, BILLS 34 (OT)

Baltimore (5-2) Buffalo (0-6)

Sunday, October 24, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
Weather: 70°, Partly Cloudy, Wind SW 5 mph • Attendance 71,220 • Time 3:35

S Ed Reed played his first game of the season, intercepting 2 passes, helping the Ravens to a come-from-behind 37-34 overtime victory over the Bills at M&T Bank Stadium. K Billy Cundiff's 38-yard field goal, which was set up by a LB Ray Lewis forced fumble and recovery at the Bills' 45-yard line, gave Baltimore the hard-fought win. The Ravens trailed 17-3 and 24-10 in the first half before exploding for 17 points in 64 seconds to take a 27-24 early-third-quarter lead. TE Todd Heap caught 2 first-half touchdowns from QB Joe Flacco, who completed 16 of 31 for 250 yards. Flacco also threw a 34-yard TD to WR Anquan Boldin after handing the ball to RB Willis McGahee, who flipped it back to the quarterback. The Ravens' defense, which entered the game third in the NFL, allowed 514 yards, the most by an opponent since 2000. QB Ryan Fitzpatrick completed 29 of 43 for 382 yards, including 3 TD passes to WR Lee Evans. WR Steve Johnson, who also caught a TD toss from Fitzpatrick, had 8 receptions for 158 yards. RB Ray Rice (72) and McGahee (64) combined for 136 rushing yards for the Ravens. In the victory, two Ravens eclipsed the 8,000-yard mark: Flacco for passing yards and Boldin for receiving yards. The Ravens improved to 9-0 whenever Reed snags 2 INTs in a game.

Weather: 50°, Partly Cloudy, Wind NW 11 mph • Attendance 71,305 • Time 2:49

Totalling 402 yards on offense while owning the ball 38:22 of the game, the Ravens gave the Dolphins their first road loss of the season, 26-10. Baltimore opened the game with a 7-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a QB Joe Flacco-to-RB Willis McGahee 32-yard touchdown pass. The Dolphins followed that with a RB Ronnie Brown 12-yard TD run. Two K Billy Cundiff field goals (26 and 39 yards) gave the Ravens a 13-10 halftime lead. The Ravens dominated the second half and cruised to the victory on a Flacco-to-WR-Derrick Mason 12-yard TD toss and 2 more Cundiff FGs (20 and 24 yards). Baltimore did not punt in the game, but P Sam Koch did complete a first-down pass to CB Cary Williams on fourth-and-10 in the third quarter. RB Ray Rice produced 180 yards (83 rushing and 97 receiving on 7 catches.) Flacco was nearly flawless, completing 20 of 27 for 266 yards with the 2 TD passes (129.6 QB rating). The Ravens' defense limited Miami to 289 yards, which included QB Chad Henne's 22 of 34 for 231 yards and 3-interception performance. S Ed Reed corralled his third INT in just his second game of the season, and McGahee passed the 1,000 receiving yards mark for his career. The Ravens won their seventh straight at home and improved to 3-0 under John Harbaugh coming off the bye (also winning their eighth of nine games after the bye).

GAME 9 • FALCONS 26, RAVENS 21

Baltimore (6-3) Atlanta (7-2)

Thursday, November 11, 2010 • 8:31 PM ET • Georgia Dome • Atlanta

Weather: Indoors • Attendance 68,474 • Time 3:10

The Ravens overcame 13-0 and 20-7 deficits to take a 21-20 lead with 1:05 left in the game, but lost at Atlanta, 26-21 on the NFL Network's first game of the season. QB Joe Flacco threw 3 second-half touchdown passes to give the Ravens a chance to win the game. After trailing 13-0 early in the third quarter, Flacco hit WR Anquan Boldin with a 5-yard TD throw, the 50th of the wideout's career. The Falcons responded with a QB Matt Ryan, who also threw 3 TD passes, scoring pass to WR Roddy White (4 yards). Flacco's 6-yard TD toss to WR Derrick Mason brought the Ravens within 6 at 20-14. TE Todd Heap then gave Baltimore the lead with a 9-yard TD catch from Flacco with just over a minute left in the game. Ryan then directed a seven-play, 80-yard TD drive that ended with a 33-yard touchdown to White. Flacco finished the game with 22 completions on 34 attempts (1 INT), while Ryan threw 50 times, completing 32, including 12 to White for 138 yards. Boldin caught 5 passes for the Ravens, with Heap and Mason snaring 4 each. OLB Terrell Suggs produced 2 sacks, the 11th multi-sack game of his career.

Sunday, November 21, 2010 • 1:04 PM ET • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte

Weather: 65°, Sunny, Wind SSW 6 mph • Attendance 73,021 • Time 3:04

Fourth-quarter interceptions by long-time Ravens' Pro Bowlers S Ed Reed and LB Ray Lewis secured Baltimore's 37-13 victory at Carolina. Reed's 50th-career interception resulted in a touchdown when he pitched to fellow S Dawan Landry, who sprinted the final 23 yards for a score. On Panthers QB Brian St. Pierre's next throw, Lewis stole the pass and raced 24 yards to the end zone for the game's final points. The Ravens took a 17-3 halftime lead on a QB Joe Flacco 56-yard TD toss to WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh, a 22-yard K Billy Cundiff field goal and a 1-yard RB Ray Rice TD plunge. The Panthers came within 7 (20-13) on the second play of the fourth quarter when St. Pierre hit WR David Gettis with an 88-yard TD connection. Once again, Flacco produced a QB rating over 100 – his fourth in the last five games – completing 24 of 33 for 301 yards (110.8 mark). The TD catch by Houshmandzadeh was the 600th of his career, and Mason's third reception was the 900th of his career. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to have three WRs on the active roster with at least 600 career receptions (Mason, Anquan Boldin & Houshmandzadeh). Rice gained 131 total yards: 65 rushing and 66 on 6 receptions. TE Todd Heap added 5 catches for 69 yards.

