IN MEMORIAM: DAVID MODELL & CLARENCE BROOKS

David O. Modell, former president of the Ravens, passed away DOM) on Jan. 13, 2017 after battling cancer for almost two years.

Modell, 55, served as president from the team's beginning in 1996 through the Super Bowl XXXV championship in 2000 and continued in that capacity until 2004. From the selection of the team name and colors. to the move to M&T Bank Stadium in 1998, to the hiring of Brian Billick, David coordinated the efforts as team president. His fingerprints are still present on many of what have become Ravens favorites and traditions.

With the Ravens, Modell pointed to a clearly defined bottom line: "Our number one goal is to win. This oversimplification cannot be re-stated often enough. It shapes every decision and action this organization takes," Modell said. "I don't want us just to be the best football team. We aspire to be the best business organization. We want to set the standard on and off the field."

David also believed in inclusion. "We try and make everyone in the organization understand that what they do is important to our success," David said. "At the same time, anything that involves the fans, we try to include the fans in the decision. Before we built the stadium, we asked our season ticket holders what was important to them at the new facility. We asked, listened, and then made sure we gave them what they wanted."

Stated New York Giants president and CEO John K. Mara: "[David] was a devoted family man, an innovative executive and a good friend. He helped make the Baltimore Ravens one of the most respected franchises in the NFL. David had such a huge impact on the franchise. He oversaw construction of one of the best [stadiums] in the country and helped put together one of the finest front offices in the League. His imprint on the Ravens and the City of Baltimore will be felt for many years."

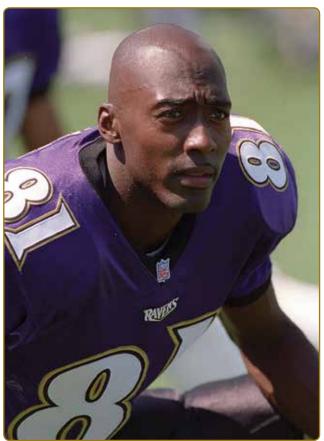

Clarence Brooks, the Ravens' longest-tenured assistant coach during the 2016 season, passed away on Sept. 17 at a hospital in Weston, Fla., following a battle with esophageal and stomach cancer. He was 65. The beloved Brooks - referred to by most as "C.B." - originally joined the organization in 2005 and served 11 seasons as defensive line coach.

In the spring of '16, while undergoing intense treatment for his illness, he transitioned into a senior defensive assistant role, but still spent as much time as he possibly could working with players and fellow coaches, including during training camp. Brooks was a 24-year NFL coaching veteran and one of six assistant coaches retained by John Harbaugh upon his 2008 Baltimore arrival.

"One of the finest coaches I have ever met, he changed the lives and influenced players and coaches for the better," Harbaugh said. "He was a great man, loving husband and devoted father. He was as tough and determined in adversity as you'll ever see and as loyal a friend as there is."

In addition to the Ravens, "C.B." coached for the Dolphins (2000-04), Browns (1999) and Bears (1993-98). Brooks also spent 17 years in the collegiate ranks holding coaching positions at Arizona (1990-92) - where he was instrumental in the notable "Desert Swarm" defense that led the nation in scoring defense in 1992 - Syracuse (1981-89) and his alma mater Massachusetts (1976-80).

IN MEMORIAM: MICHAEL JACKSON & KONRAD REULAND

Former Ravens WR Michael Jackson tragically passed away in a motorcycle accident on May 12, 2017 in his hometown of Tangipahoa, La. He was just 48 years old. Jackson played eight seasons in the NFL, and his final three were spent with the Ravens. He moved with the franchise from Cleveland in 1996.

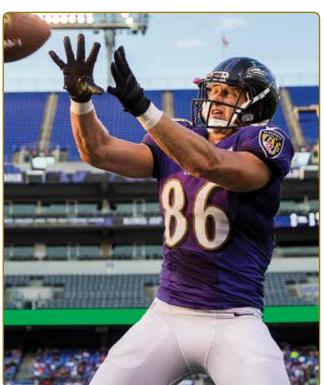

"Our hearts are saddened by the awful news involving Michael," Ravens GM Ozzie Newsome said. "He was a vibrant person who became one of the first Ravens heroes and a popular player among Baltimore fans. Well known for his big smile and welcoming nature, it was easy to feel a special connection with Michael.

"Michael was also a community leader who inspired many people, not only during his time in the NFL, but afterwards when he became the mayor of his hometown in Louisiana," Newsome added.

Jackson still holds the Ravens' record for most receiving yards in a single season after he posted 1,201 yards on 76 catches in 1996 – the franchise's first year in Baltimore. Jackson's 14 TDs were tied for the league lead that season, and he finished sixth in yardage.

Jackson, fellow WR Derrick Alexander and QB Vinny Testaverde combined to give the Ravens one of the NFL's top passing duos in 1996. Jackson and Alexander both topped 1,000 yards, an accomplishment no Ravens wide receiver tandem has accomplished since.

"One of my most rewarding achievements after retiring as a player was watching Michael develop as a wide receiver," said Newsome, who also moved with Jackson from Cleveland to Baltimore.

Former Ravens TE Konrad Reuland passed away in California on Dec. 12, 2016 at the age of 29. Reuland suffered a brain aneurism in November and fought for his life for over two weeks. Stated head coach John Harbaugh: "We love Konrad Reuland. Every single guy in the locker room loves him and knows him."

Reuland spent portions of the 2014-15 seasons on Baltimore's practice squad and active roster after playing for the Jets in 2012-13. He played in four contests with the Ravens during the 2015 campaign. For his entire career, the former Stanford standout saw action in 30 NFL games (four starts), posting 12 catches for 90 yards.

Three days after Reuland's death, baseball Hall of Famer Rod Carew received a new heart and kidney after more than a year of health issues. All he knew was that the organs came from a 29-year-old male donor who had died at UCLA Medical Center. All Reuland's family knew was that Konrad's heart and left kidney had gone to a 71-year-old man in Southern California.

Incredibly, both families soon connected the dots and realized that Carew's heart and kidney had come from Reuland. In the weeks after Konrad's passing, his family finally met Carew. When Konrad's mother, Mary, first saw Rod, she greeted him warmly with a big hug and said, "You're part of our family now."

Steve Bisciotti wants consistency. His goal is to have the Ravens in the playoff hunt every season, avoiding dips that plague some franchises.

The Ravens are one of only seven teams (Green Bay -8, New England -8, Baltimore -6, Cincinnati -6, Indianapolis -6, Pittsburgh -6 and Seattle -6) to earn at least six postseason berths in the last nine years (2008-16), with Baltimore winning at least one game in each of those playoff campaigns. Additionally, during this span, the Ravens have compiled the second-most postseason victories (10). (New England has 11.)

Baltimore has also captured playoff berths in seven of the last 11 years, and during John Harbaugh's tenure, has advanced to three AFC Championship games (2012, 2011 and 2008.)

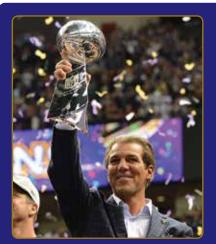

"We're proud of what we're giving to Baltimore," Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal. We want to be a consistent winner that avoids big lulls and not being in the playoffs for any length of time."

Under Bisciotti, the Ravens have joined an elite group: They are one of 12 NFL teams with multiple Super Bowl victories. Seven franchises have won one title. Nine others have earned a berth in the game and lost, while four teams have never advanced to the Super Bowl. More importantly, with the Super Bowl XLVII Championship, the Ravens (two) joined the Patriots (five) and the Giants and Steelers (two each) as the only teams that have won more than one NFL title since the turn of the century in 2000.

The passionate Bisciotti, who at 57 is the third-youngest owner in the NFL (Kansas City's Clark Hunt, 52 and Washington's Daniel Snyder, 52), bought a minority interest in the Ravens from Art Modell in 2000, completing the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship team. Today, his influence in the NFL continues to rise. He served for several years on two important ownership committees: Broadcast and Digital Media.

When Bisciotti, now in his 18th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Along with the Super Bowl XLVII victory during the 2012 season, Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first five years with Harbaugh, who is the only modern-day (since 1970) head coach to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career, and he owns the sixth-best winning percentage (.597) among active head coaches.

"We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success," Bisciotti says. "There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

QUOTH THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area who we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a nonsports company."

- Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

- Longtime Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams on Steve Bisciotti

"[Steve] is a great leader. The players love him. They love when he's around. He's an inspiration to all of our guys, to me, to this organization. He sets the tone here. It's a great organization because of his vision."

Since taking over as the Ravens' full owner, Bisciotti's teams have earned the playoffs a total of seven times, including the AFC's No. 2 seed in 2006 with a franchise-record 13-3 mark. His 2004 (9-7) and 2013 (8-8) teams missed the playoffs by just one game.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State University in 1982 with a degree in liberal arts, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (at age 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees.

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest staffing firm in the United States and the largest privately-held talent management firm in the world. The company – which is headquartered just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout North America, Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Asia Pacific – has over 15,000 internal employees and over 130,000 high-end contract workers. Allegis Group places employees in positions from engineers, to cable installers, to computer programmers, to marketing specialists.

Before purchasing the Ravens, Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level, or even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm OK if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, is quietly dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities. Most of Bisciotti's extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing and boating. He and his wife, Renee (Foote), are the parents of two sons: Jason and Jack, both of whom reside with their families in the Baltimore area.

(Bisciotti is pronounced: bih-SHAH-tee.)

PRAISE FOR BISCIOTTI

CBS Sports on Steve Bisciotti: "Steve Bisciotti doesn't make himself a huge part of the story, but the decision to hire coach John Harbaugh in 2008 has worked out pretty well. According to Forbes, the team has doubled in worth since Bisciotti became owner, but he also understands how to raise morale."

Sports Illustrated on Bisciotti: "Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of the best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field."

Business Review USA magazine ranked Bisciotti No. 10 among all U.S. professional sports franchise owners. Three other NFL owners made the Top 10: 1) Stanley Kroenke, Rams (Kroenke also owns the Denver Nuggets and Colorado Avalanche); 3) Robert Kraft, Patriots and 6) Jeffrey Lurie, Eagles. (February, 2012)

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts players if I could wear their helmets."

OZZIE NEWSOME's legacy is unlike any the game of football has produced.

Flourishing at every point of his football career, Newsome has not just followed a successful path; he has blazed the trail. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV and Super Bowl XLVII championship teams and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager in 2002.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," Ravens head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped onto the gridiron with the hope of playing college football. That dream turned into a reality when he became a standout at Alabama under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round (23rd overall) of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the history of the game. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a TE until Hall of Famer Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (Tony Gonzalez has since set every such record).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment — assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains.

"Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome and Co. tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (the fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 24 Pro Bowl honors, Ogden became the first Ravens' draft choice elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (2013), while Lewis, who retired following the 2012 campaign, is a surefire lock to be enshrined in Canton in 2018. Fittingly, the duo will join Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome has consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 21 drafts (1996-2016), Baltimore selected 21 first-rounders who have earned a total of 58 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens have had a high pick, they haven't missed. Prior to 2017, of the eight players chosen in the Top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, OLB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis, the 2003 NFL Offensive Player of the Year, and OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year) have earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore has picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis was twice named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap (31st)

"Really, Ozzie is an ambassador for the NFL, period. I think about three 'C's' when I think about Ozzie: classy, consistency and championships. That's what I think about. We're all chasing Ozzie Newsome, man. He doesn't talk about it, but go in his office, and he's got skins on the wall. He doesn't have to talk about it.

His resume says it all for him."

- New York Giants General Manager Jerry Reese

went to two Pro Bowls as a Raven; S Ed Reed (24th) was tabbed an All-Star nine times and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004; QB Joe Flacco (18th) was named Super Bowl XLVII MVP, leading the Ravens to their second World Championship in 2012; and LB C.J. Mosley (17th) became the first Ravens rookie to earn Pro Bowl honors following an exceptional 2014 season (and again in 2016).

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history, Newsome and his staff have drafted 18 players who have earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016) and Pro Bowl LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016), who signed as undrafted rookie free agents in 2002, 2012 and 2010, respectively, Baltimore has produced 21 homegrown Pro Bowlers in just 21 seasons.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Newsome has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with the scouts who work under him. The Ravens boast a methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. The "process" includes 20 full-time members of the personnel department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Most of Ozzie's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," a group that consists of members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

The Ravens do not belong to the National Football Scouting group, which provides member teams a log of reports on players eligible for the draft. Instead, they make their own list, and that means looking at every player on a collegiate roster. "We do a lot of cross-checking," says Ravens assistant general manager Eric DeCosta, a graduate of Newsome's "20/20 Club." "A number of us look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players."