2010 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 11 • RAVENS 17, BUCCANEERS 10

Baltimore (8-3) Tampa Bay (7-4)

Sunday, November 28, 2010 • 4:15 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 48°, Clear, Wind ESE 3 mph • Attendance 70,989 • Time 3:02

The Ravens exploded for 2 second-quarter touchdowns to take a 17-3 halftime lead and held on for a 17-10 victory over visiting Tampa Bay. After a scoreless first quarter, Baltimore took a 3-0 lead on K Billy Cundiff's 45-yard field goal. Tampa matched that with a 22-yard FG by K Connor Barth. The Ravens' offense, on successive series, produced TDs on 2 QB Joe Flacco passes: the first for 65 yards to TE Todd Heap and the second to WR Derrick Mason for 10 yards. The Ravens did have a 76-yard Flacco-to-RB Ray Rice TD in the third quarter nullified by a block in the back penalty. The Bucs closed the margin to 17-10 – with 3:05 left in the game – on QB Josh Freeman's 5-yard TD toss to TE Kellen Winslow. The Ravens then controlled the ball the rest of the game with 4 Rice runs and 1 Rice reception. Rice finished the game with 132 total yards, 85 rushing and 47 receiving, his fourth straight game with over 100 total yards. Flacco completed 25 of 35 for 289 yards. He produced a 103.2 QB rating, his fifth 100-plus mark in the last six games. Flacco also became the team's all-time passing TDs leader, eclipsing Vinny Testaverde (51) with the TD to Heap. It was also the longest TD catch of Heap's career. The victory extended the team's home win streak to eight games.

GAME 12 • STEELERS 13, RAVENS 10

Baltimore (8-4) Pittsburgh (9-3)

Sunday, December 5, 2010 • 8:30 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 35°, Partly Cloudy, Wind W 17-31 mph • Attendance 71,418 • Time 3:05

For the fifth time in the last six they have played, the Ravens and Steelers competed in a game decided by 3 points. This time, the Steelers won 13-10 at M&T Bank Stadium on Sunday Night Football to take over first place by one game in the AFC North. Pittsburgh's winning touchdown came with 2:51 left in the contest on a QB Ben Roethlisberger 9-yard throw to RB Isaac Redman. That TD was set up by S Troy Polamalu's strip of Ravens QB Joe Flacco on a second-and-5 on Baltimore's 43-yard line. Polamalu's caused fumble was picked up by LB LaMarr Woodley, who ran it to the Ravens' 9. The Ravens took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on a Flacco-to-WR Anquan Boldin 14-yard TD toss. The teams traded third-quarter field goals – 45 yards by Pittsburgh's Shaun Suisham and 24 by Baltimore's Billy Cundiff. A 19-yard Suisham FG made the score 10-6 in the final period. Flacco finished the game completing 17 of 33 for 266 yards, while Roethlisberger, whose nose was broken during a tackle in the first quarter, was 22-of-38 for 253 yards. Boldin caught 5 passes for 118 yards (his 30th-career 100-yard game) to lead all receivers. Both teams struggled to run, with the Steelers averaging 2.3 yards per rush and the Ravens 2.2 ypr. Baltimore TE Todd Heap left the game after injuring his thigh on the Ravens' first play from scrimmage. The loss broke the Ravens' eight-game home winning streak.

GAME 13 • RAVENS 34, TEXANS 28 (OT)

Baltimore (9-4) Houston (5-8)

Monday, December 13, 2010 • 7:40 PM CT • Reliant Stadium • Houston

Weather: Retractable Roof Closed • Attendance 71,413 • Time 3:19

After taking a 21-0, second-quarter lead, the Ravens had to go into overtime to beat the host Texans, 34-28, last Monday. Baltimore won the game when CB Josh Wilson intercepted QB Matt Schaub 3:05 into OT and raced 12 yards to the end zone. The Ravens scored 3 first-half TDs on a 1-yard RB Willis McGahee run and a pair of QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Derrick Mason TD passes (9 and 26 yards). A 46-yard Schaub-to-WR Andre Johnson score made the halftime margin 21-7. Ravens WR/KOR David Reed opened the second half with a 103-yard kickoff return, the longest in team history, to give Baltimore a 28-7 edge. Two K Neil Rackers' field goals brought Houston within 15 points (28-13) after three quarters. Schaub then hit WR Jacoby Jones (7 yards) and Johnson (5 yards) with fourth-quarter TDs. The latter score came with 21 seconds left in the game and was followed by a Schaub-to-Jones 2-point conversion to tie the contest. Flacco completed 22 of 33 for 235 yards, including 8 passes to RB Ray Rice and 6 to Mason, who hit the 50-catch milestone for the 11th consecutive season of his career. It also marked the first 2-TD game of Mason's Ravens career (2005-10). Flacco became the first Ravens' QB to produce back-to-back 3,000-yard passing seasons.

GAME 14 • RAVENS 30, SAINTS 24

Baltimore (10-4) New Orleans (10-4)

Sunday, December 19, 2010 • 1:03 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 34°, Partly Cloudy, Wind NNW 12 mph • Attendance 71,432 • Time 3:19

The Ravens jumped out to a 21-7, second-quarter lead and held off the defending Super Bowl champion Saints in the fourth quarter to win, 30-24, at M&T Bank Stadium. New Orleans, held to 269 yards, rallied to tie the game at 24 with 11:34 left in the final period. But, the Ravens responded with 2 K Billy Cundiff field goals (32 and 27 yards) while holding QB Drew Brees and the Saints' offense scoreless on their final two possessions. RB Ray Rice, who produced his most scrimmage yards (233) in a game in his three-year career, scored 2 of the Ravens' first 3 TDs (10-yard run and 17-yard pass from QB Joe Flacco). Rice rushed 31 times for 153 yards and caught 5 for 80 more. Flacco, who also threw a 34-yard TD pass to rookie TE Ed Dickson (his first-career TD catch) in the first quarter, completed 10 of 20 for 172 yards. DE Cory Redding intercepted Brees' final pass of the game on a ball tipped by DT Haloti Ngata. Brees completed 29 of 46 passes for 267 yards with 3 TDs, while the Saints were held to just 27 rushing yards on 14 attempts. The 27 rushing yards allowed were the fifth-lowest by an opponent in Ravens history. With the victory, the Ravens have won 15 of 16 games against the NFC in Baltimore, including nine straight. The team also improved to 20-2 when rushing for at least 125 yards in the John Harbaugh Era (2008-10).

GAME 15 • RAVENS 20, BROWNS 10

Baltimore (11-4) Cleveland (5-10)

Sunday, December 26, 2010 • 1:02 PM ET • Cleveland Browns Stadium • Cleveland

Weather: 26°, Cold, Wind Chill 13° NE 18 mph • Attendance 65,028 • Time 2:42

The Ravens forced 4 turnovers against the Browns, scoring 10 points after 2 of them, in the 20-10 victory at Cleveland. Baltimore intercepted rookie QB Colt McCoy 3 times, 2 by S Ed Reed. Cleveland took a 7-0 lead on a trick play that ended with WR Mohamed Massaquoi throwing a 29-yard touchdown pass to WR Brian Robiskie. The Ravens then grabbed a 13-10 halftime lead on 2 K Billy Cundiff field goals (27 and 40 yards) and a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh 15-yard TD toss. (Browns K Phil Dawson converted a 30-yard FG at the end of the second quarter.) After a Cleveland onside kick failed at the start of the second half, the Ravens followed with a second Flacco TD pass – this one for 22 yards to WR Derrick Mason. Flacco completed 12 of 19 for 102 yards, including 4 each to Mason (50 yards) and Houshmandzadeh (32). RB Ray Rice rushed 25 times for 92 hard-earned yards. The Browns limited RB Peyton Hillis to 35 yards on 12 carries, while holding McCoy to 15-of-29 passing for 149 yards. Flacco became the team's first quarterback to pass for over 10,000 yards, and Mason moved into 12th place on the all-time NFL receiving list with 921 career receptions. Flacco and head coach John Harbaugh became the first rookie head coach starting a rookie QB tandem (in 2008) to earn the playoffs in their initial three seasons together.

GAME 16 • RAVENS 13, BENGALS 7

Baltimore (12-4) Cincinnati (4-12)

Sunday, January 2, 2011 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
Weather: 51°, Cloudy, Wind NNW 7 mph • Attendance 71,088 • Time 3:00

The Ravens forced 5 turnovers, including 2 S Ed Reed INTs, in the 13-7 victory in the regular season finale. Baltimore took a 6-0 first-half lead on 2 K Billy Cundiff field goals (25 and 47 yards). (Cundiff tied the NFL record for most touchbacks – 40 – in the NFL since kickoffs were moved to the 30-yard line in 1994.) The Ravens increased the lead to 13-0 in the third quarter when RB Ray Rice powered 7 yards for a touchdown. The Bengals came back with a fourth-quarter QB Carson Palmer-to-WR Jerome Simpson TD toss (11 yards) with 12:33 left in the game. The Bengals threatened three more times, but the Ravens' defense stepped up to stop Cincy on a fourth-and-1 at the Baltimore 26; then LB Ray Lewis recovered a Palmer fumble on the Ravens' 32; and, finally, the Bengals were stopped on fourth down at the 2-yard line with 16 seconds left in the game. Reed halted a Bengals' drive with an interception in the end zone at the end of the first half. Rice rushed 20 times for 77 yards, while Flacco completed 14 of 19 for 125 yards with 1 INT. Baltimore (25:18) won despite being dominated by the Bengals (34:42) in time of possession. WR Derrick Mason finished the season with 61 receptions, the 11th straight year he's caught at least 60 passes. Reed's 2 INTs gave him an NFL-high 8, which he tallied in only 10 games after starting the season on the PUP list (hip).

WILD CARD • RAVENS 30, CHIEFS 7

Baltimore (13-4) Kansas City (10-7)

Sunday, January 9, 2011 • 12:06 PM CT • New Arrowhead Stadium • Kansas City

Weather: 26°, Cloudy, Wind Chill 14° E 15 mph • Attendance 72,190 • Time 2:52

The Ravens beat the host Chiefs, 30-7, in the Wild Card Playoff round at New Arrowhead Stadium. Baltimore's offense set team playoff marks for total yards (390), passing yards (248) and first downs (26), while the defense turned over Kansas City five times, limiting the Chiefs to just 161 yards and 1-of-8 on third down. After taking a 3-0, first-quarter lead, the Ravens fell behind (7-3) on a 41-yard RB Jamaal Charles touchdown sprint. Baltimore took a 10-7 halftime lead when RB Ray Rice caught a 9-yard TD pass from QB Joe Flacco with 19 seconds left in the second quarter. K Billy Cundiff added 2 more FGs (29 and 29 yards), and Flacco threw a 4-yard TD toss to WR Anquan Boldin for a 23-7, third-quarter advantage. RB Willis McGahee added a 25-yard TD run in the fourth quarter for the Ravens' final TD. TE Todd Heap was spectacular, catching a career-high 10 passes (108 yards). Boldin and Rice each caught 5 passes, helping Flacco complete 25 of 34 for 265 yards, 2 TDs and a 115.4 QB rating. The Ravens became the NFL's only team to advance to the Divisional round and win a playoff game each of the last three seasons. Baltimore allowed the third-fewest total yards (161) in franchise postseason history, while the 53 net passing yards allowed set a Ravens' record (14th fewest in NFL postseason history). The Ravens' 5 take-aways also tied a team playoff record. Baltimore held the ball for 41:44 in the victory.

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF • STEELERS 31, RAVENS 24

Baltimore (13-5) Pittsburgh (13-4)

Saturday, January 15, 2011 • 4:35 PM ET • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh

Weather: 36°, Cloudy, Wind WSW 17 mph • Attendance 64,879 • Time 3:24

The Ravens had their playoff run stopped in Pittsburgh with a 31-24 loss to the division-rival Steelers. Three third-quarter turnovers proved too costly, and Baltimore couldn't convert a crucial fourth-down pass late in the fourth quarter, sealing the victory for Pittsburgh. After a RB Rashard Mendenhall 1-yard TD run on the Steelers' opening possession, the Ravens scored 21 unanswered points for a 21-7 halftime lead. RB Ray Rice opened the scoring for Baltimore with a 14-yard rushing TD, the third-longest run against Pittsburgh all year. Two plays later, Ben Roethlisberger was dropped by OLB Terrell Suggs, who had 3 sacks, and fumbled. The ball was thought to be an incomplete pass, but no whistle blew, and DE Cory Redding picked up the football and ran untouched into the end zone. The Ravens capitalized on another fumble in the second quarter, when LB Dannel Ellerbe popped Mendenhall on Pittsburgh's 16-yard line, and S Ed Reed recovered. That led to a 4-yard pass from QB Joe Flacco to TE Todd Heap for a score. The Ravens nearly took a fourth-quarter lead when CB/RS Lardarius Webb took a punt 55 yards for a TD, but it was called back by a holding penalty on WR Marcus Smith. Baltimore had to settle for a 24-yard Billy Cundiff FG to knot the score again. Pittsburgh connected for a 58-yard pass play on third-and-19 late in the fourth, which led to the game-winning TD.

HISTORY

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown. Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the NY Giants, 34-7.