Newsome, who is on the NFL's Competition Committee and the NFL Player Care Foundation Board, encourages all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that he wants to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, Ozzie believes the biggest strength of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"What sets us apart is that we have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, learning the way we do things," Newsome affirms. "And we have had some great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's not Ozzie. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven Way," Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among the scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many of its assistants move on to become or return as head coaches, both on the collegiate and NFL level: Jim Caldwell (Lions), Jack Del Rio (Jaguars/Raiders), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Hue Jackson (Raiders/Browns), Gary Kubiak (Broncos), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Chuck Pagano (Colts), Mike Pettine (Browns), Rex Ryan (Jets/Bills), Jim Schwartz (Lions), David Shaw (Stanford), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals/Titans).

"[Ravens] players believe, and that's the beauty of it," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "Ozzie brings in the right kind of players, and one thing we've always talked about is we don't want to coach effort. And that's the thing — we don't. [Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with. That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

Newsome's motivation and work ethic are also reasons many people respect him. One specific way that devotion shines through is in his everyday routine. If Ozzie's not in his office or out on the practice field, he can be found on the treadmill in the Ravens' weight room. Exercising daily (and often putting in two-a-days), Ozzie says his workouts are just another way he tracks the pulse of the team.

"By being around the coaches and players out at practice," Newsome states, "and being in that weight room around those players, I think I get a chance to build some things in my mind of how I'd like the makeup of our football team."

Also earning the Pro Bowl as a returner was WR Jermaine Lewis (1998 and 2001), a fifth-rounder in that draft, who still holds several franchise return records.

Winner of the 1990 Byron "Whizzer" White Award as the NFL's top community volunteer...Newsome, who was named to the All-NFL team of the 1980's (second team), consistently received All-AFC and All-NFL honors throughout his career... He was a 1978 No. 1 draft choice (23rd overall), along with LB Clay Matthews (12th), and the two are among an elite group of Browns to have played for three decades...The others are Gene Hickerson (1958-60, 62-73), Dick Schafrath (1959-71) and Don Cockroft (1968-80)...Until former Ravens TE Shannon Sharpe broke his records in 2001, Newsome's pro career was the most productive of any TE in NFL history...Newsome was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1999...Calvin Hill (RB - Dallas, Washington, Cleveland), a close friend of his, introduced Newsome at the induction ceremony.

"The genius of his ability to absorb all the information is second to none. I always equate it to watching him look at the draft board is like watching Russell Crowe [play Nobel Laureate in economics John Nash] in the movie 'A Beautiful Mind,' in that scene where the math just kind of comes off the board for him. That's Ozzie with all those names and statistics. Of course, he has a great eye for talent, too, but his ability to orchestrate that process, to gain that information, is unmatched."

It's an ode to the architect of the franchise's two Super Bowl teams, and an overture to the man's steady hand, sharp mind and unwavering belief in his ability to field a competitive team. Ozzie Newsome and his inner circle, including assistant general manager Eric DeCosta and contract guru Pat Moriarty, have proven to be unflappable under duress and a perfect steward for this organization from original owner Art Modell - for whom he was a Hall of Fame TE in Cleveland through current owner Steve Bisciotti."

Super Bowl-winning head coach John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in six (2008-12 and 2014) of his nine seasons in Baltimore, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second World Championship.

Though he never wants it to be about him, it's quite difficult to ignore Harbaugh's measurable success.

Here's a look, entering the 2017 campaign:

- Since his 2008 Baltimore arrival, the Ravens have posted the NFL's fourth-most total victories (95).
- The Ravens are one of only seven teams with at least six playoff berths in the past nine seasons: Green Bay (8), New England (8), Baltimore (6), Cincinnati (6), Indianapolis (6), Pittsburgh (6) and Seattle (6).
- The Ravens' 10 playoff wins since 2008 rank as the NFL's second most (New England, 11). Of those Ravens' victories, an NFL-best seven have come on the road.
- Harbaugh owns the second-most playoff victories (10, tied with George Seifert) by a head coach in his first nine seasons (since the 1970 merger). (Joe Gibbs is first with 11.)
- The 2012 Ravens won Super Bowl XLVII, 34-31, over the San Francisco 49ers in one of the most dramatic games in NFL history. Baltimore jumped to a 28-6 lead, but needed a critical goal-line stand late in the fourth quarter to help seal the victory. The Ravens overcame a furious secondhalf comeback and a 34-minute power outage at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans to clinch the franchise's second World Championship.
- Under Harbaugh's guidance, the Ravens have appeared in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012) and have won at least one playoff game during each of their six postseasons with him as head coach.
- Harbaugh has led the Ravens to 85 regular season wins since 2008, tying (Atlanta) for the NFL's sixth most.
- Harbaugh, Tom Landry (Dallas) and Tom Coughlin (Jaguars/Giants) own the most road playoff wins (7) by a head coach in NFL history.

- Harbaugh is the only head coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.
- John and his younger brother, Jim (2011, 2012 and 2013), the former 49ers' head coach, are the only NFL head coaches to reach three conference championships in the first five seasons of a coaching career.
- With Harbaugh, the Ravens have a 54-18 mark at M&T Bank Stadium over the past nine seasons, ranking as the NFL's third-best home record during that span (2008-16).

From his job interview with the Ravens, to his first press conference, to his consistent action and talk about Baltimore, it is all about "the team" for Harbaugh. Signs can be seen around the Ravens' complex:

"The Team, The Team, The Team."

"My coaching philosophy can be summed up easily," said Harbaugh, the third head coach in Ravens history, following Ted Marchibroda (1996-98) and Brian Billick (1999-2007). "The three most important things are the team, the team and the team. Everything we do is to make the team better. Individuals can let their lights shine, and we encourage that. But, nothing should detract from making the team better."

Despite his early success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome] and the scouts. It's about Dick [Cass] and the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best."

Unlike other NFL head coaches, "Harbs" took the road less traveled. Most NFL field bosses graduate from pro jobs that include the word "coordinator" after "offensive" or "defensive," or they emerge from heading big-time college programs. Before becoming the Ravens' head coach in 2008, John was the Eagles' secondary coach (2007), and prior to that, Philadelphia's special teams coordinator (1998-2006) and a 14-year collegiate coach. (Harbaugh grew up learning about the game from his father, Jack, a longtime college coach.)

In 1998, then-Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired Harbaugh, who quickly established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches. Subsequently, he was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring Harbaugh, the Ravens talked with over 40 people about the energetic coach. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. "We obviously picked the right person."

Simply put, Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he stated. "We want to become something. We seek the highest levels."

His teams are balanced, disciplined and hard-nosed. "We want to be the most physical team, but we also want to be the cleanest. Hard-hitting and playing with physicality does not mean dirty," he added.

RAVENS OWNER STEVE BISCIOTTI ON HARBAUGH

"The interesting thing about John is that he may be a little bit more sure of himself, but he hasn't replaced anything that has to do with him seeking counsel. It's one thing to be more comfortable, to be sure, be more determined and be clearer. But he doesn't not talk to Ozzie [Newsome] and me and ask us for advice. That, to me, is the mark of a great leader. You can become more confident and more accomplished and more sure of yourself, but you're still just as interested in your partners' decisions. To me, that's what says to Baltimore that John is a great leader. He never replaced that inquisitiveness with assuredness."

ADDITIONAL RAVENS NOTES DURING HARBAUGH ERA:

Impressively, the Ravens' Top 5 seasons for fewest turnovers have all occurred during Harbaugh's tenure. In 2012, Baltimore set a franchise single-season record for fewest turnovers (16), breaking the previous mark of 20 from 2010. Constantly stressing attention to detail, Harbaugh's 2010 and 2011 teams combined to produce the fewest penalties (182) over a two-year stretch in franchise history.

Maintaining a strong defensive tradition, the Ravens finished four-straight seasons (2008-11) as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) – tying an NFL record for consecutive seasons ranking in the Top 3. Additionally, Baltimore's defense is one of three teams (Den. & Sea.) to rank in the NFL's Top 10 in yards allowed in each of the past three seasons (2014-16). Harbaugh's red zone defense has also finished in the Top 5 in six of his nine seasons, including first overall in 2011 and second in 2014, 2012 and 2008. Overall, during his time in Baltimore (2008-16), Harbaugh's defense has allowed the NFL's second-fewest touchdowns (290), the second-fewest points per game (19.2) and the third-fewest net yards per game (316.9).

The Ravens' offense has also experienced record-setting successes during the Harbaugh Era. In 2016, QB Joe Flacco set a franchise single-season record by throwing for 4,317 yards. During an injury-riddled 2015 season, while starting four different QBs for the first time in franchise history, Baltimore posted the second-most total net yards in team history (89 short of 2014 record), finishing with 5,749 yards. The Ravens also set a franchise record by averaging 266.9 passing yards per game. In 2014, Flacco set a career high in touchdown passes (27) en route to Baltimore posting the most points (409) in Ravens history. Flacco, the franchise's alltime leading passer (2,915-of-4,742 for 32,639 yards and 182 touchdowns), has been especially remarkable in postseason play. The Super Bowl XLVII MVP has thrown 25 touchdowns and just 10 INTs in 15 playoff games, including 21 TDs and 3 INTs in his last eight postseason games (6-2 record).

Under Harbaugh's guidance, Flacco has produced 93 total wins, the third most among active starting quarterbacks since 2008. Flacco's receivers have also shined during the Harbaugh Era, with Baltimore witnessing five 1,000-yard receiving seasons - two by WR Derrick Mason (2008-09) and one each by WR Torrey Smith (2013), WR Steve Smith Sr. (2014) and WR Mike Wallace (2016). On the ground, the Ravens have had running backs eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark five times under Harbaugh's watch – four by RB Ray Rice (2009-12) and once by RB Justin Forsett (2014). The Ravens have averaged 115.2 rushing yards per game under Harbaugh, ranking as the NFL's 13th-best figure since 2008. "Running the football is part of our DNA in Baltimore," the coach often states.

On special teams, an impressive six Ravens have earned Pro Bowl honors while playing for Harbaugh: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), LS Morgan Cox (2015) & 2016) and P Sam Koch (2015). A byproduct of the Rayens consistently producing one of the NFL's top special teams units during Harbaugh's tenure, senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News has ranked the Ravens in the Top 5 of his annual comprehensive ratings system in five-consecutive seasons (2012-16). (This includes a No. 1 ranking in 2015.)

NFL ASSISTANT COACH: 1998-2007 (with Philadelphia) Harbaugh's special teams in Philadelphia were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, the Eagles' units finished in the Top 10 in five of those seasons in The Dallas Morning News' special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, Philly ranked No. 1, according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the

With his daughter, Alison, by his side, John celebrated the Ravens' 34-31 Super Bowl XLVII victory over the San Francisco 49ers at the Superdome in New Orleans (2/3/13), CBS Sports' Jim Nantz interviewed Harbaugh on the victory stage.

Year that season. In just four seasons (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams from 29th to first in the NFL.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the then-Top 2 punting averages (38.4 in 2005 and 37.4 in 2004) in Eagles history. Under "Harbs," 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8 punt return average in 2005.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Among John's 32 years of coaching is a two-year stint (1995-96) as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati, finishing 6-5 both seasons with the Bearcats. He coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the collegiate level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the tight ends at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried. While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, tight ends, outside linebackers, running backs and was the recruiting coordinator.

Over eight years, Harbaugh recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR average in 1995) and the secondranked returner (current Ravens defensive backs coach Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR average in 1993). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the defensive backs coach/special teams coordinator, under former Ravens offensive coordinator Cam Cameron, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the defensive backs coach/ special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

COACHING HONORS: In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue. Harbaugh's statue joins existing Cradle of Coaches statues for Earl "Red"

Blaik, Paul Brown, Carm Cozza, Paul Dietzel, Weeb Ewbank, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler. The Cradle of Coaches honors Miami graduates who have earned recognition as national collegiate or professional Coaches of the Year, who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame or the Pro Football Hall of Fame, or whose teams won national collegiate or professional/Super Bowl championships.

HARBAUGH COACHING FAMILY: Harbaugh is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His younger brother, Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was the San Francisco 49ers' head coach from 2011-14. (The University of Michigan hired Jim as its head football coach following the 2014 NFL campaign.) In a showdown that featured the first-ever NFL game between head coaches who are brothers, John's Ravens bested Jim's 49ers, 16-6, in a 2011 Thanksgiving Night (Nov. 24) primetime special. The Ravens, of course, then topped the 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII. The brothers' sister, Joani, is married to longtime, successful collegiate basketball coach Tom Crean.

COLLEGE: Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award as a defensive back for the Redhawks. He earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan.

DID YOU KNOW?

Notably, Ingrid has competed in six "Tough Mudder" races overall.

PERSONAL: Devoted to his family and his Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He's a board member for the Port Discovery Children's Museum and a contributor to numerous Baltimore-area events and charities. Also a willing volunteer, his wife, Ingrid, contributes to both the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House.