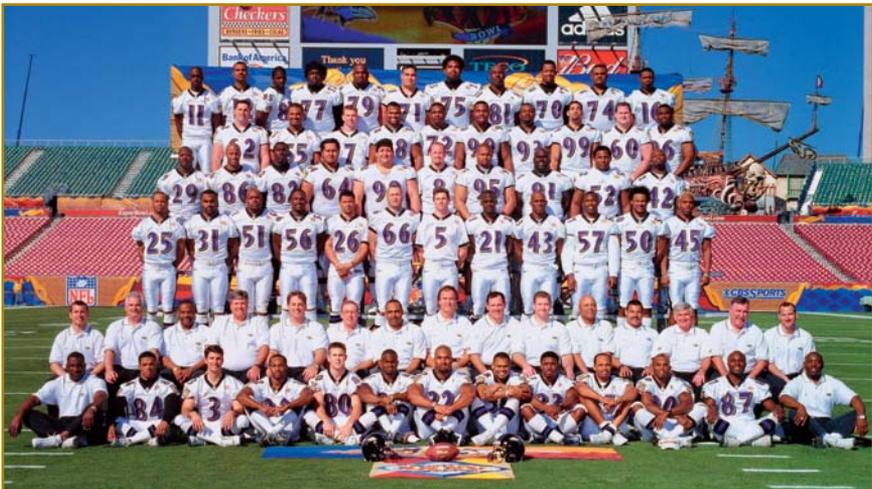

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a Super Bowl record with four INTs, and they were only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. Most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday presented phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Kevin Byrne and Francine Lubera of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season (above), published in July of 2001.

BALTIMORE FOOTBALL HISTORY

COLTS HISTORY

12/28/46 - Baltimore awarded bankrupt Miami Seahawks franchise of the All-America Football Conference. Re-named Colts via a fan contest.

12/8/49 - AAFC/NFL reached merger agreement. Colts entered the NFL for 1950 season.

12/19/50 - Colts finished 1-11 in their first NFL season with a 15-14 loss to the New York Yanks at Yankee Stadium. The Yanks later became the Baltimore Colts.

1/18/51 - Franchise withdrew from league and received $50,000 for players by the NFL.

1951-52 - No Colts team existed.

12/3/52 - Commissioner Bert Bell challenged Baltimore to sell 15,000 tickets in six weeks to re-enter NFL. The ticket drive reached its quota in four weeks, three days.

10/1/53 - Carroll Rosenbloom headed an ownership group and Baltimore was awarded the Dallas Texans' franchise.

12/28/58 - Colts defeated NYG, 23-17, at Yankee Stadium for World Championship. That game sparked the emergence of the NFL as a televised sports giant.

12/27/59 - Colts won their second straight World Championship over Giants, in Baltimore, 31-16.

1/8/63 - Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as head coach.

12/27/64 - Browns beat Colts, 27-0, in Cleveland for NFL title. Art Modell wins first title.

6/8/66 - NFL and AFL announced plans to merge in 1970. Colts, Browns and Steelers later joined AFC in NFL's realignment.

1/12/69 - Jets defeated Colts, 16-7, in Super Bowl III at Orange Bowl after Joe Namath guaranteed a New York victory.

3/3/70 - Don Shula resigned to become head coach of Miami Dolphins.

1/17/71 - Jim O'Brien kicked 32-yard FG with five seconds left as Colts won Super Bowl V vs. Dallas, 16-13, in first AFC-NFC Super Bowl.

7/26/72 - Robert Irsay traded the L.A. Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colts.

1/15/75 - Ted Marchibroda named head coach.

4/26/83 - Colts selected John Elway with No. 1 pick in NFL draft, but traded him to Denver for T Chris Hinton, QB Mark Herrmann and Denver's top pick in 1984.

12/18/83 - In the last NFL regular season game in Memorial Stadium (until 1996), the Colts beat the Oilers, 20-10. TE Pat Beach scored the last TD on 12-yard pass from QB Mike Pagel.

3/28/84 - Colts franchise relocated to Indianapolis.

RAVENS HISTORY

1995

11/6 - Cleveland Browns announced intention to move to Baltimore for 1996 season.

1996

2/9 - NFL approved franchise move.

2/15 - Ted Marchibroda was named the Ravens' first head coach 21 years and one month to the day he was hired by the Baltimore Colts in 1975.

3/29 - Baltimore's NFL franchise was officially named "Ravens" after a Baltimore Sun telephone poll received a record number of calls supporting the name.

4/1 - Ravens opened Owings Mills training facility with start of offseason program.

6/5 - The new Ravens' logo, colors and uniforms were unveiled in a fashion show at Harborplace in downtown Baltimore.

6/14 - Ravens sold over 50,000 season tickets in 14 days.

9/1 - The Ravens' first-ever regular season game was played before 64,124 fans at Memorial Stadium, the largest crowd in Baltimore professional sports history. QB Vinny Testaverde scored the first TD on a 9-yard run to propel the Ravens to a 19-14 win over the Raiders.

12/22 - The Ravens concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record following a 24-21 loss to the Houston Oilers. The Ravens were 4-4 at home, and 0-8 on the road. The team sold out all 10 home games, including the two preseason games. Baltimore held a second-half lead in 10 of its 11 final games, but won only two. QB Vinny Testaverde was voted to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 4,177 yards and 33 TDs. WRs Michael Jackson and Derrick Alexander both eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and combined for 23 TDs.

3/18 - The Ravens and Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College) entered into a five-year agreement to hold training camp at the Westminster, MD campus.

12/14 - Baltimore defeated Tennessee, 21-19, in the final game at Memorial Stadium. Of the 16 regular season games played by the Ravens at Memorial Stadium, 13 were televised and all were sold out.

12/21 - Baltimore dropped a 16-14 game at Cincinnati to finish the season 6-9-1. T Jonathan Ogden was named consensus All-Pro and voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. LB Ray Lewis led the NFL in tackles with 210 and was voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, then selected as a "needs" player by coach Bill Cowher.

2/14 - The Ravens traded for QB Jim Harbaugh (from Ind.), the first of several key offseason acquisitions, including RB Errict Rhett (2/17), FB Roosevelt Potts (2/24) and CB Rod Woodson (2/25).

9/5 - The new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards (later named PSINet Stadium) was the backdrop for an opening gala that included fireworks, a Stevie Wonder - Baltimore Symphony Orchestra concert and a spectacular laser show.

9/6 - The Ravens opened their new NFL Stadium in downtown Baltimore before a host of dignitaries, a packed house and the Steelers. The Ravens lost, 20-13.

1/19 - Brian Billick became the second head coach in Ravens history when he accepted a six-year contract from owner Art Modell. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for Minnesota, directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records, including the league's single-season scoring mark of 556 points in 1998.

1/26 - PSINet Inc., the first and largest independent commercial Internet provider, announced a 20-year partnership to develop a global network for the Ravens. Under the agreement, the new facility was named PSINet Stadium.

1/30 - Ravens executive vice president of player personnel Ozzie Newsome was selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, along with Lawrence Taylor, Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack and Billy Shaw. Newsome was the NFL's all-time leading tight end in pass receptions until Shannon Sharpe eclipsed the record in 2001.

9/12 - Brian Billick's debut as head coach was spoiled in the regular season opener, as St. Louis defeated the Ravens, 27-10, in the TransWorld Dome. QB Kurt Warner had his first NFL start.

12/26 - The Ravens recorded their first-ever shutout, a 22-0 win over Cincinnati. The victory completed a perfect December and gave the Ravens a franchise-high eight victories. Five players (LB Peter Boulware, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Rod Woodson) were named to the Pro Bowl. The Ravens' defense finished second in the NFL, and in the team's 6-3 finish, Baltimore outscored opponents, 324-277.

2/22 - The Ravens signed seven-time Pro Bowl TE Shannon Sharpe, an unrestricted free agent who had starred for 10 years with the Denver Broncos. Sharpe caught 552 passes for 6,983 yards and 44 TDs for Denver.

3/27 - NFL owners approved the sale of 49% of the Ravens to Anne Arundel County (MD) business executive Steve Bisciotti. In it, Bisciotti had an option to purchase the remaining 51% for $325 million in 2004.

SEPT. - The Ravens opened the 2000 season with a 16-0 win at Pittsburgh in their last visit to Three Rivers Stadium on 9/3. They won three of their first four games, including a dramatic 39-36 win over Jacksonville (their first win over the Jaguars) and a 37-0 shutout over Cincinnati.

OCT. - Baltimore finished October at 2-3, and did not score a TD during the month. Trent Dilfer replaced Tony Banks at QB on 10/29 vs Pittsburgh.

NOV./DEC. - Baltimore won its final seven regular season games with a combined score of 193-63. On 11/26, Earnest Byner was the first inductee to the Ravens' Ring of Honor (Ravens won 44-7 vs. Cleveland). On 12/10, Art Modell was honored in pre-game ceremonies for his 40 years of ownership. That day, the Ravens earned their first playoff berth, defeating San Diego, 24-3.

12/24 - The Ravens' defense set a 16-game record by allowing only 165 total points. Baltimore also set an NFL record by allowing only 970 yards rushing. The Ravens finished 12-4 after beating the New York Jets, 34-20, on Christmas Eve. Rookie RB Jamal Lewis rushed for a team-record 1,364 yards in 2000.

12/31 - The Ravens defeated the Denver Broncos, 21-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff Game at PSINet Stadium, the first home playoff game in Baltimore since 1977. Jamal Lewis rushed for 110 yards on 30 carries and scored twice, while the defense allowed Denver's rushing attack only 42 yards on the ground.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis won NFL Defensive MVP honors from The Associated Press.

1/7 - The Ravens scored 14 fourth quarter points to defeat Tennessee, 24-10, at Adelphia Coliseum to advance to the AFC Championship. The go-ahead TD was a 90-yard return by Anthony Mitchell off a blocked FG; then Ray Lewis scored on a 50-yard INT return to seal the win.

1/14 - The Ravens traveled to Oakland and defeated the Raiders, 16-3, in the AFC Championship game to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. TE Shannon Sharpe scored on an NFL postseason-record 96-yard pass from Trent Dilfer. The Ravens limited the Raiders to 24 rushing yards.

RAVENS HISTORY

1/28 - The Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, to capture their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXV, played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL. Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP and only Ron Dixon's 97-yard KOR for a TD averted a shutout against the Giants. A Super Bowl record was set when three TDs were scored in a span of 36 seconds, including Duane Starks' 49-yard INT return and Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard KOR.

1/30 - Over 200,000 people turned out on a cold, rainy day to attend the Baltimore Ravens' Victory Parade.

LB Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP after the Ravens' win (34-7) over the New York Giants.

JULY/AUG. - The Ravens opened training camp as defending World Champions with the entire nation watching, as HBO's Hard Knocks: Training Camp With the Baltimore Ravens debuted with the Ravens as the featured team.

9/9 - The Ravens won their 12th consecutive game and second consecutive opener with a 17-6 win over the Chicago Bears at PSINet Stadium. On 9/11, the World Trade Center collapsed and the Pentagon was hit, following terrorist attacks.

10/21 - Matt Stover broke the NFL record for most consecutive games with a FG, snapping Fred Cox's old mark of 31, when he booted two three-pointers in a 24-14 loss to the Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium. Stover's streak ended at 38 games with a missed FGA on 12/16 vs. Pittsburgh.

11/18 - TE Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching TE (surpassing Ravens executive VP and GM Ozzie Newsome's mark of 662), when Sharpe caught a 29-yard pass on the fifth play of the game vs. the Cleveland Browns. He finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards, both all-time NFL highs for a TE.

12/2 - S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his 10th career TD on an INT return, in a 39-27 win over Indy. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston (nine career INT-TDs).

12/23 - Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles had a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

1/2 - Six Ravens from the 2001 season were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, tying the team mark set in 1998. Selected were LB Ray Lewis, T Jonathan Ogden, DT Sam Adams, RS Jermaine Lewis, TE Shannon Sharpe and S Rod Woodson.

1/7 - The Ravens played a postponed regular season game against Minnesota at Ravens Stadium and defeated the Vikings, 19-3, allowing Baltimore to advance to the playoffs. The game had been scheduled for Monday, 9/17, but was re-scheduled because of the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the United States. The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's fifth seed. LB Peter Boulware set a team record with four sacks vs. the Vikings to finish as the AFC's leading sacker with 15.

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to win its first five playoff games. Only Joe Gibbs, who won his first six playoff games, surpassed Brian Billick's mark of five (tied with Tom Flores).

1/20 - After five consecutive playoff wins (including the Super Bowl run in 2000), the Ravens were stopped at Heinz Field with a 27-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set an NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

5/15 - The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a three-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD through the 2004 season.

9/8 - With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first two games at Carolina (10-7) and at home (9/15) vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black hightops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on 9/11.

9/30 - Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the first punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' second TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

10/20 - Johnny Unitas and seven of his Hall of Fame Colts teammates were enshrined into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173 fans. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly-named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nailbiter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, and the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and first-timer TE Todd Heap.

2003

JAN./FEB. - Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The Executive VP and GM promoted three members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. Former Bears Hall of Fame LB Mike Singletary launched his coaching career when he was hired by the Ravens as LBs coach. Art Modell entered his 43rd (and final) year in the NFL as a franchise owner.

5/6 - Ravens Stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium in a press conference held at the stadium. The 15-year, $75-million agreement included naming rights, as well as, jointly administered community-based programs. The then-147-year-old M&T Bank was headquartered in Buffalo, NY.

9/2 - The average age of the Ravens was only 25.8 years at roster cutdown. Baltimore had 11 first- and second-year players on the roster; seven rookies and 11 second-year veterans. The average years of experience was just four. The Ravens were the third-youngest team in the NFL

(Cleveland, 24.8 and Chicago, 25.3).