Harbaugh is an advocate of the U.S. Military. The NFL awarded him its 2013 Salute to Service Award, acknowledging exceptional efforts by those in the league who honor and support military members. (Harbaugh was also a finalist for the award in 2011.) In 2012, Army Chief of Staff General Raymond Odierno presented him with the Outstanding Civilian Service Award. Harbaugh took part in the annual NFL-USO coaches' tour of the Middle East in 2009, has visited numerous military bases in the U.S. and abroad (including a 2014 February trip to the Middle East), has purchased school supplies for children whose parents are serving in the military and has regularly sent care packages to troops overseas.

In 2008, Harbaugh also helped institute Military Appreciation Day, an annual event that takes place during Ravens training camp. Since its establishment, over 9,000 service members have enjoyed preferred seating and opportunities to meet Ravens players and coaches. Once the season begins, Harbaugh then invites wounded warriors to be his guests at every Ravens home game. In 2017, he donated $1,500 worth of New Era hats to soldiers in Afghanistan. The hats represented all four of the major professional sports leagues and several from the NCAA as well. A history buff, Harbaugh has taken the Ravens to Gettysburg, PA, during offseason team activities to learn about the Civil War.

John attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, where he and brother, Jim, were inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2016. John and Ingrid have a daughter, Alison.

Only in First Five:

 "Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He and his brother, Jim (formerly of the 49ers), are also the only coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years of a coaching career.

Harbs Historically Good:

 John Harbaugh is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of his coaching career.

Playoff Milestones:

 In 2014, John Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching. For coaches who made the playoffs in at least six of their first eight years, Harbaugh is one of three active coaches to do so (Mike McCarthy & Andy Reid).

Road Playoff Wins:

 John Harbaugh, Tom Landry (Cowboys) and Tom Caughlin (Jaguars/Giants) own the most road playoff wins (7) by a head coach in NFL history. JERRY ROSBURG, a 39-year coaching veteran, has guided an exceptional special teams group over his nine seasons (2008-16) with the Ravens. During his tenure in Baltimore, the Ravens have produced the NFL's No. 1 kickoff return average (25.2). In the past six seasons (2011-16), Baltimore has 8 total kick return TDs (4 PR & 4 KOR), ranking as the NFL's fourth most. Under Rosburg's direction, six Ravens have earned Pro Bowl honors, including K Justin Tucker and LS Morgan Cox twice each (see Quick Hit in chart at right). In the past five seasons (2012-16), the Ravens' special teams units have consistently been acknowledged as one of the league's best. In the annual special teams report from The Dallas Morning News, senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin has ranked Baltimore in the NFL's Top 5 for five-straight seasons, including first in 2015 (2016: fifth; 2015: first; 2014: fifth; 2013: fifth; 2012: second). (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as a special teams measuring stick.) No other NFL team has been in the Top 5 in each of the past five seasons.

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS: Baltimore's kickers have been exceptional under Rosburg's tutelage. Entering 2017, two-time Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker is the most accurate kicker in NFL history with an 89.8% on field goal attempts (168) of 187). Tucker, who Rosburg scouted and helped sign as a rookie free agent, owns the most FGs (168) since entering the NFL in 2012. In 2016, Tucker produced perhaps the best season ever by an NFL kicker, recording a single-season franchiserecord 141 points. His 10 FGs of 50+ yards tied (Blair Walsh, 2012) for the most such kicks in NFL single-season history. Pro Bowl P Sam Koch, who earned his first trip to Hawaii in 2015, is one of the league's most accurate and consistent punters. He set single-season franchise punting records in 2014 with a 47.4 gross average (third in NFL) and a 43.3 net average (No. 1 in NFL), also shattering career bests. Rosburg's return units have been outstanding as well, ranking third in the NFL in punt return average (11.3) in 2015 and leading the league in KOR average both in 2014 (28.3) and 2012 (27.3). Also, since 2014,

Quick Hit: Six Ravens have earned eight Pro Bowl honors under Rosburg: LS Morgan Cox (2015 & 2016), K Justin Tucker (2013 & 2016), P Sam Koch (2015), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Billy Cundiff (2010) and ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008).

the Ravens have 12 blocked kicks, ranking No. 1 in the NFL. In Baltimore's Super Bowl XLVII championship season (2012), WR/RS Jacoby Jones was spectacular, earning a Pro Bowl berth as a return specialist. Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR) and averaged an NFL-best 30.7 yards per kickoff return. Jones also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in Super Bowl history with his 108-yard KOR-TD in Super Bowl XLVII. Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007) after a strong collegiate coaching career. Also, under his leadership, Cleveland's special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best.

2008-16: (with Baltimore) Over the last nine seasons, Ravens special teams units have been outstanding under Rosburg's direction. 2016: Ravens ranked fifth in Rick Gosselin's annual special teams report, marking the fifth-straight season the Ravens have been in the Top 5, the only team to accomplish the feat...K Justin Tucker, who had perhaps the best season ever by an NFL kicker, earned his second Pro Bowl and was a unanimous All-Pro selection...He recorded a single-season

"I really believe Marty Mornhinweg is a heck of a football coach. I know he wants to run the ball. I know he wants a physical offense. I know he wants a quarterback who is playing in a certain, confident way and makes good decisions and makes big plays while he protects the football. All of the things that we all know we want are things that he believes in. We are on the same page in terms of the type of offense that we want to build. Now, we have to get there. It is one thing to have a picture and a vision of what you want. The next thing is to get there, and that is what we go to work on."

DEAN PEES, the sixth defensive coordinator in team history, is in his sixth season leading the Ravens' defense. Pees, one of eight defensive coordinators in NFL history to coach in a Super Bowl with two different teams, directs the acclaimed Baltimore unit, whose history speaks for itself. With its No. 7 overall ranking (322.1 ypg) in 2016, the Ravens are one of only three NFL teams (Denver & Seattle) to finish in the Top 10 in total defense in each of the last three seasons (2014-16). It also marked the 12th time in 14 seasons (2003-16) the Baltimore defense finished in the NFL's Top 10. Always among the league leaders in significant defensive categories, Baltimore also extended its NFL record to 21-consecutive seasons (1996-2016) of not permitting over 4.0 yards per carry (3.7 in '16). In 2016, the Ravens led the NFL with 18 INTs (tied KC & SD). Baltimore has also ranked in the Top 7 in red zone defense in 11 of the last 13 years (2004-16).

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS: Pees, who helped guide Baltimore to its second World Championship in Super Bowl XLVII, originally joined the Ravens in 2010 as linebackers coach. In 2012, his first year as coordinator, Pees' unit was depleted by injuries to key starters, including the 2011 Defensive Player of the Year, OLB Terrell Suggs, who missed the first six games, and future Hall of Fame LB Ray Lewis, who missed the final 10 regular season games. Led by Pro Bowl selections DT Haloti Ngata and another future Hall of Famer, S Ed Reed, the Super Bowl-winning defense was the NFL's second best in the red zone, surrendering a 43.4% TD mark inside the 20. Following six years in New England (2004-09), including the final four as defensive coordinator, Pees' linebackers helped the Ravens' defense finish as the third-best scoring unit (points allowed per game) in fourconsecutive years (2008-11). The four-straight years tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed. During his tenure guiding the Patriots' defense, New England was the only NFL team to finish in the Top 10 in scoring defense in four-straight seasons. New England's unit

DEAN'S DOMINANCE

Defensive coordinator Dean Pees led the Ravens' seventh-ranked defense (322.1 ypg) in 2016, marking the sixth time a defense has finished in the NFL's Top 10 with Pees at the helm (despite only nine years of D.C. experience). Dating back to 1990 (the past 27 seasons), Pees ranks first (tied, Jim Bates) in percentage of Top 10 finishes (.667) as a defensive coordinator.

"One of the things that makes Mike a great coach is his football knowledge. He can teach and also relate his point to players. He's willing to listen and willing to talk things out with coverages and the way we play certain things. He really takes his job serious, and he is always trying to find us an edge, whether it is snap count or a disguise that we want to do. Those things are able to give us an advantage going into each game."

RAVENS DRAFT WIZARDRY

Mike Mayock, NFL Media: "I think the Ravens' front office is as solid as any in the NFL. It's not just Ozzie [Newsome] who is outstanding. It's Eric DeCosta; it's Joe Hortiz. These guys are outstanding. They've stood the test of time."

Adam Schein, SiriusXM/CBS Sports: "Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, assistant general manager Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead."

Don Banks, Sl.com: "The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

Ian Rapoport, NFL.com: "The Ravens' general manager [Ozzie Newsome] has built a perennial playoff participant through the draft, and he's done so by spotlighting the kinds of players the organization is now known for – those who play like they'd do it for free. Gritty, tough and with a love of the game. Hard-nosed, nasty and with a certain violence. If you were choosing sides for a street fight, think about how many Ravens you'd want on your team."

John Clayton, ESPN: "As a player, he was known as the Wizard of Oz, a Hall of Fame tight end who was hard to stop. As a drafter, he's a master of finding the right players."

Mel Kiper, ESPN: "This team wins because it drafts well. Steve Bisciotti is a great owner because he lets his guys do their job."

Todd McShay, ESPN: "The Ravens are successful, because they ignore needs to take the best player available. There's a reason the Ravens are always picking in the bottom half of the draft. They win and are in the playoffs each year."

HARBAUGH IMMORTALIZED WITH STATUE AT ALMA MATER

In April 2014, head coach John Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue. Harbaugh's statue joins existing Cradle of Coaches statues for Earl "Red" Blaik, Paul Brown, Carm Cozza, Paul Dietzel, Weeb Ewbank, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler. The Cradle of Coaches honors Miami graduates who have earned recognition as national collegiate or professional Coaches of the Year, who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame or the Pro Football Hall of Fame, or whose teams won national collegiate or professional/Super Bowl championships.

Harbaugh was overwhelmed by the honor and by the many supporters, including Ravens GM Ozzie Newsome and team president Dick Cass, who attended the ceremony.

"I don't think you can even express what something like this means. I've been trying to figure it out," he said. "There's nothing like Miami. There's nothing like being back here. Words can't describe my gratitude for being part of this."

The cross-country visit from Jim was a surprise: "There have been a lot of proud moments, but I've never been more proud of [John] than I am today," Jim said. "I always prided myself on being the tallest Harbaugh, but that all changed today when they unveiled that statue."

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

The Ravens moved into their 200,000-square-foot training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building, which was named the Under Armour Performance Center in June of 2012, features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 90,000 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres, and the entire complex was completed in December of 2004. Almost all of the physical construction on the project was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

FACILITY EXPANSION RENDERINGS

When the 2016 season concluded, the Ravens launched a $45 million project to upgrade and expand the Under Armour Performance Center. The massive construction undertaking is slated to be fully completed by the start of the 2018 season.

In the estimated 18-month project, the Ravens are expanding the north wing of their current facility, which has housed much of the organization's business operations. The building's first floor footprint will go from 9,095 square feet to 23,000 square feet, plus a second floor will be added on the north wing. That will free up more space for the business side while also providing more room to enhance the football team's facilities, including to the players' locker room, team meeting room, position meeting rooms and cafeteria.

The Ravens have held training camp at their facility since 2011, and part of this new project included purchasing more land surrounding the UAPC. The added space will be used for parking on the property, and the team will be able to provide parking for 1,200 fans during its annual July/August training camp. While the construction project will prevent fans from viewing training camp in 2017, the team will invite fans back to training camp in 2018 after the building's full exterior construction is complete.

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

The facility includes an updated full-service kitchen/cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer wireless Internet capability.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us. Steve [Bisciotti] delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex." — Ravens General Manager & Executive Vice President Ozzie Newsome

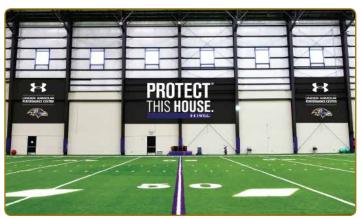

The Ravens' have a world-class weight room and conditioning and recovery center, providing players everything they need to train at peak performance.

The Ravens have three Bermuda grass fields on the grounds of their training complex at the Under Armour Performance Center in Owings Mills.

The Under Armour Performance Center houses a state-of-the-art TV studio that the team and WBAL utilize for their in-house broadcasting purposes.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field made of Shaw Sports Turf that the team uses for offseason training purposes or when the weather becomes inclement.

NOTE THE QUOTE

ST coordinator/associate head coach Jerry Rosburg on WR Chris Moore's special teams success, which in 2016 included 2 FRs and 2 TDs while on the punt coverage unit:

"We nicknamed him 'Scoop and Score Moore' early on. He's demonstrated that on three different occasions on special teams. That's quite rare. Whether you call it a coincidence or not, it keeps happening, so there has to be something to it, right? He's a very skilled athlete. He plays hard and fast, and good things happen to those who do that."

BRAINS AND BRAWN

John Urschel is an accomplished football player and also a well-rounded person off the field. In 2015, he coauthored a paper in the Journal of Computational Mathematics titled "A Cascadic Multigrid Algorithm for Computing the Fiedler Vector of Graph Laplacians" and includes "a cascadic 🛂 multigrid algorithm for fast computation of the Fiedler vector of a graph Laplacian, namely, the eigenvector corresponding to the second smallest eigenvalue." He also wrote a well-received article in The Players' Tribute called "Why I Still Play Football," in response to the sudden 2015 retirement of 49ers LB Chris Borland.

In the spring of 2016, Urschel became the NFL's only player enrolled in a Ph.D. program when he began taking classes at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (M.I.T). Urschel spent much of the 2016 and 2017 offseasons in Boston studying spectral graph theory, numerical linear algebra and machine learning. (He is expected to earn the doctorate in applied mathematics in 2019.) Additionally, in 2016, he was a research associate at his alma mater, Penn State, working in the mathematics department. In what he called one his life's greatest achievements, Urschel served as the 2016 spring commencement speaker for the Penn State University College of Science.

64 JOHN URSCHEL

URSCHEL AT M.I.T.

A doctoral candidate of applied mathematics at M.I.T., Urschel's passion for football is matched only by his incredible work and achievements in the classroom. In his own words, here is how the four-year NFL veteran explains his unique math prowess, which has drawn worldwide recognition:

"I have done research in a number of areas, including spectral graph theory, numerical PDE's, matrix algebra, computational finance, mathematical physics and others.

"My result (with L. Zikatanov) regarding the connectedness of nodal decompositions of Fiedler vectors has received a fair amount of attention. The AMS Notices wrote a profile of me that discusses this result. It is kindly referred to as the Urschel-Zikatanov Theorem.

"In addition, I currently have the fastest eigensolver for minimal Laplacian eigenvectors.

"[During the football offseason], I spend most of my time thinking about discrete Schrödinger operators, high dimensional data compression, algebraic multigrid and Voronoi diagrams."

NOTE THE QUOTE

S Eric Weddle on if the Ravens organization lived up to expectations during his first year in Baltimore:

"It was nothing but an amazing experience. I'm just trying to give everything I can for this team and organization for what they believe in me and giving me an opportunity to come here and play for this team and this organization. I have no regrets. I just want to work even harder than I did this past year to play better and to get back to the playoffs. That's why you play the game. It's a chance at the Super Bowl. It's a chance to play for each other and play for this team. It's a special place. Each guy has to get a little better. If we all get better, more wins will happen."

NOTE THE QUOTE

Bengals DT Geno Atkins on battling Yanda: "When I tell my son or daughter about football [someday], I'll tell them that he was one of the best guards I went up against in the league. He's got nastiness, he's physical, and he has finesse. He's strong, but if you try to beat him with a little finesse, he can handle that, too, because he's got good feet. He's got the whole package."

The Baltimore Sun's Childs Walker on Yanda: "Of the many traits that have marked Yanda as a great player over the years, one is his ability to shift positions without losing effectiveness. That versatility is a product of his intelligence and his underappreciated athleticism. He's also a straight-up tough dude, much like Terrell Suggs on the other side of the ball. Only the elite of the elite guards earn serious Hall of Fame consideration. Yanda belongs in that realm."

GAME 1: RAVENS 13, BILLS 7 Baltimore (1-0) · Buffalo (0-1)

In a hard-fought, season-opening battle, the Ravens stopped the Bills, 13-7. Baltimore's defense was outstanding, limiting Buffalo to just 160 total yards, including 95 in the air. Bills QB Tyrod Taylor, who spent his first four seasons as QB Joe Flacco's backup with the Ravens, was sacked twice while completing 15 of 22 for 111 yards. Buffalo converted just 3 of 13 third-down attempts. The Ravens' defensive dominance was shown in the fourth quarter when they held the Bills to three-straight three-and-outs. Starting CBs Shareece Wright and Jimmy Smith, who played on the same high school team, were spectacular. Wright produced a game- and career-high 11 tackles, including 3 behind the line of scrimmage. Smith held standout WR Sammy Watkins to 4 catches for 43 yards. DT Timmy Jernigan added two tackles for loss, while OLB Terrell Suggs earned a sack after missing the final 15 games of 2015 with a torn Achilles. WR Mike Wallace was added to the roster in the offseason to help create big plays and his 66-yard touchdown catch from Flacco proved the difference in the victory. Wallace ended the contest with 3 grabs for 91 yards. Flacco, who completed passes to 10 different Ravens, was 23-of-34 for 258 yards. He was sacked 4 times by the aggressive Bills, twice by OLB Jerry Hughes. Baltimore opened the game's scoring on a 50-yard K Justin Tucker first-quarter field goal. Wallace's TD made it 10-0 in the second quarter before the Bills completed a 12-play, second-period drive with a 1-yard RB LeSean McCoy TD run to make the score 10-7 at the half. Tucker's 37-yard FG in the final quarter completed the scoring. WR Steve Smith Sr. led all receivers with 5 catches (19 yards). TE Dennis Pitta, who last played on 9/21/14, added 3 for 39 yards, including a key 27-yard reception on the Ravens' final scoring drive. McCoy was the game's top rusher with 58 yards on 16 runs.

GAME 2: RAVENS 25, BROWNS 20 Baltimore (2-0) · Cleveland (0-2)

J. Taylor

J. Poyer

I. Campbell

In the second-biggest comeback in franchise history, the Ravens rebounded from a 20-0, first-quarter deficit to top the host Browns, 25-20. The victory followed the death of Ravens assistant coach Clarence Brooks, who passed away the previous day after a difficult battle with cancer. The team dedicated the game to the highly-respected coach. The win was not sealed until ILB C.J. Mosley intercepted a QB Josh McCown pass at the Baltimore 1-yard line with 13 seconds left in the contest. The Browns opened the game with a 9-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a McCown-to-rookie WR Corey Coleman 31yard touchdown strike. After stopping the Ravens, the Browns' offense exploded with an 85-yard TD sprint by RB Isaiah Crowell for a 14-0 lead. CB Joe Haden then intercepted QB Joe Flacco to the Ravens' 27-yard line. Four plays later, McCown found Coleman again in the end zone for an 11-yard TD. Next came one of the most significant plays of the game when DE Lawrence Guy blocked K Patrick Murray's extra point, which was scooped up by CB Tavon Young, who raced for a 2-point conversion to make the score 20-2. Baltimore's defense shut out Cleveland the remainder of the game. A Flacco-to-WR Mike Wallace 7-yard TD dart and a 52-yard K Justin Tucker field goal made the score 20-12 at the half. The Ravens opened the second half with another Flacco-to-Wallace TD, this one for 17 yards (20-19). Tucker added a pair of fourth-quarter FGs (49 and 41 yards) to give the Ravens the winning margin. Flacco completed 25 of 45 for 302 yards, including 9 for 102 yards to TE Dennis Pitta. McCown was 20-of-33 for 260, with 5 of those going to Coleman for 104. Haden picked off 2 Flacco passes, while Baltimore S Eric Weddle's INT late in the first half set up a Ravens' FG. The Ravens started at 2-0 for the fifth time in team history. In the four previous 2-0 starts, Baltimore earned playoff berths.

GAME 3: RAVENS 19, JAGUARS 17 Baltimore (3-0) · Jacksonville (0-3)

The Ravens produced 4 sacks, grabbed 2 INTs, gave the ball away 3 times, blocked a gamedeciding field goal - all in the fourth guarter - in a wild 19-17 victory over the Jaguars at EverBank Field. The game was decided when Baltimore K Justin Tucker smashed a 54-yard FG with 1:02 left in the contest, marking his fourth FG of the game. The Jaguars' final drive was stopped when ILB Zachary Orr intercepted a pass that was deflected by S Lardarius Webb with 15 seconds left in the final period. The Ravens entered the final quarter with a 16-14 lead. The chaos started when Ravens RS Devin Hester Sr. muffed a punt, and it was recovered by RB Denard Robinson at Baltimore's 26-yard line. Four plays later, Jaguar K Jason Myers hit a 49yard FG to give his team a 17-16 advantage. QB Joe Flacco was then intercepted by S Tashaun Gipson, who ran to the Ravens' 31. Not to be outdone, the Ravens' defense stepped up when rookie CB Tavon Young stole a QB Blake Bortles pass at Baltimore's 31. Two plays later, Flacco threw his second INT of the guarter, this time to LB Paul Posluszny at the Ravens' 30. Soon after (3:06 remaining), Myers' 52-yard FG attempt was blocked by DE Brent Urban, setting up the Ravens' winning FG drive. Baltimore jumped to a 7-0, first-quarter lead on a 7-yard Flacco TD sprint. Tucker made it 10-0 with a 43-yarder. Jacksonville then got on the board with a Bortles-to-WR Allen Robinson 3-vard TD strike (10-7) before Tucker a nailed 42-vard FG to close the first-half scoring, giving the Ravens a 13-7 lead. The Ravens opened the second half with another scoring drive, this one ending with a 37-yard Tucker FG for a 16-7 advantage. A second Bortles-to-Robinson TD (11 yards) made the score 16-14 after three quarters. At one point in the game, Flacco completed 21-consecutive passes, breaking the team mark of 14 he set in 2009. Flacco was 29-of-40 for 214 yards, including 8 to WR Steve Smith Sr. for 87 yards. The Ravens moved to 3-0 for the third time (2006 & 2009) in team history.

GAME 4: RAIDERS 28, RAVENS 27 Baltimore (3-1) · Oakland (3-1)

In a battle that saw each team score a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter, the Ravens lost for the first time in 2016 when the Raiders won, 28-27, at M&T Bank Stadium. Baltimore's attempt to set up a possible game-winning field goal failed after QB Joe Flacco's pass to WR Kamar Aiken at the Raiders' 32-yard line with 43 seconds left was incomplete. The Ravens took a 27-21 lead on RB Terrance West's 3-yard TD run with 3:36 remaining in the game. Oakland QB Derek Carr, who threw 4 TD passes in the contest, then directed a six-play, 66-yard TD drive that ended with a 23-yard bullet to WR Michael Crabtree in the end zone with 2:12 left. Crabtree, who caught 7 balls for 88 yards, scored 3 TDs in the hard-fought game. Carr was 25-of-35 for 199. Twenty-two penalties were called in the game, 10 for 105 yards against the Ravens, including 5 for offensive holding. The Raiders took a 14-6 first-half lead on a pair of Carr TD throws, the first to WR Seth Roberts (6 yards) and the second to Crabtree (5 yards). K Justin Tucker's 2 FGs (24 and 43 yards) provided the Ravens' points. The Ravens closed the gap to 14-12 in the third quarter with a 1-yard Flacco dive on a fourth-down play. The 2-point conversion was unsuccessful. Oakland extended the lead to 21-12 on Crabtree's second TD from Carr, this one from 13 yards. Venerable WR Steve Smith Sr. brought the Ravens right back with an impressive 52-yard catch (from Flacco) and run. The Ravens played without two starters on the offensive line (LT Ronnie Stanley and LG Alex Lewis). Smith Sr. caught 8 passes for a game-high 111 yards, while FB Kyle Juszczyk produced career highs with 6 grabs for 56 yards. Flacco completed 32 of 52 for 298 yards to nine different receivers, and West ran for a career-best 113 yards and 1 TD (21 rushes).

GAME 5: REDSKINS 16, RAVENS 10 Baltimore (3-2) · Washington (3-2)

E. Weddle

L. Webb

J. Smith

An 85-yard first-quarter punt return for a touchdown by WR Jamison Crowder proved to be the difference in Washington's 16-10 victory at M&T Bank Stadium. The Redskins won their third game in a row (3-2), while the Ravens dropped a second-consecutive home contest and now stand 3-2 after starting the season at 3-0. The Ravens fought to the end and appeared to take the lead with 39 seconds left when QB Joe Flacco hit WR Breshad Perriman for a 23yard TD. The score was overturned when a replay showed that Perriman got only one foot inbounds. The Ravens opened the game with a 9-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a Flaccoto-TE Crockett Gillmore 7-yard TD play. Crowder's return came two series later, but a failed extra point kick hit the left upright, keeping the Ravens in the lead, 7-6. A 31-yard, secondquarter field goal by K Justin Tucker gave Baltimore a 10-6 halftime advantage. Washington outscored the Ravens 10-0 in the third quarter, scoring first on a QB Kirk Cousins' 21-yard TD strike to WR Pierre Garcon and then a 27-yard Dustin Hopkins FG for the 16-10 lead. Injuries were a factor for the Ravens' offense, which had just one starter on the O-line in his original position throughout the second half. LT Ronnie Stanley (foot) missed his second-straight game. He was replaced by starting LG Alex Lewis. RT Rick Wagner (thigh) missed the second half, which moved RG Marshal Yanda to RT. Ryan Jensen became the RG. WR Steve Smith Sr., who entered the game as the Ravens' leading receiver, left in the first quarter with an ankle injury and did not return. The teams were nearly even in yards and time of possession, with Baltimore at 306 and 30:25 and Washington at 310 and 29:35. Flacco was 30-of-46 for 210 yards, completing 7 each to WR Mike Wallace (63 yards) and TE Dennis Pitta (59). RB Terrance West rushed 11 times for 95 yards. Cousins was 29-of-41 for 260, including 8 for 53 to TE Jordan Reed. ILB C.J. Mosley had the game's lone INT, but gave the ball back to the Redskins when he fumbled into the end zone attempting to dive for the TD in the third quarter.