9/14 - Baltimore rolled over the Cleveland Browns, 33-13, at M&T Bank Stadium. In that home opener, RB Jamal Lewis broke a then-NFL record with 295 yards rushing on 30 carries and two TDs. In the game at Cleveland (12/21), Lewis rushed for 205 yards, setting the NFL mark for rushing yards in a season versus the same team – 500 yards.

12/18 - A team-record eight players were voted to the Pro Bowl (most in NFL, tied with the Chiefs): LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, LB Peter Boulware, T Jonathan Ogden, TE Todd Heap, RB Jamal Lewis, CB Chris McAlister and LB/Special Teamer Adalius Thomas.

12/26 - Art Modell was inducted into the Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium at the final game of the season, a 13-10 OT win over Pittsburgh. Baltimore finished 10-6, winning a first-ever AFC North Division title.

12/31 - Jamal Lewis and Ray Lewis were named The Associated Press NFL Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively, while LB Terrell Suggs was named AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

1/3 - The Ravens lost, 20-17, to the Titans in the AFC Wild Card game at M&T Bank Stadium on Gary Anderson's game-winning kick (46-yard FG), with 29 seconds remaining.

2/4 - Jim Fassel, former head coach of the NY Giants, was named senior consultant/offense for the Baltimore Ravens. It marked the first time two Super Bowl head coaches (Brian Billicke the other) were on the same team.

4/9 - The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club.

4/13 - Ravens and McDaniel College extended their partnership six years to keep training camp in Westminster through 2010. The deal includes installation of Sportex Momentum Turf on the college's main athletic field with both parties sharing costs.

10/4 - Former Ravens Pro Bowler DE Michael McCrary, who retired in 2002, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at halftime of the Ravens' Monday Night ABC contest vs. KC. The Chiefs won, 27-24.

10/15 - Ravens moved into their new 200,000-sq. ft. training facility in Owings Mills, MD during the bye week. The new state-of-the-art headquarters is home to over 200 Ravens employees.

12/22 - Five Ravens were named to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden (eighth), LB Ray Lewis (seventh), S Ed Reed (second), CB Chris McAlister (second) and LB Terrell Suggs (first).

1/2 - Finishing the 2004 season with a 9-7 record, the Ravens fell one game short of the playoffs. Baltimore produced a 6-2 mark at M&T Bank Stadium and a 3-5 record on the road. Injuries caused regular starters to miss 53 games, including the entire season for Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware. Other Pro Bowlers who missed considerable time included: TE Todd Heap (10), RB Jamal Lewis (four), LT Jonathan Ogden (four), and CB Deion Sanders (seven). C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games.

1/7 - S Ed Reed was named the 2004 NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press, becoming the second Raven in as many years to win the award. LB Ray Lewis won the award twice (2000, 2003).

1/12 - Jim Fassel and Rex Ryan (1/20) were promoted to offensive and defensive coordinators, respectively. Clarence Brooks (formerly with Miami) replaced Rex Ryan as D-line coach. Chris Foerster (former Miami offensive coordinator) was named offensive line/assistant head coach. Rick Neuheisel was named QBs coach. Fassel's son, John, was hired as an offensive assistant.

1/1 - Baltimore finished 2005 with a disappointing 6-10 record, going 6-2 at home and netting zero wins on the road. The 67 games lost to injured starters were third most in the NFL, with 10 games to Ray Lewis (thigh), six to Ed Reed (ankle) and seven to Kyle Boller (toe). Season highlights included two national games, a 48-3 win over Green Bay (12/19) and a 30-23 win against Minnesota (12/25) on Christmas night that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs. One of the victories was a 16-13 OT win over the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. T Jonathan Ogden was selected to his ninth-straight Pro Bowl appearance.

6/8 - Three-time Pro Bowler and 2003 co-MVP

QB Steve McNair joined the Ravens in a trade with Tennessee in exchange for a 2007 Baltimore draft pick. McNair would go on to start at QB for the Ravens in 2006, and he became just the third player in NFL history to throw for 30,000 career passing yards and 3,500 rushing yards. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton and Steve Young in that group.

9/10 - Baltimore shut out Tampa Bay (27-0) in the opener at Raymond James Stadium and posted a second shutout versus Pittsburgh (also 27-0) on Nov. 26.

10/16 - Head coach Brian Billick took over coordinating the offense after the Ravens lost two in a row, falling to 4-2. Baltimore won five straight games and four out of the last five contests on the season.

11/5 - Former LB Peter Boulware, who retired in 2006, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in an emotional halftime ceremony. In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell. Peter's younger brother Michael, a Seahawks' safety, spoke in personal terms to his brother in a pre-recorded message that was shown on the Smartvision video boards. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

12/24 - For the first time in Ravens history, Baltimore swept AFC North rival Pittsburgh at Heinz Field, 31-7, after posting an earlier shutout on Nov. 26, 27-0, at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens' defense dominated Pittsburgh in both games, sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger 14 times and intercepting him four.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a bye week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games – 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for season); first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in turnover margin (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks (60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed was a franchise record and second in the NFL to the Colts' 15.

In 2006, Baltimore swept the Steelers, 27-0 (M&T Bank Stadium) and 31-7 at Heinz Field, for a 58-7 point differential. LB Bart Scott posted 1.5 sacks of QB Ben Roethlisberger.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

1/17 - Head coach Brian Billick signed a new four-year contract with the Ravens. Defensive coordinator Rex Ryan signed a new two-year deal with the team.

12/18 - T Jonathan Ogden was named to his 11th-straight Pro Bowl, along with LB Ray Lewis (ninth), S Ed Reed (fourth) and RB Willis McGahee (first).

12/31 - Prompted by a dismal 5-11 season in 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and GM Ozzie Newsome held a press conference announcing the decision to relieve head coach Brian Billick and his staff of their coaching duties. Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final gun, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first – and just the third head coach in Ravens history – John Harbaugh – former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. Harbaugh's special teams ranked in the top 10 of special teams rankings every year from 2000-06, including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired by Ray Rhodes in 1997 and was then retained by Reid.

1/23 - Cam Cameron, head coach of the Dolphins in 2007, was hired to be the Ravens' new offensive coordinator by John Harbaugh.

1/28 - Rex Ryan was retained as defensive coordinator and also named the team's assistant head coach by John Harbaugh.

4/17 - QB Steve McNair retired from football after a 13-year NFL career.

6/12 - T Jonathan Ogden retired after a 12-year NFL career.

9/7 - John Harbaugh won his first game as an NFL head coach with a 17-10 victory over Cincinnati in Week 1 at M&T Bank Stadium. A pair of rookie players started the game on offense: QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice.