GAME 6: GIANTS 27, RAVENS 23 Baltimore (3-3) · New York (3-3)

Sunday, October 16, 2016 • 1:02 PM ET • MetLife Stadium • East Rutherford, NJ Weather: 66°, Partly Cloudy, Wind SSW 6 mph • Attendance: 78,487 • Time: 3:22

The Giants' combination of WR Odell Beckham Jr. and QB Eli Manning proved too much for the Ravens, who lost, 27-23, at MetLife Stadium. It was Baltimore's third-consecutive loss after starting the season 3-0. Manning hit Beckham with a short pass on a fourthand-1 with 1:24 left in the game, trailing 23-20, and the spectacular wideout raced 66 yards for the winning touchdown. That was Beckham's second long TD of the day, after he caught a Manning strike for a 75-yard score in the third quarter to give New York its first lead of the game at 17-13. Beckham, who grabbed just 2 passes for 11 yards in the first half, finished with a career-best 222 yards (8 catches), the fourth most ever against the Ravens. Manning completed 32 of 46 for 403 yards. Already playing without five starters, including Pro Bowl ILB C.J.Mosley, the Ravens lost two more defensive standouts during the second half: CB Jimmy Smith (concussion) and OLB Terrell Suggs (arm). Playing its first game under new offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg. Baltimore jumped to a 10-0, first-quarter lead on a 23-yard K Justin Tucker field goal and a 1-yard RB Terrance West TD that followed a Beckham fumble at the Giants' 30-yard line. A Manning-to-WR Roger Lewis Jr. 24-yard TD throw made the score 10-7 at the half. New York opened the second half with a 15-play drive that ended with a 21-yard Josh Brown FG to tie the game at 10. Following Beckham's first TD in the third quarter, Baltimore drove to the Giants' 1, but was stopped on a fourth-down attempt. Tucker's 35-yard FG got the Ravens within 1 point, 17-16, with 9:14 remaining in the contest. A 31-yard Brown FG extended the NY lead to 20-16 at the 5:54 mark, but a West 2-yard TD run gave the Ravens a 23-20 advantage with 2:04 left in the final quarter. West finished with 87 yards on 23 carries. Flacco was 26-of-48 for 307 yards, including 4 balls to WR Mike Wallace for 97 yards. Twenty-two penalties were called, 15 for 111 yards against the Ravens and 7 for 119 yards against the Giants.

The Ravens dropped their fourth-consecutive game, losing for the second week in a row at MetLife Stadium, when they were stopped by the Jets, 24-16. (Twenty-one of the Ravens' last 23 games have been decided by eight points or fewer, including all of them thus far in 2016.) As they did the previous game when they lost, 27-23, to the Giants, Baltimore jumped to a 10-0, first-quarter lead. The initial score came when WR Chris Moore recovered a punt snap in the end zone that got away from Jets P Lachlan Edwards. A 50-yard K Justin Tucker FG followed on the Ravens' next possession. QB Geno Smith then hit WR Quincy Enunwa with a 69-yard TD, making the score 10-7 entering the second quarter. Tucker added 2 more FGs (49 and 44 yards) in that period, while RB Matt Forte caught a 13-yard TD from QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, who had replaced an injured Smith, leaving the Ravens with a 16-14 halftime edge. The third guarter proved disastrous for Baltimore when the Jets intercepted QB Joe Flacco twice, turning those into 10 points, reaching the final score margin (24-16). The first INT came from CB Buster Skrine, who returned it to the Ravens' 3-yard line which led to a 22-yard K Nick Folk FG. The second belonged to S Marcus Gilchrist, who returned it to the Ravens' 24. Eventually, Forte produced a 1-yard TD run, but only after Baltimore DT Timmy Jernigan scooped up a Forte fumble, but was subsequently stripped by WR Brandon Marshall, who recovered the ball. Before Flacco's miscues, he had thrown a team-record 176-consecutive passes without an INT. Flacco was 25-of-44 for 248 yards, including 10 for 120 to WR Mike Wallace. With only 6 yards on the ground, the Ravens set a team mark for fewest rushing yards in a game. Forte rushed 30 times for 100 yards, while the Jets' QBs combined for 13 completions on 22 attempts for 215 yards and 2 TDs. Playing without Pro Bowl OLBs Elvis Dumervil and Terrell Suggs, the Ravens did produce 5 sacks, 2 by rookie OLB Matthew Judon.

GAME 8: RAVENS 21, STEELERS 14 Baltimore (4-4) · Pittsburgh (4-4)

J. Smith

The Ravens jumped into a first-place tie with Pittsburgh in the AFC North by beating the Steelers, 21-14. The victory stopped a four-game Ravens' losing streak. Baltimore dominated the first three quarters, building a 13-0 lead that was extended to 21-0 early in the final period after a blocked punt for a touchdown. Entering the fourth, Baltimore's defense had limited the Steelers to just 69 yards and no third-down conversions (0 for 9). In the third guarter, the Ravens' defense held Pittsburgh to 3 total yards, 2 threeand-outs and an interception. Big plays by the Ravens were the difference in the end. QB Joe Flacco threw a 95-yard TD pass to former Steeler WR Mike Wallace to give the Ravens a 7-0, first-quarter lead. That was the longest play from scrimmage in the team's regular season history. RB Javorius "Buck" Allen blocked P Jordan Berry's punt early in the fourth quarter, and WR Chris Moore grabbed the ball and raced 14 yards to the end zone for the Ravens' other TD. A Flacco-to-WR Steve Smith Sr. connection then provided a 2-point conversion. K Justin Tucker kicked 49- and 42-yard field goals to complete the Ravens' scoring. After being limited to an 8-for-18 for 54 yards production through three quarters, Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger came alive in the final 15 minutes. His 23-yard TD strike to WR Antonio Brown made the score 21-7 with 8:38 remaining. "Big Ben" then added a 4-yard TD scamper with 48 seconds left to make the final margin, 21-14. Roethlisberger ended the day completing 23-of-45 for 264 yards with an interception. The Steelers managed just 36 yards rushing (18 carries) against the tough Ravens' defense. DT Timmy Jernigan intercepted Roethlisberger in the third quarter after DT Brandon Williams tipped the pass. The victory was the sixth in the last seven games for the Ravens over the Steelers, including four consecutive in Baltimore.

GAME 9: RAVENS 28, BROWNS 7 Baltimore (5-4) · Cleveland (0-10)

The Ravens produced a 22-0 second-half run, pulling away from the Browns in a 28-7 victory at M&T Bank Stadium. The win gave Baltimore sole possession of first place in the AFC North. The Ravens turned over the Browns 3 times in the final two quarters, when they limited Cleveland to just 37 yards. For the game, the Ravens' tough defense held the Browns to 144 yards of offense. The Ravens gained 396 yards while dominating time of possession (38:36 to 21:24). QB Joe Flacco threw 3 touchdown passes, completing throws to nine different receivers. Down 7-6 at the half, the Ravens used their first possession in the third quarter to secure a 13-7 lead. Flacco found TE Darren Waller in the back of the end zone for that 4-yard score. The only misstep in that half came when the Ravens reached the Browns' 15-yard line on the next series, but Flacco was intercepted in the end zone by CB Joe Haden. Baltimore started that drive after intercepting QB Josh McCown, who had replaced starting QB Cody Kessler. McCown's second pass was stolen by CB Jerraud Powers. McCown threw a second INT in the fourth guarter that was grabbed by S Eric Weddle. That started a 12-play, 90-yard drive that ended with Flacco finding WR Breshad Perriman, who made a spectacular reaching catch, for a 27-yard TD. Flacco's other TD came in the third period to WR Steve Smith Sr. (11 yards), who moved into eighth place on the all-time receiving yards list (passing Reggie Wayne). Cleveland's Ione score was Kessler's 25-yard TD strike to rookie TE Seth DeValve in the second quarter. Ravens K Justin Tucker's 2 field goals (25 and 40 yards) were the only points generated by Baltimore in the first half. Pro Bowl OLB Terrell Suggs, playing with a torn biceps, recorded his sixth sack of the season, added a pass defense and forced a fumble on McCown that was recovered by rookie OLB Matthew Judon. Since 2008, when John Harbaugh became Baltimore's head coach, the Ravens own a 16-2 advantage over the Browns.

GAME 10: COWBOYS 27, RAVENS 17 Baltimore (5-5) · Dallas (9-1)

Rookie QB Dak Prescott completed 14 of 15 passes in the second half when the Cowboys pulled away from the Ravens for a 27-17 victory after the two teams were tied 10-10 at halftime. The game was played at AT&T Stadium, where Dallas won its ninth in a row to produce the NFL's best record at 9-1. In the game, Prescott completed 27 of 36 passes for 301 yards and 3 touchdown passes, including 2 to WR Dez Bryant in the second half. The Ravens started well, taking a 7-0, firstquarter lead and forcing the Cowboys to punt on their first four possessions. At that point, Prescott was just 4-of-10 for 31 yards before going on a 23-of-26, 270-yard run the remainder of the game. After RB Terrance West gave the Ravens the 7-0 lead, the Cowboys tied the game on a 3-yard Prescott-to-WR Cole Beasley TD. A 46-yard K Justin Tucker field goal in the second quarter put Baltimore up 10-7 before K Dan Bailey's 30-yarder at the end of the half tied the game at 10. Prescott directed 10- and 13-play TD drives, both ending with Bryant TDs, to give Dallas a 24-10 advantage with 11:30 left in the contest. The Ravens rallied behind QB Joe Flacco, who brought his team within 7 points at 24-17 with a 5-yard TD throw to WR Steve Smith Sr. with 8:16 remaining. (Smith Sr. caught 8 passes for 99 yards for the day, with his third grab being the 1,000th of his career.) Dallas' rookie signal caller then directed a time-consuming, 13-play, 72-yard drive than ended with a Bailey 21-yard FG at the 1:50 mark. Bryant caught 6 balls for 80 vards for the day, while rookie RB Ezekiel Elliott rushed for 97 yards on 25 carries and added 4 catches for 30 more. For the Ravens, Flacco was 23-of-35 for 269 yards, with WR Mike Wallace grabbing 5 for 62.

GAME 11: RAVENS 19, BENGALS 14 Baltimore (6-5) · Cincinnati (3-7-1)

The Ravens dominated the first half, limiting Cincinnati to 115 yards and taking a 16-3 lead, and then held on for a 19-14 victory over the Bengals at M&T Bank Stadium. The win snapped a five-game losing streak against their division rivals and kept the Ravens in a firstplace tie with Pittsburgh in the AFC North. K Justin Tucker tied the NFL record with three 50-plus-yard field goals, all in the first half, keeping his perfect season intact (27 of 27 on FGA and 15 of 15 for PATs.) Tucker converted 52-, 57-, 54- and 36-yard FGs in the contest. The Ravens opened the game with an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that ended with a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Breshad Perriman 14-yard touchdown score. Tucker's first FG made the score 10-0 after the initial guarter. A Mike Nugent 23-yard FG made the score 10-3 in the second period before Tucker added 57- and 54-yarders to end the half. Cincinnati closed the gap to 16-9 in the third when QB Andy Dalton directed an 11-play, 86-yard TD series that ended with a 3-yard TD pass to TE Tyler Eifert. (Dalton was 7-of-9 for 94 yards on the drive, but Nugent missed the PAT.) With seven minutes left in the game, Tucker's fourth FG (36 yards) gave the Rayens a 19-9 lead before a Nugent 36-yarder with 2:50 left in the game made it 19-12. Baltimore P Sam Koch ran out the clock, taking a safety on the game's final play to make the margin 19-14. OLB Terrell Suggs was spectacular, producing 2 sacks and 2 FFs, helping limit the Bengals to just 64 rushing yards. Flacco completed 25 of 36 passes for 234 yards to nine different receivers. Rookie RB Kenneth Dixon caught 4 for 31 yards and added a game-high 49 rushing yards. Dalton was 26-of-48 for 283 yards, with six of those passes going to RB Jeremy Hill for 61 yards. Hill managed only 21 yards on 12 rushing attempts. OLB Elvis Dumervil returned to the Ravens after missing the last five games and produced the key strip sack of Dalton with just over a minute left in the game.

GAME 12: RAVENS 38, DOLPHINS 6 Baltimore (7-5) · Miami (7-5)

QB Joe Flacco completed a career-high 36 passes, including four touchdown throws, to lead the Ravens to a smothering 38-6 victory over the visiting Dolphins at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens, who have won four of their last five contests, stopped Miami's six-game winning streak. Baltimore leaped out to a 24-0 first-half lead, which continued through the third quarter. Miami's lone score came early in the final period when QB Ryan Tannehill hit WR DeVante Parker with an eight-yard TD dart. Flacco finished the contest with 36-of-47 for 381 yards, including 9 for 90 and 2 TDs to TE Dennis Pitta. Those were the first two scores for Pitta of the season. The Ravens opened the game with an 8-play, 79-yard drive that ended with a 3-yard Flacco-to-RB Terrence West TD. Baltimore was impressive again on its second possession, which finished with a 13-yard Flacco-to-Pitta TD for a 14-0, first-quarter advantage. The Ravens' second-quarter initial score, finishing a drive that covered 88 yards, ended with another Flacco-to-Pitta TD (9 yards). A 55-yard K Justin Tucker field goal made the score 24-0 at the half. On two of the first-half TD series, the Ravens converted fourth-and-1 and fourth-and-2 plays near midfield. Flacco's fourth TD pass went to WR Breshad Perriman, who turned on the jets for a 53-yard score. West added his second TD on a 9-yard run with 5:55 left in the game to make the final 38-6. The Ravens sacked Tannehill twice and intercepted him three times (S Lardarius Webb with a spectacular end zone grab, S Eric Weddle and CB Jerraud Powers). Miami totaled 277 yards, while the Ravens produced 496. Flacco completed passes to 10 different players, including 6 each to WRs Mike Wallace (59 yards) and Steve Smith Sr. (53). West (50) and RB Kenneth Dixon (56) combined for 106 rushing yards.

GAME 13: PATRIOTS 30, RAVENS 23 Baltimore (7-6) · New England (11-2)

The Ravens entered the New England game with the NFL's No. 1 defense, but the winningest quarterback in NFL history, Tom Brady, stunned the unit with 406 passing yards, leading his Patriots to a 30-23 victory at Gillette Stadium on Monday Night Football. Brady's longest throw, a 79-yard touchdown to WR Chris Hogan, extended the Pats' lead to 30-20 with 6:18 left in the game. The Patriots won their fourth-consecutive and eighth in their last nine games. The Pats' defense opened the scoring with a safety when RB Kenneth Dixon was tackled in the end zone after a punt was downed on the 1-yard line. Later in the first quarter, Patriots LB Shea McClellin blocked K Justin Tucker's field goal attempt, setting up a RB LeGarrette Blount one-yard touchdown plunge (9-0). A 6-yard Brady strike to WR Malcolm Mitchell gave the Patriots a 16-0, second-quarter lead that became 16-3 at the half after a 50-yard Tucker FG. Another Brady TD throw, this one for 19 yards to TE Martellus Bennett, gave NE a 23-3, third-quarter advantage. Two special teams' plays within 14 seconds of each other put the Ravens right back in the contest. The first came on a 53-yard P Sam Koch punt that was muffed by PR Cyrus Jones and recovered at the 3 by WR Chris Moore. Two plays later, QB Joe Flacco hit TE Darren Waller with a 3-vard TD. On the following kickoff. CB Shareece Wright recovered a WR Matthew Slater fumble at the NE 22-yard line. Flacco then found Dixon for an 8-yard TD to make the score 23-17 with 5:24 left in the third. A 38-yard Tucker FG got the Ravens within three. 23-20, with 6:35 remaining in the game. On the next series, Brady hit Hogan with the long TD throw. A 37-yard Tucker FG brought the Ravens within seven (30-23) with 2:03 on the clock, but the Patriots held the ball the remainder of the game. Brady completed 25 of 38, including 5 passes to Hogan for 129 yards. Flacco completed a career-high 37 passes on 52 attempts for 324 yards to 11 different receivers.

GAME 14: RAVENS 27, EAGLES 26 Baltimore (8-6) · Philadelphia (5-9)

The Ravens stopped what would have been a game-winning 2-point conversion with :04 seconds left in the game to halt a furious Eagles' comeback. The two teams battled on a day filled with gusty winds and sporadic rain. The win kept Baltimore alive in the fight for the AFC North crown. The Ravens took a 27-17 lead with 11:06 remaining on a RB Kenneth Dixon 16yard TD run. QB Joe Flacco hit WR Mike Wallace on a 54-yard throw to the Eagles' 11-yard line with 6:21 left in the fourth quarter. But on the next play, Philadelphia MLB Jordan Hicks intercepted Flacco and ran to the Philly 40. A K Caleb Sturgis 29-yard field goal made the score 27-20 with 2:22 remaining. After a Ravens' three-and-out, the Eagles began a 9-play, 59-yard drive that ended with a QB Carson Wentz 4-yard TD scamper. His 2-point-pass-play to WR Jordan Matthews to win the game was tipped by ILB C.J. Mosley and then knocked down by CB Jerraud Powers. Baltimore opened the game with 7-0 lead on a Flacco-to-WR Kamar Aiken 5-yard TD. The score was set up by ILB Zachary Orr's INT of Wentz at the Eagles' 36 on the first series of the contest. After an exchange of FGs (Sturgis' 45 yards and K Justin Tucker's 53-yarder), the score was 10-3 entering the second quarter. A 4-yard RB Ryan Mathews TD run and his 2-point conversion gave the Eagles an 11-10 lead. After another of exchange of Tucker (47) and Sturgis (34) FGs, Flacco's 34-yard TD strike to WR Steve Smith Sr. gave the Ravens a 20-14 halftime advantage. Sturgis started the final quarter with a 27-yarder to bring the Eagles within three (20-17). Philadelphia rushed for an impressive 169 yards against the Ravens' No. 1 rushing defense. Mathews provided 128 of those on 20 carries. Wentz finished the game with 22 completions in 42 attempts for just 170 yards. Flacco was 16-of-30 for 206 yards, and the Ravens rushed for a season-high 151 yards (6.3 avg.), with 77 of those coming from RB Terrance West, who also added 45 yards receiving (4 catches).

GAME 15: STEELERS 31, RAVENS 27 Baltimore (8-7) · Pittsburgh (10-5)

R. Cockrell

The Ravens dropped a 31-27 thriller at Heinz Field and were knocked out of the playoffs in a game fitting of the NFL's best rivalry. Early in the fourth quarter, the Ravens enjoyed a 20-10 lead after K Justin Tucker made a 23-yard FG at the 14:18 mark. But, 3 TD drives in that final stanza, engineered by Pittsburgh QB Ben Roethlisberger - amounting to 240 yards - made the difference. (It was the Steelers' sixth-straight victory and ended a four-game losing streak to the Ravens.) The winning TD came on a Roethlisberger-to-WR Antonio Brown 4-yard strike that finished with Brown making a desperate reach above the goal line after being stopped at the 1. That play left 9 seconds on the game clock, and completed a 10-play, 75-yard drive in 1:09. Baltimore had taken a 27-24 lead with 1:18 left in the contest on a spectacular 10-yard TD run by FB Kyle Juszczyk, completing an impressive 14-play, 75-yard series. On its first possession of the game, Pittsburgh took a 7-0 lead after Roethlisberger found TE Xavier Grimble with a 20-yard TD dart. A 41-yard Tucker FG made the score 7-3 after one guarter. A 38-yard Tucker FG left the Ravens trailing by one, 7-6, at the half. A nifty QB Joe Flacco 18-yard throw to WR Steve Smith Sr., plus a Flacco-to-Smith 2-pointer, gave the Ravens an early third-quarter 14-7 lead. After a K Chris Boswell FG (36 yards). Tucker added 2 more FGs for the 20-10 lead. The Steelers closed the gap to 20-17 on the first of their 3 fourth-quarter TD drives when RB Le'Veon Bell ran 7 yards for a score. On their next possession, Bell scored again, this time on a 7-yard pass from Roethlisberger, to give the Steelers a 24-20 lead. Bell finished with 137 yards, including 122 rushing. Big Ben was 24-of-33 for 279 yards, including 10 for 96 to Brown, who had just 1 catch for 7 yards in the first half. Roethlisberger threw 2 interceptions (ILBs Zachary Orr and C.J. Mosley). Flacco was 30-of-44 for 262, with TE Dennis Pitta catching 8 for 75 yards and 7 to Smith Sr. for 79. RB Kenneth Dixon led the Ravens with 57 rushing yards.

In the final game of the 2016 campaign, the Ravens had a chance to finish with a 9-7 record, but instead concluded the season with a 27-10 loss at the Bengals to produce an 8-8 mark. After Baltimore went three-and-out on the opening series, the Bengals jumped to a 7-0 lead when RB Rex Burkhead, starting for the injured Jeremy Hill and Giovanni Bernard, raced to the end zone on a 5-yard run. The Ravens brought the score to 7-3 on a 30-yard field goal by All-Pro K Justin Tucker, who connected on his 38th FG of the season. Cincinnati stormed back with another touchdown drive, with QB Andy Dalton connecting on a 1-vard pass to TE C.J. Uzomah, ending the first quarter with a 14-3 lead. Two K Randy Bullock field goals (23 and 24 yards) were the only scores of the second quarter, giving Cincinnati a 20-3 lead at halftime. The Bengals' second field goal was set up by an end zone interception by SS Shawn Williams. Ravens QB Joe Flacco had intended the pass for TE Dennis Pitta, but Williams made a touchdown-saving play. Baltimore cut the lead to 20-10 after a RB Kenneth Dixon 1-yard TD scamper midway through the fourth guarter. The Ravens' comeback fell short after a Flacco fourth-and-5 attempt fell incomplete, giving the ball back to Cincinnati with 4:44 remaining in the game. Burkhead sealed the Bengals' victory when he ran for his second touchdown of the day with 2:20 left in the contest. Burkhead's 119 rushing yards led the Bengals, while Pitta's season-high 11 catches for 91 yards brought his 2016 team-leading and single-season career-high receptions total to 86. The 86 catches are also a Ravens single-season high by a tight end. Ravens WR Steve Smith Sr. caught 3 passes for 34 yards in the final game of his illustrious NFL career.

SUPER BOWL XLVII CHAMPIONS

An emotionally-charged and thrilling six weeks kicked off the Baltimore Ravens' 2012 campaign. Despite playing their first four games in an 18-day span, the Ravens produced a 5-1 record, marking the best start ever under John Harbaugh. Highlighted by a season-opening victory on Monday Night Football against division foe Cincinnati and an exhilarating, last-second triumph over AFC rival New England, the Ravens immediately demonstrated the type of heart and resolve that would allow them to conquer anything in an NFL season.

Climbing to 9-2, Baltimore tied (2006) the best record to begin a season in franchise history. Following their bye week, the battle-tested Ravens won four-straight games — three of which occurred in hostile road clashes. Though a rash of injuries to key contributors left them shorthanded, the Ravens remained relentless and emerged victorious in hard-fought contests at Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Baltimore's grit was never more on display than in Week 12 at San Diego, when Ray Rice converted a fourth-and-29 catch — later voted "NFL Play of the Year" — to send the game into overtime and help capture the comeback win.

While able to secure the AFC North Title with a decisive victory over the New York Giants in Week 16, the Ravens closed out the regular season by dropping four of their last five games. This stretch included three-consecutive defeats – two by three points – to begin December, all against emerging playoff contenders. Many outsiders perceived the run of losses to be Baltimore's late-season demise, but the Ravens felt otherwise. As each wintry week passed, the team's resilient chemistry never faded, nor did its genuine belief that the best was yet to come.

On NFL Wild Card weekend, before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted Ray Lewis in his final home game, Baltimore pummeled the Colts, 24-9, kick-starting an incredible playoff run. Holding Indy without a touchdown, the Ravens' defense was led by Lewis, who returned to action for the first time since tearing his triceps in Week 6.

"I think we're all appreciative, grateful for the opportunity to be here and to witness this historic moment in sports," head coach John Harbaugh said after the win. "And, it wasn't just about one guy [Lewis]. Nobody understands it more than the one guy we're talking about. It was about a team. It was about a city, a fan base, a great sport, about a great career."

Fresh off an emotional victory over Indianapolis, Baltimore traveled to No. 1 seed Denver for a Divisional Playoff bout. Riding an 11-game win streak, the heavily-favored Broncos had beaten the Ravens, 34-17, in Charm City four weeks prior.

But despite its underdog status, Baltimore approached the game with the brazen attitude of a champion. It was a boldness reinforced by strength gained while facing adversity throughout the season. It was also a resiliency the team had developed and a brotherhood that leaders such as Harbaugh, Lewis, Terrell Suggs, Joe Flacco and Rice had cultivated from Day One.

LB Ray Lewis emerges from the M&T Bank Stadium tunnel for the final home intro of his career prior to the Wild Card win over Indianapolis (1/6/13).

WR Jacoby Jones secures QB Joe Flacco's deep pass, connecting for a 70-yard TD to send the Divisional Playoff at Denver (1/12/13) into overtime.