9/14 - The Ravens' bye week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18 consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens' Symth Jewelers Ring of Honor just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

12/28 - With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie standard.

RAVENS HISTORY

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' four INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only seven during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history. According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), it set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (four) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high nine INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

1/21 - Rex Ryan, Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2005-08 and a member of the coaching staff since 1999, was hired by the New York Jets as their head coach.

1/26 - Having served as LBs coach in 2008, Greg Mattison was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator. Also, special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg earned the title of assistant head coach.

2/8 - The Baltimore coaching staff led the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl. Five Ravens were voted into the All-Star game for the 2008 season, including ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), LB Ray Lewis (10th), FB Le'Ron McClain (first), S Ed Reed (fifth) and LB Terrell Suggs (third).

1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for earning the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' defense finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5) and third in points allowed (16.3). It was the seventh-consecutive season Baltimore's defense finished in the NFL's top six.

For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

1/10 - In the Wild Card game at New England, Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, serving the team its first home playoff defeat since 1978. Baltimore snapped New England's 11-game home playoff winning streak and halted QB Tom Brady's 23-game overall winning streak at home.

The Ravens forced QB Tom Brady into four turnovers (three INTs and a fumble), finishing the game with a +2 ratio. Baltimore scored 20 points off its four turnovers on the day.

Baltimore scored 33 points against the Patriots, the second most in Ravens playoff history (34 vs. NYG in Super Bowl XXXV). Twenty-four of the Ravens' points came in the first quarter, tying for the second-most points in the opening quarter of any playoff game in NFL history.

Ray Rice ran for a playoff franchise-record 159 yards and two TDs on 22 carries (7.2 avg.), spurring the Ravens' 234-yard rushing output (most in team playoff history).

1/16 - Baltimore fell at Indianapolis in the Divisional game, 20-3. The Ravens held the Colts to 275 net yards (including just 42 rushing), but Baltimore's four turnovers proved too costly.

1/31 - The NFL held its annual Pro Bowl in South Florida, an honor five Ravens earned: LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and RB Ray Rice (first).

1/2 - To finish the 2010 season, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2). Baltimore, Indianapolis (an NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs in each of the last three seasons (2008-10).

The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row.

RAVENS HISTORY

This was the third year in a row – the best run in team history – that the Ravens finished third in the NFL in fewest points allowed (16.9 ppg). S Ed Reed missed the first six games of the season rehabbing a hip injury, and despite that, still led the NFL with 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards.

Joe Flacco became the third starting QB since the 1970 merger to make the playoffs in his first three seasons, joining Dan Marino and Bernie Kosar. Flacco set a Ravens' season mark with his 93.6 QB rating and established career highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. RB Ray Rice posted 1,776 yards from scrimmage, third most in the NFL, while WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL annals to post 11 consecutive seasons with at least 60 catches (Jerry Rice and Tony Gonzalez).

1/9 - In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons. Harbaugh also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons.

In the victory, the Ravens set franchise playoff single-game records for the following offensive marks: total net yards (390), first downs (26) and passing yards (248). Baltimore's stingy defense allowed just 161.0 yards of total offense. The Chiefs recorded just 53 net passing yards, which set a Ravens' postseason record.

Flacco set Ravens playoff game records with 25 completions, 265 yards passing and 2 TDs (on 34 attempts), also producing a franchise postseason-record 115.4 passer rating. He earned his fourth-career playoff win and tied Dan Marino for the most combined victories (36) by a QB in his first three NFL seasons.

1/15 - After holding a 21-7 halftime lead, the Ravens fell at Pittsburgh in the Divisional Playoff, 31-24. OLB Terrell Suggs (10) became the Ravens' career postseason sacks leader with his 3-sack performance, and Baltimore's 6 total sacks on the night also set a team playoff record.

1/30 - Played in Hawaii to honor the NFL's 2010 Pro Bowlers, five Ravens earned All-Star honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh) and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth).

1/19 - Becoming the team's fifth defensive coordinator ever, Chuck Pagano was promoted from secondary coach after Greg Mattison left to coach at the University of Michigan.

2/14 - Harbaugh and the Ravens agreed to a contract extension (with terms undisclosed).

The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who has worn both 73 and 97 jerseys.

ABBREVIATION CHART

To media members: In an effort to make the Baltimore Ravens Fan and Media Guide reader friendly, to "green" the book, to lessen the total weight of the book and reduce the number of pages, we adopted some non-traditional methods. We abbreviated certain football terms and used numbers for statistics in our player bios and charts instead of spelling out numerical words, including numbers 1-9.

Note: Baltimore has played in Houston's Reliant Stadium twice (2-0), Indy's Lucas Oil Field once (0-1) and Dallas' Texas Stadium once (1-0), all games considered "outdoors" due to the open roofs. Only one of the Ravens' games at Reliant Stadium (12/13/10) came when the roof was closed, meaning the game was "indoors."

10 LARGEST RAVENS CROWDS

The Ravens played in Memorial Stadium from 1996-1997 and PSINet Stadium from 1998-2001. In 2002, the facility was known as Ravens Stadium. In 2003, the Ravens entered a partnership, and the stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium. (Capacity was increased in 2007 to 71,008 from previous listings of 70,107 and 69,084.)

RAVENS STRONG VS. NFC

Impressively, the Ravens have won nine straight games vs. the NFC at home and 15 of their last 16.

Baltimore is 16-6 in the past 22 games against the NFC, including a 3-1 mark during the 2010 campaign (win at Carolina, win vs. New Orleans, win vs. Tampa Bay and narrow loss at Atlanta).

The Ravens are 33-24-1 all time vs. the "other" conference.

Note: Tackles are not an official statistic recognized by the NFL. From 1996-2010, Ravens tackles were tallied by the coaching staff after reviewing game film. Beginning in 2011, tackles will reflect press box stats crew counts.

RUN "D" STOUT AGAIN

The 2010 season marked the fifth consecutive campaign that the Ravens' have ranked in the top five in rushing defense. Baltimore permitted the NFL's fifth-fewest ground yards per game (93.9). Since 2008 (John Harbaugh Era), the Ravens have allowed just 89.5 rush ypg.

THE REED FACTOR

The Ravens finished tied for eighth in the NFL with 19 INTs in 2010. However, after S Ed Reed returned from the Physically Unable to Perform list (hip) in Week 7 (Oct. 24), Baltimore registered 16 thefts over a 10-game span, ranking fourth most in the NFL. Despite missing six games, Reed produced an NFL-best 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards in 2010.