SUPER BOWL XLVII CHAMPIONS

As part of 21 unanswered points by Baltimore, WR Anguan Boldin scores a fourthquarter TD in the 28-13 AFC Championship victory at New England (1/20/13).

In what became the fourth-longest game (4:11) in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double OT, producing an electrifying victory-turned instant classic.

Facing third-and-three with 31 seconds remaining in regulation. Flacco found Jacoby Jones, who had blazed past defenders down the right sideline, to manufacture an improbable 70-yard touchdown bomb. The crowd-silencing connection cut the deficit to 1, with Justin Tucker then quickly tying the game at 35 to force overtime. Near the end of the extra period, Corey Graham intercepted Peyton Manning, ultimately setting up a 47-yard game-winning field goal by Tucker in double OT and sealing the Ravens' 38-35 win.

"Thanks for bearing witness to one of the greatest football games you're ever going to see," stated Harbaugh after the victory, which sent Baltimore to the AFC Championship for a second-straight season and third time in five years. "That football game did the game of football proud."

Next up was an AFC Title bout with the No. 2 seed Patriots, who just 12 months prior had knocked out Baltimore in the exact same setting. Though the Ravens' hearts were battered following the 2011 playoff loss, the defeat served as an influential lesson and a unifying force. It was an outcome that simultaneously marked the bitter end of a poignant journey, but also some inspiration for a determined 2012 Ravens team.

All season long, as they grinded away for a chance to finish what they had started the year before, the Ravens got what they wanted. And this time, they didn't disappoint.

The Patriots, who owned the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highestscoring offense, were shut out in the second half by a dominant Ravens' "D" that found ways to constantly frazzle Tom Brady and pummel his normally-potent attack. In defeating New England, 28-13, Baltimore clinched a berth in Super Bowl XLVII, seizing the franchise's second conference title.

"Congratulations to our players, to our coaches," Harbaugh said. "[Tonight] was about a football team playing really good football in one of the biggest moments that football has to offer, and that's what I am so proud of as a football coach."

On Feb. 3, 2013, the AFC Champion Ravens battled the NFC Champion 49ers in Super Bowl XLVII. It was the first time in NFL history that two brothers, John and Jim Harbaugh, faced each other as head coaches in a championship game.

"We've seen it all this year," Harbaugh stated before the game. "We've had injuries; we've had adversity; we've had exhilaration; we've had great moments. That's what a season is made of. The team that navigates all these things the best, in the end, will be the one true champion."

And in the end, no team navigated its voyage better than the 2012 Ravens. In what would become a timeless NFL masterpiece - one bursting with drama at every turn -Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, becoming the NFL's one true champion.

After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Ravens produced a valiant goal-line stand to clinch their second Super Bowl title. Overcoming a feverish 49ers' second-half comeback and a bizarre 34-minute power outage in the third quarter, Baltimore started fast and finished strong, all while entertaining millions of spectators around the globe.

Spurred by Flacco, who was named the game's MVP after completing 22 of 33 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns, the Ravens capped a remarkable journey – one that will forever live in football lore.

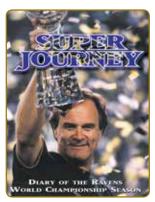

"We've got a lot of resolve. That's why we won the game," stated Harbaugh, who with the victory set an NFL record for most playoff wins (nine) in a head coach's first five seasons. "It wasn't perfect, it wasn't pretty, but it was us."

John Harbaugh hoists the Lombardi Trophy following the Ravens' thrilling 34-31 victory over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII (2/3/13).

SUPER

SUPER BOWL XXXV CHAMPIONS

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown.

Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air, and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with sevenstraight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the New York Giants, 34-7.

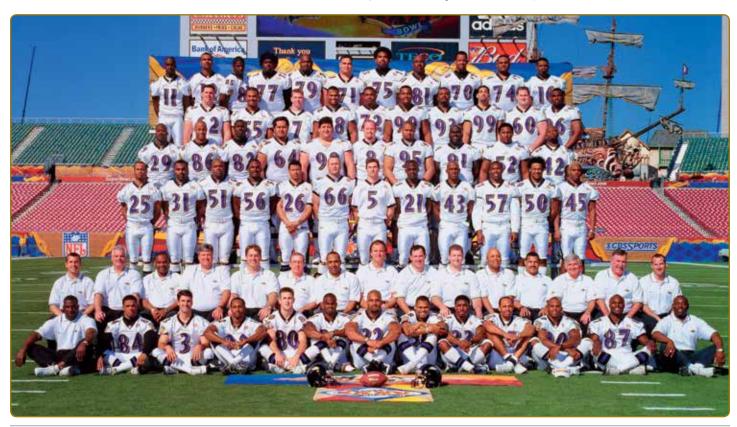

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a Super Bowl record with four INTs, and they were only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. Most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Francine Lubera and Kevin Byrne of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book "Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season" (above left), published in July of 2001.

Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final gun, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first head coach – and just the third in Ravens history – John Harbaugh – former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired by Ray Rhodes in 1997 and was then retained by Reid.

Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18-consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.
- 10/26 Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens' Symth Jewelers Ring of Honor during a win over Oakland just four months after his retirement from football.

1/3 - The Ravens concluded their 5-11 season with a 24-16 defeat at Cincinnati...Baltimore played an NFL-record 14 games decided by 8 points or fewer (tied, 1994 NYG) and posted an NFL-high (tied, Chi.) seven games decided by 3 points or fewer (4-3 record)...Baltimore had 20 players on Injured Reserve (the NFL's second most), including eight starters, with 12 starters missing a combined 71 games... Additionally, the Ravens played four different starting QBs (Joe Flacco, Matt Schaub, Jimmy Clausen & Ryan Mallett) for the first time in franchise history.

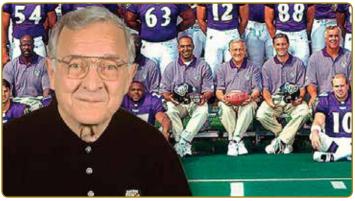

1/16 - Ted Marchibroda (below right), former head coach of the Baltimore Colts and the first head coach in Baltimore Ravens history, passed away peacefully at his home in Virginia at the age of 84...Marchibroda spent 12 seasons as an NFL head coach, including time with the Baltimore Colts (1975-79), Indianapolis Colts (1992-95) and Baltimore Ravens (1996-98)...Stated Ravens GM Ozzie Newsome: "Ted is a founding father of the Ravens. He was a tremendous competitor and a tough man with a gentle soul. In a way, he set the Ravens' path. He wanted players who owned what he called 'a football temperament.' Those are players who love all aspects of the game – the mental part, lifting weights, practice and the physicality. That eventually became what we now call 'Playing Like a Raven.' Ted taught me more about football. He was classy in every way."

3/18 - CB Tray Walker, a 2015 fourth-round draft selection, passed away following a serious motorbike accident in Southeast Florida...Walker was involved in the accident on March 17...On March 26, approximately 45 members of the Ravens organization – teammates, coaches and front office staff – joined Walker's family and friends at the 93rd Street Community Baptist Church to celebrate his life.

Said head coach John Harbaugh: "Tray was a young man with a good and kind heart. He was humble and loved everything about being part of the Ravens' team. He loved his teammates, the practice and the preparation, and that showed every day. He was coachable, did his most to improve and worked to become the best. I'll never forget that smile."

5/10 - For the first time since 2002, the Ravens returned to natural grass on the playing field of M&T Bank Stadium... Baltimore grounds crews removed the artificial Shaw Sports Turf in February and began laying sod in the stadium in early May.

"To me, [playing on grass is] Baltimore," John Harbaugh stated. "It epitomizes what Baltimore is all about, the history of football in Baltimore. A Baltimore football team should be playing on a grass field, ultimately. It's a recognition of that. I like the grass. I think it's the AFC North, it's the Baltimore Ravens – it just seems right."

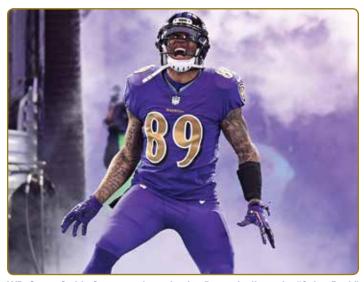

Ted Marchibroda, former head coach of the Baltimore Colts and the first head coach in Baltimore Ravens history, passed away at 84 on Jan. 16, 2016.

9/17 - At the age of 65, Clarence Brooks, the Ravens' longest-tenured assistant coach, passed away at a hospital in Weston, Fla., following a battle with esophageal and stomach cancer...The beloved Brooks - referred to by most as "C.B." - originally joined the organization in 2005 and served 11 seasons as defensive line coach...The following day (9/18), Baltimore played at Cleveland and rallied from 20 points down to beat the Browns, 25-20.

11/6 - With the Ravens' 21-14 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers, head coach John Harbaugh (81) surpassed Brian Billick (80) for the most regular season wins by a head coach in team history.

11/10 - Baltimore debuted an all-purple uniform as part of the NFL's "Color Rush" game for the Week 10 matchup against the Cleveland Browns...The Ravens won, 28-7, in a game that was played on Thursday Night Football at M&T Bank Stadium...Unlike the purple jerseys the Ravens typically wear, the Color Rush uniforms displayed gold numbers and stripes on the pants.

WR Steve Smith Sr. seen above in the Ravens' all-purple "Color Rush" uniforms for the 11/10/16 game vs. Cleveland, which the Ravens won, 28-7.

11/20 - With 93,056 fans watching at Dallas' AT&T Stadium, the Ravens played in front of the largest crowd in their franchise's history...The Cowboys emerged victorious, however, 27-17.

12/20 - For their 2016 season production, seven Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LS Morgan Cox (second, who was selected in January as a "need" player), FB Kyle Juszczyk (first), LB C.J. Mosley (second), K Justin Tucker (second), S Eric Weddle (fourth, who was added as an alternate in January), G Marshal Yanda (sixth) and C Jeremy Zuttah (first, who was added as an alternate in January)...These players represented the Ravens in Orlando on Jan. 29, 2017.

1/1 - For the 12th time in the past 14 seasons, the Ravens boasted a Top 10 defense and became one of three teams - Den. & Sea. - to finish ranked in the NFL's Top 10 in each of the past three years (2014-16)...The Ravens' defense ranked seventh overall (322.1 ypg) after the team played its final game of the season at Cincinnati (27-10 defeat) on New Year's Day.

Additionally, WR Steve Smith Sr. played in the final game of his storied 16-year NFL career, capping one of the greatest runs by a receiver in league history...Smith Sr. finished with the seventh-most receiving yards (14,731) in NFL history and with 1,031 receptions (12th in league annals).

Producing arguably the best season ever by a kicker, All-Pro K Justin Tucker connected on 38 of 39 FGAs (lone miss was a block), posting the fifth-best percentage in NFL singleseason history...In addition to making 35-straight FGs at one point (tied for the fifth-best streak ever), Tucker's 38 FGs ranked No. 1 in the league, while an NFL single-season record 24 of his 38 FGs came from 40 yards or beyond.

1/13 - David Modell, the son of Art, passed away after battling cancer for almost two years. Modell, 55, served as president of the Ravens from the team's beginning in 1996 through the Super Bowl XXXV championship in 2000 and continued in that capacity until 2004. From the selection of the team name and colors, to the move to M&T Bank Stadium in 1998, to the hiring of Brian Billick, David coordinated the efforts as team president. His fingerprints are still present on many of what have become Ravens favorites and traditions.

1/31 - The Ravens announced a three-year, approximately $120 million self-funded investment that will enhance the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium...Improvements include new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system, upgraded kitchen facilities and club level enhancements...In January, the Ravens also launched a $45 million construction project to upgrade their Owings Mills training facility (the Under Armour Performance Center).

In January of 2017, the Ravens announced a three-year, $120 million selffunded investment that will enhance the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium, including the addition of new 4K ultra-high definition video displays.

Note: The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known in-season jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who wore both 73 and 97 jerseys.

On Jan. 12, 2013, the Ravens traveled to Denver for a Divisional Round matchup in which they knocked off the AFC's top seed in a 38-35 double-overtime thriller. CB Corey Graham (above) picked off two QB Peyton Manning passes, one of which he returned 39 yards for a touchdown.

In the Wild Card round at New England (1/10/10), RB Ray Rice ran 83 yards for a touchdown on the opening play from scrimmage, producing the second-longest rush in NFL postseason history. Rice finished with a Ravens' postseason record 159 rushing yards, adding 2 TDs, en route to a 33-14 victory.

↑ &T Bank Stadium – without a doubt – is where NFL VI excitement begins any given Sunday. And that's because Baltimore Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since earning their first Super Bowl title in 2000, the Ravens have posted an impressive home record of 100-36, the NFL's second-best winning percentage (.735) entering 2017.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as a premier NFL sports facility. Fans - proud of their Baltimore heritage - enjoy the latest technology, including stunning 4K ultra-high definition displays on the RavensVision video boards, a high-density Wi-Fi network and state-of-the-art concourse designs. Combined with these exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 71,008, this impressive structure draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 130 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park at Camden Yards and the Ravens' home. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds and the Ravens.