GAME DAY

RAVENS GAME DAY

M&T Bank Stadium – without a doubt – is where NFL excitement begins on any given Sunday. Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since winning the Super Bowl in 2000, the Ravens have presented a daunting home record for opponents, 65-23, the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.739) entering 2011.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as the crowning jewel of NFL sports facilities. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including the stunning new-in-2010 high definition RavensVision video screens. Combined with exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 71,008, this impressive structure is the home of the Ravens and draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 128 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park and the Ravens' home at Camden Yards. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds, and the Ravens.

GAME DAY

VIDEO SCREENS:

- Each RavensVision high definition screen, which were added in 2010, measures 24 feet high and 100 feet wide. Those dimensions would equal a 1,234-inch diagonal TV screen. It would take 600 37-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) boards. Nearly 2.5 million individual LEDs provide the image on the two screens, allowing the highest quality pictures in the brightest sunlight and at night events.
- The high definition views allows for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.
- Each of the two giant screens is made up of modular LED panels – 12.6 inches by 15.1 inches. These panels were then assembled into larger sections measuring 8 by 9 feet. Each section weighs 900 pounds, and there are 33 sections on each board.
- A control room that allows the high def boards to work at peak quality was designed by VPC and installed at M&T Bank Stadium by Diversified Systems, the U.S. industry leader in the construction and installation of control rooms.
- The Ravens and the Maryland Stadium Authority shared the costs of the boards.
- Added in 2010 were the more than 500 Sony flat screen, high definition televisions, which were installed throughout M&T Bank Stadium to enhance the fans' game day experience.
- Providing even more information to fans are LED boards (800 linear feet) surrounding the field.

SIGHTLINES:

- Front row seating in the lower level is six feet above the playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.
- The distinctive upper seating area includes open notches in each corner of the stadium, allowing scenic views of Baltimore.

SEATING:

- With a seating capacity of 71,008, M&T Bank Stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball ballpark to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park's size. Seating for the disabled is located on every level.
- The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.
- Each of the 128 suites at M&T Bank Stadium hold between 20-24 people and features three televisions, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal waitstaff service. Many other amenities are available to suite holders.

AMENITIES:

- Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Seven public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic.
- There are 55 concession stands in the upper, lower and club levels with delicious game day fare, including some of Baltimore's signature favorites.

M&T BANK STADIUM

- Club Level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE:

- Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.

- Fans can easily access M&T Bank Stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside of Gate B.

- Parking in stadium lots, managed by Central Parking Systems, (410) 347-9330, is limited to permit holders, but downtown parking garages are also available for game-day parking, just a short walk away.

- Tailgating fans are welcomed at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans may tailgate in all of the lots in the complex. For complete Tailgate Lot parking information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-RAVE (7283).

- In October of 2002, following the passing of legendary Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, the Ravens named the area near Gate A Unitas Plaza. A statue sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every home game.

- Unitas Plaza is a great picture-taking area for Baltimoreans and vacationers. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens' football fans who have supported the team that brought Baltimore and the State of Maryland the NFL World Championship with Super Bowl XXXV.

GAME DAY

MASCOT POE

The game-day experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer Ravens fans a festive and colorful atmosphere providing a variety of entertainment and excitement. And it wouldn't be complete without the Ravens' mischievous mascot, Poe. If you would like to book Poe to fly into your next function, please visit www.baltimore Ravens.com/mascots.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Over 230 musicians and flagline performers comprise Baltimore's Marching Ravens. John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the current Ravens' musical performers. BMR is deeply involved in charitable causes and raises funds to help support the Baltimore community. For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, visit www.baltimore Ravens.com/band.

RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' cheerleading squad has 21 members on the dance team and 39 members on the stunt team. The cheerleading squad is the only NFL team with both a dance and co-ed stunt team. Ravens cheerleaders are in our community helping raise funds for charities and foundations in the Baltimore area. Scheduling an appearance for your next event is easy: visit www.baltimore Ravens.com/cheerleaders.

LIVE RAVENS

The Ravens' live mascots, Rise and Conquer, live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and can be visited by fans. Fans also have an opportunity to see the birds appear at home games and a number of different Ravens events throughout the calendar year. For more information, visit www.baltimore Ravens.com/mascots.

M&T BANK STADIUM HISTORY

On May 6, 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced their partnership, which included a 15-year, $75 million agreement with naming rights to the Ravens' home field, M&T Bank Stadium, as well as several important community-based programs that are jointly administered.

At the announcement, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said: "We knew from the onset that we did not want a company that wasn't established and without a great track record. There were other banks that we were calling about naming rights, because that was the category we wanted to fill, but the timing was perfect [with M&T] because they were coming in to a new market [Maryland]."

M&T Bank's long history began in western New York, but the company has expanded throughout the East Coast. There are more than 700 branches in the Mid-Atlantic, including Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. The bank was founded 153 years ago and is one of the 20 largest commercial bank corporations in the nation.

The partnership is deeply rooted in the idea of community service. M&T Bank became the lead sponsor of the Ravens All Community Team, which unites the Ravens with Baltimore's business leaders to support our community in meaningful ways. This support includes fundraising, volunteerism and involvement in projects that meet some of its most pressing needs.

"M&T Bank's relationship with the Ravens goes far beyond our name on the stadium," said Mark Czarnecki, president of M&T Bank. "M&T and the Ravens have become community partners, working together to strengthen communities through a variety of initiatives. Employees from the two organizations work side-by-side as volunteers renovating homes, distributing food to the hungry and building neighborhood playgrounds. M&T Bank is proud to be the official bank of the Ravens, and we're proud to be part of the fabric of the community."

M&T Bank also sponsors Honor Rows, a program that salutes those who provide outstanding service and the nationally-renowned Baltimore's Marching Ravens. For more information about this community service, log on to www.baltimore Ravens.com.

RAVENS GAME DAY BROADCAST TEAM

Pictured from left to right is the Ravens' radio team of Gerry Sandusky, Stan White and Qadry Ismail. The trio brings a wealth of inside knowledge to Ravens games, broadcast on WBAL Radio 1090 AM and 98 Rock WIYY FM. In the preseason, Ravens games are simulcast to television on WBAL-TV and MASN and called by the radio team on WBAL Radio and 98 Rock.

Ravens games can be heard on 98 Rock WIYY (97.9 FM) and WBAL 1090 AM and on 14 regional affiliates (listed below). This network broadcasts each Ravens game and reaches from York, PA to Washington, D.C. Gerry Sandusky, WBAL-TV 11 sports director, gives the play-by-play and serves as the executive producer for the broadcast team that includes Qadry Ismail and Stan White. Ismail, a member of the Ravens' 2000 Super Bowl XXXV team, provides on-field experience and knowledgeable insight on players and situations. White, a former NFL standout for the Baltimore Colts and Detroit Lions, is regarded as one of the top NFL analysts.