M&T BANK STADIUM ENHANCEMENTS

The Baltimore Ravens are in the midst of a three-year, approximately $120 million self-funded investment that will enhance the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium. Demonstrating a continued commitment to create an exceptional gameday atmosphere, the improvements include new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system and upgraded kitchen facilities.

"Not only will these improvements keep the stadium fresh, but they will enrich our gameday experience by delivering added convenience, entertainment and excitement," Ravens president Dick Cass stated. "We constantly strive to create a 'wow' factor for our fans."

The stadium, which originally cost $220 million to build, opened in 1998. Since then, the Ravens have spent approximately $100 million on past enhancements, including a $45 million investment from 2013-15 to install Wi-Fi capabilities, advanced LED video displays, redesigned concession stands and upgraded concourses.

PHASE ONE

Construction on the first phase of improvements, which are estimated to cost $32 million, is being fully funded by the Ravens. The following enhancements will be completed by the start of the 2017 NFL season:

Video Displays (see rendering below): Two dramatic, 4K ultra-high definition video displays, which double the width of the stadium's previous standard HD boards, are positioned behind each end zone below the upper level. These new boards, measuring approximately 200 feet wide and 36 feet high, equal the highest resolution and clearest picture of any stadium video display in the United States.

To fully enhance the in-stadium video production, the Ravens have also expanded the audio/video control room and installed 4K cameras, lenses and control equipment. The Ravens have invested in 11 manned cameras and additional robotic cameras, which provide fans with more angles of live action, statistics and replays than ever before.

Another improvement is the addition of new LED ribbon displays, which were installed around the seating bowl's suite level. In total, the Ravens installed more than 28,000 square feet of video displays.

PHASES TWO AND THREE

Construction on the second and third phases will begin following the 2017 and 2018 NFL seasons, respectively. These improvements will include the following enhancements:

Escalators and Elevators: Escalators and elevators to the 500 level will be installed to improve crowd flow and ensure convenience for fans accessing seats in the upper level.

"Corner Notch" Suites & Video Boards (see rendering above): New suites will be built into each open notch of the stadium's upper bowl. Large 4K ultra-high definition video boards, measuring approximately 33 feet wide and 44 feet high, will also be installed atop each of the four suites, providing fans with additional in-game content, NFL highlights/scores, statistics and fantasy information.

Club Level: All concession stands, restrooms and bar/ lounge areas on the stadium's club level will receive upgrades. These developments will enhance the area's general design/comfort, audio/video capabilities, quality of service and food options.

Improved Kitchen Facilities: The stadium will undergo kitchen renovations and have an additional kitchen built. improving the quality of food and providing more options at concession stands throughout the entire venue.

Sound System: A new sound system in the seating bowl will be installed.

VIDEO SCREENS & WI-FI

- In 2017, the Baltimore Ravens made an investment to create a more immersive gameday experience for the fans at M&T Bank Stadium. Designed and created by Prismview, a Samsung Electronics Company, the updated and enhanced RavensVision high definition 4K video screens each measure 36 feet high and 201 feet wide. Each display is the equivalent of a 2,448-inch flat panel television. It would take over 1,000 40-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) displays. Each display has extreme contrast face plastics combined with over 6 million individual LED pixels providing brilliant images in bright sunlight and during night events.
- The high definition resolution allows for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.
- The two giant screens are made up of modular LED panels - 13 inches wide by 6.5 inches tall. Each of these premium LED modules contain 512 pixels, spaced only 10mm - 0.39" apart. Due to the massive size of these displays, these panels were assembled from 50 sections. Each display weighs in at an amazing 76,500 pounds.
- In cooperation with WJHW, VPC and the Baltimore Ravens production team, BeckTV, a leader in broadcast design and installation, created a leading-edge production facility for M&T Bank Stadium. The brand-new control room includes state of the art systems for 4K/HD replay, graphics and cameras to help produce world class programming. In addition to 11 manned cameras, the Ravens have 15 robotic cameras contributing to the gameday production.

- The addition of four new LED ribbon boards on the Club Level and Suite Level fascias around M&T Bank Stadium further elevate the in-stadium atmosphere. These dynamic displays measure a combined 2,373 feet with almost three times the pixel resolution over the previous ribbon boards, providing amazing clarity throughout the stadium. This improvement adds excitement and aims to increase fan engagement.
- With over 28,000 square feet of total display area, the new Ravens Vison displays, corner displays and LED ribbons combine over 20 million pixels to create one of the most captivating experiences in the NFL. Capable of fully animated graphics and static images, these displays dazzle viewers and complement the on-field excitement.
- Two high definition video boards measuring 8 feet high and 30 feet wide were installed at the concourse entrances of Gates A and D in 2013. (Approximately 60 percent of fans enter Gate A for all stadium events.)
- During the 2015 offseason, the Ravens invested in a $5 million project to install Wi-Fi access for fans at M&T Bank Stadium. Installation of this Wi-Fi system provides fans the ability to access their social media channels, check fantasy scores, post photos and videos, and follow game information.
- Additionally, in 2015, the Ravens installed the capability to show 360-degree replays with a newly-implemented and upgraded Intel freeD system. By using 38 cameras placed around the stadium, fans can view angles of action previously impossible to see. The Ravens were the first NFL franchise capable of providing 360-degree shots, and the technology won a Sports Emmy Award for best in Technical Achievement from Super Bowl 50.

- Front row seating in the lower level is 6 feet above the grass playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.
- The distinct upper seating area includes open "notches" in each stadium corner, allowing spectacular views of downtown Baltimore.

SEATING

- With a seating capacity of 71,008, the stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball park to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park at Camden Yards' size. Seating for the disabled is located on every level.
- The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.
- Each of the 130 suites at M&T Bank Stadium are between 20-24 ticketed suites. Each features upscale lounge furniture, a private kitchen, high-definition TVs, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal catering. Many other exclusive amenities and events are also available to suite owners.

AMENITIES/DESIGN

- As part of a two-year, $35 million investment that began in 2013, the Ravens enhanced the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium with improvements to video boards, concession stands and all concourses.
- All 16 lower concourse concession stands were upgraded, with these enhancements improving the speed of service, and also the freshness and quality of food, much of which is prepared directly in front of fans.
- Additional concession stand improvements included digital menu boards and full upgrades to all condiment counters. Renovations to the 24 upper concourse concession stands were completed prior to the 2014 NFL season.
- Additionally, in 2013 and 2014, all concourses were redesigned with a "Ravenized" theme, influenced by the brick and steel look of M&T Bank Stadium's exterior and buildings on the Camden Yards complex. These features include support columns wrapped in brick, purple accent lighting and enhanced directional signage throughout each of the venue's concourses.
- Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Seven public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to Club Level) assist the fan traffic.
- There are 44 concession stands, including 601 total points of sale, in the upper, lower and club levels with gameday fare, including Baltimore's signature favorites, such as crab cakes.
- · Club Level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE

- Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.
- Fans can easily access the stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside Gate B and the subway system has stops within walking distance of the stadium.
- Parking in stadium lots, managed by SP+, (410) 347-9330, is limited to permit holders, but downtown garages are also available for gameday parking, just a short walk away. Parking in offsite lots can be reserved in advance with Parking Panda at baltimoreravens.com/parking.
- For a safe and convenient ride, take advantage of the Uber Pickup Zone located at the Oriole Park Home Plate Plaza. When ready to request a ride, exit the stadium via Gate A and head up Ravens Walk towards Oriole Park and the Uber Pickup Zone at Home Plate Plaza, adjacent to Lot A.
- Tailgating is welcomed in select lots at M&T Bank Stadium. For complete Tailgate Lot information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-7283.

 In October 2002, after the passing of iconic QB Johnny Unitas, the Ravens erected a statue (left) of the Colts' legend outside Gate A. The piece was sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail. who was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every game.

• In 2014, the Ravens unveiled in this plaza area a second statue (left) - one of former LB Ray Lewis, another Baltimore icon and perhaps the greatest defender in NFL history. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens football fans who have supported the team that has brought Baltimore and Maryland two Super Bowl Championships (2000 and 2012).

In May of 2016, the Ravens switched from artificial turf to natural grass at M&T Bank Stadium for the start of the 2016 season. As team president Dick Cass stated, "The players really wanted to play on grass, and that was a key consideration." Baltimore had natural grass in the stadium when it first opened in 1998, but then the Ravens changed to an artificial turf from Sportexe Momentum Turf for the 2003 season, and then replaced that with a newer Shaw Momentum 51 turf prior to the start of 2010. The Ravens now play on this new strain of grass, developed on a sod farm in North Carolina, that is a mixture of Bermuda and some rye. Officials believe it is more robust than what was previously played on in the stadium. The Ravens also use special artificial lights/lamps to keep grass growing where the field is shaded, particularly during the winter months.

On May 21, 2014, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of communityfocused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore.

The partnership, which began as a 15-year agreement in 2003 and was extended through 2027, has proven to reach far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives.

"M&T Bank's partnership with the Ravens isn't about a name on a building - it's about combining the strengths of our two teams to build a better, stronger Baltimore," said the late M&T Bank president and COO Mark Czarnecki.

Founded in 1856, M&T Bank Corp. is one of the 20 largest U.S. commercial bank holding companies, with more than 650 branch offices, 1,500 ATMs and 15,000 employees in New York, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Washington, D.C., Virginia, West Virginia, New Jersey, Florida, Delaware and Toronto, Canada.

"Our partnership with M&T is based on shared values and has produced impact on both companies and this community," said Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti. "This agreement is a natural extension of our strong relationship and mutual commitment to pursuing excellence and strengthening this region. We look forward to continuing to work with M&T and helping those in need."

A component of the partnership was the initiative to establish a Judith P. Hoyer Early Child Care and Family Education Center (Judy Center), which provides comprehensive services to increase school readiness for at-risk children under age five and their families. The Judy Center is located at Arundel Elementary/Middle School in the Cherry Hill section of Baltimore City and is being organized through the Baltimore Community Foundation (BCF). The Ravens and M&T provided a total of $600,000 in funding for the project.

Other community initiatives include the following:

M&T Bank Honor Rows:

Since 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens have honored over 11,000 young people from a range of organizations, including Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Greater Chesapeake, recognizing their outstanding volunteer work. For each Ravens home game, 100 young people receive tickets, Honor Rows t-shirts, a pre-game on-field visit and official in-game recognition on the RavensVision HD video screens.

M&T Bank Touchdown for Teachers:

The Touchdown for Teachers program recognizes local teachers for outstanding service to their schools and communities. Five finalists are chosen annually based on their involvement in the school or community, degree of positive impact and their demonstrated commitment to education. The 2017 grand prize was awarded to Antonio Mason, who is the third-grade English Language Arts (ELA) teacher at Hazelwood Elementary/Middle and is a three-time Teacher of the Year nominee for Baltimore City. The five nominated educators each received a personalized Ravens jersey and an award plaque. Mason was presented with a check for $2,000 in grant funds by QB Joe Flacco (right). while the runners-up were awarded $500 in grant funds.

Ravens Foundation Partner:

Since the inception of the partnership in 2003, more than $1 million has been allocated from M&T to the Ravens Foundation, Inc. to support a range of community initiatives. Each year, M&T Bank employees volunteer to help at Ravens community events, including food drives, Habitat for Humanity builds, back-to-school supply distributions and Earth Day clean-ups.

Partnership Facts:

On gameday, M&T Bank is featured on an array of interior and exterior stadium signage and branding, seen by 71,008 fans and millions more on TV. As the Ravens' official bank, M&T Bank provides banking services through nine ATMs located throughout the stadium and an M&T booth on RavensWalk. The partnership is based on shared values and reaches far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives combining the strengths of the two organizations to build a better, stronger Baltimore.

In 2013, the Ravens, in partnership with the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), earned a LEED-certified Gold designation for M&T Bank Stadium from the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC).

LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) strives to deliver energy- and water-efficient, healthy, environmentally-friendly, cost-savings buildings, homes and communities.

M&T Bank Stadium is the first existing outdoor professional sports facility in the United States – including all NFL and Major League Baseball stadiums – to receive USGBC's Gold rating. A LEED certification is recognized across the globe as the premier mark of achievement in green building.

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

"In conjunction with and support from the Maryland Stadium Authority, the Ravens wanted to step forward as a leader in the stadium industry by pushing the envelope with efficiency and sustainability. Our staff, headed by Roy Sommerhof, used creative strategies that produced significant energy and maintenance efficiencies and cost savings."

- Baltimore Ravens President Dick Cass

"Achieving LEED status does more than showcase our commitment to the environment. This standard of excellence enhances the value of our stadium. For many sports and entertainment entities, sustainability is a key factor in selecting venues. This designation improves our chances to attract these events."
